

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CHRONOLOGY.

The ordinary calendar, or vulgar era, is not generally used by Free Masons in dating their official documents. They have one peculiar to themselves, differing according to their various rites. The Masons in all parts of the world working in the York and French rites add 4,000 years to the Christian era, calling it Anno Lucis—Year of Light; abbreviated A. L.; thus the year 1909 would be A. L. 5909. (This fact has a symbolic reference, not because they believe Freemasonry is, but that its principles and light of the institution are, coeval with the creation.)

Masons practicing in the Ancient and Accepted rite use the Jewish Calendar, which adds 3760 to the vulgar era, styled Anno Mundi—A. M.—year of the world. Or they sometimes use the Hebrew year, which begins on the 17th of September, or 1st of Tisri, using the initials A. H.—Anno Hebraico—Hebrew year.

Royal Arch Masons date from the building of the Second Temple—530 B. C. Their style is therefore Anno Inventionis—A. Inv.—in the year of the Discovery.

Royal and Select Masters should date from the completion of Solomon's Temple, which would add 1,000 to the Christian era. Their style is Anno Depositionis—A. Dep.—in the year of the Deposit.

Knights Templar date from the organization of the Order—1118. Their style is therefore Anno Ordinis—A. O.—in the year of the Order.

Those of the rite of Mizraim add four years to the usual computation of the age of the world; thus the year 1909 would stand A. L. 5913.

Masons of the York rite begin the year on the first of January; but in the French rite it commences on the first of March.

--	--

The Grand Representatives in attendance were presented by Companion James Bestor Merritt, received with the Grand Honors by three-times-three, accorded a hearty welcome by the Grand High Priest and invited to seats in the East.

The survivors of those present at the memorable convocation held in Masonic Temple on the morning of the great disaster, April 18, 1906, were assembled at the Altar and Given the Public Grand Honors.

Companion William Dennison Stephens responded to the salutation, expressing the gratification of each and every one of the Companions in being able to attend this third anniversary of the meeting held on the morning of that fearful visitation of earthquake and fire, the remembrance of which would live with them through all their lives.

The Grand High Priest then read the following address:

COMPANIONS OF THE GRAND CHAPTER: By the Grace of the Supreme Grand High Priest, whose jurisdiction extends to the ends of the universe, and in the name of all Companions, Royal Arch Masons, of the State of California, we bid you welcome, aye, thrice welcome to this our Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation, and join with you in all the duties and pleasures of our meeting.

Here, on the common level of companionship, we grasp the hand and speak the word that brings us closer, and firmer binds the bonds of friendship. God grant us His grace that the bonds may at this coming together be more strongly, more surely and beautifully cemented, giving strength of purpose, clearness of vision, and courage of conviction.

May we have the power to raise above ourselves, giving and receiving strength and inspiration from the meeting and greeting, and thus being better prepared to undertake with wisdom, truth and justice the work before us, giving to our labors a purity of thought and a beauty of action which shall animate and govern our proceeding to the glory of God and the betterment of ourselves, becoming strengthened and fortified for all that may come.

Companions and Representatives of our Sister Jurisdictions: In the name of the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, of the State of California we give you greeting and bid you welcome to this Annual Convocation of our Order.

We extend to you the privileges of our Chapter hall, trusting you may find instruction and benefit in our meeting.

We ask of you to convey to your Grand Chapters the most cordial and hearty greetings of this Grand Chapter and all Royal Arch Masons of California, assuring them of our well wishes for all that makes for the honor, glory and harmony of their jurisdictions and the Order.

Companions, you are requested to take seats in the East, remembering you are our guests and that it will be our pleasure to serve you.

And now, allow me to present for your consideration my official acts during the term of this high office.

My first official act after the close of Grand Chapter was by signing, making effective the Charters of Orange Grove Chapter, No. 99; San Gabriel Valley, No. 100; Redondo, No. 101; Marin, No. 102.

I also approved the bonds of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, which I now place in your hands.

Other than those which were answered directly by reference to our Constitution, the following decisions have been rendered by your Grand High Priest:

DECISIONS.

July 20, 1908—That when a Brother has resided in this State for two years and has gained official residence, his petition for the Capitular Degrees may be received by any Chapter in this jurisdiction, notwithstanding his rejection by a Chapter in another jurisdiction and refusal of said Chapter to waive jurisdiction over him; directing, however, that in such a case prudence be exercised and all possible research made to guard against receiving unworthy material.

That in determining jurisdiction of Chapters, air-line distance must decide in all cases.

That no petition for degrees can be withdrawn after reference to a committee of investigation, except only as provided for in Article III, Section 3 of the Constitution.

That an objection made before a Brother has received any degree in a Chapter must stand, and if not withdrawn with sixty days acts as a rejection, and the Secretary of the Chapter must so notify the Grand Secretary.

That life membership in Chapters is entirely under control of the individual Chapter. The Constitution of the Grand Chapter makes no provision for same.

That a person in any way engaged in the liquor business is not a fit person to receive our degrees.

That when a suspended Companion pays all his arrearages he at once becomes again in good standing and entitled to all the privileges and subjected to all the responsibilities of membership.

That all actions or business done at a meeting of which the Sentinel's register does not show the constitutional number of Companions present is null and void.

The following Amendments to the By-Laws of the various Chapters were approved:

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS APPROVED.

June 10. By Redondo Chapter, No. 101, changing date of its stated meetings to the second Thursday of each month.

June 12. By Santa Monica Bay Chapter, No. 97, changing the date of its stated meetings to the first Thursday of each month.

June 24. By Tulare Chapter, No. 71, fixing the annual dues at $2, payable semi-annually.

September 23. By Santa Rosa Chapter, No. 45, fixing the fees for the degrees at $40.

December 10. By Corinthian Chapter, No. 51, striking out Section 2 of Article VI, relative to the affiliation fee.

January 28. By La Purissima Chapter, U. D., the adoption of the Uniform Code.

January 30. By Orange Grove Chapter, No. 99, fixing the fee of the Guard.

February 3. By Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93, Standing Resolutions relative to life memberships and the fee therefor.

February 15. By King Solomon's Chapter, No. 95, changing the date of its stated meetings to the first and third Saturdays in each month.

February 16. By Franklin Chapter, No. 20, changing the date of its stated meetings to the second Thursday in each month at 7:30 P. M.

February 27. By Visalia Chapter, No. 44, changing the date of its stated meetings to the fourth Tuesday in each month.

DISPENSATIONS.

Being informed by those who were in a position to know that the conditions were favorable for the establishment and maintenance of Chapters, Dispensations were granted:

1908.

June 15. To twenty Royal Arch Masons at Los Angeles, to form and open a Chapter at Los Angeles to be called East Gate Chapter.

November 10. To twelve Royal Arch Masons at Lompoc, Santa Barbara County, to form and open a Chapter to be called La Purissima Chapter.

And also:

December 11. John Francis Hughes, Los Angeles, to represent Kentucky.

December 11. George Hayes Monroe, Fresno, to represent Nebraska.

March 20. Stanley A. Smith, Downieville, to represent New Brunswick.

Comp. Ernest Chappel Bonner was also nominated to represent Virginia, but to date have received no notice of the issuance of the commission.

We have added 428 Companions to our number during the year, making a total membership of 11,008.

CONSTITUTING OF CHAPTERS.

Accompanied and assisted by E. V. Henry Ascroft, Grand Lecturer, I constituted and installed the officers of:

Orange Grove Chapter, No. 99, at Orange.

San Gabriel Valley Chapter, No. 100, at Alhambra.

Redondo Chapter, No. 101, at Redondo Beach.

Marin Chapter, No. 102, at San Rafael.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Assisted by Companion Ascroft, I installed the officers of Antióch Chapter, No. 65, and with the additional assistance of Companion Heydenfeldt, the officers of Marin Chapter, No. 102.

I also installed the officers of the following Chapters:

Sacramento Chapter, No. 3.
Santa Rosa Chapter, No. 45.
Woodland Chapter, No. 46.
Solano Chapter, No. 43.
Porterville Chapter, No. 85.
Fresno Chapter, No. 69.
Modesto Chapter, No. 49.
Sutter Chapter, No. 11.
Benicia Chapter, No. 7.
Howard Chapter, No. 14.
Tulare Chapter, No. 71.
Visalia Chapter, No. 44.
Merced Chapter, No. 12.
Petaluma Chapter, No. 22.
St. Helena Chapter, No. 63.
Marin Chapter, No. 102.
Stockton Chapter, No. 28.

VISITATIONS.

I officially visited St. James Chapter, No. 16; Oakland Chapter, No. 36; Alameda Chapter, No. 70; Martinez Chapter, No. 31; Stockton Chapter, No. 28; King Solomon's Chapter, No. 95.

And was tendered a reception by Alameda Chapter, No. 70.

The receptions accorded your Grand High Priest, on every and all occasions, were the best the Companions had to offer. What more could anyone have done? Respect and consideration was shown on every hand. A desire for information, an appreciation of and for the visit, and a determination expressed to do better, were the usual conditions of my visitations, and, without exception, the visitations seemed to be of benefit to the Companions, and they certainly were strength and inspiration to me.

The genuine companionship, the willingness to take advice and listen to what might be said, and the thanks of officers and members for service done or words spoken, are pleasures which shall be satisfactory memories for all time, and with the deepest gratitude, I thank the Companions, one and all, and pray that our Heavenly Father will bring many rays of sunshine to gladden their hearts and beautify their lives.

And to the Sisters of the Order of the Eastern Star, who on many occasions did so much to make the meetings successes, my brotherly respect and hearty thanks. Sisters, be not weary in well doing, thereby helping your Brothers to nobler things.

My only regret is that conditions over which I had no control prevented me from meeting with more, or, as was my intention, all the Chapters.

To those Representatives of this Grand Chapter at or near the several Grand Chapters of our United States, who, appreciating the honor and understanding the duty of their appointment, have sent report of their attendance at and the doings of their Grand Bodies, we tender our thanks and assure them that their action was to us an evidence of their interest in and love of our Order. It is this attention to duty which adds so much to the honor and dignity of office, and tends to the uplifting and benefiting of our Order and ourselves. Companions, continue in the good work.

To the greeting from the several Grand Chapters we extend a hearty response, with assurances of our full appreciation of all the good they said. May they be messengers who, having fulfilled their mission, return full-freighted with precious gems of thought and inspiration.

To the several Chapters who so courteously and with such good will, at our request, conferred the degrees upon Brothers of other jurisdictions, we desire to express our sincere thanks, and assure the High Priests and Companions that they have by so much made our term of office a happier one. It is not the doing of a request, but the manner of the doing that makes it either a beautiful privilege or a simple duty, and your letters of cheerful acquiescence will many times be read with pleasure.

On several occasions your Grand High Priest has been requested by the Grand High Priest of our sister jurisdiction to have the degrees of our Order conferred upon one of their members, non-resident of our State. It has at all times given me pleasure to comply with these requests, thereby enabling our Chapters to do a courteous act.

It has also been my privilege to request of our sister jurisdictions the favor of conferring the Chapter degrees upon members of this jurisdiction for the time being resident in their jurisdictions. The cheerful compliance to the requests is evidence of the good will and companionship existing, and the courtesies shown are not only appreciated but have formed a bond of friendship, fragrant with loving thoughts.

We desire to express to those Companions who so thoughtfully and generously tendered copies of the transactions of this Grand Chapter to replace those destroyed in that memorable fire our sincere thanks, and assure them we appreciate the sentiment which prompted the offer, and will receive those and any others with kindest regards for the senders. We are gradually restoring our files.

Reducing dues to a minimum does not appear to me as good action, either in practice or principle. When anything becomes cheap it loses value and standing, two things much to be guarded against. Observation has shown but few Chapters that have sufficient funds in their treasury to draw from to place them in the condition and position all Royal Arch Chapters should hold.

We, as Royal Arch Masons, have not been as much alive to the importance of aiding and assisting our Companions who may have met with misfortune, leaving it generally to the Blue Lodge. It may be that a little more attention to this part of our duty will draw more interest to our Chapter degrees, and to do this we cannot be without funds. However, I leave this for your consideration.

Allow me to call the attention of our Companions to the office of our Grand Secretary, at 110 Sutter street. Here you will find Masonic literature, a place to do your correspondence, and, above all, our Grand Secretary, who may in many ways be able to assist you in your search for places and things; it is a good place to come to, and you should avail yourselves of the opportunity.

I take this opportunity of adding my quota to all that has been said of our venerable and highly esteemed Companion, W. A. Davies, and sincerely trust and pray he may be with us for many, many years to come.

With a regret, shared by every member of our Order on the Coast, it becomes my duty to inform you of the passing away of the Chairman of the Committee on New Temple, M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff. Nothing that I could say would add to that which has already been said and will be said, and will leave the saying to those who can better do him justice.

Speaking for him, will say: A most suitable and valuable site for the New Masonic Temple has been purchased on Van Ness avenue, at Oak and Hickory streets. The property has been paid for; old buildings removed, and is now ready for the builder. Floor plans have been asked for from all the principal Temples in the United States. A number have come to hand, all of which will be carefully studied in every detail, the best of each appropriated with the purpose of making as perfect a building as possible for our needs and purposes. The spirit of the committee has been to take time, fully consider and intelligently determine what is best, and, if possible, avoid making any mistakes. I trust that ere long a report will be made, giving in detail all that has been and what is to be done.

Companions, your Committee on Necrology have prepared a report regarding those of our Companions who have been called to the other life, and believing it but right and proper that they should make note of this oftentimes sad duty, I will refer you to their report for full information; and yet one cannot dismiss the subject without some reflections.

As we quietly sit and call up the past and those who were part of its life and action, we here and there find a vacant chair. We miss a well-known form, and listen for a familiar voice; our hand remains unclasped, and a feeling of sadness comes across the horizon of memory's vision. Perchance a sense of loneliness creeps in upon us. At such a time we allow our thoughts to wander and gather testimony as to the good deeds done, the kind words said and the outstretched hand helping a fallen brother; and if there are many such, much of the sadness is dispelled, a spirit of satisfaction comes to cheer us, assuring us that their lives were not in vain, and that we are richer that they had lived.

Companions, so may we live our span on earth that (when, in the distant future), those who follow may have abundant food for such reflections and thankful remembrances of us.

To the relatives of those of our Companions who have gone before, we extend our brotherly sympathy, and sincerely trust the memories of their dear, departed ones will be pure and fragrant with good deeds, to soften the chill of death and show a brighter way for the future, the sweet consciousness of a life well lived giving strength and encouragement to carry them in peace and prosperity to the end.

RELIEF FUND.

It has been my good fortune to have had the privilege of returning to the various Chapters contributing the surplus of their most generous bounty for our relief, and as we look back to that April in 1906 we are reminded that, startling, crushing and confusing as was that terrible disaster, far-reaching and scorching in all its details, and never to be forgotten, yet with it all there came a bright ray of light, sympathy, cheer and hope—the spontaneous, generous, sympathetic response of our Companions throughout the length and breadth of our land and our Companions in Canada. So generous was their response to our need that, after all were cared for, there remained a surplus, and we have the great pleasure and satisfaction of restoring this to those who so freely gave of their own. Companions, these acts are bright pages in the history of our Order and will ever aid and stimulate us to noble deeds, and as generous as was their giving, so also was their appreciation of the returning of what was over.

The thanks and prayers of all those benefited by their bounty is better praise, better thanks than anything I could say.

The particulars regarding these returns will be found in the Grand Secretary's report.

I found in many Chapters the Book of Marks sadly neglected. Many Royal Arch Masons exalted and no record of Mark either with the Secretary or in book. In all cases I have informed the Companions of their grave neglect and violation of the Constitution, and have been promised strict attention in the future and an endeavor to rectify the past.

In many of our country Chapters during the hot season they suspend meeting for months. This is in conflict with our Constitution, and as the Companions claim it would be impossible to get meetings monthly, some action should be taken by this Grand Body to accomplish their need without violation of our statutes.

I would recommend that the American flag be displayed in every Chapter hall at every meeting of the Chapter.

In answer to those who claim that Masonry is universal, and we should not offend the feeling of any Companion, wherever his birth-place or allegiance, will say: If Masonry should be anything, it should be and teach patriotism; and a true patriot will respect not only the flag of his own country, but that of every other, so far as he can do so consistent with honor and duty; and the Companion, come he from where he will, who would be offended to see the flag of our country displayed in our Chapter halls, is not a true Mason, and has no business among us.

To my mind, we have a duty to perform in the restoring to normal conditions, at least, the body politic, the civic status of our local governments, and uplifting and maintaining a higher tone of public sentiment and sense of duty. We are unmindful of our duty to our Order, ourselves, our families and our country if we permit to continue the deplorable condition of public and business life—the buying and selling of private and public men; the ignoring of any standard of rectitude; the looking over of any delinquency, deviating from honorable, honest dealing between man and corporation, corporation and public servants; the prostitution of officials and the selling for money of public trusts and public service. The time to act is now; to act and continue to act until the good is accomplished.

In my judgment the printing in our Report of the Grand Chapter Proceedings the names of each individual member of all the Chapters throughout the jurisdiction is unnecessary and not warranted. The names of the High Priest and Secretary would accomplish the purpose.

The same amount of money paid to have printed and sent to each officer and all Past High Priests of each Chapter in this State a copy of the report of the Committee on Correspondence would serve to interest, instruct and encourage a research and knowledge of Capitular Masonry and the opinions of the brightest minds; and the acts of other Grand Bodies would be brought to our notice and placed at our disposal, and would go far to raise our Order to a nobler and higher plane of being and usefulness. Your attention hereto is requested.

Being a part of the General Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of the United States of America, we should be represented at all of its Conventions; and it should be made the duty of the Grand High Priest, or his Deputy, to attend such meetings and make report of same to this Grand Body, and to make uniform the ritualistic work. A Convocation of Grand Lecturers at least every three years would originate a School of Instruction, which would soon eliminate all differences and establish our work upon a perfectly understood and accepted basis, and create what we need, a more intimate bond of friendship between all sections of our country, and bring our Western shore in closer relation to and with other sister jurisdictions.

Believing it the duty of the Grand High Priest to report to you his impressions of matters and things concerning our Order, I find it incumbent upon me to call your attention to a spirit of indifference and a laxness for the proprieties of our Chapter meetings. There should be a certain degree of dignity in our manner and a sacredness to the meeting-place in which our ceremonies are held that would preclude the saying or doing of that which would be inappropriate in the sanctity of a church or at the home fireside.

We have too long permitted ourselves a freedom of expression and action which does not impress the young man with the higher standard we claim, nor encourage a greater degree of excellence within himself, failing in which we lose opportunities for improvement and the placing upon a higher plane the Capitular degrees, which are a perfection unto themselves and not simply stepping-stones to the Orders of Knighthood; and the question presents itself, whether or not a certain proficiency in the lectures of the ritual being required would tend to make more inspiring the Chapter degrees.

Believing that, regardless of any sectarian belief or sentiment, we as Masons should recognize and respect the life and reverence the memory of one whose every act, word and deed tended to the betterment of the human race, I wrote, had it printed and mailed, the following Xmas greeting; and, Companions, it has brought me joy in the expression of appreciation by its recipients, and I thank them, with the assurance of an uplifting and beautifying effect on me.

"A MERRY CHRISTMAS.

"Companions: Once again Father Time brings to mind the commemoration of an event, which left upon the pages of the world's history the greatest mark for good, for purity and truth, the brotherhood of man and the recognition and emancipation of woman, making her man's equal and helpmate in the higher and spiritual sense.

"For all this, Christ's name is blessed, and commends us to His praise and honor.

"As men we can but acknowledge His goodness, His unselfishness, His courage and fidelity to truth and duty.

"How much more should we so do as Masons, and still more as Royal Arch Masons.

"In this spirit, Companions, I send you greeting; let us join in singing praises to His name at this Christmas tide and so attune our lives that they may harmonize with His teachings, with His life, so that we, in a measure at least, may follow in His footsteps to the benefit and uplifting of all mankind.

"So shall the bells ring clearer, the song be sweeter, and our lives be a blessing to all who have communion with thee and me.

"The blessing and spirit of Christ be and remain with you through the coming year."

Establishing the fact that the good in us needs but the quickening touch to bring it into life and action to bring forth good fruit, in an awakening to a higher spiritual life and thought.

My observations are conclusive that joint installations are beneficial to our Order, tending to create a feeling of good fellowship, harmony and better understanding between the symbolic and sublime degrees, bringing them into closer union to the good of both. And to this would I add the presence of the families of our brethren and Companions, as also the members of the Order of the Easter Star. To my mind we have been too prone to hold aloof and be too secretive. We should extend the hand of friendship and social intermingling to our less informed brethren, bringing them up and expanding and improving ourselves, the refining influence of woman at our installations, lending beauty, grace and dignity to the occasion, adding a charm to the event which nothing else could do. Do we not owe it to ourselves, with equal force as to them, to now and again give of our time, our presence and our funds, if need be, to entertain and cultivate a better understanding among all branches of our fraternity, and especially among our families and their friends? We must be up and doing, be abreast of the times, and infuse life and interest in our Chapters if we wish not only to maintain our present position, but also attain that which we are entitled to and should enjoy, and which is not a fact at this time. The experiences of the year teach that as a whole we are sadly lacking in the essentials that go to make a live, aggressive, potent body, one whose influence is broader, greater and more potent than the confines of the Chapter hall. We must be men awake to the demands of the time, with the ambition, the determination and courage to be and do and, make manifest our high character not only at this Grand Convocation, but in the daily walks of life and every day.

We have duties to perform as men and citizens, performing which shall put us in the front rank of life, make us the honored citizens of our community and be recognized as those who ask not personal or political preferment at the expense of all and everything.

Politics have no place in our Convocations or in our Chapter halls. Patriotism should be ever present; cliques and star-chamber meetings smell ill and have no place in our Order. Open-hand and plain dealing should distinguish us; anything else is degrading and out of place in our society.

Combinations and pooling of influence to the benefit of any particular person or place is vile and unmasonic.

The prostituting of character to obtain place or advancement is making cheap and common our Order and causing high-minded and noble men to turn from us in disgust. Companions, let us see to it that these things stop.

In regard to the eligibility of those in any way engaged in the liquor business, it is my firm conviction that the good name of our institution requires that we hold no communication with them, that we and they have nothing in common, and that our aims and purposes are diametrically opposed. The one destroys and tears down all that is noble, good and useful; the other teaches and endeavors to build up, elevate and make cleaner, purer and better; and while we purpose to make good men better and bring them up to a higher plane of thought and action, our institution is not a refuge for those engaged in or upholding the liquor business or liquor, nor are we a reformatory institution; and we should have the courage of our convictions, act like men, and stand firm for a clean and pure membership.

I believe I know whereof I speak when I say that no man in the liquor or kindred business has at any time or in any instance added honor or dignity to our Order. How much has been done on the other side you all know. Companions, it was time long ago that we should have come out square and true on this subject. Had we done so many a Companion would have been influenced by that action and saved from a downward course and disgrace, and saved from humiliation those whom he should have honored and respected. The experiences of the year convince me that the noblest one thing this Grand Chapter ever did was to abolish the use of intoxicants at our banquets. In every place where I have visited, this is acknowledged, and the silent influence of that action has done much to make for better conditions.

We, as Royal Arch Masons, should be an example to all, and especially should we so be to the youth of our land. The young boy just leaving boyhood and imagining he is becoming a man is apt to feel that he must go out and do as men do. Who among us would for one instant think (if we think at all) of setting that boy the example of becoming a frequenter of the saloon; and yet we do it. Companions, stop and consider; weigh this subject of example and its influence upon the youth of your community, your home city or town. If there is one work which demands our attention it is this, of teaching by our example the right way for him to follow. Can we as men and Masons do a nobler or more urgent act than the saving of our young men, providing a place for them to go and spend their evenings, and send them home pure in thought and clean in person? Tell me not that this is not our business. Masonry stops short of its mission when its acts are confined to the limits of its lodge-room or of its membership. Its mission is to make man, woman and child more man-like, more God-like. By our example teach better citizenship, better fatherhood, better sons; to show by our lives that communities can be better, that honesty, truth and virtue are living issues and must be sustained and protected, and it is for us to do this. Who can tell how much silent influence the teachings of our Order have had in the making for good? We believe that influence, even if silent, has been potent and far reaching. Let us not only keep it alive, but cause it to burn with a bright flame, purifying and strengthening in the purification. Then will we accomplish our purpose and our institute be a blessing in the land.

If in the assembly there is a Companion who has raised one Brother out of the slough of despond, has awakened again the spark of manhood in one breast, has turned a fathers step to the home, or brought a son again to his mother's heart, the year will not have been in vain.

Let us strive to be not better than our fellow-men, but better than ourselves. Strive for courage to say no when temptation beckons on.

Let not the antiquity of our Order become so great a thing as to weigh us down and cause us to forget or overlook the problems of today.

It would please me much to be able to say to you, Companions, that our Order throughout the State is in a flourishing condition; that the Companions are alive to the issues, and have an interest and enthusiasm in the work; that everywhere Royal Arch Chapters are recognized and regarded as the first of all societies; that their members are energetic and faithful in their duties. Were I to tell you so it would be false in fact and false to your best interests. To my mind, we have too long been satisfied to let things go as they have been and are. We have not taken a sufficient hold of matters and conditions that are lax and insufficient, nor endeavored to bring about a better state of affairs, and much do I regret that so long were my visits delayed that the rigor and inclemency of the weather prevented my making many visits planned, for the conviction is strong with me in saying the visit of a Grand High Priest is a potent factor to arouse interest in a struggling or sleepy chapter.

I would recommend that the Deputy Grand High Priest and the King and Scribe be requested (or required, if you will) to visit the Chapters in their vicinity in their official capacity, and that all Chapters should have at least one visit from the Grand Lecturer.

That the Deputy Grand Lecturers be chosen with great care and judgment, and be held accountable for the condition of the Chapters in their districts.

That the Grand Lecturer be satisfied of their capacity before appointing, and, if necessary, that their traveling expenses be paid by this Grand Chapter.

To my mind, our Chapter is sadly in need of competent and enthusiastic Deputy Grand Lecturers who have not only the work letter-perfect, but the spirit also. They should be schooled in all detail and alive and resourceful in giving advice and directing the policy of the Chapter, and, being clothed with authority, should use it with judgment and decision to bring about a better condition and a greater interest in all that appertains to Capitular Masonry. A Deputy Grand Lecturer should be a power for good in his district, and the good he does should be evident in the Chapter and, when made manifest, recognized by this Grand Body. His expenses should at least be provided for, and not asked of either him or the Chapter. The office must be one of dignity and power to be of any service.

All the Deputy Grand Lecturers should hold a meeting as soon as possible after the session of the Grand Chapter, under the direction of the Grand Lecturer, and there receive from him instructions in the Ritual, perfecting themselves and having an agreed and perfect understanding of all those matters appertaining to the floor work, which will bring uniformity and perfect understanding, one with the other, so that when asked for information he will have it to give. This matter of Deputy Grand Lecturers has in a measure been sadly neglected, and, to my mind, is accountable for much of the indifference in the outlying districts.

In looking over the roster of our Order names presented themselves which at once commanded attention and respect—names of those who made history not only in our Order, but our State and country.

Men who, coming to our Coast when the light of discovery first dawned upon this fair land; when the great forests were as yet untouched by man, and our red Americans were the only human feet that had trod between them; at a time when the great stores of golden wealth were still hidden from human sight; a time when the flow of our streams made music as it tumbled on its way to the sea, the limitless power within them unthought of and unused.

Many of those who grace our roll were the first to see and to do, to open up the hidden wealth of the earth in gold, fruit and grain, harness the streams to do man's bidding, thereby enriching, expanding, upbuilding and electrifying not only our State but the world. As we think of their coming, their going and their doings, and glorify in the same, do we ask, What are we doing to maintain this standard of manhood? We are not called upon to be pioneers in the sense they were, but the field for spiritual and moral development is yet fresh with opportunity. On every hand they are calling to us to set an example of the nobler thinking, the nobler life, self-examination, self-purification, self-uplifting and enlightenment; to become in the new sphere as good and great as were they in theirs; to teach the less informed by our example the simple, better way toward perfection—that perfection which recognizes the man in our fellow-beings and demands and is willing to give justice; that speaks and demands the truth; that thinks and lives clean lives and requires the same of those who associate with them. The manhood that for the good of the whole will deny self and, cost what it may, see to it that the laws of our country are meted out to rich and poor alike, the high and the low standing equal at the bar of justice, right and truth being the keynote of its administration.

Citizenship and patriotism taking the place of party and politics, moral courage the place of power and party influence purchased by gold. Purity of private life and the sacredness of home once more the ruling principle of all.

So living, so doing, we shall leave our imprint upon the places where we have lived.

In the improved conditions of our laboring people we have the eight-hour day. Who shall say but that that is the result of our teaching? And if this be so, consider what there is yet for us to do in bettering their condition on the mental and intellectual plane—the plane of truth and justice, the recognition of another's rights, and the upholding and obeying of the law. We have been taught these mighty lessons. Have we practiced and, by our living, brought them to the attention of our fellow-man? It is not our duty, but a sacred privilege, to, by our example, show to our less informed neighbor what truth and justice really is. The time is ripe, the fruit ready to harvest. Will we do it?

The laboring man today has evolved, in a measure at least, from the brutal force-compelling condition, and will be receptive to reason and exemplification in the giving and demanding of right and justice to all. Let us fulfill our vows, our obligations, and show them, teach them the beauty of justice, the horror of selfish and brutal demands where seemingly one has the power to enforce them.

Truth and reason will result in justice; let us reason and be true. Should any Companion consider this inappropriate discussion of a subject, foreign to our business or purpose, let me say to him: If we, as Masons, have no nobler aim, no higher and broader ambitions than to repeat our rituals, meet in Annual Convocation, elect officers and go home, then we have nothing to do with such matters, and we will remain where we are, an adjunct, not a living, moving being in this great development of mind, man and matter in the twentieth century. All around us things are moving, and, alas! too often in the wrong direction. To stem the wrong and cause the current to flow in the true channel is our work, and let us be up and doing. Ten thousand Royal Arch Masons in the State of California! Has it occurred to any of us what a mighty power for good this Order could and should be, what a force it could exert to stem the tide that leads to destruction? What an influence ten thousand examples would have upon the civic life of every city, town and hamlet in our fair State.

What a blessing in countless homes were we to live and demand of others the true life. Do we ten thousand Royal Arch Masons see an example in our home life that husband, son, fathers should follow? Have we the unqualified respect, trust and love of all good, pure women? Is it an axiom that wherever you find a Royal Arch Mason you find a good citizen, a loyal office-holder, a true husband, a kind father and a loving, dutiful son and brother? It should be so. If not, we are not true to our manhood and honor. We have violated our obligation and sacrificed our self respect.

As Royal Arch Masons we have a right to demand of each other, and the world has a right to expect us, to be sober, clean and true. The friend of man and the refuge and protector of children and women. Think not, Companions, that the standard is too high, the task impossible. It should be our aim to verify it in our daily lives. Oh, would that God did bring this about—to have it said by any and every man. Yes, he is all right; he is a Mason. It should be the keystone of honor, purity, integrity, justice, truth. Not in the Chapter hall, but abroad in the fields, in the busy street, in the hall of justice, in the home. Could we but stop a few moments and think, stop the wheel from turning, turn off the current, unharness the horse, and to our chamber go, commune with the man within, take stock of ourselves and strike a balance. Be not appalled and heedless and heartsore, but come out into the open and make compact with your Maker and with yourself, that from now on, from this time forth, Royal Arch Masonry shall be a living thing. Let the rich red blood of righteousness course through the veins, arouse the slumbering, complacent, do-nothing, and from henceforth be in armor for right. Let it be known to be an Excellent Master is no idle boast. Let us master self; that done, all else will flow as pure and sweet music from the nightingale's throat, and our soul, like the lark at heaven's gate, will sing.

Among the pleasures of memory will be the (in spirit) living over again and receiving the Christmas and New Year's remembrances. Hallowed and cherished treasures of this Chapter year! They brought a feeling of thankfulness and joy, a pleasure to know one was thought of, and give inspiration to the soul and strength to the mind, led me gently to think of those sweets of comradeship, gave me an impression of appreciative Nature's giving expression to the better and holier instincts of life; lifting one out and above the humdrum of every-day toil and strife into a realm of pure thought and inspiration. My soul goes out in grateful thanks to the Companions who so nobly and so well gave free reign to the spiritual impulse, thereby bringing in union our nobler selves. Let us cultivate this side of our life and nature, setting aside a time now and again for the expression of the soul of things. So doing, we will spread the seed which shall blossom into fragrant flowers, and the passerby, catching the inspiration of the fragrance, will look up and see the sun shining in all its splendor.

I leave these suggestions with you, doubting not that you in your wisdom and deliberation will evolve that that will place our branch of the Order on an equal plane, at least, with the other branches of Masonry.

Companions, in a few short hours the duties and term of my high office will be over, and I return to the ranks with you and another will take up the activities of the position. While this may be so, there are things which will remain with me as a source of pleasure and satisfaction for the years to come—the recollections of meeting and receiving the greetings of my Companions on my several visits to your Chapters, the words of thanks and appreciation given, the hope expressed of better conditions, and the promises made to strive and do, to raise our Order and manhood on a higher plane, are jewels in memory's cabinet. And as I shall read again the letters fraught with kind words and cordial, courteous expressions, once more will I live the scene, and my mind will appreciate and thank you for the honor conferred. These will surely be pleasures of memory.

As it might not be my good fortune to meet again all the Companions who have so generously contributed to the pleasures of the year now about to close, let me here and now thank you one and all for all the good things done, and I cherish the thought that we are mutually benefited thereby.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK WM. G. MOEBUS,
Grand High Priest.

The address was referred to a committee of five for segregation and reference, and the Grand King, Companion James Robert Tapscott, named as such committee, Companions Charles Joseph Willett, William Henry Davis, William Monroe Petrie, George Ulysses Moyse and Harry Lincoln Walthers.

The Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer and Grand Lecturer then read and submitted their reports in the order stated.

Grand Secretary's Report.

To the Grand Chapter R. A. M. of California:

The passage of time has brought us face to face with another mile-post in the history of this Grand Chapter; our Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation is before us with its duties and responsibilities.

The first inquiry will naturally be of the business transacted since the close of the Fifty-fourth Annual.

In due time the proceedings of the last annual convocation were printed and distributed, as our law directs, to the Grand and Past Grand Officers, the Chapters, Sister Grand Jurisdictions and Correspondents, reserving on hand the usual number of copies for binding.

In this connection I report herewith the binding of Volume 15 of the Proceedings, being the journals of the years 1906, 1907 and 1908, which has been placed in the Library of the Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest issued during the year dispensations for two new Chapters; one at Los Angeles, another at Lompoc, Santa Barbara County, and both will probably apply for charters perpetuating their existence at the present session.

The Grand High Priest having in his address reported among his official acts the constituting of Chapters numbers 99 to 102 inclusive, and he having also reported the By-Laws and Amendments to By-Laws, approved by him, the issuance of the special dispensations, Representatives appointed near other Grand Jurisdictions, and commissions received for Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions near the Grand Chapter of California, no further mention is necessary.

FINANCES.

Referring to finances, the receipts of the Grand Secretary's office have been as follows:

Receipts for annual dues.....	$ 8,256.00
Dispensations, New Chapters.....	180.00
Charter Fees	240.00
Special Dispensations	25.00
Diplomas	10.00

Dividends, Masonic Hall Association.....	340.00
275 Ascroft Monitors.....	412.50
Ode Cards	14.00
Contribution to Relief Fund by Manzanita Chapter, now extinct	20.00
Total	$ 9,497.50
All of which has been paid to the Grand Treasurer.
Interest on deposits reported by Grand Treasurer.....	1,580.68

Making the total receipts of Grand Chapter for the year..$11,078.18

Total cash in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, April 8, 1909, $45,016.98, apportioned as follows:

General Fund	$40,221.23
Representative Fund	3,295.75
Reprint Proceedings	1,000.00
Order of High Priesthood.....	500.00

MASONIC TEMPLE ASSOCIATION OF CALIFORNIA.

On September 14th, 1908, $25,000.00, being one-half of the amount subscribed by the Grand Chapter to stock in the Masonic Temple Association of California, and payment in full of 2,500 shares of the capital stock of that corporation, was paid by warrant on the Grand Treasurer for that amount. The payment was duly authorized and ordered by the Grand High Priest, Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King, Grand Scribe, and Chairman of the Grand Chapter Finance Committee.

RELIEF FUND.

Pursuant to the action of the Grand Chapter at its Fifty-fourth Annual Convocation, the balance of the $23,800.15 contributed to the Grand Chapter Relief Fund by other Jurisdictions, amounting to $6,898.25, has been distributed to the donors thereof, pro rata. The sum so returned being .28985 per cent of that received. The returns were made by drafts on the Bank of San Francisco, and through the courtesy of its President, Companion W. Frank Pierce, without cost to Grand Chapter for services rendered or for exchange. A letter, of which the following is a copy, was enclosed with each check:

"GRAND CHAPTER OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.
OFFICE OF THE GRAND SECRETARY.

San Francisco, August 20, 1908.

To the Officers and Members of

DEAR BRETHREN AND COMPANIONS: At the Fifty-fourth Annual Convocation of Grand Chapter, held April 21-22, 1908, the Committee on Relief Fund reported that of the $23,800.15 received from Lodges and Chapters of other Jurisdictions, there remained in said fund a balance of $6,898.25, or .28985 per cent of the amount contributed.

Feeling that the purpose for which these funds were placed in their hands had been accomplished, they believed that Grand Chapter was in duty bound to return the unexpended portion thereof to those who so magnanimously came to the assistance of our Masonic Brethren in their hour of affliction.

The Committee then recommended that the balance of the amount subscribed by other Jurisdictions remaining in the Grand Chapter Relief Fund, $6,898.25, be distributed pro rata to the donors thereof, and the recommendation was unanimously adopted.

Therefore I am able to enclose herewith check for $....., assuring you at the same time of the heartfelt gratitude of this Grand Chapter and of all California Royal Arch Masons, for your expressions of sympathy at the time of the great disaster, and their thorough appreciation of your generous contribution for the relief of the distress occasioned by that fearful visitation of earthquake and fire on the morning of the eighteenth of April, 1906.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

F. W. G. MOEBUS,
Grand High Priest.

Attest:

WM. A. DAVIES, Grand Secretary.

STATISTICS.

The annual reports of the 89 Chartered Chapters for the year ending January 31st, 1909, show a membership of 10,925, a gain since our last report of 345.

The two Chapters under dispensation, East Gate of Los Angeles and La Purissima of Lompoc, on April 1st, 1909, report a membership of 83, making the total gain for the year of the 91 chapters of this Grand Jurisdiction 428, with a roster of 11,008 Royal Arch Masons.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. A. DAVIES,
Grand Secretary.

The report was referred to the Committee on Grand High Priest's Address, except so much thereof as refers to finance, that portion to go to the Finance Committee.

Grand Lecturer's Report.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Notwithstanding the great struggle and many difficulties encountered in the uplifting of a "Greater San Francisco," in which the majority of our Companions are directly interested and involved—to say nothing of the consequent financial drain of their individual coffers!—I have the honor and pleasure to report to you a very satisfactory condition of affairs in the Vineyard of Capitular Masonry, and of Ritual Labor, sufficiently encouraging to warrant the prediction of a "Greater Grand Chapter" in the near future!

Peace, Plenty and Progress reign supreme throughout our Jurisdiction; we have no complaint to hold forth; the petit difficulties arising sometime ago in several Chapters, owing to reformatory "Work," are all now of the past. The Standard Ritual being fully understood and appreciated, there is perceptible progressiveness in the accurate and dignified rendition of the Degrees, all of which amply compensates for strenuous work accomplished since the last Convocation of this Grand Chapter.

SYNOPSIS OF VISITATIONS.

April 23, 1908—Held school of instruction in Marin Chapter, No. 102.

May 17, 1908—Accompanied by Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus, visited, informally, Corinthian Chapter, No. 51.

May 18, 1908—Assisted Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus in constituting Orange Grove Chapter, No. 99, the officers showing creditable proficiency.

May 20, 1908—With Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus, constituted Redondo Chapter, No. 101. High Priest Companion Cowperthwaite's business necessitating his return to San Francisco, he has been ably succeeded by Companion A. B. Steel, and the Chapter is in good hands.

May 21, 1908—Assisted Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus in constituting San Gabriel Valley Chapter, No. 100; in the presence of ladies and a large attendance; a very pleasant time, with good prospects for ultimate success.

May 23, 1908—Assisted in conferring the R. A. Degree in Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93; honored with the presence of P. G. H. P., Companion Charles L. Patton, and a good attendance; zealous enthusiasm and assuring prospects.

May 31, 1908—Held school of instruction in Calaveras Chapter, No. 83, and witnessed conferring of Degrees; the officers are very anxious to attain perfection in the "Work," but few opportunities and little practice impede the desired progress.

June 9, 1908—Held school of instruction in Marin Chapter, No. 102.

June 12, 1908—Assisted Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus in constituting Marin Chapter, No. 102.

July 8, 1908—Witnessed the conferring of R. A. Degree in Marin Chapter, No. 102; good work, executed by a zealous and efficient corps of officers; this Chapter may now be classified as one of the best in the Jurisdiction.

August 24, 1908—Visited Ventura Chapter, No. 50. There was a large attendance, the feature of the occasion being a pleasant discussion in affairs of interest to the Chapter, terminating satisfactorily to all present.

August 26, 1908—Visited, informally, Corinthian Chapter, No. 51—a pleasant meeting, in which matters of interest to the Chapter were discussed and approved.

August 29, 1908—Held school of instruction in Stockton Chapter, No. 28.

October 20, 1908—Visited Palo Alto Chapter No. 93; assisted in conferring the R. A. Degree; the usual pleasant gathering was augmented by the presence of P. G. H. P. Charles L. Patton.

November 15, 1908—Witnessed the conferring of the R. A. Degree in Fresno Chapter, No. 69, the home Chapter of Deputy Grand Lecturer Companion Charles C. Van Valkenburgh, the officers showing commendable proficiency, and good work throughout.

November 18, 1908—Accompanied by Companion Charles C. Van Valkenburgh, visited Kern Valley Chapter, No. 75; this Chapter is honored with a good corps of officers, executing good work, and all is well.

January 5, 1909—Installed the officers in California Chapter, No. 5, Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus installing the Principal Sojourner; this being my home Chapter, I am modest in criticism; suffice to say No. 5 is "Class A, steel and granite."

January 7, 1909—Assisted in installing the officers of Mission Chapter, No. 79; this is another Chapter of unquestionable solidity—serene and prosperous.

January 11, 1909—Ventura Lodge, Chapter and Council united in installation ceremonies. I installed the officers of Ventura Chapter, No. 50. The weather was very unpropitious, a raging storm prevailing. Nevertheless, over one hundred Companions and ladies were present, one of whom was Companion A. D. Seward, over 90 years of age, yet "one of the boys," still taking lively interest in Chapter affairs. No lack of enthusiasm in Ventura No. 50.

January 19, 1909—Installed the officers in Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93; pleasant meeting; everything "couleur de rose."

January 30, 1909—Fidelity Chapter, No. 96. By request, I should have been installing officer. I regret exceedingly my inability to meet their wishes, owing to the prevailing storm rendering it uncertain of reaching my destination on schedule time, or returning in time to meet other engagements.

February 13, 1909—Accompanied Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus and assisted in the installation ceremonies of Marin Chapter, No. 102, in the presence of a large attendance of Companions and their ladies; concluding with an elaborate program, thoroughly enjoyed by all.

March 13, 1909—Modesto Chapter, No. 49. I conferred the R. A. Degree upon two "teams." P. G. H. P. Companion Adolphus Hewel confined to home by indisposition; also, Secretary W. H. Hutton unable to be present; otherwise a pleasant meeting; everything satisfactory. Companions endowed with the true spirit of Masonry.

March 22, 1909—Held school of instruction in Martinez Chapter, No. 31—a commendable corps of officers needing very little instruction. The future of Martinez Chapter, No. 31, is bright and promising.

March 27, 1909—Assisted Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus to install the officers of Antioch Chapter, No. 65. This Chapter has been dormant the past few years, attributable to the unwillingness of the outgoing officers to learn the "Work" as adopted by this Grand Chapter. Affairs now assume a total change, the intention of the present officers being to commence life anew. The perspective seems bright and assuring. This occasion was also graced by the presence of the ladies.

April 13, 1909—Assisted Grand High Priest F. W. G. Moebus in installing the officers of Stockton Chapter, No. 28; a cordial and hospitable reception; the status of Stockton Chapter, No. 28, is all that can be desired.

April 17, 1909—Witnessed the conferring of the R. A. Degree in King Solomon Chapter, No. 95, the officers acquitting themselves in a very creditable manner. This Chapter merits more than a passing notice, and the sympathy and admiration of every Companion, for the courage and fortitude endured in the loss of all their funds in the wreck of the "California Safe Deposit Company", leaving them minus the cash to meet the payment of new robes and paraphernalia just completed. Verily, it is sometimes difficult to realize that "whatever is, is best," yet such is our faith! And it is safe to predict that King Solomon, No. 95, will energetically shake off the heavy burden, flourishing stronger and richer than hitherto.

San Francisco Chapter, No. 1, the venerable Mother Chapter of the State, is to the front as usual, holding her own, in pleasing evidence.

The reports of our Deputy Lecturers are exceedingly encouraging and gratifying.

William H. Gaynor, Ninth District, reports the officers of East Gate, U. D., as efficient in the "Work," and recommends that a charter be granted to them.

William P. Butcher, Eighth District, makes special mention of the excellence of the Work done in "the new Chapter at Lompoc," as being all that can be desired, and second to none; upon his report, I recommend that a charter be granted to them.

I heartily thank Deputy Grand Lecturers, Companions Charles C. Van Valkenburgh, William Henry Gaynor, Harry Horne, Elmore Myron Billings, and William P. Butcher for their co-operation in the work allotted to our care.

No reports have been received from Companion Thomson Wilson Drullard, Second District, nor Companion John G. Bisbee, Tenth District.

In conclusion, allow me the privilege of the present opportunity to reassure the Companions of my full appreciation and sincere thanks for their generous hospitality, and the courtesies extended to me in my official capacity as Grand Lecturer.

We reverentially acknowledge that it is Divine Mercy that has preserved and carried us through the vicissitudes incident to life, and to which we have been exposed since we last met. We have abundant cause for gratitude, and we are thankful to the Supreme Grand Master for the many blessings we now enjoy.

The expenses incurred by the Grand Lecturer and deputies during the last year amount to the sum of $242.25, an itemized account of which is filed with the Grand Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY ASCROFT,
Grand Lecturer.

Quincy Letter.

A communication was read from Companions Joseph Moss Little and Arthur Walter Keddie of Quincy, Plumas County, California, relative to the purchase of the paraphernalia and jewels received by Grand Chapter from Manzanita Chapter, No. 29, with the surrender of its Charter.

The communication was referred to the Committee on New Chapters.

Grand Chapter was called off for lunch until 2 o'clock P. M.

In Grand Chapter

Afternoon Session, April 20, 1909.

The Grand Chapter called on at 2 o'clock, the Grand High Priest presiding.

Companion Charles Joseph Willett, Chairman of the Committee on Grand High Priest's Address, reported as follows:

Report of Committee on Grand High Priest's Address.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California:

The Special Committee to whom was referred the Report of the M. E. Grand High Priest would respectfully recommend:

That so much of said report as refers to dispensations and decisions be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence;

That so much as refers to new chapters, to the Committee on New Chapters;

That so much as refers to finance, to the Committee on Finance;
That so much as refers to our honored dead, to the Committee on Necrology;

That the portion referring to the appointing of Representatives be approved;

That the portion referring to visitations by Grand Officers, other than Grand High Priest, be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence;

That part of the address referring to By-Laws, to the Committee on By-Laws;

That the remaining portion of the address be approved.

Your Committee take great pleasure in presenting its appreciation of the high character of the labor performed by the Grand High Priest during his year of office, and recommend that the hearty thanks of this Grand Chapter be extended for same; that this Grand Chapter has listened with immense satisfaction to the high-minded address of our Grand High Priest, and that the suggestions toward more activity and energy on the part of the Subordinate Chapters and a life of greater influence regarding the better things of citizenship on the part of the Companions will be carried home by the members and shall help forward a brighter day for Capitular Masonry.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES J. WILLETT,
HARRY L. WALTHERS,
W. H. DAVIS,
WM. M. PETRIE,
GEORGE U. MOYSE,

Committee.

The report was concurred in and the references made as recommended by the Committee.

On motion of Past Grand High Priest William Monroe Petrie the election of officers was made the Special Order for the afternoon, to take place immediately after the exemplification of the Work.

The Grand Secretary announced that he had just received a communication from Deputy Grand High Priest Companion George Hays Monroe, through his physician, stating that he had been seriously ill, but was steadily improving and hoped to be sufficiently recovered to attend Grand Chapter Wednesday morning.

Companion William Preston Butcher was appointed one of the Committee on Jurisprudence to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Past Grand High Priest Jacob Hart Neff.

Exemplification of Work.

The Grand Officers then vacated their several stations and the degrees of Past Master and Most Excellent Master were exemplified by the Deputy Grand Lecturers, under the direction of the Grand Lecturer. The Grand Officers resumed their stations and the thanks of Grand Chapter were tendered Companion Henry Ascroft and his assistants for their excellent rendition of the Ritual.

Election of Officers.

The time having arrived for the Special Order, the election of officers, the Grand High Priest appointed Companions Israel Joseph Johnson and Frederick Werner as Tellers, and the election proceeded with the following result:

- M. E. Comp. GEORGE HAYS MONROE, Grand High Priest.
- R. E. Comp. JAMES ROBERT TAPSCOTT, Deputy Grand High Priest.
- R. E. Comp. CHARLES WILLIS NORTON, Grand King.
- R. E. Comp. LEO VALTUS YOUNGWORTH, Grand Scribe.
- R. E. Comp. FRANKLIN HENRY DAY, Grand Treasurer.
- R. E. Comp. WILLIAM ABRAHAM DAVIES, Grand Secretary.

Officers Appointed.

The following list of appointments was subsequently received from the Grand High Priest elect:

- E. Comp. EDWIN ALLEN SHERMAN, Grand Chaplain.
- E. Comp. HENRY ASCROFT, Grand Lecturer.
- E. Comp. WILLIAM WHITTINGHAM LYMAN, Grand Captain of the Host.
- E. Comp. THOMAS OCHTREIGH HEYDENFELDT, Grand Royal Arch Captain.
- Comp. SAMUEL DAVID MAYER, Grand Organist.
- Comp. GEORGE WASHINGTON PERKINS, Grand Guard.

General Regulation No. 8.

Companion James Bestor Merritt, Chairman of the Finance Committee, stated that Companion Thomas O. Heydenfeldt had prepared and presented to that Committee a resolution, which should have been first presented to Grand Chapter, but that the Finance Committee had digested the matter and recommend the adoption of the following general regulation, to be known as General Regulation No. 8.

"That, commencing with the Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation, at each Annual Convocation of Grand Chapter, upon the conclusion of the Installation Ceremonies, a 'Past Grand High Priest's Jewel' be presented to the retiring Grand High Priest, the cost of the jewels to be paid from Grand Chapter funds, and not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars each. That the Grand Secretary is hereby authorize and directed to procure such testimonials and have the same ready for presentation at the proper time."

The recommendation of the Committee was concurred in and General Regulation No. 8 unanimously adopted.

Report of Committee on Correspondence.

Companion William Abraham Davies, Chairman of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence, presented the report of that Committee, and, upon his suggestion, the report was ordered published with the Proceedings.

Miscellaneous.

Companion William Parker Filmer then addressed Grand Chapter, referring to the "Traveling Silver Trowel," the "Messenger of Masonic Good Will"; its journey round the world, and its contemplated trip to the City of Mexico, escorted by representatives of the Grand Lodge of California and other prominent members of the Masonic Fraternity.

Companion Thomas Flint called attention to the concert to be given by the young ladies' guitar and mandolin club of the Masonic Home at Decoto, on Friday evening, April 23, at the Ebell Club, Oakland, with an assurance of an enjoyable time to all those who would attend.

Companion William Monroe Petrie announced that the Order of High Priesthood would be conferred this evening in Golden Gate Commandery Hall upon all Companion High Priests and Past High Priests presenting themselves at that time to receive the same.

Cordial invitations were extended to the members present to attend meetings of Berkeley, Oakland, and Marin Chapters, and a hearty welcome assured all visiting Companions.

The Grand Chapter was called off until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Wednesday, April 21st.

In Grand Chapter

Golden Gate Hall,
Wednesday Morning, April 21, 1909.

The Grand Chapter was called on at 10 o'clock, the M. E. Grand High Priest presiding.

The minutes of April 20th were read and approved.

In Memoriam.

The report of the Committee on Necrology, in so far as that report refers to the death of Most Excellent Companion Jacob Hart Neff, was read by the Grand Secretary, and, on motion of Companion James Robert Tapscott, adopted by a rising vote and ordered published in the Proceedings.

In connection therewith, Companion James Edward Gordon offered the following resolution:

"That 12,000 copies of the report, with the photo or halftone of our beloved Companion, be printed for general distribution to Royal Arch Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction."

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Report of Committee on New Temple.

The Committee on New Temple reported as follows :

To the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of California:

The Masonic Temple Association of California has purchased and entirely paid for a lot of land situated at the northwest corner of Van Ness Avenue and Oak Street, which said lot is eminently suitable and fitting for our proposed new Masonic Temple; and has prepared preliminary sketches of plans for the erection of a five-story building, including stores, lodgerooms, Chapter halls and Commandery quarters, together with suitable offices for all purposes of the Craft; which preliminary plans are now submitted to the Grand Chapter in the hope that any of the Companions may make suggestions which will add to the beauty and convenience of the building.

The Directors of the Masonic Temple Association propose to proceed with all convenient dispatch to the erection of said New Temple, and this Committee recommends that the Grand Chapter lend its financial aid thereto.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD COLEMAN,

FREDK. WM. G. MOEBUS.

Committee.

At the conclusion of the reading of the report, Companion John Whicher exhibited and explained the plans for the New Temple. Thereupon the following resolution was offered by Companion John Harrison Haydon :

"Resolved, That the three principal officers of Grand Chapter, together with the Chairman of the Finance Committee, be empowered to subscribe from the funds of this Grand Chapter, in addition to the subscription authorized on April 16, 1907, the sum of $10,000.00 for the purpose of purchasing stock in The Masonic Temple Association of California."

The resolution was referred to the Finance Committee.

The report of the Committee on New Chapters was then read by Companion Henry Ascroft, concurred in, and the Charters ordered issued under the names and numbers recommended by the Committee.

Report of Committee on New Chapters.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on New Chapters have made an examination of the books and records of the two Chapters organized under Dispensation.

We have examined the books and records submitted by East Gate Chapter at Los Angeles, and the Deputy Grand Lecturer vouches for the proficiency and enthusiasm of its officers and members. Your Committee therefore recommends that a Charter be granted to them, under the name and number of East Gate Chapter, No. 103.

La Purissima Chapter, located at Lompoc, Santa Barbara County, has complied with all the requirements, and the Deputy Grand Lecturer vouches for their ability to exemplify the Capitular Degrees; we therefore recommend that a Charter be granted under the name and number of La Purissima Chapter, No. 104.

Your Committee recommends that the communication received from Companions A. W. Keddle and J. M. Little, referring to the "reformation of a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons at Quincy, Plumas County, and their offer to purchase the robes and paraphernalia formerly the property of Manzanita Chapter, and now in the possession of our Grand Secretary, be referred to the incoming Grand High Priest and Grand Lecturer, with power to act.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY ASCROFT,
STANLEY ANDREW SMITH,
JAMES E. GORDON,
ERNEST GORDON,
ROBERT HENRY BROWN,

Committee.

Companion Charles Lewis Patton, chairman of the Committee on Jurisprudence, made the following report, which was concurred in:

Report of Jurisprudence Committee.

To the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Jurisprudence, to which was referred those portions of the address of the Most Excellent Grand High Priest regarding dispensations granted, decisions rendered, and recommending that all Chapters be visited at least once in each year by an officer of the Grand Chapter, reports as follows:

The Committee finds that the dispensations granted by the M. E. Grand High Priest were strictly within the powers granted by the Constitution of the Grand Chapter and recommends that his action in granting each of them be approved.

The Committee recommends that the decisions of the M. E. Grand High Priest relative to jurisdiction of Chapters, withdrawing petitions for degrees, objections made before a brother has received a degree, and as to restoration of a Companion suspended for nonpayment of dues be approved, assuming the word "arrearages" in the last named decision to include the dues which would have accrued after the suspension.

As the Committee understands the decision in relation to a Chapter's receiving the petition of a brother Master Mason residing in this State over six months, the decision of the M. E. Grand High Priest is right, but the brother must apply to the particular Chapter within whose jurisdiction he resides.

It is true that the Constitution of the Grand Chapter does not restrict the action of a Chapter in creating life membership, but it is also true, as stated by the M. E. Grand High Priest, that such life membership must be established in the by-laws of the Chapter, and the by-laws, of course, must be approved by the Grand Chapter.

As we understand the address, the M. E. Grand High Priest expresses his opinion that one in any way engaged in the liquor business is not a fit person to receive our degrees, and as an expression of opinion the sentiment is one with which all companions might well agree, but the provisions of the Constitution do not cover such a case.

The decision that all actions or business done at a meeting, of which the sentinel's register does not show the constitutional number of Companions present, is null and void, is undoubtedly well calculated to impress upon the Chapters the importance of seeing to it that members and visitors record their names in the register which the Constitution provides shall be kept in the guard's room (v. 11, Art. 6, Sec. 4, Sub. 4); but, as no penalty is provided in the Constitution for not so recording the names, the Committee believes that a meeting would be entirely regular if the number of members required by the ritual were actually and in fact present, whether they had all registered or not.

The Committee concurs with the M. E. Grand High Priest in his opinion that it would be extremely desirable for the M. E. Grand High Priest, Grand Lecturer, or other Grand Officers to visit each Chapter in the State, at least once in each year, as it feels that the interests of Royal Arch Masonry would be well subserved by such visitations, but the Committee also feels that these officers will, in the future as in the past, all endeavor to so regulate matters that the result may be accomplished without the necessity of any change in our law.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM DENNISON STEPHENS,
WILLIAM PRESTON BUTCHER,

Report of Committee on Earthquake and Fire History.

Companion Wm. Dennison Stephens, for the Committee on Earthquake and Fire History, stated that they were unable to make a complete report, owing to the fact that several of the Companions present at the meeting of April, 1906, had failed to respond to the request for letters.

The committee was granted further time.

Relative to Suspensions, Etc., in Blue Lodges.

On motion of Companion W. Frank Pierce, it was ordered that the Grand Secretary of this Grand Chapter furnish a list of suspensions, expulsions, and restorations of members of the Blue Lodges of California to Chapters of this Grand Jurisdiction, if such information was given to him by the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge.

The report of the Committee on By-Laws was read, concurred in, and the By-Laws and Amendments to By-Laws approved as recommended by the Committee.

Report of Committee on By-Laws.

To the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on By-Laws, after due consideration of the same, respectfully report as follows:

We find the by-laws adopted and amendments made by the several Chapters naated to conform to the requirements of the Constitution and regulations of the Grand Chapter, and recommend their approval.

La Purissima Chapter, U. D., and East Gate Chapter, U. D., each have adopted the uniform code.

Amendments to their by-laws have been made by the following Chapters:

By Santa Monica Bay Chapter, No. 97, changing date of stated meeting to the first Thursday of each month.

Tulare Chapter, No. 71, fixing annual dues at two dollars, payable semi-annually.

Santa Rosa Chapter, No. 45, fixing fees for the degrees at forty dollars and dues at three dollars per annum.

Corinthian Chapter, No. 51, striking out Section 2, Article 6, relative to the affiliation fee.

Orange Grove Chapter, No. 99, fixing fee of the Tyler.

King Solomon Chapter, No. 95, changing the dates of stated meetings to first and third Saturday in each month.

Franklin Chapter, No. 20, changing the date of its stated meeting to the second Thursday in each month.

Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93, standing resolution relative to life membership and fee therefor.

Visalia Chapter, No. 44, changing the date of stated meeting to the fourth Tuesday in each month.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. GAYNOR,
WM. ZEPH McBRIDE,
ALBERT SUMNER BRADFORD,
JOHN HANCOCK,
CHAS. BAKEWELL, ATTERBURY,

Committee.

Companion Wm. Dennison Stephens presented the report of the Committee on Returns, and the report was concurred in.

Report of Committee on Returns.

To the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Returns of Constituent Chapters respectfully report as follows:

The returns from all the Chapters have been received by the Grand Secretary, together with the accompanying dues, and are correct in every particular.

The amount for which the several Chapters were indebted is as follows:

Report of Committee on Grievances.

Companion Edward Swift West, Chairman of the Committee on Grievances, reported for that Committee as follows:

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Grievances have been searching this Grand Chapter from one side to the other, but have been unable to find anything to do. That is a bad state of affairs, we know. No trouble anywhere. We congratulate Grand Chapter, however, and sincerely hope that Committees on Grievances in future may be kept equally as busy on the same lines.

The report was concurred in, the Grand High Priest remarking that he was pleased to receive such a report and commending the Companions on the fact that this Committee had been without employment.

The Grand Chapter was called off for lunch, to be called on at 2 o'clock P. M.

In Grand Chapter

Golden Gate Hall, April 21, 1909.

Afternoon Session, 2:35 o'clock.

The Grand Chapter called on, the M. E. Grand High Priest presiding.

Reports of Committee on Finance.

Companion James Bestor Merritt, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported as follows:

I.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Finance have carefully examined the books of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer and find the same neatly and correctly kept.

We find that the statement of receipts and disbursements as shown by their several reports is correct, and that the warrants were authorized by the Grand Chapter.

We further find that the recommendations made by your committee at our last session regarding the segregation of certain funds has been faithfully carried out by the Grand Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES BESTOR MERRITT,
WILLIAM MONROE PETRIE,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,

Committee.

The report was concurred in.

II.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Finance have carefully examined the papers in the office of the Grand Secretary relating to the contributions made by our own and Chapters of other jurisdictions and Grand Chapters. We find that every paper relating to the receipt and disposition of these contributions is properly filed and that all funds not expended in relief have been returned to the donors.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES BESTOR MERRITT,
WILLIAM MONROE PETRIE,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,

Committee.

The report was concurred in.

III.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee to whom was referred the resolution offered by Companion John Harrison Haydon relative to an additional subscription of $10,000 to purchase stock in The Masonic Temple Association of California, report:

That we find the resolution is not mandatory, and leaves the matter in the discretion of the Council and Chairman of the Finance Committee;

That the state of the funds of the Grand Chapter apparently warrants such appropriation, and we recommend the adoption of the resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES BESTOR MERRITT,
WILLIAM MONROE PETRIE,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,

Committee.

The report was concurred in and the resolution adopted.

IV.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee to whom was referred the resolution of Companion James Edward Gordon, authorizing the printing of such portion of the report of the Committee on Necrology as relates to Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion Jacob Hart Neff, for general distribution to Royal Arch Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction, report:

That we advise the changing of the number of copies to be printed from 12,000 to 2,000, and with this change recommend the adoption of the resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES BESTOR MERRITT,
WILLIAM MONROE PETRIE,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,

Committee.

The report was concurred in, the number of copies to be printed changed from 12,000 to 2,000, and the resolution adopted.

V.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES BESTOR MERRITT,
WILLIAM MONROE PETRIE,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,
Committee.

The report was concurred in and the several appropriations made as recommended by the Committee.

Remarks by Grand High Priest.

The M. E. Grand High Priest stated that the Grand High Priest-elect was too ill to be present for installation; but that as soon as sufficiently recovered Companion Monroe should be installed without delay, and that he hoped to have the pleasure of officiating at that ceremony.

He then said that a list of the appointments of the Grand High Priest-elect had been received, and directed the Grand Secretary to read the same.

Installation.

The time for the Special Order, the Installation of Officers, having arrived, Past Grand High Priest Charles Lewis Patton was requested to act as Master of Ceremonies, and the following named Companions were then duly installed in the respective offices to which they had been elected or appointed to serve for the ensuing Capitular year:

Comp. JAMES ROBERT TAPSCOTT, Deputy Grand High Priest.
Comp. CHARLES WILLIS NORTON, Grand King.
Comp. LEO VALTUS YOUNGWORTH, Grand Scribe.
Comp. FRANKLIN HENRY DAY, Grand Treasurer.
Comp. WILLIAM ABRAHAM DAVIES, Grand Secretary.
Comp. EDWIN ALLEN SHERMAN, Grand Chaplain.
Comp. HENRY ASCROFT, Grand Lecturer.
Comp. WILLIAM WHITTINGHAM LYMAN, Grand Captain of the Host.

Comp. THOMAS OCHTREIGH HEYDENFELDT, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

Comp. SAMUEL DAVID MAYER, Grand Organist.

Comp. GEORGE WASHINGTON PERKINS, Grand Guard.

Proclamation was then made by the Master of Ceremonies and the new officers saluted with the Grand Honors:

Relative to Testimonial.

Companion James Bestor Merritt stated that he regretted the fact that the testimonial to the retiring Grand High Priest was not ready at this time, and suggested that the presentation take place in his home Chapter as soon as practicable. It was so ordered.

Thanks to Retiring Grand High Priest.

On motion of Companion Charles Lewis Patton it was unanimously resolved:

That the thanks of Grand Chapter be tendered to M.'. E.'. Companion Frederick Wm. G. Moebus for the satisfactory manner in which he had discharged the duties of the office of Grand High Priest during the past year and the able manner in which he had presided over this Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation.

Companion Moebus responded feelingly to the compliment, thanking the Companions very kindly for their appreciation of his efforts.

Relative to Sherman Letter.

Companion James Robert Tapscott stated that he had a communication to offer. He said: "I do not think it inappropriate at this time to give to Grand Chapter the contents of a letter intended for our M.'. E.'. Grand High Priest, whose term of office is just closing; but he has permitted me to read it, and I believe the writer has such a high standing in this Grand Jurisdiction that it will entitle anything he says to weight; and I believe he has expressed to our Companion M.'. E.'. Frederick Wm. G. Moebus, in language more eloquent than I could have used, the sentiments of every member of this Grand Chapter."

Letter from Companion Edwin Allen Sherman.

Masonic Veteran Association of the Pacific Coast.

Office of Edwin A. Sherman (33°),

Right Venerable Grand Secretary,

1364 Franklin St., Oakland Cal., April 20, 1909.

Frederick Wm. G. Moebus (33°), M. V. E. Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter, R. A. M. of California.

DEAR SIR, COMPANION AND BROTHER: Being somewhat hard of hearing, and from the place where I sat, in the southeast corner of the hall, I could not hear distinctly what you said today in your address, I brought a printed copy home with me, and after tea, and being somewhat rested, I sat down and carefully read every word of it: and without flattery to you, I must say in justice, it is the finest and purest address of any Grand High Priest that I have ever read in all of my 55 years of experience in Masonic Life.

It is an expansion and addition to the "Sermon on the Mount," and ought to be in every Master Mason's home.

I congratulate you on having lifted up the Masonic Standard of California, to the highest exaltation possible, in patriotism, morality, purity, loftiness of ideal of all that is good and true: and you will retire from office with the most fervent love and esteem of your companions with their best wishes for your happiness and prosperity while time with you shall last.

The real Chaplain of our Grand Chapter has been the Grand High Priest, M. V. E. Frederick Wm. G. Moebus, who is about to retire, and to whom I return my congratulations and most grateful thanks for the appointment received at his hands.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

EDWIN A. SHERMAN (33°), G. C.,

Grand Chaplain of the Grand Chapter of R. A. M. of California.

(In my 80th year.)

"It seems to me that this communication should be prized to the end of the days of our Most Excellent Companion, and I request that he submit it to our Grand Secretary for publication in the Proceedings, even though it is private in its nature."

A motion to incorporate the letter in the Proceedings was unanimously carried.

Regrets to Grand High Priest-Elect.

On motion of Companion Leo Valtus Youngworth, unanimously carried, Companion Thomas Ochtreich Heydenfeldt was requested to convey to Companion George Hays Monroe, Grand High Priest-elect, the regrets of Grand Chapter at his inability to be present at this session, and the earnest wishes of its members for his speedy recovery; also that a suitable floral testimonial be provided, to be presented to Companion Monroe at that time.

Remarks by Emanuel Henry Luxton.

Companion Emanuel Henry Luxton, of Orange Chapter, No. 73, tendered his sincere thanks, and expressed his appreciation of the instruction received in the "Work," for the fraternal feeling and affection which had been manifested during the convocation, and for all the courtesies extended; inviting any and all of the Companions to visit Orange Chapter, with the assurance that although they might be handed a lemon, a hearty welcome awaited them.

Mileage and Per Diem.

The Grand Treasurer announced that he was prepared to cash any demands recommended by the Committee on Pay of Delegates and ordered paid by Grand Chapter.

Closing.

No further business appearing, the minutes of the session were read and approved, and, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

GRAND CONVENTION
OF THE
ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD
OF THE
STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Fiftieth Annual Convocation.

The Fiftieth Annual Convocation of the Anointed High Priests of California assembled in Golden Gate Commandery Hall, at 2135 Sutter street, Tuesday evening, April 20, 1909, at 8 o'clock, being at the close of the first day's Convocation of the Grand Chapter.

The officers were present, with the exception of E.'. Companion Jacob Hart Neff, Vice-President, whose earthly career having ended on March 26, 1909, his spirit is now in the realms of eternal bliss.

E.'. Companion James Bestor Merritt filled the office of Vice-President by request.

M.'. E.'. President, William Abraham Davies, presided, and E.'. Comp. Franklin Henry Day was Treasurer and Recorder.

The following named Companions were present :

B. B. Cartwright, Wm. Buckley Davis, W. H. Gaynor, J. C. Gerichs, Daniel Hyman, James Mason, A. L. Mendenhall, H. S. Orme, J. A. Pederson, J. B. Richardson, J. A. Sansom, J. U. Spence, S. H. Wagener, John Whicher, C. L. Whitaker, and C. J. Willett.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with, the members being furnished with printed copies of the Grand Chapter proceedings.

The Recorder reported the loss from the last annual roll of one Past Grand High Priest, together with seven Companions, Past High Priests. They are:

M. E. Comp. JACOB HART NEFF, Past Grand High Priest,

GILBERT BURNETT CLAIBORNE, ANDREW THOMPSON CULBERTSON,
DOLPH BRICE FAIRBANKS,
KAUFMAN GREEN,
CHARLES JOHN HELLWIG,
FREEMAN HUNNEWELL,
JOSEPH MILLER LITCHFIELD,

Past High Priests.

The conferring of the Order of High Priesthood being the business before the Convention, the following named Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood, each Companion being presented with a copy of the Blessed Book of the Law as a symbol of his consecration:

WILLIAM LADD WILLIS, H. P., Sacramento Chapter, No. 3.
GEORGE ULYSSES MOYSE, H. P., Los Angeles Chapter, No. 33.
WALTER STANLEY PIERCE, H. P., Naval Chapter, No. 35.
WALLACE COVERT PRICE, H. P., Oakland Chapter, No. 36.
PHILIP SHERIDAN CURTIS, H. P., Santa Cruz Chapter,
No. 38.

HARRY WILSON BEATTY, H. P., Corinthian Chapter, No. 51.
HIRAM DELL SIBLEY, H. P., Keystone Chapter, No. 56.
CHARLES WYLIE BUKER, H. P., San Diego Chapter, No. 61.
JOHN AUGUSTINE CULL, H. P., Antioch Chapter, No. 65.
EARL WARREN NAY, H. P., Crown Chapter, No. 72.
EMANUEL HENRY LUXTON, H. P., Orange Chapter, No. 73.

ALBERT SUMNER BRADFORD, H. P., Fullerton Chapter,
No. 90.

DOZIER FINLEY, H. P., Berkeley Chapter, No. 92.

ROBERT WILLIAM THORNE, H. P., Granite Chapter, No. 94.

The Convention proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the following were chosen and duly installed:

WILLIAM ABRAHAM DAVIES..M.'. E.'. President
HENRY SAYRE ORME.....Vice-President
THOMAS OCHT'REIGH HEYDENFELDT...Chaplain
FRANKLIN HENRY DAY....Treasurer and Recorder
HENRY ASCROFT.....Master of Ceremonies
HUGH JAMES OWEN.....Conductor
JAMES EDWARD GORDON.....Herald
JOHN GOULD BISBEE.....Steward
GEORGE WASHINGTON PERKINS.....Sentinel

The President directed the attention of the Excellent Companions to the Vice-President's station, which was clothed in mourning and covered with flowers for one who had filled it so honorably for the past quarter of a century, having been chosen Vice-President of the Convention at its Twenty-fifth Annual Convocation, in April, 1884.

During the twenty-five years gone by it is needless for me to tell you that our Most Excellent Companion Jacob Hart Neff has enjoyed the love and highest fraternal regard of his brethren, Companions, friends and fellow-citizens; he has honored every position to which he has been called by the fraternity and by the State.

Our Most Excellent Companion has passed out of our lives forever, but his memory will remain with us to the end of our earthly work.

Our brethren of the Grand Lodge, Companions of the Capitular Bodies and Sir Knights of the Grand Commandery of California have noted his departure and placed on record their testimony of his worth and his useful life in the several departments of Masonry in which he has served. We will not attempt to add to the deserved eulogy they have pronounced—his example will remain with us to inspire and lead us to follow him in the exemplification of the tenets of Freemasonry.

The seven Excellent Companions who have, with him, passed into the shadow of the future, have alike our sympathy and sorrow at the severance of our fraternal relations, and we would say of them and to their friends and relatives, "May the Lord bless thee and keep thee. Make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee. Lift upon thee the light of his countenance and give thee peace."

After prayer by the Excellent Chaplain, the Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

FRANKLIN HENRY DAY, Recorder.

"And I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

Necrology

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Necrology submit the following report:

"When the good man yields his breath,
For the good man never dies!
Bright beyond the gulf of death
Lo! the land of promise lies."

"Tears of sorrow are for the living,
The dead are in their graves."

Our Companions live, however, in their actions, their thoughts and influences. In these respects they live for us, and forever. These emblems of mourning are not for them—they are for us; that we while paying tribute to their worth, cherishing their memory, profiting by their example and eulogizing their services, may take home the lesson of their lives, and so shape ours that we may be deemed worthy of the same honors.

Poor indeed is he who, when he has passed away, has left no friend to mourn for him; no one to miss his vacant place; no heart to acknowledge that death has struck a blow.

In these respects the dead whose memory we honor as Royal Arch Masons in the ceremonies on the present occasion were rich indeed. Grand Bodies, societies and communities mourn the loss they have sustained, and Masonry itself places before the world with a tearful pride these evidences of regret, grief and sorrow.

Although favored by Divine Providence in the preservation of our official circle beyond the tribute demanded of many other jurisdictions, the loss has been felt by the fraternity in California to the center of its inmost circle by the death of Most Excellent Companion Jacob Hart Neff, Grand High Priest in 1872. Upon the announcement of his death the Companions assembled in the Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter, upon the report of its Committee on Necrology, adopted and ordered published the following Memorial:

In Memoriam

JACOB HART NEFF

Born Oct. 13, 1830.

Died March 26, 1909.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Necrology beg leave to submit a partial report:

Death has come to us suddenly and unheralded. A Leader has fallen—not a leader in the sense of one with authority and power to execute his will, but a leader whose faith was founded in the tenets of Freemasonry and the practice of its virtues.

Our friend and Most Excellent Companion, Jacob Hart Neff, has passed to the great beyond, and we would note his passage while the facts connected with his life among us are fresh in the public mind and obtainable from the public press. We accordingly excerpt from the Press of San Francisco a biographical sketch of the life of this Eminent Brother, Companion and Frater as a Citizen, Public Official and Mason:

former Lieutenant Governor of California, and bearer, after years of political activity, of the affectionate title 'Honest Uncle Jake Neff,' passed away at his home, 1154 O'Farrell street, shortly after 11:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

"Friends of the beloved old pioneer, who was one of the survivors of the early promoters of California's prosperity, are making arrangements for his burial, and it has been decided that his body shall lie in state at the residence until the funeral.

"Governor Neff had been ill for a week, but it was not expected, although he was nearly 79 years of age, that the indisposition would cause his death; but the heart failed and the end came suddenly, when the friends about him thought his recovery was but a matter of a few days' nursing.

"Mining men throughout the State, and particularly in Placer and Nevada counties, will, with his thousands of friends in every other walk of life, join in mourning his death. His sober judgment was eagerly sought in times of trial and his word was unquestioned.

"He made several fortunes during his active life, but his charity was widespread. He lived simply and without extravagance, and although not wealthy as that word is defined in these days of large fortunes, he left a moderate estate which he devised among relatives.

"He was born October 13th, 1830, in Strassburg, Pennsylvania. When but a lad the family moved to Iowa, and it was from Burlington, after having learned the blacksmith's trade, that young Neff followed the trails across the plains for California in April, 1850.

"In August of that year he arrived at Placerville, then known as 'Hangtown,' on foot and hungry. He went thence to Greenwood Valley, El Dorado county, and later to Iowa Hill, in Placer county, and engaged in mining until 1863, when he went to Illinoistown to construct a toll road between Colfax and Grass Valley, and later he conducted a merchandise store at Dutch Flat.

"He entered politics as a Republican in 1867, in which year he was elected Sheriff of Placer county. He was State Senator from the same county from 1871 to 1875. In 1876 he was appointed by President Grant one of three Commissioners to inspect the new Oregon and California Railroad.

"For four years following 1879 he was a member of the Board of Prison Directors and several years afterward he was re-appointed for a term of six years.

"The miners of the State demonstrated their affection for him in 1892 by electing him President of the 'Miners' Association,' and for six consecutive years he was re-elected.

"He presided over three State Conventions, and in 1898 he was chosen Lieutenant Governor by a vote that showed the deep-seated affection with which the citizens of California regarded him.

"His Masonic career began in Wisconsin Hill Lodge, No. 74, in September, 1856, and he filled the several stations in that organization. He was a Charter Member, Secretary and Master of Ionic Lodge, No. 121, which he aided in establishing in 1859. He affiliated with Eureka Lodge, No. 16, at Auburn in 1869.

"He received the Capitular Degrees in Libanus Chapter, No. 17, at Iowa Hill, in 1856, and was High Priest thereof for four years.

"He assisted in the forming and opening of Siloam Chapter, No. 37, at Colfax in 1869, and was its High Priest for seven years.

"He was Vice-President of the Convention of High Priests of California for many years and until his death.

"He received the degrees of Royal and Select Master in Sacramento Council, No. 1, in 1861, and was Knighted in Nevada Commandery, No. 6, in 1866, and was made Commander thereof in 1878.

"He received the 32d degree of the Scottish Rite in 1882."

cil in 1900, and Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery in 1892.

He was also Grand Chancellor of the Grand Consistory, A. & A., Scottish Rite, in 1890.

Jacob Hart Neff never married, and this was a point upon which his three companions, Franklin Henry Day, William Abraham Davies, and Jerome Bonaparte Richardson, his companions of "The Anniversary Quartet," often rallied him. These four men celebrated their respective birthdays each year, and the Governor was the youngest of the quartet.

Henry Disque, a nephew, who lived with him at 1154 O'Farrell street, is his nearest surviving relative and has made his home with the Governor for many years at Auburn and Colfax.

Probably no Companion whose name is now borne on the rolls of the Grand Chapter or Grand Commandery will be so greatly missed and so universally regretted. As Man and as Mason he was beloved by all, and among the fraternity will be best remembered for his zeal and fidelity in the cause of Masonry. As a Brother, Companion, and Frater, he was modest, earnest and true hearted; his honor was never impeached or questioned, and we may write, without fear of contradiction, that the Grand Bodies of Masonry in California have lost a devoted friend and faithful officer.

Let the Altars, Banners and Emblems of our profession be garbed in mourning for the loss of this Beloved Mason.

Your Committee submit the following resolutions and recommend their adoption:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty Father in His infinite wisdom to remove our Companion, Friend and Frater, Jacob Hart Neff, from his place of usefulness on earth to a home in another sphere prepared for the just and upright Man and Mason, and though the blow be heavy, we bow in humble submission to His will and respond, "God wills it and we are content."

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the relatives and friends of our departed Friend and Brother, and commit them to the care of Him who doeth all things well.

The funeral of our beloved Companion was held on March 29th from Golden Gate Commandery Hall, under the auspices of California Lodge, No. 1, F. & A. M., the solemn service being followed by an eloquent tribute of affectionate regard from the Rev. George C. Adams, D. D., Pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, of which our Friend and Companion was a regular attendant.

The procession moved under the escort of California and Golden Gate Commanderies; the burial was at Woodlawn, where the remains—hidden beneath mounds of fragrant flowers—were placed to await the final summons.

WILLIAM A. DAVIES,
SAMUEL H. WAGENER,
W. FRANK PIERCE,
Committee.

"Take them, O Father, in immortal trust,
Ashes to ashes, dust to kindred dust.
Till the last Angel rolls the stone away!
And a new morning brings eternal day.

—HOLMES.

KAUFMAN GREEN, San Luis Chapter No. 62, died November 18, 1908.

THOMAS HENRY SLATOR (King), Sonora Chapter, No. 2, died September 17, 1908.

During the past year 164 members of our subordinate Chapters have passed to rest, beloved Companions, Royal Arch Masons; let their names be registered and placed in the archives of Capitular Masonry in testimony of their faithful service in this Grand Jurisdiction.

Ah, Christ, that it were possible

For one short hour to see

The souls we loved that they might tell us

What and where they be. —TENNYSON.

RULES OF ORDER

OF THE

Grand Chapter of California

Rule 1. When the Grand Chapter shall have assembled, the Grand Secretary shall call the roll of its members, and if a sufficient number of the Chapters are represented, the Grand Chapter shall be opened. The Grand High Priest shall then appoint a Committee on Credentials, and no further business shall be transacted until after its report shall have been received.

Rule 2. After the reception of the Report on Credentials, the proceedings of the preceding Convocation shall be read by the Grand Secretary, unless their reading be dispensed with; the Address of the Grand High Priest, and the reports of the Deputy Grand High Priest, Secretary, and Grand Treasurer, shall be presented, and appropriately referred, in the order here named; and the Grand High Priest shall appoint the regular committees, to whom all papers then in the hands of the Grand Secretary, requiring such reference, shall be at once referred. The Committee on Correspondence shall then present its annual report.

Rule 3. After the business of the Convocation is thus begun, the regular order for each session, during its continuance, shall be as follows:

1. Reading of the minutes of the last session.
2. Report of the Committee on Credentials.
3. Reception and action upon, or reference of, petitions, memorials and appeals.
4. Reports of Regular and Special Committees, and action thereupon.
5. Motions, resolutions, and other business.

Rule 4. All reports submitted, all petitions, memorials, or appeals presented, and all orders, motions, or resolutions, shall be in writing, and shall be read by the Grand Secretary, before any action is taken thereupon.

Rule 5. No motion to reconsider shall be entertained, unless made during the same session when the question proposed to be reconsidered was decided, nor unless such motion be made by one who voted with the majority upon that question.

Rule 6. When a day and hour shall have been named for the election of Grand Officers, such election shall, at that time, take precedence of all other business, unless the Grand Chapter, by a two-thirds vote, shall otherwise direct.

Rule 7. These rules shall only be suspended by unanimous consent, but may at any time be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

GENERAL REGULATIONS
OF THE
Grand Chapter of California

1. Each Chapter under this jurisdiction shall pay, in addition to its annual dues, the sum of twenty-five cents for each Royal Arch Mason borne upon its roll at the date of its annual report; which additional assessment shall be used as a fund to defray the actual expenses of transportation of one delegate from each Chapter represented at the Annual Convocations of the Grand Chapter—the same to be apportioned by a special committee appointed for that purpose.

2. From and after the first day of September, 1874, no High Priest of a Chapter under this jurisdiction shall be installed, unless he shall present to the installing officer a certificate from the Grand Lecturer, or some Companion known by the Grand Lecturer to be skilled in the work, that he is qualified to properly confer all the Chapter degrees and deliver the lectures thereunto appertaining; and the installing officer shall forward such certificate to the Grand Secretary.

3. That at all future Convocations of this Grand Chapter, no member thereof shall receive his per diem and transportation expenses from the Representative Fund until such Convocation shall have been regularly closed.

4. That whenever the charter or dispensation of any subordinate Chapter of this jurisdiction shall have been destroyed by fire, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Grand Secretary, on satisfactory proof of such loss, to issue a duplicate charter or dispensation to such Chapter without charge.

5. At each Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter, at 2 o'clock p. m., on the first day thereof, the Grand Lecturer shall exemplify before the Grand Chapter one or more of the degrees, or cause the same to be done by Companions selected by him for that purpose.

6. It shall be a Masonic offense for any Royal Arch Mason to appear at any meeting of his Chapter, or in the Chapter hall, or in public, in a state of intoxication, and any Companion so offending, shall, on conviction thereof, be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Royal Arch Masonry.

7. That the Past Grand High Priests of this Grand Chapter be allowed the same mileage and per diem as the Grand Officers thereof.

8. That commencing with the Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation, at each annual convocation of Grand Chapter, upon the conclusion of the installation ceremonies, a Past Grand High Priest's Jewel, be presented to the retiring Grand High Priest; the cost of the Jewels to be paid from Grand Chapter funds, and not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars each. That the Grand Secretary is hereby authorized and directed to procure such testimonial and have the same ready for presentation at the proper time.

* Proceedings for 1907 and 1908, not received Statistics for 1907 from report to General Grand Chapter.

England has 996 Chapters, including 137 Colonial and Foreign, Scotland 225 and Ireland 175. Estimated membership 40 each, or 52,000. There are about 60 Chapters and 2,000 members in the five Australian Grand Chapters. The average membership in America is about 100 to each Chapter.

Estimated membership in November, 1907, 357,000, and in the world, 407,090.

REPORT

OF THE

COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE

For the Year Ending April, 1909

To the M.·. E.·. Grand Chapter of California:

In accordance with our laws and usage we submit herewith a report of the condition and progress of Capitular Masonry in the several jurisdictions of the Masonic world. With this purpose in view we have examined the doings of the Grand Bodies noted in the table at the close of this report.

As usual we have arranged the jurisdictions reviewed in alphabetical order for the convenience of reference. We commence with Alabama first, which in accordance with its motto should be last, but we are related, and blood is thicker than water.

ALABAMA.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama held a Special Convocation at Birmingham, January 23, 1908, for the purpose of installing R.·. E.·. Comp. Wm. E. Gingham into the office of Grand Scribe of the Grand Chapter. Fifty-six Chapters were represented.

The Grand High Priest opened the Grand Chapter in Ample Form.

The R.·. E.·. Comp. William E. Bingham was duly installed to the office of Grand Scribe by M.·. E.·. Comp. Lew Lazarus, Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. Basil M. Hill acting as Grand Marshal.

The Forty-second Annual Communication of this Grand Chapter was held in Masonic Temple, Montgomery, November 30, 1908,—M.·. E.·. Comp. Lew Lazarus, Grand High Priest, presiding; R.·. E.·. Comp. George A. Beauchamp being Grand Secretary. Fifty-six Chapters were represented, six Past Grand High Priests were present, with the Representatives of thirty other Grand Jurisdictions. E.·. Comp. Thomas O. Heydenfelt represents the Grand Chapter of Alabama near the Grand Chapter of California.

Portraits of Grand High Priest Lazarus and Past Grand High Priests Josiah Jernigan and John Gideon Harris appear in the present volume.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address and report of his official acts. After affectionately greeting the assembled Companions, he devoutly gave thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for His kindly care and supervision over them as individuals and as a Grand Chapter. We excerpt his words as more emphatic and beyond the ken of a Reporter's notes. He said:

"I see before me the dear, familiar faces of those faithful brethren who have come here year after year, and it is with a feeling of joy and happiness that I greet you again.

"Our great State must be unusually blessed. While other commonwealths have suffered, we in Alabama have not gone backward. Our soil has produced 'bumper' crops this year. Our cotton and corn yields have been abundant. Coal and iron in thousands of tons have been given up by Mother Earth, and there are few of us indeed who are poorer in worldly goods or in health than we were one year ago. For this we are truly thankful.

"We have not only gained considerably in membership this year, but from every nook and corner of the State come reports of much interest and enthusiasm being displayed by the Companions in improving and perfecting their work."

We would call the foregoing a favorable report of his administration. And then, calling the Companions to their feet, while the Grand Secretary read the mournful death roll of the year, he announced the passing to rest of Past Grand High Priests Jernigan and Harris and fifty Companion Royal Arch Masons.

"Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb!
Take these new treasures to thy trust,
And give the sacred relics room
To slumber in their kindred dust."

The Representatives of other Grand Chapters present were given a hearty greeting by the Grand High Priest, M. V. E. V. Comp. Wm. Y. Titcomb responding to the welcome in their behalf.

The Grand Chapter proceeded with the dispatch of routine business until, after prayer by the R. V. E. V. and Rev'd Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was called from labor to refreshment until 7:30 o'clock this evening.

At the time appointed the Grand Chapter was called on, the Grand High Priest presiding. Several reports were made, considered and disposed of, and the following resolution adopted:

"Be it Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be and is hereby empowered and directed to purchase a suitable testimonial for our retiring Most Excellent Grand High Priest."

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests convened in Masonic Temple, Montgomery, at 12:30 P. M. of the first day's Convocation of the Grand Chapter,—M. E. Comp. George A. Beauchamp, President; the E. Comp. Basil M. Hill being Grand Recorder.

The annual election of officers was held. M. E. President Beauchamp was re-elected President, E. Comp. Basil M. Hill was re-elected Recorder.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A splendid report of 135 pages is the present contribution of E. Companion Titcomb to the Masonic literature of the year. He reviews California in its Fifty-fourth Annual, being the administration of M. E. Companion Willett.

He expresses his satisfaction at the presence of Alabama's Representative at the opening of the Annual Convocation and extends the sympathy of that Grand Chapter with us in the loss of three Past Grand High Priests in a single season. He notes fully the routine legislation, and as he enters no demurrer, we assume his approval of the action had. We excerpt the following:

"In concluding his review of Alabama, Companion Davies says: 'Companion Titcomb will please note that persons of or about the same age are generally most interested in each other's welfare. A corporation is a person, in a legal sense. The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama is a corporation of eighty-one years. The undersigned confesses to having entered upon his eighty-first year this present month; hence we must be somewhat related; and, as in duty bound, we say "God bless Alabama."'

"So our Companion's four-score milestone is passed. Well, in less than three months from this date (Nov. 2, 1908) the writer, if God spares his life so long, will be 82."

We did not suppose we were traveling in such good company, Companion Titcomb; we will go down the hill together. I am a member of a quartette of Excellent Companions who celebrate the days by dining together on our respective birthdays, all having been born in 1827. Two of the number, Companion Day and myself, were earliest in the field, coming to the country in the months of January and February, so that we are now full-fledged 82d degree veterans. The other members will come later—in June and October. You see this plan, Bro. Titcomb, gives each member four birthdays a year. How do you like it?

We regret to hear of Companion Titcomb's late illness, and trust it may result in the clearance for many years of vigorous health. We note an article in Companion Titcomb's conclusion that we desire to excerpt—to do this, we must shut up right here. The subject is "The Shrine." We quote:

"In these later days, as soon as a man finishes his Master Mason's degree, he is handed a Chapter petition. After the Royal Arch, somebody has a Commandery petition for his signature. Immediately after he is Knighted, a yellow Shrine petition makes its appearance. Moreover, a lot of young men itch to get into the Shrine, and go with a hop, skip, jump through the several Masonic degrees, en passant. It seems as if everybody and everything stood ready to help on the wild race for the Shrine. Dispensations are granted to hurry along, qualifications are ignored, black balls are withheld and Specials are held to give him the necessary preceding degrees. This is not too strong a statement of the facts. The candidate finally lands in the Shrine, where he enjoys himself hugely; but he has never absorbed the teachings of Masonry, and never knows even the principles or the signs and words of the Institution. Besides, he carries back into the Royal Arch all the horse-play he witnessed in the Shrine. He makes the mad race for the Shrine for a frolic, and has no relish for the Masonic degree unless they furnish opportunities for fun.

"Every State is experiencing difficulty in this direction. Some of them favor requiring a respectable interval between the conferring of the several degrees. We are heartily in favor of such a requirement, for the impetuous candidate, with his face set toward the Shrine as his ultimate aim, is too impatient to endure the delay of a few months' interval between the degrees. The Shrine, of which we are a member, is destroying Masonry. We accept full responsibility for this statement. Thousands of thoughtful Royal Arch Masons fully agree with us in this opinion. This condition of things has resulted in a sentiment that Lodge or Chapter Masonry is only a stepping-stone; in consequence, a mere Master Mason, or a mere Royal Arch Mason, stands discredited in the estimation of thousands who have attained the Shrine. Really the Shrine is only a Masonic Social Club.

"Of course, it is enjoyable, and some of the ceremonies are interesting, and some of its teachings are wholesome. True, the use of the Koran is entirely improper and offends the feelings of many. But it is not a Masonic Order, and its only relation to Masonry is that membership is confined to those who have become Knights Templar or Thirty-second Degree Scottish Rite Masons. Many Masonic Temples refuse to permit the use of their halls by the Shrine. The writer always attends the meetings of his Shrine, and is a trustee for its estate; nevertheless, he is free to say it has hurt Masonry in many ways. And this opinion is growing."

M. E. Comp. Robert W. Sutherland, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. George A. Beauchamp, Grand Secretary.

ARIZONA.

Eight Chapters.

554 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Arizona held its Eighteenth Annual Convocation in the Stope of the Lone Star Mine, under the town of Morenci, November 20, 1907,—M. E. Comp. Francis Marion Zuck, Deputy Grand High Priest, presiding.

Five of the eight Chartered Chapters were represented. The Grand Officers, except the Grand High Priest, were present. Six Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of sixteen other Grand Jurisdictions, together with representatives of six of the eight Chartered Chapters, were in attendance.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

The absent Grand High Priest addressed a communication to the Grand Chapter, which was read by the Grand Secretary, regretting his absence, caused by the recent death of his father, and asking the privilege of submitting his address at a later date, and that it be granted the usual place of that paper in the Journal of Proceedings, and it was voted that the request of the Grand High Priest be granted.

"No questions have been passed up to me for decisions during my year of office; in fact, our Masonic ship has sailed upon such untroubled waters that we have hardly needed a helmsman, but we have all been on deck, nevertheless, and ready for storms or sunshine, with our eyes turned upward, and in our hearts thankfulness for the past and hopefulness for the future."

The Grand Secretary made his usual concise and well arranged report. We note a net gain in membership of 42, and the passing to rest of 11 Companions.

The report of the Grand Treasurer attests the sound financial condition of the Grand Body.

A communication from the Grand Chaplain regrets his enforced absence from the Annual Convocation.

The Deputy Grand High Priest addressed the Grand Chapter, and, in conclusion, named the regular committees.

The following action was had concerning the absence of Grand High Priest Barnhart:

COMPANIONS: Your committee to whom was assigned the duty of preparing resolutions of sympathy, begs leave to report as follows:

Whereas, We note with deep regret the absence from the Session of this Grand Body of our Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Comp. A. D. Barnhart; and

Whereas, This enforced absence is caused by the death of his father, Comp. P. D. Barnhart; be it

Resolved, That this Grand Chapter extends to Most Excellent Grand High Priest A. D. Barnhart its heartfelt sympathy in his bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That in token of our sorrow, this Grand Chapter be draped in mourning for the customary period of time.

That these resolutions be made a part of our Grand Chapter Proceedings, and a copy thereof forwarded to Most Excellent Companion A. D. Barnhart.

The Grand Chapter having considered the reports of its committees and completed its business routine, the election of officers for the ensuing year was proceeded with, the Deputy Grand High Priest named the tellers, and the following Companions were chosen:

R. E. Francis Marion Zuck, Holbrook, Grand High Priest.

R. E. Selim Julius Michelson, Phoenix, D. G. High Priest.

R. E. Richard Lee Fuller, Tucson, Grand King.

R. E. John Griffith Pritchard, Bisbee, Grand Scribe.

R. E. John McQuaid Ormsby, Tucson, Grand Treasurer.

R. E. George James Roskrue, Tucson, Grand Secretary.

Rev. and E. Frederick T. Bennett, Prescott, Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the usual appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Fredericks, who also at the request of the Grand Chapter was assigned the duty of presenting to the retiring Grand High Priest the jewel of his office.

The regular committees were named and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form after prayer by the E. Grand Chaplain.

The Order of High Priesthood was not conferred and there was no Report on Correspondence.

M. E. Comp. Francis Marion Zuck, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Geo. James Roskrue, Grand Secretary.

ARKANSAS.

Eighty-two Chapters.

3,732 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Arkansas held its Fifty-ninth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Little Rock, November 19, 1908.—M. E. Comp. S. H. Davidson, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. John C. Bone, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with nine Past Grand High Priests, twenty Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Sixty-five of the eighty Chartered Chapters were represented.

Portraits of R. B. Hogins, Grand High Priest, and R. E. Comp. John C. Bone, Grand Secretary, appear in this number of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the E. Grand Chaplain, and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the address.

With a warm welcome to the Companions assembled, and thanks to the Throne of Grace for the privilege of coming together, with additional thanks for the prosperous condition of Capitular Masonry in Arkansas, he asked the Companions to join him in remembrance of those Companions who had gone before. Of their own tribes and families he said:

"Our official circle remains unbroken. No calamity has befallen any portion of our beloved State or country. Peace reigns throughout all civilized lands. The harvests have been bountiful, and despite a financial panic which has prevailed throughout the country for more than twelve months, we of Arkansas have grounds of gratulation in that our resources are so illimitable, our products so varied and abundant, and our climate so genial that, as a rule, health, happiness and a measure of prosperity have been ours to enjoy under conditions which have produced widespread calamity and dire want in less favored lands."

Of the condition of Royal Arch Masonry in the jurisdiction he says:

"The past year has been a period of distinct advancement and prosperity in the realm of Capitular Masonry, our Chapters are, with few exceptions, in a healthful condition morally, materially and financially, nearly three hundred new names have been added to our rolls."

He also gives due appreciation of numbering among their Companions the one "selected by the voice of his Companions" to fill the honorable chair of Poet Laureate of the Craft. We excerpt:

"The Grand Jurisdiction of Arkansas has been signally honored recently by the coronation of our well beloved Companion, M. E. Fay Hempstead, Past Grand High Priest, as the Poet Laureate of Freemasonry."

He recited the long death roll of the National Jurisdiction, among which we note three Past Grand High Priests of California who passed to rest in a single season. He extended the sympathy of the Companions of Arkansas to the bereaved jurisdictions.

He issued a dispensation for the forming and opening of a Chapter at Fordyce, in Dallas County.

The decisions reported were of a local character and need no comment.

The Committee on Memorials, M. E. Comp. Fay Hempstead, Chairman, made an eloquent and feeling report, recommending mourning pages in the Journal in remembrance of Companions gone.

There being but little new business before the Grand Chapter, the committees having generally reported and the reports disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on. Tellers were appointed and the following named Companions were chosen:

Comp. Reese B. Hogins, Russellville (76), Grand High Priest.
 Comp. J. L. Davis, Fayetteville (1), Deputy Grand High Priest.
 Comp. Jas. R. Mayhan, Newport (40), Grand King.
 Comp. Mark P. Olney, Mena (106), Grand Scribe.
 Comp. John C. Bone, Batesville (9), Grand Secretary.
 Comp. John Brodie, Little Rock (2), Grand Treasurer.
 Comp. F. E. Taylor, Argenta (117), Grand Chaplain.
 Comp. Allen Winham, Texarkana (78), Grand Marshal.
 Comp. John M. Oathout, Booneville (110), Grand Captain of Host.
 Comp. Robert Liddell, Rector (89), Grand Principal Sojourner.
 Comp. C. L. Brown, Arkadelphia (21), Grand Royal Arch Captain.
 Comp. W. R. Chestnut, Little Rock (92), Grand Master of 3d Veil.
 Comp. Z. N. Short, Hot Springs (48), Grand Master of 2d Veil.
 Comp. Durand Whipple, Little Rock (2), Grand Master of 1st Veil.
 Comp. Jas. W. Null, Little Rock (2), Grand Sentinel.

On motion duly carried Companion Thornburg was appointed a committee of one to prepare a resolution to be presented to Ravenswood Lodge No. 777, of Chicago, in acknowledgment of the high honors conferred upon our Illustrious Companion Fay Hempstead, crowning him Poet Laureate of Freemasonry.

Companion Thornburg reported the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, Comp. Fay Hempstead, a P. G. H. P. of this Grand Chapter, has been chosen Poet Laureate of Freemasonry for the United States and Canada; and

"Whereas, Companion Hempstead has been all his Masonic life a member of the Bodies in Arkansas; and

"Whereas, His qualifications, mental and moral, are so well known among us, and so highly appreciated by us, that we feel deeply grateful for the honor conferred upon him; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we express our high gratification at the honor conferred upon Companion Hempstead, and we give sincere thanks to Comp. Roswell T. Spencer of Chicago, Illinois, for inaugurating the movement which resulted in the selection of Companion Hempstead, and to Ravenswood Lodge No. 777, for the interest it took in the coronation of our Companion."

Comp. T. M. Horsfall, acting as Grand Marshal, presented the officers-elect, and Companion Thornburgh, Past Grand High Priest, upon the request of the retiring Grand High Priest, installed the officers into their several stations in due form. And Companion Oathout, Grand Captain of Host-elect, not being present, Companion Thornburgh was authorized to install him at the first opportunity.

The business routine having been concluded, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Arkansas was closed in Ample Form.

There was no Order of High Priesthood, and no Report on Correspondence.

12,071 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Canada sends us a splendid report of the proceedings had in honor of its Fiftieth Anniversary at a Convocation held in Masonic Hall, in the Masonic Temple, Toronto, January 22, 1908,—the M.°. E.°. Comp. John Leslie, Grand Z., presiding; the R.°. E.°. Comp. George J. Bennett being the Grand Secretary. Besides the Grand Officers, twenty-five other Grand Jurisdictions were represented, together with 104 of the Constituent Chapters, and 11 Grand Superintendents of Districts.

Dr. Roland E. Hartley represents the Grand Chapter of Canada near the Grand Chapter of California.

This handsome number of the Journal ornaments its opening page with its Grand Officers in group within the equilateral triangle and the extended points of the compass, and continuing in the body of the Journal the portraits of its First Principals, from William Mercer Wilson in 1857, and its Grand Scribes E. from Thomas Bird Harris, in 1857, to the present Illustrious Comp. Geo. J. Bennett.

We note also, "In Memoriam," fine portraits of M.°. E.°. Comps. William Roaf, Hugh Murray and John Earl Halliwell; the illustrations closing with a handsome souvenir jewel of the Semi-Centennial of 1907, of which we were the thankful recipient of a copy from our R.°. E.°. Companion Bennett.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Canada was opened in Ample Form.

The R.°. E.°. Comp. R. W. Brennan, Grand Superintendent of the Toronto District, advanced to the East and delivered an eloquent Address of Welcome.

M.°. E.°. Comp. John Leslie then received the address, which was artistically engrossed and illuminated and handsomely bound in leather.

The M.°. E.°. Grand Z. said he accepted the beautiful souvenir, not as a tribute to himself so much as an acknowledgment of the work achieved in the past by the prairie province which he had the honor to represent, as well as a kindly fraternal greeting to the ruler of the Royal Craft on an occasion which will live in history. The marvelous progress of Royal Arch Masonry in recent years so fittingly referred to in the address testified eloquently to the sterling worth of the Order in promulgating great living principles, and also did justice to those who labored so devotedly in the past for its advancement. The success which has attended the first fifty years of Grand Chapter's existence should be the beacon to guide the efforts of those who are entrusted with its affairs in the second half century.

He concluded with an expression of thanks and appreciation for the kind thought of the Toronto Companions, which he was sure was echoed by the Grand Chapter.

The M.[°]. E.[°]. the Grand Z. then called upon the Grand Scribe E. to call the roll of Representatives of sister Grand Chapters, and invited those in attendance to seats on the dais and greeted them, the Companions of Grand Chapter standing.

The Grand Representatives having been accorded the Grand Honors, R.[°]. E.[°]. Comp. William Forbes, representing the Grand Chapter of Illinois, presented the congratulations of that jurisdiction in a felicitous speech that evoked much applause. He emphasized the importance and utility of the Grand Representative system which enabled so many sister Grand Chapters to be represented on an eventful occasion like the present and by proxy, as it were, to wish this Grand Body God-speed on its second half century of usefulness.

Equally apt and happy remarks were expressed by R.[°]. E.[°]. Comps. D. F. MacWatt, representing our sister Grand Chapter of Quebec; J. G. Bottomley, representing New Jersey; W. S. R. Murch, New Hampshire; Aubrey White, North Carolina; J. B. Nixon, Vermont; H. T. Smith, Kentucky; W. T. Toner, South Carolina; M.[°]. E.[°]. Comps. J. Ross Robertson, New York; and Wm. Gibson, Missouri.

M.[°]. E.[°]. Comp. Leslie then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address and report of his official acts during the recess.

The address was an eloquent recital of the history, continued progress and prosperity of Grand Chapter. In it he paid earnest and merited tribute to those Companions who had laid on its altars for the promotion of its reputation and success the energies and best efforts of their lives.

In his sympathetic mention of the dead Companions of other jurisdictions we note the names of three M.[°]. E.[°]. Companions of our jurisdiction,—M.[°]. E.[°]. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick. God give them rest. The address is devoted primarily to the interests of Royal Arch Masonry in Canada.

He states his conviction that the excellent condition of Capitular Masonry in Canada is due largely to the efficiency of the Grand Superintendents of Districts. We have long considered the system a most excellent one, and in this connection we excerpt from the report of the Executive Committee that portion bearing upon the work of the year:

It appears that there are upon the roll of this Grand Chapter in its semi-centennial year 133 Chapters, of which 127 are duly warranted, and 6 working under dispensation, and that there is a membership of 12,071. Last year your committee tabulated the annual net gain for a period of five years, and in this semi-centennial year, in order that our continued growth and activity may be seen, we again tabulate the figures for the past five years:

1904	738
1905	1,315
1906	971
1907	1,015

The details of the present year's growth are as follows:

Admissions	1,391
Joinings	170
Restorations	26
	<hr/>	1,587
Resigned	242
S. N. P. D.	204
Deaths	126
	<hr/>	572
Net Gain		<hr/> 1,015

The usual routine of business having been disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year was in order. Scrutineers were appointed, with R. E. J. B. Nixon as chairman, and the following named Companions chosen to serve for the ensuing year.

M. E. Comp. John Leslie, Winnipeg, Grand Z.

R. E. Comp. George Moore, Hamilton, Grand H.

R. E. Comp. Fred W. Harcourt, Toronto, Grand J.

Grand Chapter was then called off to enable the districts to select their Grand Superintendents for the ensuing year. The appointments were subsequently made and all were installed by M. E. Comp. A. Shaw, M. E. Comp. J. Ross Robertson acting as Master of the Ceremonies. It was then

"Resolved, That the cordial thanks of this Grand Chapter are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Toronto Masonic Hall Trust for the use of the rooms, and to the Companions of the Toronto Chapters for their kindly attention and fraternal reception to the officers and members of Grand Chapter, as well as for the arrangements made for the Fiftieth Annual Convocation of this Grand Body.

The business of the Convocation being ended, Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form at 5:30 P. M.

Addenda: Grand Chapter having closed, "The Jubilee" was on. M. E. Comp. Leslie presided.

The toast of "The King and the Craft," closely followed by "Our Jubilee," supplied the necessary enthusiasm to start the good ship Canada on her second semi-centennial. M. E. Comp. Leslie, presiding, then requested M. E. Comp. J. Ross Robertson, Historian, to respond to the toast, "On the Origin of the Royal Arch Degree, the History of the Provincial Grand Chapters of Canada and of the Grand Chapter of Canada," and the assembled Companions listened with interest to the M. E. Companion's address of twenty pages. We excerpt his closing words:

"Now, my Companions, may we not congratulate ourselves on the great work that has during the past half century been done for Capitular Masonry by the Grand Chapter in Canada?

"We have accomplished much, let us endeavor to accomplish more. Having placed our hand to the plough, let us not look back.

"The bells sound in the turrets, the towers and steeples of the Craft. They chime the anthem of Faith, Hope and Charity. Yes, these three, like rays of golden light, constitute the shining splendor of the heaven-built arch, and illuminate the human heart.

"Yes, surely it is a dawn of sunlight just burst out of heaven to make humanity rejoice in the promise of 'Peace on earth and good will to all mankind.'"

At the conclusion of the address a vote of thanks submitted by R. E. Comp. Aubrey White, and M. E. Comp. Wm. Gibson, was tendered to M. E. Comp. Robertson by the Companions of Grand Chapter, and for this honor he said:

"M. E. Sir and Companions, you have already given me the best of all votes of thanks by your presence here and by the attention with which you have followed me.

"I appreciate your presence even more than I value the vote of thanks, which you have given me with so much enthusiasm. I know that the enthusiasm is sincere. I know that your interest in the subject which I have tried to make interesting to you is as genuine as my own.

"If it has been as much pleasure to you to listen as it has been for me to talk, all I can say is we've had a good time."

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report of 160 pages by Grand Secretary Bennett is a fine paper, giving in a concise manner the conditions of Capitular Masonry throughout the Masonic world. We regret that we must be content with a short notice, as we have already exhausted our allowance.

Companion Bennett reviews California in its Fifty-second and Fifty-third Annuals, the administrations of M. E. Comps. Thomas Flint and John F. Hughes; the last was a very lively Convocation and conducted and dispatched business with great celerity, but we will dwell longer with our friend and Companion, George J. Bennett, in the near future; for the present we give salutation and tender thanks for past favors.

M. E. Comp. John Leslie, Grand Z.; R. E. Comp. George J. Bennett, Grand Secretary.

Before closing our copy for the printer the Proceedings of Canada for 1909 came to hand. The Journal is a notable specimen of the of the printer's art of 350 pages, of which 185 is Journal and 168 the report on Foreign Correspondence.

The opening page is ornamented with a life-like portrait of the Grand First Principal, M. E. Comp. George Moore.

This Grand Jurisdiction has enrolled 136 Chapters, with 6 under dispensation; of these 100 were represented at the present Convocation, with 32 Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

We note by a hasty look through the Journal several subjects for comment. We were first attracted by his remarks concerning Royal Arch clothing at a funeral, which we excerpt to agree with its every word, viz.:

"The application, through a Grand Superintendent, for permission to wear Chapter regalia at the funeral of a deceased Companion, led me to the opinion that such clothing is out of place at that ceremony. A Masonic funeral is plainly the function of the blue lodge, and the impressive service indicates that it is as a blue lodge Mason the deceased is interred, no matter what his attainments elsewhere. In my humble opinion, the symbolism of the level is sadly interfered with on such solemn occasion when anything is displayed to indicate a superiority in degree or position. The Royal Arch has no funeral service, and I do not think, in view of the impressive language of that which is comprised in the beautiful service familiar to us all, that the Royal Arch should be in evidence at all. If you should agree with me on this point it will be necessary to further amend the Constitution."

And then we would express again our admiration for their admirable system of inspection by "Grand Superintendents of Districts." Not only is the system an excellent one, but the way it is observed in Canada makes a lover of the Order believe in its efficacy.

The usual routine was observed in disposing of the business of the Convocation.

The R. E. Comp. George Moore was chosen Grand Z., and R. E. Comp. George J. Bennett, Grand Scribe E. and Correspondent.

The officers chosen were installed by M. E. Comp. A. Shaw, assisted by M. E. Comp. John Leslie.

Votes of thanks were extended to the Toronto Chapters for courtesies.

A testimonial was presented to Past Grand Z. Comp. John Leslie.

Comp. George J. Bennett, Correspondent, submitted, as he always does, an excellent report, wherein he reviews the Proceedings of the various Grand Bodies in the Capitular Masonic world in a paper of 170 pages. We regret to leave it unnoticed, "but we can't help it, you know."

M. E. Comp. George Moore, Hamilton, Ont., Grand Z.; R. E. Comp. George J. Bennett, Masonic Temple, Toronto, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

COLORADO.

Forty-one Chapters. 3,816 Royal Arch Masons.

This Grand Chapter assembled in its Thirty-fourth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Denver, September 24, 1908,—The M. E. William W. Cooper, Grand High Priest; E. Comp. Charles H. Jacobson being the Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, together with thirteen Past Grand High Priests and one Past Deputy Grand, and the Representatives of thirty-seven other Grand Jurisdictions. Thirty-seven of the forty-one Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by Comp. Williams, Grand Chaplain. The Grand Lecturer of the Grand Chapter of Indian Territory, M. E. Comp. De Forest De Francis Leach, being announced as a visitor, was received by Grand Chapter and welcomed by the Grand High Priest.

The Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were also welcomed by the Grand High Priest, and M. E. Comp. Henry T. West responded thereto.

Having named the committees, the Grand High Priest then delivered the Address and report of his official action during the year.

He complimented the Companions for assembling in goodly numbers, without the hope of fee or reward, to legislate for the best interests of Capitular Masonry, but before entering upon the consideration of other duties he reported the death of one known to them all, a dear friend and Companion, who had served them long and well, Past Grand High Priest John Samuel Titcomb, in remembrance of whose record as citizen, Mason and soldier he spoke in terms of sincere affection. We also note in his report of death's doings among other Grand Jurisdictions the familiar names of M. E. Comps. Tuttle, Myrick and Blackmer, our three missing ones.

He reported but one decision, which referred to the physical qualifications required of a brother petitioner. Concerning degrees conferred in other jurisdictions, we excerpt the following:

"July 18, 1908, at the desire of Colorado Chapter No. 29, I requested M. E. Comp. Frederick W. G. Moebus, Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of California, to arrange to have Signet Chapter No. 57, at Los Angeles, confer the Capitular Degrees upon Brother John Swan, who had been duly elected in our Colorado Chapter No. 29, but later had removed to California. In due time I received a reply from the Most Excellent Grand High Priest of California, to the effect that he would take pleasure in complying with my request."

He also reported a case of the invasion of the jurisdiction of Colorado by Provo Chapter of the jurisdiction of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, and which is now under investigation. His report of the visitation of Chapters, which closes with his plan of campaign, we think of sufficient interest to our own and other jurisdictions to transfer bodily to this report, that it may be of record in our library. Such supervision must produce the best results. We excerpt:

"From the Grand Secretary's report you will learn that in the past year the Chapters in this Grand Jurisdiction have exalted a total of 256 Companions, and that there has been a net gain in membership of 158, making the total number of members of our Constituent Chapters on July 31, 1908, 3,817.

"From personal visits and reliable information, I feel that I am in position to give you a fairly accurate report of the actual conditions existing in our Jurisdiction. I shall quote results as a whole, without specifying particular Chapters, and shall give averages, rather than details. Believing that the visits of Grand Officers should be practical in their nature, I have followed the following method of inspecting Constituent Chapters:

"1. I have read the minutes of the Chapter for a year preceding my visit.

"2. I have inspected the property and paraphernalia of the Chapter, particularly that which is peculiar to our work.

"3. I have talked with the officers and as many of the members as possible, to ascertain their individual views of Masonry and the moral tone which dominates the Masonic community.

"Having done this, if any minor errors have been discovered, I have privately called the attention of the officers of the Chapter to them; and in nearly every instance have found a cheerful willingness to correct irregularities, and in fact an eagerness to receive advice upon any points that required their attention. I have to the best of my ability endeavored to stimulate the Craft to a study of Masonry, and to implant a desire for high ideals in general and a restoration of symbolism in particular.

"In making up a summary of the condition of the Craft in Colorado, I have had as a guide what I consider to be an ideal Chapter or Masonic Body. In the ideal Chapter:

"1. Peace and harmony prevail over essentials. This is of the first importance, and is the great characteristic that distinguishes us from all other organizations.

"2. As Masonry is synonymous with order, and symmetry, and light, as opposed to confusion, irregularity, and darkness, the Stated Convocations of the Chapter are held at the appointed time, and the High Priest calls the Craft to labor on the stroke of the clock at the hour named in the by-laws. There is no surer way to kill a Chapter than by irregularity in this regard. The members practice Masonry in their lives; the officers are proficient; in every particular the proceedings are dignified, and the moral tone is elevating. The Chapter is sacredly regarded as a secret society.

"3. Due care is taken in the making of new members, and no man, no matter what his moral character or social standing may be, is admitted unless the Companions are satisfied that he will make a stone that will fit into our symbolic temple.

"These conditions may be ideal, but in a great measure they are not hard to attain. In my opinion, the secret of a successful Chapter may be stated in two words—hard work.

"Using the above as a standard, I am prepared to say to you that four-fifths of the Chapters in this State measure up to an average of seventy-five per cent. of attainment of these ideal conditions.

"While we rejoice that the majority of our Chapters are in a satisfactory condition, what shall be done with the few who do not even approximate a desirable standard? There are conditions existing in a few, and, I am glad to say, a very few, which would warrant a Grand High Priest in arresting their charters. But reflection leads me to believe that the mission of this Grand Chapter is to build up, rather than to destroy; that the true remedy for these conditions lies in education, encouragement, and assistance. This Grand Chapter as an organization ought to make it its business to see that high ideals are established, and that the weak are strengthened; and the only way that it can do this is by intelligent supervision of the constituent bodies."

From the excellent report of the Grand Secretary we collate the following account of the work of the year:

Comp. James R. Killian, for Committee on Necrology, presented a feeling and eloquent report in remembrance of Companions who have "crossed the bar," closing the report in these words:

"The Grand Chapters of Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Michigan, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas and Wisconsin have each had, during the past year, a common experience with us in the departing of their beloved Companions. Their losses are our losses; and we would share their sorrows."

At the annual election the following Companions were chosen:

George D. Kennedy (6), Colorado Springs, G. H. P.

John B. Hershey (23), Trinidad, D. G. H. P.

Horace T. DeLong (24), Grand Junction, G. K.

H. W. Woodward (10), Leadville, G. S.

John Gregor (23), Denver, Grand Treasurer.

Charles H. Jacobson (29), Denver, Grand Secretary.

Having named the appointed Grand Officers, installation was in order, and the Grand Officers, elected and appointed, with the exception of Comp. William A. Campbell, Grand Master of the 1st Veil, who was absent, were then installed by M. E. Comp. William W. Cooper, M. E. Comp. James H. Peabody acting as Grand Marshal.

M. E. Comp. George W. Roe, on behalf of the Grand Chapter, presented to Past Grand High Priest William W. Cooper, a Past Grand High Priest's jewel, and expressed to him most eloquently the appreciation of the Grand Chapter for his splendid services in behalf of Capitular Masonry. M. E. Companion Cooper responded to the kindly sentiments expressed in a most feeling manner.

The Grand High Priest named the committees and the Thirty-fourth Annual Convocation was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

In the evening the Grand Council assembled, M. E. Comp. Lawrence N. Greenleaf, President, and conferred the Order of High Priesthood upon thirteen High Priests of their respective Chapters in Solemn Form.

M. E. Companion Greenleaf was re-elected President, and E. Comp. Charles H. Jacobson was continued as Secretary.

The Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A thoroughly good report in this department is the work of M. E. Comp. Ernest Le Neve Foster. He says of his work, in concluding:

"Our review is a little longer this year, consequent rather to a more complete list than to more extended mention. Our work is for the most part a mere review, with quotations, though occasionally the spirit has moved us to inject thoughts of our own."

And we also excerpt the following interesting figures from the same page:

The Jurisdiction with the largest number of Chartered Chapters is Texas, with.....	210
The smallest number, Delaware, with.....	4
Colorado in 1908 reports.....	40
The Grand Chapter with largest membership is New York, with..	32,800
The Grand Chapter with the smallest membership is Nevada, with	342

The smallest percentage of gain is in New Hampshire.....	1.6
Colorado gain in 1908.....	9.1
The Grand Chapter with the largest asset is California.....	$66,092.60
The Grand Chapter with the smallest asset is Delaware.....	486.51

Companion Foster adds to the interest in the usual Correspondence report by an addenda of the "Digest of Decisions in proceedings reviewed." Of our reports Companion Foster says:

"The correspondence report is given as that of the whole committee, but we think it bears the earmarks of Comp. William A. Davies, which makes it unnecessary to say that it is good reading, but Companion Davies hasn't left much chance for us to pad our own report from his, as its several parts fit with such exact nicety that it is either take all or nothing, and as we haven't space for the former, we are reluctantly obliged to accept the latter."

The reason for the doubt in this matter, Companion Foster, is that at the organization of our Grand Bodies their Constitutions provided that the committees appointed should consist of three members in Grand Commandery and of five members in the Grand Chapter; and so it has remained all these years, although the work of the committee is done by the chairman, who is alone responsible for it, and who receives the amount appropriated therefor.

Comp. Irving W. Stanton represents the Grand Chapter of California near the Grand Chapter of Colorado.

The report is a most excellent one and reflects credit upon the Grand Correspondent, Companion Greenleaf, as the general make-up of the book does upon Grand Secretary Jacobson.

Geo. D. Kennedy, Grand High Priest; Charles H. Jacobson, Grand Secretary.

CONNECTICUT.

Forty Chapters.

7,768 Royal Arch Masons.

This Grand Chapter assembled in its One Hundred and Tenth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, city of Hartford, May 12, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Samuel H. Huntington, Grand High Priest; the R. E. James McCormick being Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, together with fourteen Past Grand High Priests and thirty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Thirty-nine Chapters were represented.

A number of Eminent Companions, visitors from the Grand Chapter of New York, were admitted and cordially welcomed by the Grand High Priest, who, after naming the regular committees, proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He spoke as one having authority and as the representative of more than 7,000 Royal Arch Masons, and having reported his work of the year closed in the words: "Such work as I found on the trestle-board I have executed according to the rules and traditions of the Craft, and now lay it before you for inspection. If it meets your approval I shall feel well recompensed for my labor."

He devoted the first part of his address to the remembrance of the Companions who had passed to rest since the preceding annual. His tribute to the dead Companions includes, as did ours of California in the same year, three Past Grand High Priests, with a full quota of Chapter Officers and Companions. How true is the saying, "Death keeps no calendar and observes no seasons, for in the midst of life we are in death."

No important decisions were reported, having found a reference to the Code and Constitution sufficient answer to most inquiries.

He recommended a uniform Code of By-Laws. After recommending some changes in their business methods, he closes a long list of visitations with the assurance that the condition of the Royal Craft in Connecticut is most excellent, a conclusion in which the Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King and Grand Scribe, in their reports, fully concur.

Grand Secretary McCormick reports the work of the year as follows:

I find that during the past year there have been—

M. E. Comp. Geo. A. Kies of Norwich was chosen Grand High Priest, and the R. E. James McCormick was re-elected Grand Secretary.

Tributes of Love and Affection were made of record to the memories of Past Grand High Priests John L. Hill, Asa Smith and Dwight Waugh, and mourning pages ordered placed in the Journal of Proceedings.

The Grand High Priest having made the necessary appointments, the officers elected and appointed were then installed by M. E. John H. Barlow, M. E. Reuben H. Tucker acting as Grand Marshal. After which M. E. Samuel H. Huntington was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel and apron.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convention of Anointed High Priests was held in Masonic Temple in the evening of May 12th,—M. E. Comp. Frank W. Beardsley, President; E. Comp. Charles W. Skiff being Recorder and Treasurer, and fifty Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened at 5 o'clock in Solemn Form.

Twenty-three duly qualified Companions having been elected were anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Officers were re-elected, a donation of $100 made to the Masonic Charity Foundation, and the Companions repaired to the banquet room for refreshment and a better acquaintance with each other.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A fine report of 90 pages is as usual the work of M. E. Comp. John H. Barlow, who for many a year has wielded the pen engaged in the work of reporting the doings and general condition of Royal Arch Masonry in Connecticut.

He reviews the proceedings of the Fifty-third Annual Convocation in his usual thorough manner, approving generally the Address of Grand High Priest Hughes and writing words of encouragement for the rehabilitation of the stricken Jurisdiction of California.

And now as we are closing our report we hear a message from the East announcing the death of Companion Barlow. We have no particulars, but of this we are sure: he died with his pencil in hand. Good friend, Companion and Brother, "May the earliest buds of spring unfold their blossoms over your last resting place, and there may the sweetness of the summers last rose linger longest."

M. E. Comp. George A. Kies, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. James McCormick, Grand Secretary.

Four Chapters.

984 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Delaware held its Fortieth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Wilmington, January 15, 1908,—M. E. Thomas J. Jacobs, Grand High Priest; R. E. James H. Price, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with eight Past Grand High Priests and thirty-five other permanent members. Representatives of twenty-seven other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance. All the Chapters were represented. The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest, whose portrait we note on the opening page, then delivered the Annual Address and report of his official acts during the recess. He spoke of the assembling of Grand Chapter in obedience to its organic law to review past action and legislate, if necessary, for the future, and then, as though missing familiar forms and faces, he said:

"As I look into the countenances of the Companions here assembled I see many familiar faces who for years have given their assistance and wise counsel to the deliberations of this Grand Body. Yet there are other Companions whom I do not see. They have laid aside the working tools of the Craft, and presented their work for final inspection to the Supreme Grand Overseer, whom I trust found it to be good, true and square work.

"Those who have gone to their final resting place since our last Annual Convocation are:

"M. E. Comp. Joseph A. Bond, Past Grand High Priest of this Grand Chapter, 1888-1889.

"Companions Benjamin F. Sheppard, Deputy Grand High Priest, 1888; Benjamin F. Bartram, Past Grand Treasurer, 1888."

And he paid loving and affectionate tribute to their memories.

He referred also in sympathetic words to the dead of sister jurisdictions, and on the roll of names inscribed we note three Past Grand High Priests of our own kindred and families, M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Myrick and Tuttle.

We note no important legislation aside from the general routine of reports of committees and their consideration of business pertaining alone to the Grand Chapter of Delaware. We excerpt the report of the work of the year from the Grand Secretary's report:

The Grand Representatives present representing sister Grand Jurisdictions presented themselves in front of the altar, when the Grand High Priest, Thomas J. Jacobs, addressed them with the following remarks:

"Right Excellent Companions, allow me to extend in the name of the Grand Chapter the most cordial welcome to this the Fortieth Annual Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Delaware. I trust you, as Representatives, will convey to the Grand Jurisdictions you represent the cordial and fraternal relation which exists between this Grand Body and Sister Grand Jurisdictions."

At this time the Most Excellent Grand High Priest announced that the election would now take place, and appointed Past Grand High Priest Harry W. Lowe and Past Grand King Charles McIntire as tellers. The result of the election was as follows:

- Grand High Priest, Alfred M. Clower, of Chapter No. 1.
- Deputy Grand High Priest, A. Henry Berlin, of Chapter No. 4.
- Grand King, Lambert V. Armstrong, of Chapter No. 6.
- Grand Scribe, Thomas B. Pepper, of Chapter No. 7.
- Grand Treasurer, Thomas Reardon, of Chapter No. 4.
- Grand Secretary, James H. Price, of Chapter No. 6.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made the necessary appointments, all were installed, Past Grand High Priest Francis L. Carpenter acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

A Past Grand High Priest's jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest.

The standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Due Form at 11 o'clock P. M.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Convention of the Order was held at the time of the Convocation of the Grand Chapter in Masonic Hall, Wilmington,—M. . E. . Comp. Harry W. Lowe, President; E. . Comp. Charles McIntire, Recorder, and a good attendance of Excellent Companions. The Convention was opened at 8 P. M. in Solemn Form. Three Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, and otherwise qualified, were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The report on Correspondence is by M. . E. . Comp. V. V. Harrison, a paper of 96 pages, in which forty-six Grand Jurisdictions of the Masonic world are reviewed. The Fifty-third Annual of California, under the direction of M. . E. . Comp. John Francis Hughes, is noticed, with general approval. The review is a pleasant report of the business of rehabilitation under difficulties.

Our name, Companion Harrison is not Davie, but Davies, with an s on the end.

M. . E. . Alfred M. Clower, Grand High Priest; R. . E. . Comp. James H. Price, Grand Secretary.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

This Grand Royal Arch Chapter held two Special Convocations during the year, the first May 16, 1907, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Past Grand High Priest John Dockie, who died on the 14th inst. at the age of 83 years.—The M. . E. . Comp. Claude F. King presided, and Comp. Emmett C. Elmore acted as Grand Secretary during the exercises.

The second special was held September 29, 1907, to attend the burial of Past Grand High Priest James F. R. Appleby, who passed to rest on the 27th inst. The M. . E. . Grand High Priest and the R. . E. . Arvine W. Johnston, Grand Secretary, attended the services, which were performed by Potomac Commandery No. 3, Knights Templar.

The Grand Chapter of the District of Columbia bears on its rolls twelve Constituent Chapters, with a membership of 3,401 Royal Arch Masons. It held its Forty-first Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Washington, D. C., on February 12, 1908,—The M. . E. . Comp.

Claude F. King, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Arvine W. Johnston being the Grand Secretary. Twelve Past Grand High Priests, two Past Grand Kings and a Past Grand Scribe were in attendance. The Chapters were all represented and there were present thirty-two Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

Fraternal welcomes, with appropriate honors, were given to the following visitors: M. W. Augustus B. Coolidge, Grand Master, F. & A. M., District of Columbia, M. E. Comp. George E. Corson, General Grand Captain of the Host of the General Grand Chapter, and M. E. Comp. J. James Foble, Past Grand High Priest, Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maryland.

The Grand High Priest delivered the Annual Address and reported his official acts during the recess. The address is an excellent paper of 12 pages and goes into history with this modest opening:

"COMPANIONS OF THE GRAND CHAPTER: The Forty-first year in the history of this Grand Chapter has closed, and its record stands ready for the historian.

"A year ago, when elected to this honorable and exalted office, I approached the duties with some fear and trepidation, little realizing how pleasant my association would be and how light my burden would be made. The administration of Capitular Masonry has been so thoroughly taught by my predecessors in office, and the fundamental rules so fully grasped and rigidly followed by those called upon to preside over the Constituent Chapters, that little remained for me except the routine duties which naturally would be expected by any one occupying a supervisory office."

But before presenting for consideration the business of the Convocation, the remembrance of "Companions gone" presented itself, and, calling the Companions to their feet, he reported the loss of two Past Grand High Priests, a Past Grand King and five Excellent Companion Past High Priests. These with the long list of Eminent Companions of other jurisdictions, make up a formidable death roll. He paid eloquent and fraternal tribute to the Companions who had "gone before." He ordered their names entered of record in the Archives of the Grand Chapter.

In the roll submitted we note the names of three Most Excellent Companions of California's contribution, Past Grand High Priests Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick.

For general information we excerpt the following, and remark in passing that it was as it should have been:

"These two dispensations I also granted. Section 103 of the Grand Chapter Constitution reads as follows:

"No petition for the degrees shall be received from any one who has not been a resident of the District of Columbia for the twelve months next preceding its presentation, except by dispensation of the Grand High Priest.

"It has long been the law in this jurisdiction that the Masonic residence of a man in the military or naval service of the United States is wherever he is stationed (Pro. of Grand Chapter, Vol. 4, pp. 347, 348, 1888). This left the question free from entanglements with other jurisdictions, and to me the only question presented was, does the fact that these brothers are engaged in service which may remove them from this jurisdiction at a moment's notice, thereby preventing them from completing the constitutional length of residence, constitute such an exemption as was contemplated by the framers of our Constitution?

"I decided the question affirmatively, and granted the dispensation.

"Perhaps, too, I was led to this decision by an intimate knowledge of Army and Navy service, with its uncertainty of residence, its remote location, oftentimes, for opportunities to become members of our Craft, and, above all, the unfailing loyalty of our members connected with those services."

As we are all interested in the construction of the New Masonic Temple at the Capital we excerpt the following practical movement in the building thereof:

"June 4, I received a courteous invitation from the Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons of the District of Columbia for this Grand Chapter, through its officers and Past Grand High Priests, to participate with the Grand Lodge in the ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple on June 8. The invitation was cheerfully accepted, and on the appointed date the officers and Past Grand High Priests were received in open communication of the Grand Lodge and welcomed by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, our own distinguished R. E. Comp. Francis J. Woodman, Grand King. As guests of the Grand Lodge the Grand Chapter was provided with carriages, and, forming part of a notable and memorable procession, proceeded to the site of the new Masonic Temple at 13th and H streets and New York avenue. Here the services of the Grand Lodge were performed in the presence of an immense multitude of people. Many Masonic relics of Worshipful Brother George Washington were used on this occasion, among them being the Holy Bible from the Lodge in which he took his Masonic degrees. An address was delivered by the President of the United States, Brother Theodore Roosevelt.

"In the evening a magnificent banquet, held at the Hotel Raleigh in honor of the occasion, was attended by a distinguished company. Your Grand High Priest and Deputy Grand High Priest were honored by invitations, and were present as representatives of Royal Arch Masonry at this delightful and commemorative event.

"Thus was a practical beginning made toward a realization of the hopes of the fraternity in this jurisdiction, and at this time I am happy to state the building operations are progressing with such rapidity that before many months shall have passed the building will be ready for our occupancy."

The chairmen of the several Memorial Committees made eloquent and feeling reports, referring to the lives and characters of the beloved companions, which were approved and adopted by the Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest was presented with a handsome silver punch bowl by Comp. Jas. Salomon on behalf of the Constituent Chapters.

M.·. E.·. Comp. Samuel R. Bond, in behalf of the Grand Chapter, presented the Junior Past Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. Claude F. King, with a jewel of his rank, which was accepted by the latter.

The reports of the various committees having been considered and disposed of concluding the routine of business and the annual election of officers being in order tellers were appointed and the following Companions chosen to serve for the ensuing year:

Comp. E. St. Clair Thompson, Grand High Priest.

Comp. Francis J. Woodman, Deputy Grand High Priest.

Comp. Nathaniel B. Fugitt, Grand King.

Comp. Kenton N. Harper, Grand Scribe.

Comp. Martin R. Thorp, Grand Treasurer.

Comp. Arvine W. Johnston, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convention of the Anointed High Priests of the district was held in the Temple, Washington, Feb. 8, 1908, at 7:30 P. M.

M.·. E.·. Comp. E. St. Clair Thompson, President; E.·. Comp. Goodwin G. Al. Lee, Secretary, with a number of visitors and E.·. Companions.

The President announced the death of seven E.·. Companions during the year.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Eleven Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters in the District of Columbia, having been elected, were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

On March 5, 1908 at eight o'clock P. M., members of the Convention and their guests assembled at the Hotel Reuter, Four-and-a-half Street and Pennsylvania Avenue northwest, where the annual banquet was held, replete with good humor, comradeship, eloquence, music and things to eat.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A good practical report of 73 pages, reviewing the progress and present condition of the several Capitular Bodies forming the Masonic World is the handiwork of our E. Comp. Arvine W. Johnston, Grand Secretary. He reviews California in its 53d annual, under the administration of M. E. Comp. John Francis Hughes. He gives us encouragement in the work of rehabilitation and predicts our success.

M. E. E. St. Clair Thompson, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Arvine W. Johnston, Grand Secretary.

ENGLAND.

The Supreme Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons held a Quarterly Convocation at Freemason's Hall, London, May 6, 1908,—M. E. Comp. the Rt. Hon. Thomas F. Halsey as Grand Z.; E. Comp. The Grand Chapter was opened in Ancient and Solemn Form.

An extended list of appointed E. Companions were declared appointed officers of the Grand Chapter.

The report of the Committee of General Purposes was submitted, considered and disposed of whereupon the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED—"That the cordial thanks of the members of the Committee be tendered to E. Comp. Richard Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., our President, for the very able and courteous manner in which he has presided over the meetings of the Committee during the past year."

Business was transacted as follows:

On motion duly made by E. Comp. R. Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., President, seconded by E. Comp. John Strachan, K.C., Grand Registrar, and pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee, the removal of the six Chapters mentioned in that behalf in the Report was sanctioned.

Upon motion duly made by E. Comp. R. Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., President, seconded by E. Comp. John Strachan, K.C., Grand Registrar, and pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee, the Unanimity Chapter, No. 102, North Walsham, was erased from the roll of the Grand Chapter.

Upon motion duly made by E.'. Comp. R. Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., President, seconded by E.'. Comp. John Strachan, K.C., Grand Registrar, and pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee, it was resolved that £1,000 London County Council 3½% Stock be purchased.

Grand Chapter was then closed in Ancient and Solemn Form.

Another Quarterly was held in Freemason's Hall, London, on the 5th of August, 1908. The M.'. E.'. Comp. The Rt. Hon T. F. Halsey, Grand Z., presiding; E.'. Comp. William Lake as Grand Scribe E., and a large number of Grand and Assistant Grand Officers, Principals and Past Principals of many Chapters.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Solemn Form.

The Committee of General Purposes reported several petitions for new Chapters were received by the Committee and being regular the Committee recommended the granting of the same.

Memorials for the removal of Chapters were received and recommended as prayed for.

On motion duly made by E.'. Comp. R. Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., President, seconded by E.'. Comp. Frank Richardson, P. Dep. G. Reg., G. Dir. of Cers., and pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee, the removal of the four Chapters mentioned in that behalf of the report was sanctioned.

The last Quarterly of which we have notice was held on the 4th of November, 1908, M.'. E.'. Comp. Rt. Hon. Lord Amphilh, pro Grand Z., presiding.

M.'. E.'. Comp. Sir Edward Letchworth, F. S. A., Grand Scribe E., and a full attendance of Officers, Principals, Past Principals of many Chapters.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ancient and Solemn Form.

The Committee on General Purposes reported.

The Finance Committee reported financial conditions.

Petitions for removals and memorials were received and disposed of.

On motion duly made by E.'. Comp. R. Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., President, seconded by E.'. Comp. Frank Richardson, P. Dep. G. Reg., G. Dir. of Cers., and pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee, the removal of the six Chapters mentioned in that behalf in the Report was sanctioned.

Upon motion duly made by E.'. Comp. R. Horton Horton-Smith, K.C., President, seconded by E.'. Comp. Frank Richardson, P. Dep. G. Reg., G. Dir. of Cers., and pursuant to the recommendation of the Committee, the prayer of the Memorial of the Chapter of Economy, No. 76, Winchester, for a Charter authorising them to wear a Centenary Jewel, mentioned in that behalf in the Report, was granted.

Grand Chapter was then closed in Ancient and Solemn Form.

FLORIDA.

Twenty-seven Chapters.

1625 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Florida held its Sixty-second Annual Convocation in Jacksonville, May 12, 1908,—M. E. William S. Ware, Grand High Priest; R. E. Wilber P. Webster, Grand Secretary. Besides the Grand Officers there were present ten Past Grand High Priests. Nineteen Chapters were represented, together with twenty-six other Grand Jurisdictions.

Portraits of the retiring Grand High Priest, M. E. William S. Ware, and of M. E. Comp. Henry W. Long, who was Grand High Priest in 1875, appear in this number of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

The regrets of Past Grand High Priests J. R. Wetherell, Enos Wasgate and Louis C. Massey, at enforced absence, were presented by the Grand Secretary.

After naming the necessary committees the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address, with a report of his official acts during the year. He opened with a cordial welcome to the Companions of the Grand Chapter to Jacksonville on behalf of all its citizens, and especially of the members of Jacksonville Chapter, No. 12, who would endeavor to make the visit one of pleasure and profit to their guests on this Sixty-second Annual Convocation. Referring to the mournful subject that is always with us—the passing to rest of beloved associates—he announced the death of Past Grand High Priest Dr. and M. E. Comp. Robert Jasper Perry, after a long continued illness—he was Grand High Priest in 1879-80.

Another Companion was called in the person of R. E. Warren Fletcher Scott, Deputy Grand High Priest. He paid warm and affectionate tribute to the lives and characters of the beloved Companions. He also mentioned the loss of Eminent Companions in 17 Sister Jurisdictions, among whom we note the names of M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick of the Grand Chapter of California.

He reported the visitation, by the Grand Council, of all the Chapters of the jurisdiction.

He granted dispensations for the forming and opening of three new Chapters at Clearwater, Marianna and Lakeland.

Of the approaching Convocation of the General Grand Chapter he said:

"I desire to call the attention of this Grand Body to the next meeting of the General Grand Chapter which is to meet in Savannah, Ga., on November 10, 1909, and it is proper that this Grand Body should arrange to participate in giving to our Companions from all over the United States a hearty and cordial welcome to our beloved southland. I would suggest that the representatives attending the Grand Chapter of 1909 be authorized by their Chapters to assist in carrying out such plans as the Grand Chapter may deem proper, and that the incoming council officers be prepared to submit a well defined plan at the Grand Convocation in May, 1909."

He set forth in plain terms the general desire of the Chapters for instruction in the work of Capitular Masonry, and recommended the appointment of a Grand Lecturer or teacher for that purpose.

We excerpt the following account of work done from the report of the Grand Secretary:

The degrees of Mark, Past and Most Excellent Masters were exemplified.

The time having arrived, the annual election was held. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

J. H. Weddell, M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest.
 Samuel Pasco, R.°. E.°. Deputy Grand High Priest.
 T. Picton Warlow, R.°. E.°. Grand King.
 F. B. Stoneman, R.°. E.°. Grand Scribe.
 Marcus Endel, R.°. E.°. Grand Treasurer.
 Wilber P. Webster, R.°. E.°. Grand Secretary.
 Irving E. Webster, R.°. E.°. Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the appointed Grand Officers, at the request of the Grand High Priest, Past Grand High Priest Wm. H. Jewell, assisted by Past Grand High Priest Olin S. Wright, as Grand Marshal, installed the Grand Officers.

The Grand High Priest appointed the standing committees.

The Most Excellent Grand High Priest announced the appointment of the following committee to consider the feasibility of carrying out the suggestions of the retiring Grand High Priest relative to official visitation to Chapters for instruction: M. E. Wm. S. Ware, M. E. Olin S. Wright, M. E. James Carnell.

A Past Grand High Priest's jewel was presented by the Grand Chapter to M. E. Wm. S. Ware, M. E. Olin S. Wright making the presentation.

Thanks were voted Jacksonville Chapter, No. 12, for rooms during the Convocation.

The Royal Arch Degree was exemplified by conferring that degree upon three M. E. Masters of Putnam, Jacksonville and Nassau Chapters.

The routine business of Grand Chapter being concluded, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter of Florida was closed in Ample Form.

Past Grand High Priest Edward Richards Hedges is the representative of the Grand Chapter of Florida near the Grand Chapter of California.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of Florida held its Annual Convocation at the close of the Grand Chapter, May 13, 1908,—M. E. Comp. James W. Boyd, President; E. Comp. Wilber P. Webster being Secretary, and several Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Five Companions, High Priests or Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, being duly qualified, were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were received and approved.

The Officers were re-elected and the Grand Council closed in Solemn Form.

No report on Correspondence.

GEORGIA.

Number of Chapters, 134.

6,769 Royal Arch Masons.

The M. E. Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Georgia held its Eighty-sixth Annual Convocation in the City of Macon, April 29, 1908,—M. E. Comp. Thomas F. Moody, Grand High Priest; E. Comp. W. A. Wolihin being Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with seven Past Grand High Priests, thirty-two Past High Priests not elsewhere reported; thirty-three representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions and eight Grand Lecturers. One hundred and thirteen Chapters were represented.

Portraits of Past Grand High Priests M. E. Comps. Thomas F. Moody and J. L. Gable appear in the present number of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by R. E. Comp. The Rev. A. E. Sansburn, Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest delivered a brief but spirited Address, recalling and reviewing the history of the Grand Chapter, setting forth the progress made during the eighty-seven years of its existence, of the adoption and practice of the principles and tenets of Capitular Masonry. We excerpt his words:

"This great progress has been entirely consistent with the principles and tenets of Masonry. Our Craft in all ages has stood for a broader horizon, the uplift and betterment of humanity. Nothing is more remarkable than the growth of that great central Masonic contention, the Brotherhood of Mankind in these eighty-six years. Now a misfortune anywhere awakens a sympathetic, responsive sentiment everywhere. Our growth has been commensurate with our surroundings. In 1822 'from Yonah's heights to Tybee's lights' we were six Chapters. Now our number is 130.

"I am giving this bare outline, my Companions, that it may be an inspiration to us for renewed effort and a reconsecration of our zeal for our immortal principles."

Of the death harvest of the year he said:

"It is with a grateful heart that I can report that our official body is complete and that in the harvest of the Grim Reaper he has passed us by.

"Many of our beloved Companions, however, in the subordinate Chapters have ceased their labors. In the past year twenty-three Companions have gone to their final reward. The Committee on Memorials will pay fitting tribute to their memory."

We note also in the report of the Committee on Memorials that the Grand Chapter extends its sympathy to California upon the loss of M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick, our honored and beloved Past Grand High Priests.

Referring to the approaching Convocation of the General Grand Chapter to be held at Savannah, November 10th next, he assures us all that we will have a taste of Georgia hospitality, which means that we will be abundantly cared for. He says:

"To a committee appointed at our last Convocation has been delegated the duty to arrange in detail for the entertainment of this Grand Body. I am sure we shall make it an occasion of much pleasure to the Companions of other Jurisdictions and of profit to ourselves."

The business of the Convocation was of the usual routine character.

The Committee on Reports of Grand Officers compliment the Grand High Priest for his untiring efforts to build up and improve the prosperity of Capitular Masonry in Georgia, and the Finance Committee, in its reports, attest the abundant resources and the healthy condition of that important department.

The time for election of officers having arrived, tellers were named and the following Companions chosen to serve for the ensuing year:

L. M. Heard, Grand High Priest.

J. A. Walton, Deputy Grand High Priest.

W. F. Bowe, Grand King.

John R. Wilkinson, Grand Scribe.

S. H. Griswold, Grand Treasurer.

W. A. Wolihin, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made the necessary appointments to conduct the business of Grand Chapter, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Robert L. Colding.

The retiring Grand High Priest, M.° E.° Comp. Thomas F. Moody, was presented with the jewel of his rank by Comp. A. E. Keese on behalf of the Grand Chapter in a beautiful and impressive address, to which M.° E.° Comp. Colding responded in thankful appreciation thereof.

Having named the standing committees and appointed the eleven District Grand Lecturers, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

The following statistical information is taken from the report of the Grand Secretary:

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Council of the Order of High Priesthood assembled at the close of the Grand Chapter, April 29, 1908,—M.° E.° Comp. A. M. Lambdin, President; E.° Comp. W. A. Wolihin being Recorder and Treasurer, with a goodly number of E.° Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form. Six Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Officers were re-elected and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is submitted by M.° E.° Comp. A. M. Lambdin, general all around worker in the Masonic vineyard, with a well-defined preference for work in Georgia. He gives us an excellent report of 70 pages, in which he sets forth the condition and progress of Capitular Masonry in words that "he who runs may read," so well chosen are his comments.

California is reviewed in its Fifty-third Annual, M. E. Comp. Hughes at the helm, and the rehabilitation of our Grand Chapter and its return to legitimate business warmly welcomed. We appreciate the good wishes of our M. E. Companion and on behalf of the Grand Chapter of California tender him our thanks for his kind words.

M. E. Comp. L. M. Heard, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. W. A. Wolihin, Grand Secretary.

IDAHO.

Organization of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Idaho.

This Grand Chapter was formed and opened under a proclamation of the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America, convening the Royal Arch Chapters of Idaho at Pocatello, June 16, 1908, for the purpose of organizing a Grand Chapter.

The Grand Chapter of Idaho was formed and opened. A committee appointed for that purpose reported a Constitution, which was approved by M. E. Joseph E. Dyas, General Grand High Priest, after which the Grand Chapter adjourned to meet at Wallace, Idaho, on the 22d of June, 1909.

We give herewith the proceedings of the Convention:

Organization and Constitution of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of Idaho.

At a meeting of the representative members of the following Royal Arch Chapters of the State of Idaho, held at the hall of Portneuf Lodge, Pocatello, at 12 o'clock M. this, the 16th day of June, 1908, viz.: Idaho Chapter No. 1, Cyrus Chapter No. 2, Boise Chapter No. 3, Lewiston Chapter No. 4, Pocatello Chapter No. 6, Moscow Chapter No. 7, Wallace Chapter No. 9, Idaho Falls Chapter No. 10, Weiser Chapter No. 11, Coeur d'Alene Chapter No. 12, and Salmon Chapter U. D., for the purpose of organizing a Grand Chapter of the State of Idaho, the following business was transacted:

In pursuance to a proclamation issued by the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, the representatives of the above societies of the Royal Arch Chapters of Idaho assembled at Masonic Hall, Pocatello, Idaho, at 12 M. on June 16, 1908, for the purpose of organizing a Grand Chapter of Idaho.

Thomas Barnes of Cyrus Chapter No. 2, being the High Priest of the oldest Chapter in attendance, called the Convention to order, stating the object of the meeting, and concluded by reading the certificate of approbation issued by the General Grand High Priest.

The delegates proceeded to the transaction of the business for which they had assembled. A Committee on Resolutions was appointed, who reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, In the opinion of the Representatives of the Royal Arch Chapters of Idaho, in convention assembled, the interests of said Chapters respectively, and those of the Royal Craft collectively, require and demand the formation of a Grand Royal Arch Chapter in and for the said State; and

"WHEREAS, Comp. Joseph E. Dyas, the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, has, pursuant to law, given his approval to the formation of such Grand Chapter. Therefore, be it

"Resolved, That a committee be appointed to draft and present to this convention for its consideration a form of Constitution for the government of a Grand Royal Arch Chapter in and for the State of Idaho, and that when such Constitution shall be adopted, Grand Officers elected and installed, pursuant to its provisions, the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of this State of Idaho shall be duly formed and established, subject to the jurisdiction of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America."

The time for the election of officers having arrived, the President appointed Comps. F. H. Bybee and J. H. Lippincott as tellers.

The following Companions having received a majority of the votes cast, were declared elected:

Grand High Priest, Jas. A. Pinney, Boise Chapter, No. 3.

Grand Deputy High Priest, Frank D. Winn, Coeur d'Alene Chapter, No. 12.

Grand King, Andrew B. Anderson, Weiser Chapter, No. 11.

Grand Scribe, Jos. A. Lippincott, Idaho Chapter, No. 1.

Grand Treasurer, Jay R. Mason, Idaho Falls Chapter, No. 10.

Grand Secretary, Albert A. Jessup, Boise Chapter, No. 3.

Grand Chaplain, Jas. E. Williamson, Boise Chapter, No. 3.

Grand Captain of the Host, Thomas Barnes, Cyrus Chapter, No. 2.

Grand Principal Sojourner, T. G. Woodward, Wallace Chapter, No. 9.

Grand Royal Arch Captain, J. H. Hiler, Pocatello Chapter, No. 6.

Grand Master of Third Veil, Geo. Doehne, Jr., Lewiston Chapter, No. 4.

Grand Master of Second Veil, Francis Jenkins, Moscow Chapter.

No. 7.

Grand Master of First Veil, John M. Elder, Coeur d'Alene Chapter, No. 12.

Grand Sentinel, Robert Criswell, Pocatello Chapter, No. 6.

The President appointed Companions Hiram T. French as Grand Marshal and the officers were duly installed to serve until their successors are elected and installed.

On motion, duly seconded, that the Grand Chapter of Idaho meet next year at Wallace, Idaho, on June 22d, at 10 o'clock A. M. Carried.

The Grand Chapter of Idaho then adjourned to meet on above named date.

James A. Pinney,
Grand High Priest.

Attest: Albert A. Jessup,
Grand Secretary.

ILLINOIS.

194 Chapters.

27,789 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Illinois held its Fifty-ninth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Chicago, October 29, 1908,—M.°. E.°. Comp. Monroe C. Crawford, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. George W. Warvelle being the Grand Secretary. The Chapters were all represented with forty representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

We note the portrait of the present Grand High Priest on the opening page. All the Grand Officers were present, and after prayer by Rev'd and E.°. Comp. Fred L. Thompson, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand Secretary reported the committees appointed by the Grand High Priest.

The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He opened his address with a hearty welcome to the members in attendance—those in attendance for the first time, as well as the veterans of many former Convocations. He said:

"I greet you this morning and give you hearty welcome to this the Fifty-ninth Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Illinois, Royal Arch Masons, and as I come before you this morning to make my report, I feel the great responsibility resting upon the Masonic fraternity of Illinois. New Chapters are springing into vigorous life in all parts of our beautiful State. Our membership is rapidly increasing. For the past, there is much for congratulation, while the future lies before us radiant with promise. It is incumbent upon us that we gird ourselves like men and thoroughly ground ourselves in the tenets of our fraternity so that we may rise superior, even to the requirements of our times, and be the leading force in all future developments."

And then, as though reading the thoughts of those before him, he continued: "And now, with bowed heads and sad hearts, we stand by the newly made grave of one we knew so well and loved so much. Through the mysterious veil he has passed to the silent land. We miss the touch of his fraternal hand; his loved voice shall fall no more on our ears: R. E. Comp. Gilbert Wordsworth Barnard died at his home in Chicago on the nineteenth day of June, A. D. 1908. He was Grand Secretary of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter and had been such continuously for almost thirty years. If he had lived until this day, that period would have been rounded out. On the 25th day of June, 1908, I issued a circular letter to all of the Constituent Chapters of this Grand Jurisdiction, with an order that it be read in each Chapter and entered upon its records at the first stated Convocation after its reception and that the furniture of the Chapter be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days."

And thus, with words of love and fraternal affection, passed out of the Masonic life of Gilbert Wordsworth Barnard. God give him rest.

The death roll was a long one. California was represented by the familiar names of Past Grand High Priests Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick; Michigan by Hugh McCurdy; Indiana by Martin H. Rice; Missouri by Martin Collins; and many others equally eminent and beloved in their home jurisdictions. He said of them, as of the thirty-four Past High Priests of that Grand Jurisdiction that had passed through the veils since the last Convocation: "Their names are inscribed upon the shield of truth. Let the fraternity throughout the land cherish their memory and emulate their virtues. I leave to the Committee on Obituaries the loving task of preparing a tribute to their worth as men and Masons and an expression of our sympathy to the households now in mourning."

Of the generous action of the Grand Chapter of Illinois toward their Companions of California in the hour of trial, he makes this modest reference:

"A letter was received from the Grand Chapter of California addressed to the officers and members of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Illinois, stating that the Committee on Relief Fund reported that of the $23,800.15 received from Lodges and Chapters of other jurisdictions there remained in said fund a balance of $6,898.25 of the amount contributed. The Grand Chapter of California determined by unanimous vote that this sum be distributed pro rata to the donors thereof. A check for $289.85 was received, which was turned over to the Grand Secretary and was by him covered into the treasury."

Reports of the Grand Officers from the Grand Scribe to the Grand Master of the First Vail are published in the Journal with the reports of the School of Instruction, and of the Grand Treasurer and the Grand Secretary.

R. E. Comp. George W. Warvelle, Grand Secretary, as the successor of Companion Barnard, made the following report to the Committee on Correspondence:

"Your committee, to which was referred the matter of the communication from the General Grand Chapter relative to the formation of the Grand Chapter of Idaho, respectfully reports:

"That it has duly considered the subject-matter of said communication and finds that the said Grand Chapter of Idaho was duly organized according to constitutional usage on June 16, 1908, and that such organization has received the approval of the General Grand High Priest, who recommends its fraternal recognition by the Grand Chapters of the United States;

"Wherefore, your committee recommends that said Grand Chapter of Idaho be accorded fraternal recognition by the Grand Chapter of Illinois, as a lawfully constituted governing body of Royal Arch Masons, and that relations of amity and correspondence be established therewith."

The account of the work of the year we excerpt from the report of the Committee on Chartered Chapters:

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, judges were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

M. E. Comp. Frederick E. Hoberg, Grand High Priest.
R. E. Comp. Henry H. Montgomery, Deputy G. H. P.
R. E. Comp. John C. Hallenbeck, Grand King.
R. E. Comp. Charles C. Davis, Grand Scribe.
R. E. Comp. George W. Curtiss, Grand Treasurer.
R. E. Comp. George W. Warvelle, Grand Secretary.

Comp. Delmar D. Darrah, Chairman of the Committee on Obituaries, made an eloquent and feeling report devoted to the remembrance, the lives and characters of the Companions whose names were inscribed upon the death roll, closing with the appropriate words:

"These our Companions rest from their labors. After life's fitful fever they sleep well. But the duty of the necrologist is never ending. At each Annual Convocation these hours of sorrow will ever recur and his services will be invoked to pay the last tribute to other Companions who are today journeying toward the infinite. But is there no lesson for us who here remain in the sorrow of the present hour? Death is but a process in the evolution of man, emphasizing the great lesson of human brotherhood, teaching us that we should be more faithful to those who here remain and to make the best of our friends and Companions while we have them. As life is fraught with precept and example, so death gives its lesson."

Comp. Geo. M. Moulton, P. G. H. P., moved that the first four officers of the Grand Chapter be authorized and empowered to make suitable arrangements for headquarters and other expenses at Savannah, Georgia, during the forthcoming Convocation of the General Grand Chapter, with the proviso, however, that such arrangements shall be limited to an expense of not exceeding $600.

The Grand Officers elected and appointed were then installed by M.°. E.°. Comp. Joseph E. Dyas, General Grand High Priest; M.°. E.°. Comp. George M. Moulton acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The retiring Grand High Priest was thanked for the efficient service of his administration and presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel, with eloquent speeches "on the side."

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and closed the Grand Chapter, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of High Priests of Illinois held its Fifty-fourth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Chicago, October 29th, at 2:30 P. M.,—M.°. E.°. Comp. William K. Forsyth, President; E.°. Comp. Horatio G. Diener, Recorder and Treasurer, with a good attendance of Excellent Companions present.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The Recorder reported the financial condition of the Council, and his report was approved.

Forty-two Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of Chapters having been elected, were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

On motion Comp. Geo. W. Warvelle was requested to prepare and deliver a lecture at the next ensuing Annual Convocation, on the "Origin, Purposes and Symbolism of the Order of High Priesthood."

The Officers were re-elected and the Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Grand Secretary, Comp. Geo. W. Warvelle, submits this report, in which he reviews the proceedings of forty-one Grand Jurisdictions of Capitular Masonry, and as California is not mentioned in the report, not having been received at the closing thereof, we think a few lines of Companion Warvelle's pungent remarks will be acceptable reading to our Companions in California, and with that idea in mind excerpt:

"COMPANIONS: It is now seven years since the pen of the reviewer which prior thereto had been long and ably wielded by our beloved Companion, John M. Pearson, was placed in my hands. Coming after a man so well qualified and who so well performed the duties involved in the office, the task was one of unusual difficulty. Such being the case, is it strange that in many things I may, perhaps, have failed to attain the high standard that some people set for others but to which they never even approximate themselves?

"But I know that to some of you, at least, my writings have not been unacceptable. I am assured of this because you have so told me. And if I can interest, possibly instruct, even a few of those for whom I write, I feel that these annual epistles have not been in vain. Of course, there will ever be a few little pin-headed fellows who know it all. I do not address them. I am writing for men, not microbes.

"And in the subject matter of my epistle I frequently experience much difficulty in my selections and rejections. I presume that in this respect I often err. Indeed, there are those who say I do, and, as they are men who know, I cannot dispute their statements. But, despite the positive assertions of the wise pin-headers, there does not seem to be any very insatiate appetite on the part of the great majority of the Craft for a chronicle of Masonic small beer. Hence, I do not endeavor to furnish that for which there is no demand. Some of my esteemed congeners of the guild find much fault with me on this account.

"Nor is the field of observation as wide as it once seems to have been. Other thoughtful members of the guild have noted this fact and commented upon it. Thus, Comp. Henry W. Rugg, in his last report to the Grand Chapter of Rhode Island, says:

"If in range of subjects dealt with this paper shows limitations, perhaps excuse may be found therefor in existing conditions. In the present era of prosperity there are few questions presented requiring discussion. A wise order of procedure seems to govern in all jurisdictions. Harmony everywhere prevails. The business transacted in the Annual Convocations of Grand Chapters is for the most part of a routine character. There is little new legislation.

"And then, out in the world at large, Freemasonry is just now regarded with much popular favor. Argument is not needed for defense of its principles, or in support of the claims of the institution, which now seems to have a fixed place in the approving estimate of the community. Of course, topics of Masonic discourse are less numerous than at some former periods, while there is a correspondingly lessened call for a kind of writing that once was held to be timely and forceful."

IOWA.

127 Chapters.

10,569 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Iowa held its Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation in Tabernacle Chapter Hall, Waterloo, October 8, 1908,—The M.·. E.·. Comp. William H. Norris, Grand High Priest; the R.·. E.·. Comp. Alf. Wingate, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with eleven Past Grand High Priests, twenty-seven Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions and representatives of ninety-two of the one hundred and twenty-seven Chartered Chapters of the Jurisdiction.

One of Bathus' best steel engraved portraits of the M.·. E.·. William H. Norris, Grand High Priest, appears on the opening page.

After prayer by E.·. Comp. S. R. J. Hoyt, Acting Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

An address of welcome to the grand Chapter on behalf of the Companions of Tabernacle Chapter, No. 52, was delivered by E.·. Comp. J. D. Liffing, a member thereof, to which Grand High Priest Norris responded in fitting words, and then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address and report of his official acts during the recess.

With a pleasant opening, a hearty welcome and greeting to the Companions, individually and as a Grand Body, he congratulated them in happy terms on the good work of the year. He said:

"I congratulate the members of this Grand Body on account of the splendid progress and growth evidenced by present conditions of Capital Masonry in Iowa. In making this statement I do not refer alone to numerical strength, though measured from that standpoint we have substantial reason for elation. The records in your Grand Secretary's office show a net increase during the year ending December 31, 1907, in the membership owing allegiance to this Grand Chapter, of 376, making a total membership in this Grand Jurisdiction of 10,569. Character and not caste has been the standard set for our votaries, and, judged from this most important viewpoint, I am confident the results attained are meritorious and worthy of commendation."

He expressed his fervent thanks to the Great Ruler that he was enabled to present to the Grand Body an unbroken official line, for while death had been busy "gathering in" from the Eminent Companions of other jurisdictions, their official circle had not been broken, although the Grim Reaper had summoned one hundred and seventy-five of their beloved Companions from the labors of earth to eternal refreshment above.

Of the Eminent Companions of other jurisdictions who had "crossed the bar" within the year we note the names of three Past Grand High Priests of California—M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle, and Myrick. He recommended the insertion of mourning pages in the Journal in remembrance of "Companions gone."

But little new business claimed the attention of the Grand Chapter at the present Convocation. A hearty welcome was given the new Grand Chapter of Idaho, and fraternal relations invited.

We learn from the report of Grand Secretary Wingate that the Grand Lodge was convened in the City of Waterloo for the third time, the previous Convocations being held in 1879 and 1893. We excerpt his report of the California Relief Fund for the purpose of repeating our thanks for the generous action of our Iowa Companions:

"On the 28th day of August, 1908, your Grand Secretary received from Grand Secretary William A. Davies, of California, the sum of ninety-seven dollars and nine cents ($97.09), it being a refund from the Committee on Relief for the contribution made by this jurisdiction to the Companions of California for the relief of the distress occasioned by the earthquake and fire, April 18, 1906, that befell that jurisdiction. We find from the Proceedings of the year 1906 that Grand High Priest Ashley Van Storm collected and forwarded the sum of three hundred and thirty-five dollars ($335.00), collected from nineteen Chapters. (See page 460, Proceedings 1906.) Davenport Chapter, No. 16, forwarded twenty-five dollars ($25.00), St. Simon of Cyrene Commandery, No. 9, Knights Templar, also forwarded twenty-five dollars ($25.00), making a total of three hundred and eighty-five dollars ($385.00) contributed by Iowa for the relief of the Royal Arch Masons of California.

"The amount, ninety-seven dollars and nine cents ($97.09), I have included in the contingent fund placed in my hands, awaiting the action of the Grand Chapter for its final disposal."

Comp. F. H. Loring, Chairman of the Committee on Necrology, made an eloquent, sympathetic report, closing with the sweet poem:

"SLEEP WELL.

"Above thy forms daisies will nod and smile,
 Through blades of green kissed by the west wind's breath,
 There, mid soft grasses, will life's hours beguile
 In whispers low and sweet, there is no death.

"SLEEP WELL.

"Some glad, sweet day thou'lt waken from thy sleep
 In His dear likeness and be satisfied,
 With golden sheaves thou'lt stand in Him complete,
 Ransomed, redeemed, forever glorified."

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

Comp. Louis Block, of Davenport, Most Excellent Grand High Priest.

Comp. George W. Ball, of Iowa City, Right Excellent Deputy Grand High Priest.

Comp. J. M. Thompson, of Marion, Right Excellent Grand King.

Comp. G. A. Riemcke, of Muscatine, Right Excellent Grand Scribe.

Comp. F. H. McArthur, of Des Moines, Right Excellent Grand Treasurer.

Comp. Alf. Wingate, of Des Moines, Right Excellent Grand Secretary.

'Comp. Cromwell Bowen moved that the ritual of the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America be adopted by this Grand Chapter. The motion prevailed and was adopted by a unanimous vote.

Past Grand High Priest A. S. Lawrence was elected Custodian of the Work for the term of six years.

R. E. Grand King George W. Ball presented and read the following resolution, which, on motion, was unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, At the last session of this Grand Chapter a resolution was adopted providing that one Grand High Priest's jewel should be procured each year for the oldest Past Grand High Priest without such jewel, in good standing and residing within the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter; therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Grand Chapter of the State of Iowa, that the Grand Secretary be instructed to procure sufficient Past Grand High Priests' jewels to provide one for each Past Grand High Priest without such jewel now in good standing and residing within this jurisdiction, and that the same be presented to such Past Grand High Priests at the next session of this Grand Chapter, and the Finance Committee be authorized to make an appropriation therefor of $600.00."

The Grand Secretary was instructed to call in all copies of the Hindoo ritual now in the hands of the several Chapters.

On the report and recommendation of the Committee on Correspondence, M. E. Comp. W. F. Cleveland, the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Western Australia were recognized as legally formed Grand Chapters and an interchange of representatives invited.

The representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were called up and welcomed by the Grand High Priest.

The thanks of Grand Chapter were extended to the Companions of Tabernacle Chapter, No. 52, for the cordial greeting and all around hospitalities of the present Convocation.

The Grand High Priest-elect named his appointments; all were installed by M. E. Comp. Geo. R. Turner, Past Grand High Priest W. H. Hart acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The Grand High Priest appointed the standing committees, the retiring Grand High Priest was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel, and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Convention of Anointed High Priests of Iowa assembled in the Hall of Tabernacle Chapter, No. 52, M. E. Comp. George R. Turner, President; E. Comp. Alf. Wingate, Recorder, and a large number of E. Companions being in attendance.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Fifteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

A splendid address was delivered by the President, and a memorial eulogy on the life and character of Martin H. Rice prepared by M. E. Comp. W. F. Cleveland; both were enthusiastically approved by the Convention.

The Officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A fine report of ninety pages, in which he reviews forty-nine Grand Jurisdictions, is the work of M. E. Comp. W. F. Cleveland. He reviews California and its Fifty-fourth Annual, Grand High Priest Chas. J. Willett at the head.

The report is a good one and we should like to give M. E. Comp. Cleveland more attention. For the following good and cheering words we thank him:

"The hearts of Masons all over the land beat with sincere sympathy for their brethren of California in their grievous afflictions of 1906, and today we look with pride upon the magnificent work of recuperation that they have already accomplished. All hail to the Masonic fraternity of California!"

M. E. Comp. Louis Block, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Alf. Wingate, Grand Secretary; Correspondent, M. E. Comp. W. F. Cleveland.

INDIANA.

113 Chartered Chapters, 1 U. D. 12,704 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Indiana held its Sixty-third Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Indianapolis, on the 21st of October, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Edgar H. Bristol, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Calvin W. Prather, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with sixteen Past Grand High Priests and thirty-one Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, were present. All the Chartered Chapters were represented with delegates from Center under dispensation.

The portrait of M. E. Comp. Robert M. H. Britton appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Reverend and E. Comp. Samuel I. Shirley, Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest, after appointing the committees, proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

After a pleasant greeting he reminded the Companions "that the Great Ruler of All, our Father and our God, has protected, blessed and aided us. Let us offer up to Him as well as our feeble words will permit an expression of love and praise of gratitude and adoration." He called the Companions to their feet while the Grand Chaplain offered prayer and thanks giving for blessings received, invoking the continued care and protection of the Great Ruler in all their undertakings. Seating the Companions, he proceeded to the discharge of a most painful duty. He said:

"For the first time in years the shadow and chill of death has entered within the precincts of our official circle and taken from us one upon whom we had all learned to rely because of wisdom and experience.

"On Monday, the third of August last, I received a telegram from our R. E. Grand Secretary, which conveyed to me the sad intelligence of the sudden death of M. E. Past Grand High Priest and R. E. Grand Treasurer Martin H. Rice, and on Thursday afternoon, August 6, we saw his mortal remains consigned to their final earthly resting place in beautiful Crown Hill Cemetery, in the city of Indianapolis.

"It seems but a little while since he stood before us in the presence of this Grand Chapter and quoted in part the beautiful 'Psalm of Life,' and as we recall those exquisite words they become more eloquent with meaning now that the lips that uttered them are forever silent in this life.

"Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

"And, knowing as we do the grandeur and usefulness of his whole life, and the hope of immortality that filled his breast, we seem to hear the re-echoing cadences of the voice that thrilled us as though he played upon our heartstrings:

"Life is real, life is earnest,
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest
Was not spoken of the soul."

The Grand High Priest cannot dismiss the loss of this eminent Mason without the following brief notice, leaving to the Committee on Obituaries the duty of preparing for deposit in the archives the life's history of Martin H. Rice as a Mason:

"Companion Rice was born October 4, 1829, in the town of Jamaica, Windham county, Vermont, a descendant of Revolutionary ancestors. At the age of nineteen he taught school in his native State; later was bookkeeper in the same town. In 1853 he emigrated to Piqua, Ohio; in the fall of the same year to Indiana, following various avocations from 1853 until 1855, when he went to Indianapolis and took charge of the Indianapolis Sentinel. In 1856 he gave up this position, went to Laporte, Ind., and engaged again in the railroad business. In November of the same year he located in Plymouth, engaging in the railroad and mercantile business until 1869. He sold his interests in Plymouth, went to Indianapolis and engaged in the publication of the Masonic Advocate, in which business he was engaged until the time of his death, having mailed the August number of the Advocate on the Saturday prior to his death.

"His life was a long and conspicuous one in varied lines, most prominent of which was his Masonic career, which is so well and favorably known that a repetition would be almost superfluous."

In the long death roll submitted by him of the passing of Eminent Companions of other jurisdictions we note the names of three M. E. Companions of our own kindred and brethren who were taken from us within the year. He reported issuing a dispensation for the forming of Centre Chapter, at Muncie, and the Constitution of Bicknell Chapter, No. 135.

The address is mostly confined, as it should be, to the local interests and needs of the jurisdiction.

The Rev'd Samuel I. Shirley, Grand Chaplain, is also Grand Inspector, and made an interesting report of the condition of the jurisdiction.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

M. E. Robert M. H. Britton, of Terre Haute, Grand High Priest.

R. E. Charles M. Worden, of Peru, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. Elias J. Jacoby, of Indianapolis, Grand King.

R. E. William W. Goltra, of Crawfordsville, Grand Scribe.

R. E. Jacob W. Smith, of Indianapolis, Grand Treasurer.

R. E. Calvin W. Prather, of Indianapolis, Grand Secretary.

The Committee on Obituaries, Comp. P. H. Clugston, Chairman, made an eloquent and feeling report on the life's history of Comp. Martin H. Rice, as a Mason, and it was adopted by a rising vote.

The reports of committees having been received and disposed of, and the routine business of the Convocation concluded, the following presentation was in order: M. E. Comp. Robert A. Woods, in an eloquent speech, presented the retiring Grand High Priest with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all were installed by M. E. Comp. Edgar H. Bristol, Past Grand High Priest Robert A. Woods acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees, after which he addressed the Companions, whereupon the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, after prayer by the Rev'd and E. Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Council of High Priests of Indiana in Grand Chapter convened at 4:30 P. M. All the officers save the M. E. President Martin H. Rice, who had been called by death, were present, with many Excellent Companions.

The Vice-President, E. Comp. Simeon S. Johnson, presided, and E. Comp. Calvin W. Prather served as Recorder.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

An eloquent, appropriate and feeling address was delivered by the Vice-President, whereupon the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered our Excellent Vice-President for the splendid address, and the high tribute paid our deceased Excellent President, Comp. Martin H. Rice."

Eighteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The M. E. Comp. John J. Glendening was chosen President, E. Companion Johnson having declined to serve, and all the other Companions were re-elected, and the Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

An excellent report of seventy-five pages, in which the proceedings of forty-five Grand Jurisdictions are reviewed, is the handiwork of M. E. Comp. Simeon S. Johnson. California is reviewed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, it being the administration of Grand High Priest Willett. We should like to give the report a more extended notice, but our physical condition for the last few months has put us behind in our work, and the result is "no rest for the weary."

INDIAN TERRITORY.

Thirty-four Chartered Chapters. 2,705 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Indian Territory held its Nineteenth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, McAlester, Oklahoma, April 21, 1908.—The M. E. Comp. Robert Y. Morrison, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Joseph Samuel Murrow, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with nine Past Grand High Priests and one Deputy, were present. Twenty-one other Grand Jurisdictions were represented, California by M. E. Comp. J. B. Kirkland. Thirty-four of the fifty-four Chartered Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest then delivered the Annual Address.

The presentation of the historic gavel by M. E. Companion Doyle seems to have furnished the key note for the report, and he addressed the Companions as follows:

"Companions: Since last this faithful band was gathered together in Grand Convocation, another year has been added to the many that have gone before, history has been made, and vital changes have taken place within the borders of this Grand Jurisdiction. We have been undergoing a period of transition, and I now have the distinguished honor of bidding you welcome to the First Grand Annual Convocation ever held in the new State of Oklahoma, the glorious Forty-sixth Star, and I believe it to be not inappropriate at this time to indulge in a brief retrospect of the history of our Grand Chapter from its inception, more especially as we are again meeting on the very ground on which this Grand Chapter was organized.

"On the 15th day of February, 1890, in obedience to a call issued by M.·. E.·. Comp. Edmond H. Doyle, proxy for the General Grand High Priest, there assembled at the Masonic Hall, McAlester, Indian Territory, various Companions from the then existing Chapters and organized 'The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Indian Territory,' and elected as their first Grand High Priest our beloved Companion, Joseph Samuel Murrow.

"A few, and I deeply regret that they are few, of those Companions are assembled with us today. They are M.·. E.·. Edmond H. Doyle, M.·. E.·. J. S. Murrow, and Comp. Charles Hokey. I salute them in the name of this Grand Chapter and ask the Companions to join me in giving them the Masonic Grand Honors.

"Since that time our Grand Chapter that was so well and so worthily organized by these early pioneers, has grown and prospered, so that at this, our Nineteenth Annual Convocation, we have sixty Subordinate Chapters, with a membership of over 2,800, and last year our treasury showed a balance on hand of $4,356.31."

He passed as if to the first duty to plant a sprig of acacia in remembrance of the Companions who had gone before, and it could not be better said than in his own words:

"As the destroying angel passed the doors of the Israelites of old while dwelling in the tents of the Egyptians, and left them unharmed, so were we spared in this jurisdiction during the past year, for which we praise the Great Jehovah with thankful hearts. But while we thus rejoice at our own good fortune, let us not forget to extend the loving sympathy of a brother to those of our Sister Grand Jurisdictions who have not fared so well."

I have received during the year notices of the death of distinguished Companions in other Grand Jurisdictions as follows:

And in the lengthy death roll repeated we note the names of three of California's Grand High Priests, M.·. E.·. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick, who passed to rest within the same year.

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the formation of five new Chapters and the constituting of four to whom dispensations had been issued at a former Convocation.

There was no special business before the Grand Chapter, and after good words for a Masonic Home and a well deserved tribute to the Reverend Companion, the Grand Secretary.

Past Grand High Priest Charles B. Belden of Arizona was introduced to the Grand Chapter and was received with much pleasure. Companion Belden has made his home in Oklahoma and placed his membership in Indian Chapter, No. 1. Hence he is a permanent member of this Grand Chapter and his name will be recorded as one of our Past Grand High Priests.

Grand Lecturer D. D. Leach made a verbal report. His report bristled with shortcomings of some of the Chapters and the excellent condition of others. His report was "from grave to gay, from lively to severe." It was a reflex of the true conditions of many Chapters and would have been profitable if it could have been heard by every Chapter in the State. The report was adopted.

The Grand Representatives present were called to their feet, addressed by the Grand High Priest and received the Grand Honors from the Grand Chapter.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, the following Companions were chosen:

Comp. D. M. Hailey, No. 1, Grand High Priest.

Comp. I. H. G. Hulme, No. 31, Deputy Grand High Priest.

Comp. B. B. Pollock, No. 7, Grand King.

Comp. C. C. Springer, No. 1, Grand Scribe.

Comp. H. L. Jarboe, Jr., No. 16, Grand Treasurer.

Comp. J. S. Murrow, No. 2, Grand Secretary.

Comp. D. D. Leach, No. 7, Grand Lecturer.

Comp. Milo A. Nelson, No. 44, Grand Captain of the Host.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made the appointments and the several committees reported, all the Officers, elected and appointed, were installed by M. E. Comp. Z. T. Walrond, Past Grand High Priest, D. D. Leach acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

On motion the thanks of the Grand Chapter were most heartily extended to Indian Chapter, No. 1, for the use of its beautiful, spacious and convenient hall, and for the many kindnesses and courtesies shown the members of the Grand Chapter at this Convocation, and more especially to Comps. J. H. Sayre, J. H. Mann and Christopher Springer for their untiring efforts for the convenience and comfort of the Grand Chapter. The Grand Secretary is especially grateful to Comp. J. J. McAlester and his good wife and family for their kind hospitality.

The routine business of Grand Chapter being completed, the committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, with prayer by the Reverend and Excellent Grand Secretary.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Comp. J. S. Murrow writes this report and presents the one before us in the following words:

To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Indian and Oklahoma Territories: I still address you by the old official title, though we are now in fact, the State of Oklahoma; and at our Annual Convocation I presume that, of course, the old title will become history and that our Grand Chapter will put on the new name.

This is my fourteenth annual report, and I present it to you hoping to receive your usual charitable consideration. I will reserve any "remarks" for the conclusion.

Our Excellent Companion gives an excellent report of the condition of Capitular Masonry in the thirty-six jurisdictions reviewed. The paper numbers 122 pages and makes finished work of the Journal of Proceedings of the Grand Chapter of Oklahoma.

Long life and prosperity to the Grand Chapter of Oklahoma.

M. E. Comp. Daniel M. Hailey, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Joseph S. Murrow, Grand Secretary.

KANSAS.

Eighty-eight Chapters.

7,459 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kansas held its Forty-third Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Topeka, February 17, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. William Frank March, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. William M. Shaver, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with eleven Past Grand High Priests and thirty-six Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Of the eighty-eight Chartered Chapters, seventy-one were represented. There were also present seventy Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled.

The M. W. Edward W. Wellington, Grand Master of Masons in Kansas, was welcomed by the M. E. Grand High Priest and seated in the East.

The M. E. Comp. Bestor G. Brown, Grand Master of the Third Vail of the General Grand Chapter, was also saluted with the Grand Honors and seated in the East.

The Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions present advanced as the roll was called by the Grand Secretary and were welcomed by the Grand High Priest.

M. E. Comp. John C. Postlethwaite, on behalf of the representatives, responded to the welcome.

The Committee on Credentials reported, of which the following is a summary:

Grand Officers present.....	12
Past Grand High Priests present.....	11
Other members present, to-wit.....	168
Grand Representatives	36
Past High Priests.....	69
Chapter Representatives	129

Total members of Grand Chapter in attendance..... 191

Chapters represented	71
Chapters not represented.....	17
<hr/>
Total number of Chartered Chapters.....	88

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address, including the report of his official acts during the recess.

With an eloquent opening, in which thanksgiving and praise to the "God of Nations" for his watchful care over them as individuals and as the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kansas, he recited in eloquent words their progress and prosperity. He said:

"The Fraternal Dead of both our own and other jurisdictions will receive appropriate mention and fitting eulogy in the report of the Committee on Necrology.

"Nearly every year we are forced to chronicle the disappearance of some familiar face from our ranks, but this year our official family remains unbroken. The somber wings of Angel Azrael have not cast a shadow upon any of our homes."

Remembering a faithful Companion "of their own household," absent through illness, he bespoke for him the needed care and attention in these words:

"At the present time our Grand Sentinel is languishing upon a bed of sickness. His long and faithful service to the Grand Chapter has won for him a host of friends and well wishers. His presence is sorely missed today. I would recommend that a committee be appointed to convey to our friend and Companion our good wishes and greetings, with the hope that he may be restored to health again."

He issued dispensations for the forming and opening of three new Chapters at Coffeyville, Caney and Overbrook. We excerpt the following from his interesting conclusion:

"I wish there were some methods by means of which all Master Masons could be given the true idea of the beautiful symbolic work, of the fine ethical teachings of Capitular Masonry. As a matter of fact, in the lodge the story is only half told; the tradition is uncompleted; the word is unspoken; the unknown is yet to be revealed, and this can only be seen by those who have passed the Vails, by means of the signet of truth, to the Grand Council, and who have assisted in bringing to light the long lost Master's word, and hear for the first time, in a most solemn and reverential manner, the great and sacred name.

"This is certainly one of the grandest climaxes of all Masonry. It is a consummation of a great series of events, working out the fullness and completion in the last degree of Capitular Masonry. It is the completion, the rounding out, the consummation of the work which the lodge begins. It is the final volume of the history."

Charters were granted to three Lodges under dispensation, and they numbered respectively No. 89, 90 and 91.

Companion Shaver, Grand Secretary, made his usual concise and exhaustive report. If one would know something about the history and condition of Masonry in Kansas, ask Companion Shaver.

On motion of M. E. Perry M. Hoisington, the Grand Chapter extended a unanimous vote of sympathy to our Grand Sentinel, E. Spencer P. Wade, and in connection therewith an honorarium of $200 in token of their high appreciation and esteem for him.

The M. E. Grand High Priest appointed the following committee, who in due time submitted a report that they had complied with the wishes of the Grand Chapter and reported due appreciation on the part of E. Comp. Wade: E. Robert E. Nichols, E. Matthew M. Miller and E. J. Jay Buck.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

R. E. Augustus O. Wellman, No. 5, Grand High Priest.

R. E. Thomas G. Fitch, No. 33, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. Fred Washbon, No. 61, Grand King.

E. William H. Evans, No. 19, Grand Scribe.

M. E. Aaron H. Connett, No. 36, Grand Treasurer.

E. Albert K. Wilson, No. 5, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest made his appointments and all were installed by M. E. Comp. Perry M. Hoisington, M. E. Comp. Thomas L. Bond as Master of the Ceremonies.

The Grand High Priest appointed the standing committees and the Grand Royal Arch Chapter was closed in Ample Form, after prayer by the Excellent Grand Chaplain.

On Tuesday evening, February 18, 1908, after the close of the Grand Chapter, Topeka Chapter, No. 5, by request of the M. E. Grand High Priest, and as stated in the official circular, conferred the Royal Arch Degree in the presence of the Grand Officers, representatives and other members, all of whom expressed a high appreciation of the excellent manner in which the work was done, as well as the magnificent equipment and paraphernalia which added much to the importance of the degree.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood assembled in Masonic Hall, Topeka, February 18, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. John C. Postlethwaite, Vice-President, presiding; E. Comp. William M. Shaver, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The Treasurer and Recorder submitted their reports, which were considered and approved.

Thirty Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The election of Officers was held. M. E. Comp. Wm. Frank was elected President, all the other Officers being re-elected.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Another report from our friend and Companion, Shaver, and one that will probably be his last, for which we are truly sorry. Were we twenty years younger, we should expect to see him again in the place he fills so well. We hope, however, he goes to improve his conditions physically. Financially, and if we didn't know his goodness would add morally, as to that we will take him as he is.

Companion Shaver reviews thirty-eight Capitular Jurisdictions in his valedictory of eighty-three pages, and, like all of his work, it is sound and reliable.

His review of California is of its Fifty-third Annual, Grand High Priest Hughes in the East.

Of our legislation concerning relief during our troubles, he says: "Considerable space was devoted to the report of the relief funds contributed throughout the country for the San Francisco and California earthquake and fire sufferers. From these reports we gather that the Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter received from Masonic Lodges, other Grand Jurisdictions, $890.75; from Grand and subordinate Chapters, other jurisdictions, $20,688.65; from California Chapters, $2,160.00; the General Masonic Relief Board also reported receipts from Grand and subordinate Chapters, other jurisdictions, $3,625.00. The total amount thus reported as having been received by the General Masonic Relief Board from Chapters, Grand and subordinate, and by the Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter from Chapters, Grand and subordinate, and also from various Lodges in other Grand Jurisdictions, aggregated $28,255.15. Of this amount the Grand and subordinate Chapters of Kansas contributed $1,050.00, being surpassed or equaled only by the jurisdictions of Pennsylvania, Illinois, Texas, New York and Missouri. We were proud of Kansas.

"It does not appear in the Proceedings as to how much had been expended of these funds in relief, but the following resolutions were adopted:

"WHEREAS, The Masonic Board of Relief appointed by the Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., has so fully performed its duty by relieving the immediate distress of all Masons, including Companions of the Royal Arch, caused by the disaster of April 18, 1906, that but a small portion of the funds received by the Grand Chapter have been expended; and

"WHEREAS, The intention of the donors of the fund was to assist all distressed Masons and their families; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the incoming Grand Council be instructed to communicate with the committee of the Grand Lodge, and if necessary aid that committee in its work, particularly in the relief of Royal Arch Masons, and also to give aid to deserving cases coming to its notice; and be it further

"Resolved, That should it be ascertained that the said committee needs no further funds and should no special calls for aid be made, the Grand Council is instructed to return the surplus so far as possible to the donors of the same, excluding the California bodies, with the heartfelt gratitude of this Grand Chapter for the true Masonic charity displayed by the donation of this magnificent amount of money to relieve the distress of their Companions."

Indeed, Companion Shaver, we are all proud of Kansas. We are not given to "tooting our own horn," but as this excerpt concerns Companion Shaver as well as ourself, we give it room.

Another excellent Report on Correspondence was presented by Grand Secretary Davies. Owing to the natural demoralization of the mails for a considerable time, and the "change of base" of the Grand Secretary from San Francisco to Alameda, some Proceedings failed to reach him, but Kansas was not among that number, our transactions for 1906 being very fully reviewed, that portion of his report covering five pages. He quotes in full our review of the attack of their Grand High Priest Patton on the resolutions adopted the preceding year prohibiting the use of liquors at Chapter functions, with the remark that we "probed Sir Charles with a very sharp stick." This full quotation convinces us that this "probing" received his endorsement.

KENTUCKY.

Ninety-two Chapters.

6,820 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kentucky held its Ninety-first Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Louisville, October 20, 1908, —The M. E. Comp. George A. Lewis, Grand High Priest, the R. E. Comp. Henry B. Grant, Grand Secretary. Kentucky bears on its roll ninety-two Chapters, with a membership of 6,820 Royal Arch Masons. Of these, ninety Chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present, with nineteen Past Grand High Priests and forty Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled. Ninety of the ninety-two Chapters were represented.

Handsome portraits of Grand High Priest Geo. A. Lewis, of 1907-08, and Laban T. Everett, Grand High Priest of 1908-09, appear in this number of the Journal, and "In Memoriam" of E. Comp. Herman Hugo Erdmann, Grand Sentinel. This number also contains a view of the Masonic Temple, Louisville.

The Grand Chapter was opened on the Royal Arch Degree at 7:45 P. M., and the Grand High Priest delivered the Annual Address, with the report of his official acts during the recess.

He concluded an eloquent opening with the following statement of good, square work:

"Before presenting for your inspection my work of the year, I want to tell you how great is my appreciation of the high honor you conferred one year ago, and to assure you that I have labored faithfully to worthily wear the same.

"It is a matter of personal satisfaction to be able to report that harmony prevails throughout this Grand Jurisdiction—no confusion having arisen among the Craft—and that our numbers have grown materially since you placed this trust in my keeping."

Directing their attention to those Companions who had "gone before," he said:

"Brief is the span since we exchanged fraternal greetings, yet as we look about us we realize that some of those whose hand-clasp was warm and genial a short twelve-month ago, will come no more forever.

"Since last we gathered about our altar the Grim Reaper has been busy in our ranks, and many of our Companions, grown weary of toil in the quarry of life, have put aside their working tools and rest from their labors. In his onward march the Great Destroyer has stricken from the roll of our membership the faithful guardian of the outer courts of our tabernacle, and Comp. Herman H. Erdmann is no more. He passed away in this city on the 1st of May last, and on behalf of this Grand Body a floral design was placed upon his grave."

The following practical advice will apply equally to other jurisdictions:

"In this connection, my Companions, I cannot too strongly urge upon you the necessity of the greatest care in the selection of your Secretaries. Don't, I beg of you, take any one you can get, but select the very best member of your Chapter for the position. Exalt the office and keep him in it, for he is the most important officer you have. Having been brought into close touch with the Chapters during the year, I have been made painfully aware what very careless and inattentive Companions are serving some of you in that capacity. The plainest instructions which have gone out from my office seem never to have attracted the attention of some, and their actions have been exactly the opposite of what was expected of them."

Under the head of Decisions we note the following common-sense application of the law:

"5. A Master Mason, having lost both his limbs before receiving the Master's Degree, and now being supplied with artificial limbs, desires to become a member of the Chapter. Can his petition be received and acted upon?

"Held.—The Grand Chapter has never passed upon the question of deformity being a bar to membership, but the Constitution, Sec. 13, Art. VIII, says: 'In the absence of specific provisions affecting a Chapter, etc., analogous rules of the Grand Lodge shall govern.' Regulation 121 of the Grand Lodge, touching deformity, refers to the Constitutional provision and adds: 'But whether or not such defects exist the Lodge is the sole judge.' Regulation 33 of the General Grand Chapter (Digest, p. 50) says: 'Candidates who are crippled may be accepted when their maim does not amount to inability to comply with our rites and ceremonies.' I take it that as the brother has safely passed the test in the Blue Lodge, his maim does not interfere materially with his becoming a Chapter member, but the Chapter being in position to best judge, should be able to settle that question for itself."

The following excerpt opens up a subject of vital interest to the Cryptic rite and offers a solution of the often asked question, "When will the Council degrees be made a prerequisite to the Orders of Knighthood?" We excerpt:

"The Grand Chapter of Texas had charge of Councils, under 'the Mississippi plan,' so that practically all R. A. M.'s were also R. and S. M.'s. Last year the Grand Council of Texas was rehabilitated with a Council membership of over 12,000, making it the largest Grand Council in the world.

"This agreement was entered into between the Grand Chapter and Grand Council of Texas:

"R. A. M.'s who had not received the R. and S. M. degrees are to receive them later without being subjected to a ballot, and the Chapter to which each belonged is to pay the ($5.00) fee—which had been received by the Chapter.

"The fees for dispensation and charter were reduced from $100.00 to $75.00, but a petition for a new Chapter must be accompanied by a petition for a new Council and $25.00 to pay for the Council dispensation and charter, and the $25.00 fee and petition for a Council are turned over to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Council when the Chapter dispensation is granted.

"A petition for the Chapter degrees must be accompanied by a petition and the fee for the Council degrees, and when the petitioner has received the Royal Arch Degree the Council petition and fee are given to the Recorder of the Council. The Chapter fees were reduced so that the aggregate amount for dispensations, charters and degrees of both Chapter and Council cost no more than they did before, which insures a common interest in building up both bodies, maintaining the high position Texas has attained, and dissemination of the knowledge imparted by the beautiful Cryptic rite that is so desirable to a full understanding of the Master Mason's and Royal Arch degrees.

"I am not prepared to suggest details that would be appropriate for a similar arrangement in Kentucky, but am convinced the matter is worthy of painstaking investigation; therefore, that it might be maturely considered and presented to you for such action as you may determine to be for the best interest of our rite, I consulted with M. Ill. Grand Master Jno. T. Kincaid, and by mutual agreement the whole matter has been referred to a joint committee, or a committee from the Grand Chapter and Grand Council, in advance of your Convocation, that it might be presented to you after careful investigation."

He returned thanks for courtesies received by the Sir Knights of Covington Commandery and of Daylight Lodge of Free Masons.

Grand Secretary Grant made his usual comprehensive report.

The Grand High Priest announced the standing committees.

The Committee on Jurisprudence reported upon balloting for degrees at called meetings, and on certain amendments to the Constitution, and their conclusions were concurred in by the Grand Chapter.

The Joint Committee on Capitular and Cryptic Bodies made the following report:

"To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kentucky.

"The Joint Committee of the Grand Chapter and Grand Council, to which was referred that part of the addresses of the M. E. Grand High Priest and the M. Ill. Grand Master touching a time and place of our annual gatherings, and methods for a more intimate relation and unity of efforts in the upbuilding of Capitular and Cryptic rites in Kentucky, is in the abstract impressed with the desirability of some such plan as has been proposed by our chief officers. The rush and hurry during Grand Lodge week causes hasty legislation, and frequent changes in the law, promoting a want of respect for law, which is subversive of good government and menacing to stability.

"Besides, the time that ought to be exclusively devoted to the affairs of the Grand Bodies is seriously encroached upon by the distractions of a large city and entertainments that entice Companions from business which they are paid to attend to.

"The meeting of our Grand Bodies at a different time of the year from the annual communication of the Grand Lodge and in different localities has ceased to be experimental, for both have been proven greatly beneficial to all concerned, and particularly so to Grand Chapters and Grand Councils in other States, where due importance is given to them. With us they are subordinate and secondary, which ought not to be.

"Your Joint Committee is of opinion that the Grand Chapter and Grand Council ought to meet during the same week, because their interests are so closely allied, and will not interfere with each other—but it is clear that they ought not to meet during Grand Lodge week, for reasons already stated, and which must be apparent to a casual observer. We are also of the opinion that if the bodies we now represent meet at different places in the State it would do very much towards inciting the local Chapters and Councils to laudable ambition to present a fair appearance—show a good condition of hall, books, paraphernalia and exemplification of the work, besides largely increase the membership by making themselves known as live and prosperous bodies of the Craft.

"At present we are almost stagnating. The plans proposed will, without a doubt, infuse new life in these rites. If it should be an exception to the rule that has been proven so beneficial in other jurisdictions, a change back to the almost obsolete methods now hampering us and detracting from our growth and efficiency can be made, if such should be deemed wise after a fair trial.

"As has been intimated, the Texas plan has placed the Chapters and Councils of that great State in a most intimate and admirable relation, making its Council membership greater than that of any other jurisdiction in the world. It will also stimulate the Chapters, and both will have a State pride in maintaining their position at the head. All this without increasing the aggregate cost for all the degrees. Their plan will be followed by many, no doubt, and it behooves us to consider it well. The Cryptic degrees are essential to a clearer understanding of the Master Mason's and Royal Arch degrees, and 'completes the circle' of knowledge of the strictly Masonic degrees. Therefore, we ought to encourage their propagation.

"We recommend that the Constitution of the Grand Chapter be amended as follows:

"Sections 9 and 10, Art. I, page 26, be changed so as to read: 'Sec. 9. The stated Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky shall be held at such places as shall previously be voted by the Grand Chapter, to begin in the morning at such hour as shall be designated by the Grand High Priest, and on the second Wednesday of March of each year.'

"Section 10. Emergent Convocations may be held on call of Grand High Priest at such time and place as may be agreed by the four principal officers thereof.'

"For Sec. 1, Art. VII, page 35, substitute the following: 'The fee for dispensation and charter shall be $35.00, which shall be paid before a dispensation can be issued.'

"Accompanying the petition for a new Chapter, a petition for a Council of Royal and Select Masters, with the fee therefor, $20.00, and if a dispensation for the proposed Chapter be granted, the petition and fee for the new Council prayed for shall be promptly turned over to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Council of Kentucky, Royal and Select Masters.

"For Sec. 7, Art. II, page 41, substitute the following: 'No Chapter shall confer the Capitular degrees for a less sum than $15.00; but a petition for the Council degrees, with the fee ($5.00), shall accompany all petitions for Chapter degrees, and as soon as the petitioner receives the Royal Arch degree the petition and fee for the Council degrees shall at once be turned over to the Recorder of the Council having jurisdiction.'

"These amendments, if adopted, will reduce the fees for dispensation and charter, but to an amount only a trifle more than as is realized by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky for such documents, and make the minimum fee for Chapter and Council degrees the same as it now costs for the Capitular degrees alone.

"Sec. 6, Art. V, page 30, amend the second paragraph so as to read: 'The fees for the Council degrees shall not be less than $5.00; provided, however, that in order to give all Companion Royal Arch Masons the beautiful degrees of the Cryptic rite in carrying out the plan agreed upon by the Grand Chapter of Kentucky, Councils shall give said degrees to all Royal Arch Masons now in good standing in their Chapters for the sum of $2.00, if the same be applied for within two years from the date the Grand Chapter adopts the constitutional amendments recommended by the Joint Committee that proposed them.'

We omit that part of the report providing for the pay of Officers and members in attendance on Grand Council, with mileage, as we would not be interested in disturbing our present system. The report was signed by Comps. Joe H. Ewalt, John G. Cramer and W. D. Cannon, and was referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

The committee reported as follows:

"Your Committee on Jurisprudence begs leave to make a supplemental report as follows:

"As to the amendment offered by Past High Priest W. W. Clarke to Sec. 3 of Art. XIII of the Constitution, we approve the amendment, and recommend that it lay over until our next Annual Convocation for consideration.

"As to the amendments to the Constitutions offered by the Joint Committee, representing Capitular and Cryptic Masonry, we recommend that the same lay over until our next regular Convocation for further consideration.

Geo. B. Winslow,
J. W. Jewett,
H. W. Behrman.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, the following Companions were chosen:

Laban T. Everett, Catlettsburg, Grand High Priest.
 G. Allison Holland, Lexington, Deputy Grand High Priest.
 Harry Bailey, Cynthiana, Grand King.
 David W. Gray, Louisville, Grand Scribe.
 Frank H. Johnson, Louisville, Grand Treasurer.
 Henry B. Grant, Louisville, Grand Secretary.
 Chas. E. Dunn, Louisville, Grand Chaplain.
 John C. Worsham, Henderson, Grand Captain of Host.
 Wm. Carson Black, Barbourville, Grand Principal Sojourner.
 W. R. Shackelford, Richmond, Grand Royal Arch Captain.
 Herman Becker, Louisville, Grand Sentinel.

And they were installed by Past Grand High Priest Warren Larue Thomas, except the Grand Secretary, who is always installed in the month of January.

A full and eloquent report on Necrology devoted to the memory of the Companions whose names were inscribed on the death roll of the year was submitted by the committee. We excerpt its closing words:

"To their sorrowing friends, relatives and Companions the Grand Chapter of Kentucky extends heartfelt sympathy and condolence. May the God of all peace keep and comfort them.

"Let us who remain zealously work and earnestly toil till the night cometh when no one can work. May we all emulate the worth and virtues of these exemplary Craftsmen, and when we lay aside our working tools and lie down to rise no more in this world, may we have been found as faithful as the many who have gone that way before us, and may we be deserving of the tears of our friends and of the plaudit 'well done, good and faithful servants.'

"Your committee recommends that the names of the departed of other jurisdictions, with dates of their birth and of entering into rest of each, be suitably inscribed upon memorial pages and inserted in the Proceedings of this Convocation.

"We would have their examples and virtues upon perpetual record here.

"Your committee further recommends that when an Officer or Past Grand Officer of this jurisdiction shall be called hence, a bound volume of the Proceedings of the Convocation at which notice and report thereof shall have been made, be sent to the family of such decedent.

Fraternally submitted,

Chas. H. Fisk,
 W. R. Johnston,
 G. D. Lillard.

The report was adopted by a rising vote.

The Grand Secretary, H. B. Grant, on behalf of the Grand Chapter, presented to retiring Grand High Priest Geo. A. Lewis a Past Grand High Priest's jewel, as required by regulation. Companion Lewis thanked the Grand Chapter for the jewel, and expressed his high appreciation of the honors conferred upon him.

Past Grand High Priest Chas. H. Fisk moved that the thanks of the Grand Chapter be tendered to the retiring Grand High Priest, Geo. A. Lewis, for the highly creditable manner in which he had discharged the duties of his office. Adopted by a rising vote.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form at 11 o'clock P. M.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE

Or, as Companion Clarke christens it, a report of the doings of Grand Chapters, is an excellent paper of seventy-five pages, in which is noted the condition of Capitular Masonry in the several Grand Jurisdictions of the world, with its progress and prosperity. In it California is noted as one having experienced a streak of bad luck, but is now recuperating and on the road to recovery.

He reviews our Fifty-fourth Annual, being the administration of M. E. Companion Willett, of which he speaks favorably, notices his address, marking the paper as earnest and thoughtful.

We note on the page preceding Companion Clarke's report the portraits of four venerable Companions, whom the Journal says directed the Grand Secretary's pen from 1821 to 1890: Comps. John McKinney, Jr., Phil Swigert, Jno. M. S. McCordle and Joseph H. Branham.

Venerable Kentuckians! They wrought long and well, and we now enjoy the fruits of their labor.

LOUISIANA.

26 Chartered Chapters—2 under dispensation. 2,489 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Louisiana held its Sixty-first Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, New Orleans, February 4, 1908.—The M. E. Comp. L. E. Thomas, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Richard Lambert, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers, with nine Past Grand High Priests, two Past Grand Scribes and sixteen Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled, and twenty-four representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were present. All the Constituent Chapters were represented, with Delegates from Minden under dispensation.

The Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, of the State of Louisiana was called to order by M. . E. . Comp. Lee E. Thomas, Grand High Priest, and after an invocation to the Great I AM by Rev. Comp. Herman C. Duncan, Grand Chaplain, was declared open in Ample and Solemn Form.

The Committee on Credentials having reported, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a hearty welcome to the assembled Companions, new members attending the first Annual, as well as the veterans of the jurisdiction, he congratulated them upon the state of Capitular Masonry in Louisiana. He said:

"It is a source of great gratification that Capitular Masonry has kept step with the splendid progress of the symbolic Lodges in recent years.

"It has been my pleasure to institute two new Chapters during the past year, both of which will apply for charters. They are both well located, and doing excellent work.

"We have not lost a single Chapter from suspension or any other cause.

"We have at present twenty-eight active Chapters in the State and about 2,495 Royal Arch Masons, showing a splendid net gain for the past year.

"In renovating our Temple property, I had the Grand Chapter room decorated and refurnished in the appropriate colors of the Royal Arch degree, and I trust they will please the taste of all the Companions."

He reported his visitation of several Chapters, but like many another of his predecessors, failed in his intentions to visit them all. He reported the death of Past Grand High Priest M. . E. . Comp. Robert Harmon Cage, and paid loving and earnest tribute to his memory. He recommended that pages in the Journal be set apart and devoted to the remembrance of all Companions who have solved the "great mystery."

But little new legislation was had at the present Convocation, the general routine consisting of the reference and reports of committees relating to the financial condition of the Grand Body and the exemption of its work.

The Grand Secretary's report is a clear and concise statement of the affairs of the jurisdiction. We excerpt his account of the work of the year, to-wit:

In closing his report Lambert says:

"And now, in conclusion, Companions, allow me to thank the Officers of the Grand Chapter and the Companions of the subordinate Chapters with whom I have come into contact during the year for the uniform courtesy with which I have been treated during the year. I have found all always ready to respond promptly to calls for information and ready to do at all times anything in their power to facilitate the work of this office. To the Secretaries of subordinate Chapters I have nothing but praise for the high character of the work they have submitted. In fact, I can say, with some degree of pride, that they have all done their part in bringing to a close one of the most successful years in Capitular Masonry in the State of Louisiana.

A charter was granted Minden Chapter, and it was numbered on the Register 55.

The dispensation of Washington Chapter was continued.

The annual election of Officers being in order, tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

Rev'd and M.° E.° Comp. C. C. Kramer, Grand High Priest.

R.° E.° Comp. Gus D. Levy, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R.° E.° Comp. J. B. Adams, Grand King.

R. E. Comp. L. C. Allen, Grand Scribe.

R. E. Comp. Harry B. Schreiber, Grand Treasurer.

R. E. Comp. Richard Lambert, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest subsequently made his appointments and all were installed by M. E. Comp. A. C. Allen, Past Grand High Priest, R. R. Reid acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

E. Comp. D. B. Gorham, Chairman, submitted the following report for the Committee on Necrology:

"Your Committee on Necrology would respectfully submit the following report, to-wit:

"During the year 1907 six beloved Companions, pre-eminent among whom was our much beloved Companion and Most Excellent Past Grand High Priest, Robert H. Cage, whose life has been so beautifully portrayed in the glowing tribute paid him by our M. W. Grand Master, L. E. Thomas, in his address to the Grand Lodge, which we hereby reiterate, that there is little, if anything, left to be said. Possessed of those excellent moral and mental attributes which made him as perfect a man as it is possible on earth, courageous, generous, gentle, faithful in all his duties, uncompromising with evil, his manifold attributes are, indeed, like the fragrance of a flower, felt, enjoyed but impossible of analysis. Called away while barely in the meridian of a life of great utility, he leaves a bright and shining example to be followed by his Companions.

"W. S. Benedict, Past Grand High Priest and Past High Priest of Orleans-Delta Chapter, No. 1, a most worthy Companion, long Chairman of the Finance Committee, one who discharged all his duties faithfully, a man of upright conduct, a lawyer of rare ability, was called away from labor to eternal rest.

"Jacques Olle, Past High Priest of Concorde Chapter, for many years a faithful member of that Chapter, died in the City of Paris, the place of his nativity.

"Zach. T. Black, Past High Priest of Orleans-Delta Chapter, for many years Recorder of that Chapter and Secretary of his Lodge, Perfect Union, No. 1, while barely passed the meridian of a life filled with usefulness, and faithful to all his duties, received his call.

"Charles A. Scott, Past High Priest of Concorde Chapter, No. 2, a member of the Finance Committee of the Grand Lodge for many years, and who ever took an active interest in Masonry, having removed to Texas, also died during said year.

"Wm. R. McCreight, of Living Stone Chapter, of Bastrop, La., a Past Grand High Priest, was also called away to the Eternal Grand Chapter, there to meet the Supreme Grand High Priest of the Universe.

"The passing away of so many beloved Companions during the past year must forcibly remind us of our imperative duty of improving each hour of our time, of wielding the chisel and mallet unsparingly, so as to remove all irregularities of the rough ashlar of our natures and be better prepared when we present ourselves before the Supreme Grand Overseer to receive the wages due for good work, true work and square work."

The report was adopted by a rising vote.

The committees having reported and the routine business concluded, the Grand High Priest named the standing committees and the Grand Chapter was closed after prayer by the Excellent and Rev'd Herman Cope Duncan in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Louisiana Council of the Order of High Priesthood assembled in Chapter Hall of the Masonic Temple, New Orleans, February 4, 1908,—The M.°. E.°. and Rev'd Herman Cope Duncan, President; E.°. Comp. Richard Lambert being Recorder, and a good attendance of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The M.°. E.°. President delivered an address devoted to the remembrance of the Excellent Companions who had passed to rest during the past year.

Eight Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Excellent Companions Recorder and Treasurer reported the financial condition of the Council and the reports were approved.

The Officers were re-elected and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M.°. E.°. Comp. and Rev'd Herman Cope Duncan always writes a good report, and the present is no exception. In it he reviews all the Journals received, forming an excellent paper of sixty-two pages. His notice of California is of the stirring session of 1906, which is always before us. He devotes a great portion of his comments upon the progress made in our rehabilitation. We return thanks for his kind words.

MAINE.

Fifty-nine Chapters.

5,964 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maine held its Eighty-third Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Portland, May 5, 1908,—The

M. E. Comp. Edwin A. Porter, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Stephen Berry, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers, with eleven Past Grand High Priests, a Past Grand Deputy, two Past Grand Kings and four Past Grand Scribes were present. Four District Deputy Grand High Priests, thirty-four Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance, and fifty-eight of the fifty-nine Constituent Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, after prayer by the E. and Rev'd Ashley A. Smith, Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address and the report of his official acts during the recess.

With a fraternal welcome and hearty greeting he addressed the assembled Companions, members in their first attendance upon an Annual Communication, as well as the veterans of many years' service.

Referring to the death roll of the year, he said:

"The grim messenger, Death, has dealt very kindly with this Grand Chapter during the past year. The past and present Grand Officers of one year ago remain an unbroken band, for which we most reverently thank the Great Grand High Priest of the Universe.

"April 25, 1907, Comp. Wilford J. Fisher, of Eastport, Maine, answered the summons and passed to the great beyond. Companion Fisher was the representative of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia near this Grand Chapter. He lived to the ripe old age of 85 years.

"The report of the dead of our sister jurisdictions I leave to the Committee on Memorials. A full report of the Companions of this Grand Jurisdiction who have died during the year will be included in the report of this Grand Convocation.

"From the dust of the weary highway,
From the smart of the sorrow's rod,
Into the royal presence
They are bidden as guests of God;
The veil from their eyes is taken,
Sweet mysteries they are shown,
Their doubts and fears are over,
For they know as they are known."

The decisions reported not being of general importance but subject to local regulation, need no comment. He gives the condition of the Craft in the Grand Jurisdiction as excellent, while he criticises a few minor omissions.

The visiting Officers, District Deputies and Grand Lecturers sustain the Grand High Priest in his judgment. Referring to the condition of Capitular Masonry in Maine, the Grand Lecturer in his report says:

"I have attended three of the four 'schools' which have now been held for instruction in Capitular Masonry, and while the attendance has not been so large as at similar 'schools' in Symbolic Masonry, perhaps on account of their 'newness' and the fact that far larger territory must be covered by each and for a smaller number, I think the plan is the correct one in both instances, and that great good will be accomplished by continuing it."

The Committee on Memorials, R. E. Comp. Herbert Harris, Chairman, made a feelingly eloquent report devoted to the remembrance of Companions gone. We excerpt a portion of the report: "To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maine:

"How fast they fall—those we have known—
As leaves from Autumn branches blown,
So quickly sear!
Yes, one by one they drop away,
As withered leaves that fall and stray
And disappear."

"They disappear, and are gone forever from our sight. Vainly we peer into the mist and the darkness; no ray of light shows us the way they have gone, no sound of them comes to our waiting ears. Somewhere in the great beyond, somewhere in the brightness of a new and unclouded life, they are wafted on into the sweet and holy presence of Him who holds the universe in the hollow of His hand.

"In life they were beloved, in death their memory is revered.

"We have space to mention only the better known of those who have passed into eternity before us.

California.—Milton Hills Myrick, P. G. H. P., was born in Paris, Oneida County, New York, in May, 1826, and died at his summer home in the Santa Clara Valley, California, September 18, 1907. His father, Rev. Luther Myrick, was an enthusiastic abolitionist, an associate of Gerrit Smith and other leaders in the movement. The son settled in San Francisco, became a successful lawyer there, and also held the offices of Probate Judge and Judge of the Supreme Court.

"Benjamin Franklin Tuttle, P. G. H. P., was a native of Maine, having been born in Paris, Oxford County, August 29, 1825. He died October 9, 1907, in Santa Clara. In October, 1849, he sailed for San Francisco, arriving there after a voyage of 178 days. He at first engaged in mining, and later was in the lumber business. He was a man of high character, and was held in high respect by his fellow citizens, having held various county offices and the positions of Senator and Railroad Commissioner. In his death the church loses a consistent member, the State an upright official, and Masonry a faithful servant."

He closed the report in these words, and the report was adopted by a rising vote:

"Others there were who cannot here be called by their names. Many among them were of the true and earnest supporters of Freemasonry, the charitable and loving brethren whose quiet deeds of kindness to their Companions, and self-denying labor for the institution, have not spread their fame far afield, but have abundantly helped to make Freemasonry what it is today. May they rest in peace. 'Their works do follow them.'

"After the burden, the blissful meed;
After the flight, the downy nest;
After the furrow, the waking seed;
After the shadowy river, rest."

Election of Officers for the ensuing year:

The Grand High Priest called to the East M.' E.'. Charles I. Collamore; P. G. H. P., who appointed as a committee to receive, sort and count votes for Grand Officers Comps. William N. Howe, Wm. Freeman Lord and W. Scott Shorey. They attended to their duties and reported the election of:

Franklin R. Redlon, Portland, Grand High Priest.

Thomas H. Bodge, Augusta, Deputy Grand High Priest.

Charles B. Davis, Waterville, Grand King.

Ralph H. Burbank, Saco, Grand Scribe.

Leander W. Fobes, Portland, Grand Treasurer.

Stephen Berry, Portland, Grand Secretary.

Committee of Finance—Millard F. Hicks, Portland; Warren C. King, Portland; Herbert W. Robinson, Portland.

The report was accepted.

The Grand High Priest having made the appointments, M.°. E.°. William N. Howe was asked to assume the East and to install the Grand Officers. He invited M.°. E.°. Edwin A. Porter to act as Grand Captain of the Host, and the Rev. Ashley A. Smith, as Grand Chaplain.

Comp. Franklin R. Redlon was presented and installed as M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain, and proclamation was made.

The Officers, elected and appointed, were installed and proclamation made. The Grand High Priest assumed the East and thanked M.°. E.°. Companion Howe for assistance.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Council of the Order of High Priesthood of Maine met in Corinthian Hall May 6th at 7:30 P. M.,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Alfred S. Kimball, President; E.°. Comp. Stephen Berry, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The reports of the Treasurer and Recorder were received and approved.

Twenty-five Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Officers were re-elected and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Comp. Herbert Harris submits a fine report of 130 pages, in which he reviews the legislation had in fifty Grand Royal Arch bodies. His notice of California is of the Forty-third Annual, a year subsequent to the great disaster. Of course the legislation of that session was confined chiefly to the work of rehabilitation. But we are always thankful to Companion Harris for words of encouragement and the approval of our doings.

MARYLAND.

Twenty-two Chapters.

3,027 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maryland held its one hundred and eleventh Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Baltimore, November 19, 1908,—M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles E. Cochrane, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. John H. Miller, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, and all the Constituent Chapters were represented. There were also present thirty-four Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, together with ten Past Grand High Priests, one Past Deputy Grand, two Past Grand Kings, and a Grand Scribe.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees. The roll of Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions was called by the Grand Secretary, and the thirty-four Excellent Companions present were given a hearty welcome by the Grand High Priest, who expressed the hope of the continuance of the present cordial relations with their respective jurisdictions.

The M. E. Comp. Graham Dukehart responded to the address on behalf of the assembled Representatives.

In conformity with Masonic usage in Maryland, the Officers-elect of twelve Constituent Chapters were installed by the Grand High Priest, assisted by the other Grand Officers.

He then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address and to report his official acts during the recess.

He gave a hearty and fraternal greeting of the Companions assembled in honor of the one hundred and eleventh birthday of the Grand Chapter of Maryland; he expressed the hope that the legislation of the session would result in the continued progress and prosperity of the Grand Chapter, and then referring to "absent Companions" he said:

"The Grim Reaper has visited our ranks twice during the year, and two illustrious and beloved Companions have descended the Arch and been exalted by our Supreme Grand High Priest to the Supreme Grand Chapter above, where they have no doubt received the wages of all faithful Craftsmen."

From the names inscribed on the death roll of the year he mentioned M. E. Comps. James W. Bowers and Charles McDonald, Jr. and paid affectionate and official tribute to the memory of each, and he recommended the setting apart of mourning pages in the Journal devoted to the remembrance of their many visitors. In addition to these M. E. Companions they had also to mourn the loss of six Past High Priests, members of their respective Chapters, who had passed to their final rest.

He extended the sympathy of the Grand Chapter of Maryland to sister jurisdictions from whom he had received official notice of their bereavement.

He reported his visitation, accompanied by his official staff, of most of the Chapters and was impressed with their prosperous condition and correct exemplification of the work of Capitular Masonry.

He recommended the procuring of jewels for their Past Grand Officers and the presentation of one to each living Past Grand High Priest as a testimonial of service rendered.

Very little new business presented itself for consideration by the Grand Chapter, so with space at our disposal we desire to express in the full meaning of the words the sympathy of the Masons of California with our Companions of Maryland in the unfortunate destruction by fire of their second Temple. We excerpt the report of M. E. Comp. Cochrane for the purpose of saying: May the Temple under construction exceed in beauty of design all that have preceded it. The Grand High Priest said:

"As you are aware, this entire community, as well as the entire Grand Jurisdiction, was shocked and much distressed on Friday morning, January 17, 1908, when it became known that our beautiful home on North Charles street had been practically destroyed by fire during the previous night. However, through the usual prompt action of our Most Worshipful Grand Master, Brother Thomas J. Shryock, quarters were immediately obtained in the Old Court House Building, Lexington and North streets, and in a most marvelous manner this building was made ready for our occupancy immediately, and it is a matter of sincere congratulation to the Fraternity in Baltimore that the meetings of the different bodies were practically not disturbed on account of the fire, but were held on the regular dates and work resumed in all the degrees within a period of thirty days from the destruction of the Temple.

"All praise and honor, therefore, to our Most Worshipful Grand Master, Brother Thomas J. Shryock, for the prompt and efficient manner in which we were provided with a home immediately after our unfortunate loss.

"You are also aware that, through his untiring energy and zeal, the new Temple will rise—Phoenix-like—from the ashes of the old, and be larger, grander and more beautiful in every respect than our old home."

Our Companions of the District of Columbia sent the following kind words in consolation:

"Fire having again brought destruction and ruin to our Companions of the Grand Chapter of Maryland, by destroying the interior of their beautiful Temple in the City of Baltimore during the month of January last,

"Resolved, That the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the District of Columbia, in Annual Convocation this 12th day of February, 1908, extends to its mother Grand Chapter—the Grand Chapter of Maryland—its sympathy and sorrow in this great loss, and the hope that this loss may be only temporary, and the star of Royal Arch

Masonry in Maryland may shine brighter and brighter as the years roll on.

"Resolved, further, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Grand Chapter, and that a copy, under seal of this Grand Chapter, be forwarded to the Grand Chapter of Maryland."

The reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer attest the splendid financial condition of the Royal Arch Masons of Maryland.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, the following Companions were chosen:

Comp. Jno. W. Linthicum, Baltimore, Grand High Priest.
 Comp. William B. King, Baltimore, Deputy Grand High Priest.
 Comp. Daniel J. Emich, Baltimore, Grand King.
 Comp. Charles B. Finley, Elkton, Grand Scribe.
 Comp. Robert M. Rother, Baltimore, Grand Treasurer.
 Comp. John H. Miller, Baltimore, Grand Secretary.
 Comp. Rec. Edw. W. Wroth, Baltimore, Grand Chaplain.
 Comp. Gustav A. Eitel, Baltimore, Grand Captain of the Host.

The M. E. Grand High Priest, Comp. Charles E. Cochrane, installed Comp. John Webster Linthicum M. E. Grand High Priest, who then installed the remaining elective and Officers subsequently appointed by the Grand Council.

The M. E. Grand High Priest authorized the M. E. High Priests of the Subordinate Chapters to install their Officers-elect who were not present to be installed this evening.

On motion, it was

"Resolved, That the sum of three hundred ($300) dollars be appropriated for the expenses of the four Council Grand Officers, while serving as Representatives to the General Grand Royal Arch Chapter at Savannah, Georgia, in November, 1909."

The Grand High Priest named the special committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Eighty-fourth Annual Convocation of the Council of High Priests of Maryland was held in Baltimore November 19, 1908, commencing at 3 o'clock P. M.,—The M. E. Comp. John M. Carter, President, E. Comp. John H. Miller, Grand Secretary, with fifty Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The President read a prepared paper devoted to the remembrance of the eleven members who had passed to rest since the last Annual.

Pages in the Journal were ordered inscribed and set apart in memory of beloved Companions.

Ten Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, being duly qualified were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The officers were re-elected and reappointed.

The box of Fraternal Assistance was passed among the Companions, and the Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Feelingly eloquent are the three lines of the conclusion of this report submitted by the M. E. Comp. Edward T. Schultz. He says:

"Despite four score and odd years and bodily infirmity, Divine Providence has enabled me to prepare this, my Thirty-second Annual Report on Correspondence, to Grand Chapter."

Our Companion presents a review of the legislation of forty-five Grand Capitular Jurisdictions, making a report numbering eighty-five pages. It is in brief a record of the progress and condition of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic world.

In it he reviews the doings of California in its Fifty-fourth Annual Convocation, M. E. Comp. Chas. J. Willett, Grand High Priest.

The business of the Convocation was in chief part more the work of rehabilitation than of routine legislation. We are trying to "make good," Companion Schultz, and are thankful to you and other good Companions of Maryland for encouraging words. On behalf of the quartette referred to by M. E. Companion Willett, Companions Day, Neff and Davies, the writer transmits to you the ancient blessing in its full meaning and intent.

May the Lord bless you and keep you,
Make his face to smile upon you,
And be gracious unto you;
The Lord lift up His countenance upon you
And give you peace.

M. E. Comp. John W. Linthicum, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. John H. Miller, Grand Secretary. Correspondent, the M. E. Edward T. Schultz, Baltimore.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Seventy-six Chapters.

20,087 Royal Arch Masons.

Quarterly Convocations are held by this Grand Chapter in March, June and September, closing the year with the Annual in December.

The Convocations of 1907, the last received, were held in Ionic Hall in the Temple, with a full attendance of Grand Officers.—The M. E. Comp. Harry Hunt, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. J. Gilman Waite being the Grand Secretary.

The elegant steel engraved portrait on the opening page reflects no flattery upon the Eminent Companion it represents.

There were present at the March Quarterly thirty of the permanent members, thirty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and the Representatives of fifty Chartered Chapters.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, the Excellent and Rev'd Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The Committee on the Address of the Grand High Priest delivered at the Annual of December 10, 1906, presented their report reviewing the address.

The report was accepted and ordered spread upon the records.

A memorial devoted to the life and character of the late R.⁺. E.⁺. Grand Scribe Comp. Moses Henry Fowler was accepted and ordered spread upon the records.

The Committee on Charters, on Finance and on By-Laws also reported, and the reports were considered and disposed of.

No further business appearing, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, Excellent and Rev'd Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The Quarterlies of June and September were marked with about the same attendance and disposed of the routine business of the jurisdiction.

The One Hundred and Ninth Annual Convocation was held in the Masonic Temple, Boston, December 10. The entrance of the Most Excellent Grand High Priest and Grand Officers was proclaimed at 9:30 o'clock A. M. by E.⁺. Comp. Edwin C. Gilman, Grand Captain of the Host, and the Grand Chapter was duly organized and opened in Ample Form, Comp. Rev'd Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The Companions were briefly but heartily welcomed by the Most Excellent Grand High Priest, who concluded his remarks by requesting the Grand Lecturers to proceed at once with the business of the morning session. The several stations were then vacated by the Grand Officers, and the Grand Lecturers and their assistants assumed their appropriate stations for the work and Lecture of the Mark Master's Degree.

At the conclusion of the work of the Most Excellent Degree an intermission was called for lunch, which had been provided by the Grand Chapter, a procession was formed, and the Companions, to the number of two hundred and thirty-six, repaired to the banquet hall, where an hour was passed socially.

At 4:50 o'clock the work of the exemplification was concluded, and the Grand Lecturers and their assistants vacated their stations to the Grand Officers.

On assuming the East, the Most Excellent Grand High Priest was pleased to commend the work of the day for its general excellence, having reference to its correctness and impressive rendition.

An intermission was then declared until the evening session.

At 7 o'clock the entrance of the Most Excellent Grand High Priest and Officers was again proclaimed and the Grand Chapter declared to be open in Ample Form, Comp. Rev'd Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The Committee on By-Laws and on Returns reported. From the latter committee we excerpt a return of the work of the year.

The Trustees reported the financial condition of the jurisdiction, with the bonds and stocks held in trust by them.

Memorials were presented devoted to the memories of Comps. Silas Barnet Dickerman, Grand Scribe in 1885, and Joseph Warren Hill, Grand King in 1887. At the close of the reading of the Memorials they were received and adopted unanimously, the Companions standing in token of respect to the deceased.

Grand High Priest M. E. Comp. Hunt then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. The address, a most excellent paper, is necessarily devoted to the business interests of this great jurisdiction. We feel, however, that we cannot pass it by without a word, and excerpt its opening and closing words:

"Companions: For the third time, through your generous suffrages, I am privileged as Grand High Priest to extend to you one and all a most cordial and hearty greeting. We come together on this One Hundred and Ninth Annual Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts, our hearts filled with gratitude for the many blessings we enjoy and for the continued prosperity of our beloved and sublime institution.

"Companions, with a grateful heart I thank you for your many kindnesses, your unswerving loyalty, your precious friendships, and may God bestow these, His richest blessings, upon each and every one!
"Fraternally,

Harry Hunt,
"Grand High Priest."

At the close of the reading the M. E. Harry Hunt, having served the Grand Chapter to the end of the constitutional limitation, presided at the election and installation of his successor in office. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

M. E. Baalis Sanford, Brockton, Grand High Priest.
R. E. Charles D. Burrage, Needham, Deputy Grand High Priest.
R. E. Arthur W. Beckford, Danvers, Grand King.
R. E. Henry P. Brown, Nantucket, Grand Scribe.
R. E. Eugene A. Holton, Boston, Grand Treasurer.
R. E. J. Gilman Waite, Medford, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the appointed Grand Officers and the standing Committees, the retiring Grand High Priest was invited to again assume the East and proceed with the installation, which, being concluded, Proclamation thereof was duly made.

There being no further business to come before the Grand Chapter, it was closed in Ample Form, Comp. Rev'd Paul Sterling leading the Companions in their devotions.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Anointed High Priests of Massachusetts held their Annual Convention in Ionic Hall, Masonic Temple, Boston, March 12, 1907.

M. E. Comp. Warren B. Ellis, President; E. Comp. J. Gilman Waite being Grand Secretary, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form. Sixteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, presented themselves for membership.

A ballot having been taken, the Companions were declared to be elected to receive the Order of High Priesthood in this Convention, and subsequently the Order was conferred upon them with full ceremony, and they were declared to be anointed High Priests, after the Order of Melchisedec, in Due and Ancient Form.

These Companions then signed the By-Laws and became members of the Massachusetts Convention of High Priests.

The Excellent President announced that the next business would be the election of officers for the ensuing year, and appointed Comps. M. Perry Sargent, Edward Parker and Amasa Harrington a committee to nominate a list of candidates to be balloted on for officers.

The present officers were re-elected. These Companions, being present, accepted the offices to which they had been chosen, and were duly installed into office by M.°. E.°. Frederick T. Comee, and the Convention was declared to be duly organized for the transaction of business.

The Treasurer and Recorder submitted their reports, which were read and approved.

No further business appearing, the Convention was closed in Due Form, and the Companions repaired to the banquet hall, where an hour was passed socially.

At the close of the banquet the Excellent President introduced, as the guest of the evening, E.°. Comp. Clarence A. Brodeur, of Evening Star Chapter of Westfield, who addressed the Companions, taking for his topic "The Wisdom of Solomon."

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A most excellent report of 200 pages, in which fifty-one Grand Capitular Jurisdictions are reviewed, gives an appropriate finish to this product of the skill and ability of the workmen in and about the Massachusetts quarries. The author, Comp. J. Gilman Waite, Grand Secretary, in his introduction says:

"It has not been the intention to make it controversial by entering into the discussion of questions of Masonic Law and Jurisprudence which may sometimes arise, but rather to gather and collate such matter from the doings of each body as shall enable you to form a just and correct impression of the estimation in which the Rite is held in the several Jurisdictions, as set forth in their printed Proceedings," which, in the opinion of this writer is a good text to observe while aiming to give the condition and progress of Capitular Masonry in the several Grand Jurisdictions of the Masonic world.

In his work Companion Waite reviews the California Proceedings in the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Convocations of our Grand Chapter. Of course, he found us in confusion during the Fifty-second, and hard at work in rehabilitating at the time of the Fifty-third, and we write these few words to express to Companion Waite, for his kind and courteous words of commendation, our sincere and heartfelt thanks.

MICHIGAN.

141 Chapters. 18,413 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Michigan held its Sixtieth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Detroit, May 19, 1908, commencing at 1:30 P. M.,—M. E. Comp. Charles Cottrell, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Charles A. Conover, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with eighteen Past Grand High Priests and the Representatives of 140 of the 141 Chartered Chapters.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page and the Grand Officers, in group, in the body of the Journal.

A constitutional number of Chapters having reported by their Representatives to the Grand Secretary, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form by the M. E. Grand High Priest, assisted by his associate Grand Officers. Prayer was offered by the Grand Chaplain.

The Grand Secretary called the Roll of Honor of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, showing that no additions had been made thereto during the last year. The Roll of Honor in this Jurisdiction is the death roll, upon which is inscribed the names of the Grand High Priests who have passed to rest since the organization of the Grand Chapter in 1848. The names inscribed at the present opening numbered eighteen.

Comp. Theodore Beyster, High Priest of King Cyrus Chapter, No. 133, welcomed the members of Grand Chapter and announced that that Chapter would hold an afternoon and evening Convocation for work in the Royal Arch Degree with a dinner served at 6:30 o'clock. He extended a very hearty invitation to all members of Grand Chapter to be their guests at the dinner and the work, and the invitation was accepted by a very large number.

The Grand High Priest named the special committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He gave the Companions, old and new, a cordial welcome to the Sixtieth Annual, but before placing before them a record of his official acts during the recess, he expressed his gratitude to the Great Ruler for his continued protection. He said:

"It is with a thankful heart that I am permitted to announce that during the past year no deaths have occurred among the Grand Officers nor among the Past Grand Officers of this Jurisdiction. Our Committee on Obituaries will render a full report of the Illustrious dead of this and of our sister jurisdictions."

Although ill health had prevented him from intended visitations, he had embraced opportunities presented, to his great enjoyment.

Among the decisions was one in answer to the question, "What are the titles of the officers of Royal Arch Masons in this State?"

which was answered by the legislation of the General Grand Chapter proceedings of 1891, pages 148 and 149.

Not much new business was presented for consideration by the Grand Chapter and the general routine prevailed.

The following letter was received from M. V. E. Comp. Hugh McCurdy, who has since passed to rest:

"Corrunna, Mich., May 16, 1908.

"To the Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Officers, and Members of the Grand Chapter of Michigan.

"My Dear Companions:

"I promised you last year that I would be present with you at this Annual Convocation, but I again find that the state of my health will again deprive me of that much anticipated pleasure. Though absent in the body, I shall be with you in spirit.

"I regret exceedingly that I cannot clasp you by the hand in loving Companionship, but bespeak for you a most enjoyable and harmonious session on this our Sixtieth Anniversary, and may you all be spared to enjoy many more of these annual gatherings. May God's blessing be with you.

"Affectionately yours,

"Hugh McCurdy."

How like Uncle Hugh? God bless him!

The Grand High Priest was unlimited in his expressions of praise for the efficient services rendered by the Grand Secretary and Grand Lecturer.

We excerpt the summary of the "Work of the year" from the excellent report of the Grand Secretary:

The recapitulation of returns gives us the following statistics:

Number of Chartered Chapters	141
Number of Chapters U. D.	3
Number of Defunct Chapters.....	6

Announcement was made that the annual session of the Grand Council of High Priesthood would be held in the Masonic Temple at 7:30 P. M., and all High Priests who had not done so were invited to petition for this degree.

Comp. Wm. Robertson, Chairman of the Committee on Obituaries, presented a full and feeling report devoted to the dead Companions of their own and also of sister jurisdictions, and on its pages we find California represented by the names of Past Grand High Priests Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick. Good and true Masons, they have gone to their reward.

The reports of several committees were considered and disposed of, when the special order being the election of officers for the ensuing year the following Companions were chosen:

M. E. M. Earl Brackett, Petoskey, Grand High Priest.

R. E. George W. Armstrong, Adrian, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. Arthur E. Stevens, Detroit, Grand King.

R. E. Elwin F. Brown, Iron Mountain, Grand Scribe.

R. E. Emerson M. Newell, Fenton, Grand Treasurer.

R. E. Charles A. Conover, Coldwater, Grand Secretary.

R. E. Horace S. Maynard, P. G. H. P., Charlotte, Grand Lecturer.

E. Rev. John Clafin, Eaton Rapids, Grand Chaplain.

E. John H. Kingsley, Manchester, Grand Principal Sojourner.

E. James H. Thompson, Evart, Grand Captain of Host.

E. William W. Watts, Ann Arbor, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

E. Albert J. Young, Escanaba, Grand Master Third Veil.

E. Robert H. Hunt, Detroit, Grand Master Second Veil.

E. Elmhert S. Atherton, Durand, Grand Master First Veil.

James F. McGregor, Detroit, Grand Sentinel.

On motion of Comp. Geo. T. Campbell the thanks of the Grand Chapter were extended to the Masons and citizens of Detroit for courtesies during the session.

The Grand High Priest announced that he had requested Past Grand High Priest Lou B. Winsor to preside during the installation of Grand Officers, and Past Grand High Priest Thomas H. Williams was appointed as Grand Marshal. The several Grand Officers, after obligation, were given a special and personal charge by Companion Winsor in his usual happy vein, and they were conducted to their several stations and entered upon the discharge of their duties.

The following was unanimously adopted and emphasized by a rising vote:

"Your Committee on Unfinished Business beg leave to report that diligent search of the records and due inquiry of the Right Excellent Grand Secretary have failed to discover any business of this Most Excellent Grand Chapter which your retiring Grand High Priest has left unfinished, and that this Most Excellent Grand Chapter is to be congratulated upon having a Grand High Priest and Grand Secretary who have kept its work so well in hand.

"Your committee therefore recommend that a rising vote of thanks be tendered our retiring Most Excellent Grand High Priest and our Right Excellent Grand Secretary for the marked fidelity and industry with which they have carried forward the work of our organization."

The standing committees were named and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests of Michigan held its Forty-eighth Annual Convocation in Detroit, May 19, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Travers Phillips, President; E. Comp. Arthur S. Hudson, Grand Recorder, and a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Seventeen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Grand Recorder submitted his annual report, which was accepted and adopted.

On motion the Grand Council directed that the Most Excellent Grand President and the Grand Recorder be each paid $10 and the Grand Sentinel $5 for services and expenses.

Remarks were made by several of the Companions relative to increasing the popularity and efficiency of the Order, and the Grand Recorder was instructed to procure some additional paraphernalia and to distribute application blanks to interested Companions prior to the next regular Convocation.

No further business appearing, the Grand Council was closed in peace and harmony, in Ample Form, at 10:30 P. M.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Companion Conover presents a report of his review of forty-eight Grand Capitular Jurisdictions within the covers of 170 pages—a most excellent paper. In it he reviews the legislation of California during the administration of Grand High Priest Hughes. He commends our efforts at rehabilitation and writes many words of encouragement. He publishes in the introduction to his report a meritorious article on the value of Correspondence reports, and, believing it of value as an educator, we excerpt it for the benefit of the reading Masonic public, giving due credit to its author, Bro. John W. Brown:

"Correspondence Reports have greatly benefited the fraternity. In a considerable degree they have served as a clearing-house for many knotty Masonic questions. Brother George W. Baird, of the District of Columbia, commends them as follows:

"Freemasonry, like all bodies of men, manages to grow students and historians, and these men find in the Correspondence reports a mint of information. The data employed in these reports afford testimony that defies the tooth of Time. All the rest of the world is progressive; Masonry is static. The people of the world are restless and are feeding on change. Masonry is placed, and, like human nature, remains constant. What would we not give for the transcripts from the records of English Lodges in the sixteenth century?"

"Brother Herman C. Duncan, of Louisiana, confirms Brother Baird's testimony by expressing his very deep gratitude for the education in Masonry he has received by reason of the reports it has been his privilege to read. He states that it was from a reading of the reports of his own Grand Lodge that he first learned the alphabet of the philosophy of Freemasonry, and came to know what the Institution is. He says that it was not until he went to the Grand Lodge and began to read the reports that he awoke to the profound philosophy of the Mysteries unfolded by the Ritual and was led on to admiration and study of the wonders of Symbolism and the great lessons of life that the Great Architect of the Universe has placed in the rocks and rills, the mighty assemblages of the waters, the elevated domes of earth, the harmonies of the sky, the course of the seasons—the lessons of life impressed everywhere on everything that the Almighty has set before the discerning eye. He fittingly adds that it was from reading the reports that he learned the deeper significance of the ethics of self-government, rather than from the text books that gave him only the results attained by man in attempts to organize government.

"Freemasonry is in equilibrium and this is in harmony with the universe and its Creator. Also it is calm, quiet, mild, gentle, but it is at absolute rest—not really non-progressive. In every respect of liberal Art and Science it is progressive. It welcomes every real discovery in each—every real advance in the search for Truth. Only in its landmarks, principles and teachings is it 'static.'

"The Reports on Correspondence have been 'a mint of information,' and great educators, because their authors have been adepts in Masonic art and science and history and symbolism, and have wisely counseled and instructed the Craft. They have proven themselves true Masonic guides and enlighteners, and worthy of that designation."

R. E. Charles A. Conover, Coldwater, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

MINNESOTA.

Seventy Chapters.

7,319 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Minnesota held its Forty-seventh Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, in the City of St. Paul, October 13, 1908,—M.°. E.°. Comp. George N. Houghton, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. John Fishel, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers and thirty-one Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, with fourteen Past Grand High Priests, four Past Grand Deputies, a Past Grand King, and a Past Grand Scribe, were in attendance. Sixty-four of the sixty-seven Chartered Chapters were represented with delegates from three under dispensation.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

M.°. E.°. Comp. Nathan Kingsley, G. G. King of the G. G. Chapter of the United States, and M.°. E.°. Comp. Thomas C. Cassidy, P. G. H. P. of New York, being present, were escorted to the East by all the Past Grand High Priests present, received with the Grand Honors, and each addressed the Companions.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. First giving a hearty welcome to the assembled Companions, and before reporting his official acts during the recess, he referred to absent Companions and said: "Let us pause and listen to the names inscribed on the death roll, as they are read by the Secretary, of our Companions who have passed to rest during the year."

He called the Companions to their feet while the roll was being read by the Secretary. Continuing he said: "The chain of present Grand Officers, I am happy to say, remains unbroken, but I have received notice of the death of R.°. E.°. Comp. Silas B. Foot, Past Grand King of this Grand Chapter, at Red Wing, Minn., May 29, 1908, and R.°. E.°. Comp. Fred A. Noble, Past Grand King of this Grand Chapter, at Northfield, Minn., August 23, 1908."

He also expressed his sympathy with sister jurisdictions upon their loss of Venerable and Eminent Companions. He reported the constitution of two Chapters at Cannon Falls and Appleton.

He made official visitations to several of the Chapters.

No important decisions were reported, but little new business was considered, and the dispatch of the usual routine.

We excerpt from the report of the Grand Secretary his report of the work of the year:

And the receipt of returned Relief Fund, as follows:

"On August 28, 1908, I received from the Grand High Priest of California $236.22, representing the unused portion of the contribution of Minnesota Chapters for the relief of earthquake and fire sufferers in 1906. By direction of the Grand High Priest the same was returned pro rata to the Chapters contributing."

The election of officers for the ensuing year was made the special order; tellers were appointed, and the following Companions were chosen:

M. E. Comp. Jerome E. Cooley, Duluth, Grand High Priest.
 R. E. Comp. James Ridler, St. Paul, Deputy Grand High Priest.
 R. E. Comp. John T. Johnson, Fergus Falls, Grand King.
 R. E. Comp. Chas. M. Wilkinson, Albert Lea, Grand Scribe.
 R. E. Comp. Ralph D. Webb, Minneapolis, Grand Treasurer.
 R. E. Comp. John Fishel, St. Paul, Grand Secretary.
 E. Comp. F. M. Garland, Northfield, Grand Chaplain.
 E. Comp. James G. Houghton, Minneapolis, Grand Captain of the Host.

Companion Cooley on being elected was escorted into the hall by several Past Grand High Priests, introduced, received with the Grand Honors, and conducted to the East, where he returned thanks for the exalted honor conferred.

While the ballots were being counted several committees reported.

On motion of the Correspondent the following action was had:

"WHEREAS, The Grand Chapter of Idaho was regularly organized, June 16, 1908, by the Representatives of ten Subordinate Chapters, a Constitution adopted, and Grand Officers elected; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Grand Chapter of Idaho is recognized as a duly formed Grand Body, and that the action of the Grand High Priest in suggesting an exchange of Representatives is hereby confirmed."

The Grand High Priest-elect having made the appointments, the Grand Officers elected and appointed were then duly installed into their respective offices by M.°. E.°. Comp. Nathan Kingsley, M.°. E.°. Comp. A. P. Swanstrom assisting as Grand Marshal.

The jewel procured for M.°. E.°. Comp. Geo. N. Houghton was then presented to him in fitting terms by M.°. E.°. Comp. Nathan Kingsley, on behalf of the Grand Chapter. Companion Houghton responded in appropriate words.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Convention of the Order of High Priesthood for Minnesota was held in Masonic Hall, St. Paul, October 13, 1908,—M.°. E.°. Comp. James Kelly, President, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Twenty-seven Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Convention was then closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

We have another excellent report from R.°. E.°. Comp. Irving Todd. He reviews forty-eight Grand Capitular Jurisdictions made into a report of sixty-three pages. The paper is a fine summary of the progress and condition of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic world.

His review of California is of the administration of M.°. E.°. Comp. Willett of the Fifty-fourth Annual. He comments pleasantly on our "pitching-in" efforts to rehabilitate our Tabernacle and fit it for business "at the old stand." The deaths in one year of M.°. E.°. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick arouse all his sympathies with the bereaved jurisdiction.

M.°. E.°. Comp. Jerome E. Cooley, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. John Fishel, Grand Secretary. Correspondent, R.°. E.°. Comp. Irving Todd, Hastings.

MISSOURI.

105 Chapters.

10,809 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Missouri held its Sixty-second Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Springfield, April 28, 1908,—M.°. E.°. Comp. David M. Wilson, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers, with ten Past Grand High Priests and forty-seven Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, were present. Seventy-three of the 105 Chapters were represented at this Convocation.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The M. E. and Rev'd Comp. Corona H. Briggs, on behalf of the Royal Arch Masons of Springfield, delivered an eloquent Address of Welcome to the Grand Chapter, pledging the best efforts of the Companions to make their visit both pleasant and profitable.

The E. and Rev'd Grand Chaplain, Comp. Henry B. Bonde, responded to the welcome for the Grand Chapter.

Grand High Priest Wilson then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. With a cordial welcome to the assembled Companions he called to their attention in a brief, retrospective view the rapid flight of time and its changes during the twelve years that have passed since this Grand Chapter held its Annual Convocation in this beautiful city, but his words are so pertinent and so rich in historic value that we prefer to excerpt rather than spoil the text. He said:

"Yet such are the swift changes wrought by Father Time in these twelve short years, that of the six principal officers of that Grand Convocation but one is with us today. Haynie, Abraham, Glaspell, Givan, Mayo, all have joined

'The innumerable caravan that moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of death.'

"Since last we met in Annual Convocation the Scythe of Time has made havoc among the Royal Craft of this Grand Jurisdiction. Two, for many years most prominent in the order, both Past Grand High Priests and Past Grand Masters, have been called to their long rest. One of them, Judge Noah M. Givan, was president of the Masonic Home from its incorporation until his death. Every year he read his report and presented the claims of the Home to this Grand Chapter, to the Grand Lodge and to the Grand Commandery, of which Grand Bodies he was also a Past Grand Officer. For twenty-four years he was Grand Treasurer of the Grand Chapter. The other, William R. Stubblefield, was Grand High Priest in 1877, Grand Master of Masons of Missouri in 1880-81, and for eight years, following the resignation of Allan McDowell in 1890, was Grand Lecturer. The able Chairman of the Committee on Necrology, who knew them so long and so well, will offer suitable tributes to their memories.

"During the year has also occurred the death of William H. Mayo, who held the office of Grand Secretary of this Grand Body for twenty-six consecutive years.

"Nor must I forget, in this connection, to mention one who for many years occupied a very prominent position among Missouri Masons. I refer to Professor Oren Root, brother of Elihu Root, Secretary of State of the United States at Washington, who was at the time of his death, and had been for twenty-seven years, Professor of Mathematics in Hamilton College, Clinton, New York. This distinguished educator and Mason, who married a daughter of the late Robert D. Ray of Carrollton, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Missouri, was elected Grand High Priest of this Grand Chapter in 1868, and in 1872 and 1873 served as Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery. His death occurred on the 26th of August, 1907."

In reporting of the work of the jurisdiction with the condition of the Chapters he paid a well-merited compliment to the Grand Lecturer, E. Comp. and Past High Priest Louis E. Vogelsang, in these words: "His time and talents have been given unstintedly to this work for the past eleven months. He has labored faithfully, and the result has been seen and known.

"For his heart was in his work, and the heart Giveth grace unto every Art."

He gave a pleasant account of his visitations and the universal courtesy with which he was received. Before closing his report of his official acts during the recess, he said:

"The labors of my office have been greatly lightened by the cheerful assistance and good counsel so kindly rendered by our Grand Secretary, Companion Stevenson, by his promptness, his uprightness, his willingness to aid; his marked efficiency is making a great record as a Grand Secretary, one of which he and the fraternity can both be equally proud. The value of such an officer to the Royal Craft is incalculable."

Comp. Ethelbert F. Allen, President of the Masonic Home Board, read his report and that of the Superintendent, and submitted those of the Secretary and Treasurer. The whole was ordered printed in the Proceedings.

From the report of the Superintendent we learn that there are being cared for at the home forty boys, thirty-seven girls, thirty-nine men, thirty-five women; total, one hundred and fifty-one.

A full and interesting report on Necrology was submitted by the Chairman, Past Grand High Priest Rev'd Corona H. Briggs, in the long roll of Eminent Companions in whose remembrance the report was written. We note the names of three of California's M. E. Companions. Green be their memories.

Most of the routine business having been concluded, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on. Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen:

Comp. Alfred H. White (8), 510 Pine street, St. Louis, Grand High Priest.

Comp. Van Fremont Boor (102), 315 New York Life Building, Kansas City, Deputy Grand High Priest.

Comp. Frank H. Trimble (3), Liberty, Grand King.

Comp. Austin L. McRae (32), Grand Scribe.

Comp. Geo. L. Hassett (79), 4225 Westminster Place, St. Louis, Grand Treasurer.

Comp. Robert F. Stevenson (102), Grand Secretary

The Grand High Priest-elect made his appointments and all were installed by Past Grand High Priest William F. Kuhn, Comp. J. Percival Smith acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees.

Rev. Comp. Corona H. Briggs, Past Grand High Priest, with appropriate dignity and in words well chosen, invested the retiring Grand High Priest, Comp. David M. Wilson, with one of the elegant jewels provided by the Grand Chapter as the insignia of honor and esteem.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Due Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Convention of Anointed High Priests of Missouri assembled at Masonic Temple, Springfield, April 28, 1908, at 8 o'clock P. M.,—M. E. Comp. David M. Wilson, President; E. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Fifty-one Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Recorder and Treasurer submitted their reports, which were considered and approved.

The officers were re-elected and the Grand Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

R. E. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson presents for this report a paper of no ordinary merit, scholarly, lively and at the same time practical in its explanation of Masonic usage and customs. We term it a first-class production, a credit to the Grand Jurisdiction for which it was written, and to its author, the Grand Secretary.

He compiles in a report of 160 pages the information that establishes the progress and prosperity of Capitular Masonry in our country and makes it a factor in the prevalence of peace and harmony in the civil and political world today.

He reviews our doings in the Annual Convocation of 1907, the administration of M. E. Companion Hughes, and gives us full credit for trying to be good in our efforts at rehabilitation. We excerpt the closing words of his conclusion:

"Correspondence reports are classed as illuminators, and those which shown in 1906 have passed the horizon into the nadir, while those for 1907, dawning, approach the zenith.

"The extent with which the manifestation illumines the faithful and the constant will increase or diminish in proportion to the square of the distance from the source.

"Let there be Light.'"

M. E. Comp. Alf. H. White, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

MISSISSIPPI

Seventy-two Chapters.

3,653 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Mississippi held its Sixtieth Annual Convocation in the Hall of Hattiesburg Chapter, Hattiesburg, February 14, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. John S. Brooks, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Frederick Speed, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with ten Past Grand High Priests, a Deputy and a Past Grand Lecturer were present, together with seventeen Past High Priests not elsewhere enrolled, and the Representatives of fifteen other Grand Jurisdictions.

Sixty-four of the seventy-two Chapters were represented.

The Grand Secretary having announced that there was a constitutional quorum present, the Most Excellent, the Grand High Priest, with the assistance of the Grand Officers in their several stations and places, opened the Grand Chapter in Ample Form, the Grand Chaplain invoking the Divine Blessing upon its labors.

The Committee on Credentials having reported, the Grand High Priest filled the vacancies in the standing committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a heart full of gratitude to the Great Ruler of All for the privilege he extended to the Companions assembled, a cordial greeting and a hearty welcome to the Sixtieth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Mississippi, he said:

"Our official circle has not been broken by the grim messenger, Death, and but a very few of the Royal Craft have been called to cross the silent river that separates time from eternity; notwithstanding, he who rides upon the pale horse has touched, with magic wand, many of the Grand and Past Grand Officers of our sister jurisdictions, and has invited them to pass within the Great White Vail and enter the Sanctuary on High to rest from their labors."

He submitted the lengthy death roll of sister jurisdictions, and we note California's contribution to the names inscribed thereon, in the persons of three beloved M. E. Companions, Past Grand High Priests Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick. God give them rest!

No decisions of importance were reported.

The routine of business transacted concerned generally the Ritual or the Home. The Grand High Priest made but few visitations, and there was but little new business.

The report of Grand Lecturer Sadler opens up an immense amount of detail work and proves him to be an efficient and painstaking official, and there is always plenty of work for such a Grand Lecturer:

"The special committee on so much of the Most Excellent, the Grand High Priest's Address, as relates to the use of rooms in common with other bodies, submitted the following report, which was, on motion, adopted:

"To the Most Excellent High Priest and Companions of the Grand Chapter:

"Your committee to whom was referred that portion of the Grand High Priest's Address referring to Chapters holding meetings in halls used in common by bodies of other fraternal organizations, beg leave to report that we have carefully considered this part of the Grand High Priest's Address, and in the main we agree with him. We know that it is impossible in many cases, however, to avoid meeting in halls used by other bodies, and in such cases we urge that the paraphernalia and jewels of the Chapter should be securely locked, so that no one could see them but those entitled to do so, and High Priests should see that this rule is enforced.

"We also urge all Chapters to unite with the Blue Lodges in the laudable ambition of building and owning halls of their own."

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, the following Companions were chosen:

Charles H. Blum, Grand High Priest.

Edwin J. Martin, Deputy Grand High Priest.

Wiley H. Clifton, Grand King.

George B. Power, Grand Scribe.

James C. French, Grand Treasurer.

Frederic Speed, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest made his appointments, after which at his request all were installed, except M. E. Companion Speed, by that M. E. Companion, who at the conclusion was himself installed as Grand Secretary by the Grand High Priest.

The committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, the Grand Chaplain invoking the Divine Blessing.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held in the hall of Natchez Chapter, in the City of Natchez, February 21, 1906,—The M. E. Comp. Frederic Speed, President; the E. Comp. Samuel I. Solomon, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present. Twenty-nine Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Convention was then closed in Solemn Form.

The Order held a second Convention at Hattiesburg, February 13, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Frederic Speed, President; E. Comp. Samuel I. Solomon, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Seventeen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, and the present officers were re-elected.

The Convention being open for the transactions of business concerning the Order :

On motion, the fee for the degree was raised from one to three dollars, a portion of which shall be expended in the purchase of a Bible to be presented to the candidate, as required by the Ritual.

On motion, the fees collected from the candidates at the present convention were donated to the Masonic Home.

On motion, the name of the body was changed from "Convention" to "Council" of Anointed High Priests.

The business of the Council having been concluded, it was duly closed.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Taking up the pen as it fell from the tired fingers of good Companion Savery (God give him rest!), our E.°. Comp. Enoch Geo. DeLap contributes an excellent, readable report of 100 pages of matter extracted from the Grand Capitular Bodies of the Masonic world. In his introduction to his new audience he modestly says :

"The work was assigned to us because the good Lord had taken our well beloved Companion, friend and intimate associate, Savery, home to heaven, where we expect to join him, and other loved ones 'gone before,' in the not very remote future. That we will be able to fill his place in any considerable degree in this work we do not flatter ourselves. However, there is a melancholy pleasure in taking up his work, so well and always so faithfully done by him, where he laid it down, and we have done the best we could to discharge the trust confided to our keeping."

He reviews our doings in the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Annual Convocations, the first being the occasion of the great disaster and the last the searching among the ruins for discoveries. He quotes from Grand High Priest Flint, and also from Hughes. The review is a spirited one, just such an one as we would expect from our Excellent Companion DeLap, and yet our Companion tells us he is "sad at heart and unwell in body." We hope not seriously so, for we do hope to meet Companion De Lap some day in the near future, and "in the flesh," too.

NEBRASKA.

Fifty-six Chapters.

4,100 Royal Arch Masons

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Nebraska held its Forty-second Annual Convocation in Freemason's Hall, Omaha, December 16, 1908, commencing at 4 o'clock P. M.,—The M. E. Comp. Charles W. Kaley, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Francis E. White, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present except the Grand Chaplain and a Grand Steward, both of whom had been removed by death during the recess.

Twelve Past Grand High Priests, two Past Grand Deputies and ten Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled, with twenty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, were also in attendance.

Thirty-two of the fifty-six Chartered Chapters were represented.

A Chapter of Royal Arch Masons was opened in Due Form, as required by the law of Royal Arch Masonry in Nebraska, whereupon roll was called, and it being ascertained that a constitutional number of representatives were present, the Grand High Priest declared the Grand Chapter open for such business as might properly be brought before it.

Greetings and expressions of good will from Willis W. Rice, Grand High Priest of the M. E. Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of New York, sent by William S. Ackert, our Grand Representative, Past Grand High Priest Milton J. Hull, now of Washington, D. C., through Past Grand High Priest Henry E. Palmer, and Past Grand High Priest Robert E. French, were presented to the Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. His opening was so well chosen that we excerpt it without comment or excuse:

"COMPANIONS: I extend to you a cordial welcome to our Forty-second Annual Convocation. While it is gratifying to have with us today so many of those whose labors in the past have placed Royal Arch Masonry on the high plane it has reached in our State, and who by their unselfish labors laid the foundation of our Grand Chapter, I especially welcome the younger members of our Grand Body, and heartily join in what should be in the nature of a family reunion, where cordial and fraternal greetings are exchanged and the warm clasp of friendship is given."

But before entering upon the business of the Convocation he said:

"Let us pause and with gratitude offer to our Heavenly Father the incense of pure and contrite hearts, thanks for his preservation and for the blessings of the past year."

He mentioned with fraternal affection the M. E. Comp. C. A. Holmes, Past Grand High Priest, who had passed to rest in a neighboring State, and the two beloved Companions, the Grand Chaplain, Uriah Chester, and Grand Steward Henry A. Turton, who died at their respective homes, among their Companions of Nebraska.

He reported no decisions, and owing to absence from the State had made but few visitations.

Among his appointments of Representatives we note that of our Very Excellent Companion, George Hayes Monroe.

We excerpt the amount of work done during the year from the excellent report of the Grand Secretary:

Several committees having reported and the general routine work complete, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called up. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions chosen:

Comp. Oscar R. Allen (7), Grand High Priest.

Comp. Julius J. Wilson (49), Deputy Grand High Priest.

Comp. George S. Powell (1), Grand King.

Comp. John Harper (30), Grand Scribe.

Comp. Lucius D. Richards (8), Grand Treasurer.

Comp. Francis E. White (3), Grand Secretary.

On motion of Past Grand High Priest John S. Harmon, the thanks of the Grand Chapter were extended to Grand High Priest Kaley for the very able manner in which he had presided over the Grand Chapter during the past year.

On motion the thanks of the Grand Chapter were voted to the Masonic Temple Craft of Omaha for furnishing fireproof vault and conveniences for the Grand Chapter Offices, and to Omaha Chapter, No. 1, and Bellevue Chapter, No. 7, for their cordial welcome to their Chapter Hall, and for courtesies rendered to the members of the Grand Chapter during the Convocation.

Past Grand High Priest Davidson, assisted by Past Grand High Priest Phelps, installed the officers for the ensuing year.

At 1 o'clock P. M., no further business appearing, the Grand Chapter was closed.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Nebraska Convention of the Order of High Priesthood held its Thirty-seventh Annual in Freemasons' Hall, Omaha, December 16, 1908,—M. E. Comp. Samuel P. Davidson, President; E. Comp. Francis E. White, Recorder, with fifty Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Eighteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Treasurer and Recorder submitted their annual reports, which were considered and approved.

The Constitution and By-Laws were printed in this issue of the Journal by the order of the Convention.

The Most Excellent President reported that he had given the question of a new seal for the Grand Convention careful consideration, and recommended that a new one be procured with suitable lettering and a change in the present design by substituting therefor an open Book of the Law. After full discussion, a new seal was ordered made in accordance with the views expressed by the Most Excellent President.

On motion the question of a certificate of the Order of High Priesthood, referred to a special committee at the last Grand Convention, was referred to the Most Excellent President, with full power to act.

An election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the present officers were re-elected and installed. The Convention then closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Comp. Charles J. Phelps, Correspondent, submitted a report of eighty pages, in which he ably reviews the condition and progress of Capitular Masonry in the several Grand Jurisdictions. The California Journal not reaching him, we substitute for the usual routine of review an excerpt on the Order of High Priesthood:

"The origin and authenticity of the Order of High Priesthood seems fully settled. That Thomas Smith Webb and his co-advisers, Benjamin Hurd, Jr., and James Harrison, were the true authors of the Order; that it dates from the 10th day of January, 1799, at which time it was adopted by the General Grand Chapter, and became a part of the constitutional regulations and requirements of Royal Arch Masonry, so far as the authority of the General Grand Chapter extended, and remained such, and as a prerequisite to installation into the chair of High Priest of a Chapter.

"The Order was originally conferred as a part of the installation of the High Priest-elect, all of the Companions, except High Priests and Past High Priests, retiring from the Chapter room during this part of the ceremonies of installation; but later the separate organization of a Council, with us called a Convention, took place. This first Grand Council, thoroughly organized as such, was that of Ohio, in 1828.

"While the Order is of American origin in connection with Royal Arch Masonry, yet Comp. William Hacker, Past Grand High Priest of Indiana, the historian of the Order, in speaking of it, says that in some of the priories of England, and in the Royal Grand Conclave of Scotland in their old rituals, as also in the old ritual of the 'Mediterranean Pass,' such a passage occurs as the following:

"In some Priories the candidate partakes of bread from the point of a sword, and wine from a chalice placed upon the blade, handed to him by the Prelate."

Companion Hacker gives it as his opinion that the Order has always been conferred west of the Allegheny Mountains, as a separate ceremony, and never as a part of the installation ceremonies.

And Companion Hacker concludes that no other single order or degree of Masonry can be traced so successfully to the source from whence it came; that has in it more of the elements of sublimity and impressiveness, and that is more scripturally and Masonically appropriate for that which it was intended, than has this Order of High Priesthood, and he adds: 'Remembering also that it was established upon the constitutional authority of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, which is and ever has been the highest authority of Royal Arch Masonry in the United States.'

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Eight Chapters.

618 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Brunswick held its Twentieth Annual Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, Saint John, August 28, 1907,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. William B. Wallace, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present. Seven of the eight Chapters were represented, with eighteen other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 11 o'clock A. M.

The Grand High Priest, after a cordial welcome and fraternal greeting to the assembled Companions, said:

"There are a number of those here today who took part with us when I addressed you from the Grand East a year ago. We have some new faces amongst us, and some are not, for "they rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

And upon the reading of the names inscribed on the death roll by the Grand Secretary, he paid affectionate tribute to the memories of the absent Companions. Continuing he said:

"I have received official notice of the death of Eminent Companions in other jurisdictions who were not only prominent as citizens but faithful 'workmen in the ruins' and exemplary exponents of the principles and precepts of our Order. We mourn with our bereaved Companions and sympathize with them in their loss."

He gave an interesting report of his visitations and the enthusiastic receptions accorded him by the Craft. He concluded by reporting the condition of the Chapters and their progress in these words:

"The progress of the Order during the year ending the 31st of December last, is very gratifying, and I have to note that all our subordinate Chapters are working satisfactorily, and the members are endeavoring to effectively render our ritual."

We excerpt his account of the "Work of the year" from Grand Secretary Hartt's report:

Very little new business demanded the consideration of the Grand Chapter, and the usual routine having been disposed of the election of officers for the ensuing year was called up, scrutineers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

Andrew McNichol, Grand High Priest.

W. R. Gould, Deputy Grand High Priest.

W. Leonard Ellis, M. D., Grand King.

Daniel W. Kyle, Grand Scribe.

Edwin J. Everett, Grand Treasurer.

J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary.

Comp. Robert Clerke was elected Tyler.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the appointed Grand Officers, all were installed in Due Form.

The business of the Convocation having been disposed of, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

The M. E. Comp. Andrew McNichol, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Twenty-six Chapters.

4,036 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Hampshire held a Special Convocation for the exemplification of the Capitular Degrees in Freemasons' Hall, in the City of Rochester, November 20, 1907,—The M. E. Comp. William W. Oliver, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Frank D. Woodbury, Grand Secretary.

There was a good representation of Grand Officers, Past High Priests, Representatives and visiting Companions.

A fine portrait of the Grand High Priest ornaments this number of the Journal.

The M. E. Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, with prayer by Rev. and E. Comp. Jesse M. Durrell, Grand Chaplain.

On motion of the Grand Secretary it was Voted, That all Royal Arch Masons in the city, in good standing, be admitted to seats in Grand Chapter as visitors.

The M. E. Grand High Priest welcomed the Companions and announced that the several degrees would be exemplified as follows:

The Mark Degree, by Temple Chapter, No. 20, of Rochester; the Past Master Degree, by St. Alban Chapter, No. 15, of Exeter; the Most Excellent Master Degree, by Belknap Chapter, No. 8, of Dover; and the Royal Arch Degree, by Edwards Chapter, No. 21, of Somersworth, and that the music would be rendered by the Schubert Quartette of Boston.

The stations were vacated by the Grand Officers and filled by the "workers," who exemplified at a lively rate until the close of the Lodge of Most Excellent Masters, when Grand Chapter called off to refreshment, and after dinner, at 7:30 P. M., resumed in the Royal Arch Degree.

Brothers William Foss, Frederick Buel Hurlburt and Edwin Augustus Bickford, candidates elected in Temple Chapter, No. 20, of Rochester, were exalted to the august degree of Royal Arch Mason.

The Chapter of Royal Arch Masons was closed.

The officers of the Grand Chapter resumed their stations.

At the close of the work in the several degrees, slight criticisms and corrections were made by the Deputy Grand High Priest, R.°. E.°. Comp. Charles H. Sinclair.

On motion of R.°. E.°. Comp. Charles H. Sinclair, the thanks of the Grand Chapter were extended to the various Chapters for the excellent work presented and to the Masonic Fraternity of Rochester for the use of their apartments.

The M.°. E.°. Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

The Eighty-ninth Annual Convocation was held in Freemasons' Hall, Concord, May 19, 1908,—M.°. E.°. Comp. William W. Oliver, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. Frank D. Woodbury, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers and nine Past Grand High Priests, and twenty-four Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance. Twenty-one Constituent Chapters were represented.

The M.°. E.°. Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, with prayer by Rev. Comp. Joseph E. Robins, D. D.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He gave the assembled Companions a cordial greeting, requesting all to join him in thanksgiving to the Grand High Priest of the Universe, by whose mercy they were enabled to gather around their consecrated altar on this Eighty-ninth Anniversary. Continuing he said:

"Within the year just closing, some of our number have been called to the 'silent majority,' and it is most fitting that we should pause in our deliberations and consider their lives, that we may emulate their virtues, honor their memories, and make our lives better and nobler for having known them."

He then read from a lengthy death roll the names of seventy-nine Companions who had passed to rest during the past year.

No important decisions were reported.

He gave an interesting account of his visitations to many of the Chapters.

The Deputy Grand High Priest, King and Scribe also made reports of their visitations and the condition of the Chapters visited.

From the report of the Committee on Chapters we excerpt the following summary of the work of the year:

In order to fortify the Companions for the work before them, the M. E. Grand High Priest gave notice that luncheon had been provided for the Grand Chapter, and invited all Companions present to attend.

The M. E. Grand Chapter was called from labor until 2 o'clock.

The Grand Chapter was called on at 2 P. M., the first business being the election of officers for the ensuing year. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

Charles Henry Sinclair, Concord, Grand High Priest.

Charles Gale Shedd, Keene, Deputy Grand High Priest.

John Lynch, Claremont, Grand King.

Samuel Condon, Tilton, Grand Scribe.

John Francis Webster, P. G. H. P., Concord, Grand Treasurer.

Frank Dana Woodbury, Concord, Grand Secretary.

Frank Russell Marston, Farmington, Grand Captain of the Host.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the appointed Grand Officers, all were installed by M. E. Comp. Charles L. Towle, E. Comp. Fred E. French acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The Grand High Priest ordered that the officers not installed today be installed in their respective Chapters, and certificate thereof be forwarded to the Grand Secretary.

On motion of M. E. Comp. George W. Currier, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the thanks of the Grand Chapter be extended to the Concord Masonic Association, for the use of their apartments at this Annual Convocation."

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, with prayer by Rev. Comp. Josiah L. Seward, D. D.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convocation of the Council of the Order of High Priesthood was held in Freemasons' Hall, Concord, May 19, 1908,—The M.· E.· Comp. Charles Henry Webster, President; the E.· Comp. Frank Dana Woodbury, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Six Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Recorder and Treasurer submitted their reports, which were considered and approved.

The names of five Excellent Companions who had passed to eternal rest within the past year were ordered placed of record.

The officers were re-elected and installed and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A fine report of nearly 200 pages is the handiwork of E.· Comp. Josiah L. Seward. He reviews the Proceedings of the several Grand Capitular Jurisdictions thoroughly and ably. In his work he reviews California in its Fifty-third Annual Convocation, M.· E.· Comp. John Francis Hughes being Grand High Priest.

We regret to leave this fine report with this brief notice, but ill health has handicapped us so heavily that we find ourselves almost "out of sight" in the race. We note, however, a brief comment that is so true we excerpt for the benefit of our readers, and here it is:

"The report of the Grand Lecturer, Henry Ascroft, is very interesting. He suggests the good that might result if all the Grand Lecturers in the United States could meet at some central place and discuss work and give an exemplification of work, looking to a possible agreement throughout the various jurisdictions in this important particular. He described in an interesting manner his work among the Chapters of California. Such really live and active Lecturers are much needed everywhere in the country. The work of a Companion like the Grand Lecturer of California is a refreshing contrast to those Lecturers in certain jurisdictions who 'have not found anything to do during the year.'"

M.· E.· Comp. Charles H. Sinclair, Grand High Priest; R.· E.· Comp. Frank D. Woodbury, Grand Secretary.

NEW JERSEY.

Thirty-eight Chapters.

5,601 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Jersey held its Fifty-second Annual Convocation in the rooms of "Three Times Three" Chapter, No. 5, Masonic Temple, Trenton, May 13, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Jacob Kirkner, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Leonard L. Gear, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with sixteen Past Grand High Priests and a Past Grand Scribe. Five Assistant Lecturers and thirty Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled were also in attendance.

Handsome portraits of the Grand High Priest-elect appear on the opening page, and in the body of the Journal of the Veterans, William H. Doggett, Grand High Priest in 1856-7, and George A. Tator, Grand High Priest in 1858.

Twenty-eight of the thirty-eight Constituent Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the E. Grand Chaplain; and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He cordially welcomed the Companions in attendance at the Fifty-second Annual Convocation of the Grand Body, and joined them in the expression of gratitude to the Heavenly Father for the great privilege of coming up with Companions to observe the anniversary of the Grand Chapter.

Before proceeding to report his official acts during the recess, he would pause in remembrance of absent Companions who had been long with them in the building of their Temple, but within the year had passed to rest. He paid to their memories the tribute of fraternal affection. Of the dead of sister jurisdictions he said:

"Many distinguished Companions of other jurisdictions have, like our own, obeyed the call of the Master and entered into their eternal rest. Their virtues are sung by those who knew them best, and we can only offer our sympathy to those who have lost most. The names of the distinguished dead will be incorporated with the Report of the Committee on Necrology. I recommend that the usual memorial pages be set apart in the printed Proceedings."

Concerning the visitation of Chapters he said:

"Believing this, as I firmly do, it was my intention to visit all the Chapters in the jurisdiction during my year of service. But often when the spirit is willing the flesh is weak. Illnesses of immediate members of my family demanded much personal attention from me, and when these had been relieved my own health became involved to such a degree as to prevent me from carrying out my laudable intentions."

We excerpt his account of the work of the year :

Reports were received from Grand Lecturer Haines and from the Assistant Lecturers of the five districts which betoken a favorable condition of Capitular work in the Grand Jurisdiction.

The following visitors were announced :

R.°. E.°. Charles C. Hunt, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R.°. E.°. Charles W. Smith, Grand Master Third Vail.

R.°. E.°. Alfred A. Adams, Grand Master First Vail.

M.°. E.°. George E. W. Stivers, Past Grand High Priest.

M.°. E.°. William DeWitt Hamilton, Past Grand High Priest.

R.°. E.°. William E. Duncan, Grand Representative of New Jersey near the Grand Chapter of New York.

These distinguished Companions were most cordially received by the Grand High Priest and the honors of Royal Arch Masonry extended to them and congratulations exchanged.

The Companions representing sister jurisdictions were presented by M.°. E.°. Comp. I. Layton Register. They were received and an address of welcome was rendered by Comp. George C. Maddock on behalf of the Grand High Priest.

The committees having reported and the usual routine generally disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen :

Comp. James S. Ware, Grand High Priest.

Comp. Samuel G. Rudderow, Deputy Grand High Priest.

Comp. Daniel L. Campbell, Grand King.

Comp. Ralph R. Eichlen, Grand Scribe.

Comp. Frederic G. Wiese, Grand Treasurer.

Comp. Leonard L. Grear, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the appointed Grand Officers, all were installed by M.°. E.°. Comp. Joseph Mason, E.°. Comp. Richard C. Woodward acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Grand Trustees be authorized to procure a jewel for presentation to the retiring Grand High Priest, Jacob Kirkner."

The statement was then made that the Trustees had already discharged the duty assigned them, and M. V. E. V. Comp. Henry S. Haines was requested to make the presentation.

This act was accompanied with words expressive of the high esteem and affection entertained for him by his Companions, and was acknowledged by him in appropriate terms, as a most pleasing testimonial of person as well as of official regard, believed by him from other proofs than this to be earnest and sincere.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and the Grand Chapter closed at 5:15 P. M.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests of New Jersey was held in the rooms of Column Lodge, No. 120, and Loyal Lodge, No. 181, F. & A. M., May 11, 1908,—M. V. E. V. Comp. Frederic Wiese, acting President; E. V. Comp. Abram A. Reger, Recorder, and twenty-five Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Thirteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

A resolution of sympathy and condolence for the M. V. E. V. Comp. President Choocy, by reason of his protracted illness, was introduced by E. V. Comp. Henry S. Haines and unanimously adopted. The M. V. E. V. Companion was elected President and E. V. Comp. Abram A. Reger, Recorder.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

An excellent Report on Correspondence is submitted by M. V. E. V. Comp. Henry S. Haines. Companion Haines was Grand High Priest in 1884. In his report he reviews California for the years 1906-7, or its Fifty-third Annual Convocation, a time that we were very busy trying to find out "just where we were at." He notes the death of M. V. E. V. Companion Blackmer and comments favorably upon our efforts to rehabilitate our Temple until it shall exceed the first in beauty and usefulness. Meanwhile, we shall keep in "memory green" the generous goodness of the Companions of New Jersey when we needed it.

M. V. E. V. Comp. James S. Ware, Grand High Priest; R. V. E. V. Comp. Leonard L. Gear, Grand Secretary, R. V. E. V. Comp. Henry S. Haines, Burlington, Correspondent.

NEVADA.

Eight Chapters.

373 Royal Arch Masons.

This Grand Chapter held its Thirty-fifth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Reno, June 8, 1908,—M. F. E. F. Comp. William L. Cox, Grand High Priest; E. F. Comp. Geo. Gillson, Acting Grand Secretary. Seven Past Grand High Priests and fifteen Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance, and five Chartered Chapters were represented.

The vacancies were filled by the following appointments:

William Sutherland, as Grand King.

T. J. Steinmetz, as Grand Scribe.

George Gillson, as Grand Secretary.

H. W. Miles, as Grand Royal Arch Captain.

A. D. Bird, as Grand Master of the Second Vail.

Charles L. Fulstone, as Grand Master of the First Vail.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. First giving the Companions a cordial welcome and a fraternal, hearty greeting, he said:

"Each year we greet new faces, welcome those factors that mean progress, the new blood coming in to keep the body in its full strength and beauty and giving courage to advance to victory in the face of almost disheartening adversities. For, alas, each year also brings its sad tidings of triumph through death. Memory brings sweet recollections of the forms and voices of many departed Companions, who from year to year are called by the Supreme Grand High Priest of the Universe to serve in the Celestial Chapter on High. By contemplating their virtues and emulating their wisdom we may truly say that their good work goes on. Peace and honor to the memory of those who, having fought the good fight, have been called to their reward"

And on that Long death roll mentioned there are familiar names to us of the Grand Chapter of California. M. F. E. F. Comp. Thos. P. Hawley of Lewis Chapter, No. 1, was an old and honored member of all the Masonic Bodies of California; and we also note the familiar and beloved names of three of our Past Grand High Priests, M. F. E. F. Comps. Blakmer, Tuttle and Myrick. God give them rest.

But little new business came up for consideration and the routine was soon disposed of.

The Grand Secretary, Comp. C. N. Noteware, having for several weeks been confined to a bed of sickness, was necessarily absent, although represented by his, as usual, excellent report. We excerpt his closing words:

"The books and vouchers of my office are herewith presented.

"The concluding words, Companions, of my record of the year's transactions go to you from the sick-room, but the Supreme High Priest of Heaven and Earth has lifted up my hands by a renewal of strength, and I am assured yet many days of service.

"May the report of my duties prove acceptable. May your Annual Convocation be a blessed reunion, and may your works increase the lustre of the reputation of our sublime institution."

We will add that in a letter received from our Excellent Companion since his eighty-fourth birthday, which event occurred on the 13th of last January, he says he has experienced such a decided improvement in his health that he has concluded to defer leaving Nevada on any kind of a journey in the near future. Stay with us, Companion Noteware.

M.°. E.°. Wm. Sutherland, from the Committee on Charters, reported as follows:

"To the M.°. E.°. Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of Nevada.

"Your Committee on Charters report:

"That no business has been presented for their action. We are glad to learn that the Companions of Ely, Elko and other localities are taking measures to organize new Chapters, and we trust that at the next Annual Grand Convocation several petitions for Charters will be referred to your committee for consideration."

The election of officers for the ensuing year was called up and the following Companions were chosen:

M.°. E.°. Comp. P. B. Ellis, Grand High Priest.

R.°. E.°. Comp. J. C. Doughty, Deputy Grand High Priest

R.°. E.°. Comp. T. J. Steinmetz, Grand King.

R.°. E.°. Comp. H. W. Miles, Grand Scribe.

R.°. E.°. Comp. Walter J. Harris, Grand Treasurer.

R.°. E.°. Comp. C. N. Noteware, Grand Secretary.

R.°. E.°. Comp. C. H. Kelly, Grand Captain of the Host.

E.°. Comp. Fred M. Schadler, Grand Principal Sojourner.

E.°. Comp. W. S. Porter, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

On motion of M.°. E.°. Comp. Mathew Kyle it was ordered that a telegram be sent to Grand Secretary C. N. Noteware, tendering the sympathy of this Grand Chapter in his affliction, of his unanimous reelection and increase of salary.

(The response of the Grand Secretary was not received until after the Grand Chapter was closed.)

On motion of R.°. E.°. Comp. Walter J. Harris, the thanks of the Grand Chapter were tendered to Reno Chapter, No. 7, for the use of their hall and paraphernalia during the present Convocation, and to the transportation companies for their very liberal concessions in the matter of fares for its representatives, and to the local Chapter, O. E. S., for courtesies extended.

The officers, elected and appointed, were then installed, with the exception of the Grand Secretary, whose installation was ordered to take place in Lewis Chapter, No. 1.

The Grand High Priest appointed the standing committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

No Order of High Priesthood, no Report on Correspondence.

NEW MEXICO.

Eleven Chartered Chapters. 705 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Mexico held its Tenth Annual Convocation in the Hall of Signet Chapter, No. 9, in Carlsbad, October 23, 1907,—The M.·. E.·. Comp. C. D. Stevens, Grand High Priest; the R.·. E.·. Comp. A. A. Keen, Grand Secretary.

Besides the Grand Officers and twenty Past Grand Officers, all the Chartered Chapters and the one under dispensation were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

Having announced the committees, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He said in opening:

"COMPANIONS: It affords me great pleasure to extend to you, one and all, a fraternal greeting and a most hearty welcome to our Tenth Annual Convocation.

"It is with a heart full of gratitude to the great Jehovah that I can report an unbroken chain in the official list of the Grand Chapter Officers for the year that is about to close. I am thankful that so many of us are permitted to again assemble to deliberate on matters pertaining to the welfare of our beloved Institution.

"It is, however, with a feeling of sadness that I note the departure from our midst to the Great Unknown of several Companions from our own and other jurisdictions. Each year we find more links of the chain that binds us to earth severed, but these severed links only add to strengthen the chain that binds us to our eternal home."

He announced that although their official circle had been spared, thirteen of their beloved Companions had been called home. He read the names inscribed on the death roll and paid affectionate tribute to all, including the Companions of sister jurisdictions.

He reported no important decisions, and the visitation of nine of the eleven Chapters on the roll; these visitations required the traveling of 1,400 miles.

There was but little new business considered, and the usual routine was soon disposed of.

Grand Secretary Keen reported the following amount of work done during the year:

The Grand Lecturer reported the condition of the jurisdiction and said the Chapters generally were doing good work. The Committee on Finance recommended that the salary of the Grand Lecturer be, and it was, abolished.

The usual routine of business being completed, the annual election of officers was called on and the following Companions were chosen:

J. G. Fitch, Grand High Priest.
 C. D. Boucher, Deputy Grand High Priest.
 J. J. Kelly, Grand King.
 J. C. Slack, Grand Scribe.
 A. J. Maloy, Grand Treasurer.
 A. A. Keen, Grand Secretary.

Having named the appointed Grand Officers, the Grand High Priest, assisted by Past Grand High Priest Poe, then proceeded to install the Grand Officers, who were duly inducted into their several stations and proclaimed as such.

On motion of Past Grand High Priest Everitt the thanks of this Grand Chapter were extended to members of Signet Chapter, No. 9, for the use of their hall and other courtesies extended during this Annual Convocation.

The Grand High Priest, on behalf of the Grand Chapter, presented the retiring Grand High Priest Stevens and Past Grand High Priest Pratt, in a few well-chosen words, with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel, as provided for retiring Grand High Priests, and Past Grand High Priests who have not been so honored. The Past Grand High Priests severally responded in expressing their appreciation of this token of friendship and esteem.

Having named the standing committees, and the business of this Annual Convocation being concluded, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form. Prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood of New Mexico held its Fourth Annual Convocation in the Hall of Rio Grande Chapter, No. 4, Albuquerque, October 17, 1906.—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Arthur Everitt, President; E.°. Comp. J. W. Elder, Recorder, and a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Eight Companions, high Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The following Companions were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

A. N. Pratt, President.
 S. I. Roberts, Vice-President.
 C. D. Boucher, Chaplain.
 E. A. Cahoon, Treasurer.
 J. W. Elder, Recorder.
 Robert Kellahin, Master of Ceremonies.
 J. Kelly, Steward.
 J. W. Poe, Sentinel.

The officers were installed and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

The Fifth Annual Convocation was held in the Hall of Signet Chapter, No. 5, at Carlsbad, October 23, 1907.

No work was reported, the officers were re-elected and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

The M.°. E.°. Comp. James G. Fitch, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. Alpheus A. Keen, Grand Secretary.

E.°. Comp. James H. Wrath, Albuquerque, Correspondent.

There was no Report on Correspondence.

NEW YORK.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New York held its One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Albany, February 4, 1908.—The M. E. Comp. Dana Baldwin Pratt, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Christopher G. Fox, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with sixteen Past Grand High Priests, a Past Grand King and a Past Grand Scribe. Twenty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, together with the representatives of 200 of the 202 Constituent Chapters in the jurisdiction.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest stated that he had invited the Mayor of the City of Albany to attend this Annual Convocation, but that owing to illness he was unable to be present, and introduced R. E. Edward B. Cantine, the Commissioner of Public Safety, representing His Honor the Mayor, who said:

"Most Excellent Companions:

"I have been requested by the Mayor of this city, Comp. Charles H. Gaus, to extend to you a hearty and fraternal welcome and to express to you his deep regret that, owing to a severe cold, he is unable to be present with you in person and to give you the freedom of the Capital City of the Empire State. Personally, he has instructed me as Chief of the Department to say to you that if you are in need of protection during your sojourn here, that protection will be promptly afforded, and he hopes that this honorable and fraternal Body which has made Albany its headquarters for more than a century will continue to hold its Convocations here for centuries to come, and that you will always feel, Most Excellent Sir and Companions, that Albany is in a sense your home and that you will always be welcome."

Many distinguished visitors from the Grand Chapters of New Jersey and Connecticut, the Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters, and the Grand Master of Masons in New York, were welcomed by the Grand High Priest and received with the Grand Honors.

The Grand High Priest then submitted the report of his official acts during the recess. With a brief introduction he said:

"Companions: The past year has brought to us bereavement and sorrow as well as triumph and progress; let us pause before entering upon the routine business of this Convocation to pay tribute to the memory of our departed Companions, whose names are here recorded.

"Almost immediately following my return home from the Annual Convocation last February I was attacked by serious illness, which, resulting in a surgical operation, confined me to my bed for nearly two months.

"Many matters of importance presented to me during that period, and, requiring immediate action, were of necessity referred to the Deputy Grand High Priest, R. V. E. Willis W. Rice, whose report will show his official disposition of those matters."

He referred to the death roll of the year and the many eminent names inscribed upon it. The M. V. E. Comp. Geo. Van Vlick, Past Grand High Priest, the R. V. E. Comp. Henry H. Russ, Past Grand Treasurer, with others of the official Grand Circle, and forty-one High Priests of the respective Chapters of the Grand Jurisdiction—the roll numbering 521 beloved Companions.

In fraternal sympathy he also reported the names of Eminent Companions of sister jurisdictions who had within the year passed to eternal rest.

Among the Grand Councils of Anointed High Priests convened by his order, we note one for a sample of all. It was convened in Commandery Room of the Masonic Temple, New York City, and thirty-six Companions were anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood. The amount of business transacted in this great jurisdiction is so extended as to present more than a brief summary.

He reported his official visitation of twenty Chapters, of which he says:

"On every occasion I was accompanied by a large delegation of Companions, and I am under deep and lasting obligations to my Associate Grand Officers, Past Grand High Priests, Present and Past Grand Representatives, Present and Past High Priests, for the support and encouragement given me by their presence on these occasions."

He has the following good words for the Veteran Grand Secretary, Companion Fox:

"I am deeply indebted to R. V. E. Christopher G. Fox, Grand Secretary, for his invaluable assistance throughout the year; his long and varied experience, his thorough knowledge of law and precept help the Grand High Priest over the rough places in his journey, and render easy many a task that would otherwise be most difficult."

We excerpt Companion Fox's summary of the work of the year:

The following table of statistics, compiled from the returns of the Chartered Chapters and the Chapters U. D. is here submitted for the information of the Grand Chapter:

Number exalted during the year.....	2,691
Number affiliated	156
Number restored to membership	140

Grand Lecturer McGown made a detailed report of the condition of the 202 Chapters under his supervision.

The Deputy Grand High Priest gave notice that the Order of High Priesthood would be conferred in this Tabernacle at 3 o'clock this afternoon. A meeting was held of the Grand Council of Anointed High Priests this afternoon and the Order conferred on seventy-one High Priests. The evening was devoted to the exemplification of work under the direction of Grand Lecturer McGown.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, tellers were appointed, who reported the re-election of the Grand High Priest.

Companion Pratt, on being officially informed of his re-election, expressed in feeling terms his great appreciation of the honor thus conferred upon him by his Companions as expressive of their confidence and esteem, but recognizing the claims of other worthy Companions for promotion, and for reasons of a personal nature, he deemed it his duty to decline the distinguished honor.

The balloting proceeding upon further reports of the tellers as to results thereof, the Companions whose names follow were declared elected by unanimous vote, viz.:

R. E. Willis W. Rice, Watertown, Grand High Priest.

R. E. Charles C. Hunt, New York, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. Jay B. Kline, Syracuse, Grand King.

R. E. Edward F. Hill, Peekskill, Grand Scribe.

R. E. James B. McEwan, Albany, Grand Treasurer.

The Representatives of Grand Chapter present were then introduced and received by the Grand High Priest, who extended an official welcome to them personally, and as connecting links in that chain of brotherhood which firmly unites the Grand Chapters throughout the world; requested them to convey to the Grand High Priests of their respective jurisdictions the fraternal greetings of the Grand Chapter of the State of New York, and with the hope that existing friendly relations might continue indefinitely.

The Grand High Priest having named the appointed Grand Officers, all were installed by M. E. Comp. William Sherer, Past Grand High Priest, E. W. Stivers acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

R. E. and Rev. Pierre Cushing, Grand Chaplain, made a feeling and most excellent report for the Committee on Memorials, which was adopted.

All the committees having made their reports, and no further business offering, the record of today's proceedings was read and approved, and the One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of New York was declared duly closed.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This paper is submitted by Past Grand High Priest Marvin I. Greenwood. In it our M. E. Companion reviews the progress and condition of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic world. It is a most excellent summary of the doings of Royal Arch Masons in the various Grand Jurisdictions. He reviews our Proceedings for 1907, the Fifty-third Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Hughes.

Companion Greenwood has compiled within eighty pages much information of value to the Masonic student. We thank him for generous comment and kind words.

M. E. Comp. Willis W. Rice, Watertown, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Christopher G. Fox, Buffalo, Grand Secretary; R. E. Comp. Geo. McGown, Palmyra, Grand Lecturer.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Thirty-four Chapters.

2,076 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of North Carolina held its Sixtieth Annual Convocation in the Court House in the City of Kinston, May 12, 1908. The M. E. Comp. A. B. Andrews, Jr., Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. James C. Munds, Grand Secretary. The Grand Officers were present, with five Past Grand High Priests, a Past Grand King, and a Past Grand Scribe. Twenty-three other Grand Jurisdictions were also represented; twenty-two of the thirty-four Constituent Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

It having been announced that M. E. Comps. W. J. Hubbard, Past Grand High Priest, and W. B. McChesney, Grand King of the Grand Chapter of Virginia, were in waiting, the Grand High Priest appointed Comps. John Nichols, Past Grand High Priest, and John B. Griggs, Grand King, to receive and introduce them into the Grand Chapter, where they were cordially welcomed, and, after eloquent responses, were assigned seats in the East.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He gave all a cordial welcome and sincere congratulations that, under a kind Providence, they were enabled to come together in Grand Chapter on the occasion of its Sixtieth Anniversary. In this connection he said:

"While we meet in this city let us also be thankful that Providence has spared this Grand Chapter. But not so with many of our Chapters and likewise with our sister jurisdictions, who recall the following upon whom the hand of the Grim Monster has fallen."

He paid an affectionate tribute to the thirty-five Companions of their own household who had passed to rest, and in fraternal sympathy with sister jurisdictions reported the lengthy death roll, upon which was inscribed the names of Companions eminent in all the grades of Capitular Masonry, and in that long roll California is represented by the names of three M. E. Companions who left us when called in a single year.

He made but few visits during his administration and reported no important decisions.

But little new business was presented for consideration, and the usual routine prevailed.

Mentioning the approaching Convocation of the General Grand Chapter of Savannah, Georgia, he pays this fraternal compliment to the Companions of South Carolina:

"The Grand Chapter of South Carolina, whose members are very intimate with the Royal Arch Masons of Georgia, being an adjacent State, have made an appropriation of $1,000 for the purpose of assisting in entertaining the General Grand Chapter."

We excerpt the following report of the work of the year from the report of Grand Secretary Munds:

Last year the membership was.....	1,833
The work of the year has been:
Exalted	279
Admitted	72
Reinstated	12
Dimitted	61
Died	35
Expelled	1
Excluded for N. P. D.....	23
	— 120
A gain of	243
And a total membership of.....	2,076

Past Grand High Priest Nichols moved that the minutes of the Order of High Priesthood be printed with our Proceedings, which was adopted.

The committees generally having reported and their reports having been disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

- M. E. Comp. J. C. Braswell, Grand High Priest.
- R. E. Comp. J. B. Griggs, Deputy Grand High Priest.
- R. E. Comp. J. W. Shuford, Grand King.
- R. E. Comp. U. M. Robinson, Grand Scribe.
- R. E. Comp. M. S. Willard, Grand Treasurer.
- R. E. Comp. James C. Munds, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made the necessary appointments, the Grand Officers-elect and appointed were then installed by Past Grand High Priest William Anderson, assisted by Comp. E. B. Neave.

On motion of M. E. Comp. William Anderson, Grand Chapter "Resolved, That the thanks of this Grand Chapter are hereby tendered to Caswell Chapter, No. 38, and the Masons of Kinston for the many courtesies and kindnesses shown this Grand Body during its session now closing."

The Grand High Priest appointed the standing committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD

As this in a case of resurrected suspended vitality, a brief explanation is in order:

KINSTON, N. C., May 12, A. D. 1908, A. I. 2438.

The Most Excellent Convention of the Order of Anointed High Priests of North Carolina assembled in the Hall of Caswell Chapter, No. 38, R. A. M., in the City of Kinston, N. C., on Tuesday morning, May 12, A. D. 1908, A. I. 2438, at 9 o'clock, and was opened in Short Form with the following officers, to-wit:

M. E. John Nichols, P. G. H. P., President; M. E. A. B. Andrews, Jr., Recorder; E. John M. Wolfe, Master of Ceremonies; E. Robert H. Rountree, Steward.

The Most Excellent President announced that this Convention had been called by him pursuant to a notice on the 21st day of April, 1908, calling for the assembling of the Convention. That the last Convention of the Order in this State had been held in 1873, which Convention elected him as the Most Excellent President, and of which Convention there were now surviving himself, E. Comp. John M. Wolfe of Chorazin Chapter, No. 13, of Greensboro, N. C., who was High Priest of Lafayette Chapter, No. 11, at Hillsboro, in 1858; Robert H. Rountree, High Priest in 1866 of Caswell Chapter, No. 38, of Kinston, N. C., now a resident of the City of New York, and William J. Hicks, High Priest in 1866 of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, of Raleigh, now residing at Oxford, N. C., all of whom, excepting the last named, were present today. He further stated that the Order had heretofore been conferred in this State on May 12, 1897, in the City of Wilmington, by the officers of the Most Excellent Convention of the Order of Anointed High Priests of the State of South Carolina, namely: M. E. John R. Bellinger, R. G. H. P., President; M. E. Jacob T. Barron, G. H. P., Master of Ceremonies; E. A. E. Fugle, Conductor.

The Most Excellent President also announced that present today were two visiting Companions from the Grand Council of the Order of Anointed High Priesthood of Virginia, to-wit: M. E. Comp. William J. Hubbard, Past Grand High Priest, its Excellent President, and Comp. William B. McChesney, Master of Ceremonies, who had kindly consented to take charge of the conferring of the degrees upon the candidates elected today.

Twenty-four Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters and otherwise qualified, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Convention proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year, when the M. E. Comp. John T. Alderman was chosen President and E. Comp. Alexander B. Andrews, Recorder.

On motion of E. Comp. Edwin B. Neave, a vote of thanks was extended to M. E. Comp. William J. Hubbard, P. G. H. P., and R. E. Comp. William B. McChesney, Grand King of Virginia, for their kindness in being present and conferring the degrees upon the Companions present.

On motion of M. E. Comp. Alexander B. Andrews, Jr., a vote of thanks was extended to M. E. Comp. John Nichols, Past Grand High Priest, and E. Comps. John M. Wolfe and Robert H. Rountree for their presence today and in assisting in the work of reopening the Grand Council.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Veteran Correspondent, James Southgate, again presents us with a fine report of nearly 100 pages, in which he reviews forty-four Grand Capitular Jurisdictions; in it is included our Fifty-third Annual, with Grand High Priest Hughes at the helm. For his kindly mention of us while struggling for rehabilitation he has our warmest thanks. We hope to reciprocate in the near future; meanwhile, good Companion Southgate, God be with you.

M. E. Comp. James C. Braswell, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. James L. Munds, Grand Secretary. M. E. Comp. James Southgate, Durham, Correspondent.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Seventeen Chapters.

1,794 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of North Dakota held its Nineteenth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Fargo, July 2, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. John Riessbeck, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Frank J. Thompson, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with eleven Past Grand High Priests and twenty-six Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. All the Constituent Chapters were represented.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page, and in the body of the Journal a portrait and view of the late R. E. Comp. John C. Mather, Grand Treasurer, who passed to rest August 17, 1908. There is also an interior view of the Grand Lodge Library.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest read his Annual Address. With a pleasant greeting he referred to the rapid passage of time, the blessings meanwhile enjoyed and the progress and prosperity of Capitular Masonry. Referring to absent Companions, he said:

"Before entering upon a detailed account of my official acts, let us for a moment pause in memory of those Companions of our own and other jurisdictions who have passed the veils of this earth to appear before the Supreme Council above."

He granted a dispensation to open and hold a new Chapter at Cando, Towner County.

No decisions were reported.

Grand Secretary Thompson, as usual, submitted a full and complete report. We excerpt his conclusion:

A few statistics relative to what has been done during the past year by the various Chapters may not come amiss.

Only one Chapter shows a decrease, and one no increase.

During the year ending April 30, 1908, 154 were exalted as against 158 the preceding year.

Our membership at the end of the Chapter year was 1,794, as against 1,688 last year, an increase of 106.

Not much new business was considered, and the usual routine was considered and disposed of.

The election of officers was called up, tellers were appointed, and the following Companions chosen:

M. E. Comp. Frank H. Sprague, Grand High Priest.

R. E. Comp. Alexander B. Taylor, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. Comp. Walter L. Williamson, Grand King.

R. E. Comp. Anson Bartlett, Grand Scribe.

R. E. Comp. Alexander C. Mather, Grand Treasurer.

R. E. Comp. Frank J. Thompson, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect made his appointments and all were installed by the Grand High Priest, M. E. Comp. Sylvester J. Hill acting as Master of the Ceremonies. We excerpt the following:

"The Grand Secretary, R. E. Comp. Frank J. Thompson, in a moment of aberration again surprised the Companions, and astonished the retiring Grand High Priest, John Riessbeck, by presenting to him a Past Grand High Priest jewel. What the Grand Secretary said lies only on record in the spiritual ark of the covenant, and what the retiring Grand High Priest remarked is written in letters of gold on the Book of Life in the celestial library."

No further business appearing, the Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of the State of North Dakota closed its Nineteenth Annual Convocation in Ample Form at 4:20 o'clock P. M., peace and harmony prevailing.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Ninth Convention of the Order of High Priests of the State of North Dakota met in the Masonic Temple, Fargo, on Thursday, July 2, 1908, with the following officers present: M. E. Comp. Sylvester J. Hill, President; M. E. Comp. Peter Pickton, Vice-President; M. E. Comp. Francis Ingalls, Recorder, and ten others, members of the Order.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

President Hill reported that, owing to circumstances beyond his control, he had been unable to secure copies of the Ritual so as to work the degree in full at this Convention, but would try and arrange to have same for the next Convention.

The present officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

No Report on Correspondence.

M. E. Comp. Frank H. Sprague, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Frank J. Thompson, Grand Secretary.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Sixteen Chapters.

1,129 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Nova Scotia, with jurisdiction over Prince Edward Island and New Foundland, held its Thirty-ninth Annual Convocation in Keith Hall, Yarmouth, June 9, 1908.—The M. E. Comp. William W. Dillon, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Samuel J. Waddell, Grand Secretary. Eleven of the sixteen Chapters were represented, with thirteen other Grand Jurisdictions.

M. E. Comp. Jacob H. Neff represents the Grand Chapter of Nova Scotia near us of California. Thirty-eight Past Grand Officers were in attendance.

The V. V. E. Grand Captain of the Host, by order of the M. V. E. Grand High Priest, organized Grand Chapter, and at 10 o'clock A. M. the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nova Scotia was opened in Ample Form by the Most Excellent Grand High Priest, William W. Dillon.

In his address the Grand High Priest gave the assembled Companions a cordial welcome and requested all to join him in thanking to the Supreme Ruler whose loving kindness permitted them to assemble in their Thirty-ninth Annual Convocation. Continuing he said:

"Permit me to preface my report by saying that my term of office has been a continuous pleasure. The Companions have responded to every call, harmony prevails in every Chapter, and the progress has been most gratifying indeed. The harvest seems just now ripening. As never before Capitular Masonry is appreciated in this jurisdiction, and calls are coming from East, West, North and South for 'more light' in Masonry."

The fraternal dead of their own and sister jurisdictions drew from him affectionate tribute to the twenty missing Companions, members of their own tribes and families who had passed to eternal rest. In sympathy with the Companions of sister jurisdictions, he said:

"Official notification has been received from the following Grand Jurisdictions that their ranks have been broken, eminent and distinguished craftsmen have passed within the veil, and their Companions mourn. We extend to them our fraternal sympathies, and mourn with them in the loss they have sustained; and recommend that a memorial page be set apart in our Proceedings in memory of these departed Companions." And he read from a lengthly death roll the names of Eminent Companions of nearly all of the Grand Jurisdictions.

He gave an interesting account of his visitation to the several Chapters and reported the condition of each.

His summary of the condition of the jurisdiction was expressed in the statement—"the past Masonic year has been one of the most successful in the history of the Grand Chapter."

The Grand Secretary reported the work of the year as follows: During the year there have been 137 exalted, 13 affiliated, 5 reinstated, 4 suspended, 15 dimitted and 9 have died, giving us a net increase of 117, with a total membership on April 30th of 1,129.

The Committee on the Address of the Grand High Priest, M. V. E. Comp. Henry D. DeBlois, Chairman, made a feelingly eloquent report upon "our dead," as referred to in the address.

On motion of M. V. E. Comp. S. W. Crabbe, seconded by M. V. E. Comp. W. M. Black, the invitation of Most Worshipful Brother Charles R. Smith, Grand Master of Masons of Nova Scotia, to take part in the procession to and from Church on the occasion of the meeting of Grand Lodge on June 10th, was cordially accepted.

At the election of officers for the ensuing year the following Companions were chosen:

- M. E. Comp. Thos. VanB. Bingay, Grand High Priest.
- R. E. Comp. Barry D. Bent, Grand King.
- R. E. Comp. William H. Soper, Grand Scribe.
- M. E. Comp. William Crowe, Grand Treasurer.
- M. E. Comp. Samuel J. Waddell, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect announced the appointments and all were installed and proclaimed by M. E. Comp. W. W. Dillon, Past Grand High Priest.

The following Companions were chosen as the Board of General Purposes: M. E. Comp. William A. Alley, M. E. Comp. Luther B. Archibald, M. E. Comp. William M. Black, R. E. Comp. Adam J. McNutt, R. E. Comp. William A. Garrison, R. E. Comp. Malcolm McF. Hall, who, together with the following ex-officio members, constitute the Board for the year 1908-9: R. E. Comp. Barry D. Bent, Grand King; R. E. Comp. William H. Soper, Grand Scribe; M. E. Comp. Samuel J. Waddell, Grand Secretary.

There being no further business, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood of Nova Scotia was held in Keith Hall, Yarmouth, June 9, 1907,—The M. E. Comp. William M. Black, President; E. Comp. S. J. Waddell, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form at 8:30 o'clock P. M.

Twelve Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The officers of the Convention were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Report on Correspondence is a paper of fifty pages, in which forty-eight Grand Capitular Jurisdictions are reviewed by a syndicate of Companions composing the committee. California for 1907, the administration of Grand High Priest Hughes, receives most favorable comment. Kind words make us feel that our Companions of Nova Scotia are with us in our efforts at rehabilitation, and we are thankful to them for it.

The M. E. Comp. Thos. VanB. Bingay, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. S. J. Waddell, Truro, Grand Secretary.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

The Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New South Wales held Four Quarterly and a Special Convocation during the year 1907. The Convocations were held in Masonic Hall, Castlereagh street, Sydney, in February, May, August and November,—The M. E. Comp. S. D. Townsend, Grand Z; E. Comp. A. J. Burbidge, Grand Scribe E. At the Convocation of February 13th there were present besides the officers, the Principals and Past Principals of Zetland Chapter, No. 1, Robert Burns Chapter, No. 2, Prince of Wales Chapter, No. 5, Oxford Chapter, No. 9, Newcastle Chapter, No. 11, and Temperance Chapter, No. 16. Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 8:10 P. M.

Companion Menno S. Bowman, of Riverside, is the representative of the Supreme Grand Chapter of New South Wales near the Grand Chapter of California.

The Grand Z. made an excellent address, mostly confined to the local interests of the jurisdiction.

The Committee on General Purposes reported and made the following recommendations:

"1. That Comp. Lewis W. Flinn be reappointed as the Representative of this Grand Chapter near the Grand Chapter of Delaware.

"2. That Comp. Louis G. Levoy be reappointed as the Representative of this Grand Chapter near the Grand Chapter of South Dakota.

"3. That Comp. James Fraser be nominated for reappointment as Representative of the Grand Chapter of Delaware near this Grand Chapter.

"4. That Comp. L. H. M. Avery be nominated for reappointment as Representative of the Grand Chapter of South Dakota near this Grand Chapter."

At the Quarterly of May 8 the attendance was about the same, the M. E. Comp. S. D. Townsend presiding.

The Committee on General Purposes reported:

"The committee desires to place on record its appreciation of the services of E. Comp. H. S. Thompson, a member of this committee, whose death took place on the 2d day of March, 1907. By his death vacancies have occurred on this committee and in the position of Representative of the Grand Chapter of the District of Columbia."

Copies of Proceedings and Fraternal Correspondence have been received from the Grand Chapters of Arkansas, California, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, New Zealand, Ohio, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia.

At the Special of August 7, with about the same attendance, M. E. companion Townsend presiding: The Revised Constitutions were then severally gone through, amended in some instances, put and passed. M. E. Comp. E. MacFarlane moved, and M. E. Comp. H. B. Howe seconded, "That the Constitutions as now amended be adopted," which was carried unanimously.

It was then moved, seconded, and carried unanimously, "That the Constitutions as now adopted be the Constitutions of this Grand Chapter, and that the former Regulations be now rescinded."

Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

At the Quarterly held August 30, 1907,—The M. E. Comp. S. D. Townsend presiding, besides the Grand Officers there were present the same Principals and Representatives as at the Convocation of February 13th.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 8:15 P. M.

The Grand First Principal addressed the Grand Chapter.

The Committee of General Purposes reported.

Copies of Proceedings and Fraternal Correspondence have been received from the Grand Chapters of Alabama, California, Canada, District of Columbia, England, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Nova Scotia, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Supreme Council Thirty-third Degree, Washington, and Sovereign College of the Allied Masonic and Christian Degrees of America.

The election of Grand Officers for the ensuing year was held—M. E. Comp. S. D. Townsend was re-elected G. Z., and E. Comp. A. J. Burbidge was re-elected Grand Scribe E.

Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form at 9:45 P. M.

The final Quarterly of the year was held at the same place on November 13, 1907,—The M. E. Comp. S. D. Townsend presiding. All the Grand Officers were present.

A Commission has been received for the appointment of M. E. Comp. T. L. Rowbotham as Representative of the Grand Chapter of Virginia, near this Grand Chapter, and a Commission has been issued to E. Comp. W. S. Brown as Representative of this Grand Chapter, near the Grand Chapter of Virginia.

The By-Laws of St. Andrew Chapter, No. 15, Lithgow Robert Burns Chapter, No. 17, and alterations in the By-Laws of Newcastle Chapter, No. 11, were approved.

The Grand Z. addressed the Grand Chapter.

The Grand Representatives of Sister Grand Chapters were presented to the Grand First Principal, and tendered good wishes and fraternal congratulations on behalf of the Grand Chapters represented by them.

Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form at 9:45 P. M.

M.°. E.°. Comp. S. D. Townsend, Grand Z.; E.°. Comp. A. J. Burbidge, Grand Scribe E.

The Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons of New South Wales held a Half-Yearly Convocation in Masonic Hall, Castlereagh street, Sydney, in May, 1908,—M.°. W.°. Bro. Edward Hungerford, Grand Master, presiding; the V.°. W.°. Bro. A. J. Burbidge being Grand Secretary. The full compliment of officers, with Worshipful Masters, Past Masters, Wardens, Overseers and members of private Lodges.

The Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form at 8 P. M.

The Grand Master delivered his Address and concluded as follows:

"And now, Companions of the Mark, I am about to install my successor, who will, I am sure, add to the high reputation of this Grand Lodge. I hand over to him an institution with an increasing membership, prosperous financially, and at peace with the whole world. I know that it will be his object—as it is that of all of us—to see that no discord creeps into the councils of Mark Masonry, and in bidding you farewell as your Grand Master you may be sure that my interest in the Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons of New South Wales will never abate, but that I will always be ready to place at your Grand Master's disposal any abilities that I may possess. I thank you for your kindness to me, for the confidence you have placed in me, and may the Grand Overseer of the Universe keep you all under the shadow of His protection."

The Grand Master, by the power vested in him by Clause 36, Book of Constitution, declared the brethren nominated for office, as named in the Report of the General Board, duly elected to the offices for which they had been nominated.

The brethren nominated for the General Board were also declared elected.

M.°. W.°. Bro. Edward Hungerford then duly installed R.°. W.°. Edward MacFarlane as Most Worshipful Grand Master, who was thereupon proclaimed and saluted in the E. W. and S.

Congratulatory telegrams from the United Grand Mark Lodge of Victoria, and V.°. W.°. Bro. L. H. M. Avery, on behalf of the brethren at Broken Hill, were read.

M.°. W.°. Bro. MacFarlane announced that he appointed Worshipful Bro. Thomas Fitzherbert Hawkins Mackenzie, M. L. A., as Deputy Grand Master, who was then obligated, inducted, proclaimed and saluted.

The Grand Lodge Officers-elect were presented, invested and proclaimed in the E. W. and S.

On motion, duly proposed and seconded, the sum of £5 5s. was voted to the Whiteley-King Memorial Fund.

The Grand Lodge was closed in Ample Form at 9:30 P. M.

A Special Convocation was held at the same place on the 22d of August, 1907,—The M. W. Bro. Edward MacFarlane, Grand Master, presiding.

There was a full attendance. The business of the Convocation was purely local, being to consider certain Amendments to the Constitution, which, being concluded, the Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form.

A Half-Yearly Convocation was also held at the same place November 29, 1907,—M. W. Bro. Edward MacFarlane presiding, with a full attendance of Masters, Wardens and Overseers of private Lodges.

Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form at 8 P. M.

After some preliminary routine business the Grand Master delivered his Address, a general report of the work of the year. We quote from the address:

"The increase in the number of your active Lodges, of your members and of your funds and the small expense to your funds at which so much distant visitation has been accomplished, are all matters of gratification to me. I am also very pleased at the ready response to my requests to Grand Lodge Officers to visit for or with me. The only expense which Grand Lodge has met has been rail and steamer fares to Casino and back, and rail charges to Cobar and back. For your prosperity, my Brothers, you have to thank the wisdom and care of my predecessors, who laid so wide and so sound a foundation, and the energy of your Worshipful Masters who have builded so well upon it.

"Most of the outgoing Masters in the last six months have taken care to install their successors. I hope that in future there will not be a single exception to this practice. In my remarks to you this evening, I believe I have touched on every subject with which I am acquainted of immediate importance to you, and I have not hesitated to risk trespassing on your patience in my full expression of my obligations to those who have so ably assisted in the work of Grand Lodge with kindness, courtesy, good work and the expenditure of time and money.

"Now, in conclusion, my brethren, I express my heartfelt wish that you will receive every good and perfect gift which the Great Overseer of the Universe can confer upon you, and my entire trust that He in His wisdom will continue to our beloved Grand Lodge peace, progress and prosperity."

The business of the Convocation being concluded, Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form.

OHIO.

164 Chapters. 27,337 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ohio held its Ninety-second Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Cleveland, October 7th, commencing at 9:30 A. M.

The Grand Officers and members assembled at the Colonial Hotel and proceeded to the Temple under the escort of a detachment of Knights Templar representing the three Commanderies of the city. There were present the M.°. E.°. Comp. Lewis M. Lea, Grand High Priest, and all the officers of the Grand Chapter, fourteen Past Grand High Priests, thirty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and the Representatives of 159 Chartered Chapters.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page and In Memoriam in the body of the Journal. The R.°. E.°. Comp. R. V. Hamson, Grand Treasurer, with the portrait of M.°. E.°. Brenton V. Babcock, and a view of the monument erected to his memory in Lake View Cemetery by his Companions in Cleveland.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He expressed his gratitude to the Great Ruler for granting them permission to come together and join in thanksgiving on this ninety-second anniversary of the organization of Capitular Masonry in Ohio.

He referred to the death of the R.°. E.°. Grand Treasurer, Comp. Robert V. Hamson, and paid earnest and affectionate tribute to his memory; then from the lengthy death roll he read the names of many able and distinguished leaders from nearly all the Grand Bodies of Capitular Masonry. In presenting this mournful message he said:

"Since last we met no less than 353 Companions of this Grand Jurisdiction have joined those who dwell in that house not made with hands eternal in the heavens.

"Among these were many who, by reason of activity and influence, seemed well nigh indispensable.

"Let not our own bereavement void our hearts of sympathy for our Companions of Sister Grand Jurisdictions, who, like ourselves, listen in vain for 'the sound of a voice that is still.'"

He issued dispensations for the formation of two new Chapters. No decisions of importance were reported.

Two new Chapters were constituted, McKinley and McConnellsville, and are in the full tide of successful experiment.

Referring to matters of relief he said:

"A circular letter issued by the authority of the Grand Chapter of California under date of August 20, 1908, affords the gratifying information that somewhat less than three-fourths of the total amount of such contributions made through that body had been required for the work of relief, and announces the determination of the Grand Chapter to return the unexpended balance pro rata to the donors.

"The circular was accompanied by separate remittances which were duly transmitted by your Grand Secretary to the contributing Chapters above named."

The Grand High Priest-elect announced his appointments by P. G. H. P. Orestes A. Lenter, M. . E. . Comp. Owen B. Hannan acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

A Past Grand High Priest's jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest, and beautiful aprons to M. . E. . Comps. Lew M. McLea and Edward H. Archer.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form and Proclamation made by the Grand Marshal.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests of the State of Ohio held its Annual Vconvention in Masonic Temple, Cleveland, October 7, commencing at 7:30 P. M., M. . E. . Comp. Nelson Williams, President; E. . Comp. Edwin Hagenbuch, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

President Williams delivered a practical and instructive address.

The Recorder presented the petitions of seventy-two Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, who, having been elected, were subsequently admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This paper of 200 pages by Past Grand High Priest (the veteran Correspondent) Comp. William M. Cunningham, is one of unusual excellence, not alone for its collation of statistical information concerning the progress and condition of Capitular Masonry in America, but as well for its literary merit and scholarly finish, with which he has placed his work before the Royal Arch Chapters of the world. The reading Mason will find much to interest him in his introductory comments on the Divine Name.

Our Companion places before the reader the results of his examination of the Proceedings of fifty-five Grand Royal Arch Bodies for the preceding Masonic year. His notice of California is for the year succeeding the "great disaster," the general business of the session being "cleaning house" preliminary to the real work of rehabilitation.

Companion Cunningham has seasoned his report of our doings with kindly comment, which we are thankful for and hope to continue to merit.

The M. E. Comp. Edward H. Archer, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Edwin Hagenbuch, Grand Secretary. M. E. Comp. Wm. M. Cunningham, Correspondent.

OREGON.

Twenty-eight Chapters. 2,598 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Oregon held its Forty-eighth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Portland, June 8, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Frederick Wm. Davis, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. James F. Robinson, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, twelve Past Grand High Priests, five Past Grand Lecturers, with twenty-three Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and Representatives of twenty-three of the twenty-eight Chartered Lodges, were in attendance.

The Grand High Priest appointed the standing committees and proceeded to address the Grand Chapter.

With a cordial welcome and friendly greeting he would have the Companions join him in thanksgiving to the Great Ruler for the privilege of meeting together in their Forty-ighth Annual Convocation. They had come together to review the past and place their designs on the trestle-board for their future action.

In reporting the changes that had come to them during the recess their official circle had been broken by the death of Comp. A. J. Marshall, the beloved Grand Captain of the Host, who passed to rest in Oregon City, March 27, 1908. On the death roll of the jurisdiction there was inscribed the names of thirty Companions, members of the several Constituent Chapters, and on the lengthly roll of the dead of other jurisdictions we note the names of the three beloved Past Grand High Priests of California, M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick. God give them rest! His report of our dead Companions closes with the lines:

"How fast they fall—those we have known—
As leaves from autumn branches blown,
So quickly sear!
Yes, one by one they drop away,
As withered leaves that fall and stray
And disappear."

Very little that is new was referred to in the address, as he quaintly remarked that "but few matters had been brought to his attention." No decisions had been required of him and he had made no visitations because his business required his entire time.

Grand Secretary Robinscn submits as usual a comprehensive statement of all the affairs of the Grand Chapter. We excerpt his account of the work of the year:

Number of Chapters in the jurisdiction.....	28
Number of Chapters making returns.....	28
Number of members returned.....	2,598
Number exalted during the year.....	179
Number affiliated	29
Number reinstated	6
Number struck from the roll.....	15
Number suspended	0
Number expelled	0
Number dimitted	21
Number died	30
Number relieved from dues.....	87
Number rejected	7
Net gain during the year.....	148

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter be allowed $400 annually for his services, and that all legislation in conflict with this resolution be and the same is hereby repealed."

The Grand High Priest-elect announced the names of the appointed Grand Officers, whereupon the hour for the installation of officers having arrived, the M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest appointed Comp. O. O. Hodson, P. G. H. P., as Grand Marshal, and proceeded to install the Grand High Priest-elect, Comp. A. H. Steiner, who in turn installed his subordinate officers in Ample Form.

Past Grand High Priest M.·. E.·. Comp. J. M. Hodson reported a memorial devoted to the remembrance of the life and character of the late Comp. Andrew J. Marshall, Grand Captain of the Host, and it was unanimously adopted.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood of the State of Oregon met in Annual Convention in Portland, June 8, 1908,—The M.·. E.·. Comp. O. O. Hodson, President; the E.·. Comp. James F. Robinson, Recorder, and a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Ten Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Treasurer and Recorder submitted their reports, which were considered and approved.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was called on and the present board re-elected.

The Council was then closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Past Grand High Priest and Correspondent, M. E. Comp. John M. Hodson, continues in the good work and submits a one hundred-page review of the Capitular world in 1908. As a specimen thereof, before closing his report he brings to mind the days of old, and he would have the records thereof dusted and brought to light and spread before the present generation. He accordingly, after diligent search among the old ruins, has resurrected the minutes of the old organizations who commenced work in the fifties. He contributes six pages thereof for the benefit of the Oregon Mason interested in the early history of the Capitular rite in the "Webfoot State." The idea is a splendid one. Keep the old fires burning.

Bro. Hodson reviews California in its Fifty-third Annual, held in Mission Masonic Temple, under the administration of Grand High Priest Hughes. By his comments we conclude he thinks "we are doing as well as could be expected," and wishes us better luck in the next "shakeup." We thank you, John, for good wishes.

PENNSYLVANIA.

126 Chapters.

28,177 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Holy Royal Arch Chapter of Pennsylvania held its Quarterly Convocations in March, June, September and December for the transaction of business specially set apart for the quarterlies, and its Annual Convocation on St. John's Day, December 27, for the settlement of the business of the year and the installation of the officers elected at the Quarterly of December 5th.—The M. E. Comp. William B. Meredith, Grand High Priest; the M. E. Comp. Charles Cary being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present at the several Convocations. About sixty Chapters were represented at the several quarterlies and 105 at the Annual. The Convocations were attended by six to ten Past Grand High Priests and ten to fourteen District Deputies. There were also present the Representatives of twenty to forty other Grand Jurisdictions. We note M. E. Comp. Alexander H. Morgan as responding for California.

Fine steel engraved portraits of the Grand High Priest and of Past Grand High Priest Samuel H. Perkins of 1832-33 (bless his good old-time face!) are observed in this number of the Journal.

The business routine of this Quarterly was to receive reports from the Committee on Finance, on By-Laws, from the Committee on Memorials announcing the deaths of distinguished Companions, and the exemplification of the Mark Master's degree.

The Grand Chapter closed in Peace at 9:05 P. M.

At the June Quarterly, with about the same attendance, Grand High Priest Meredith presiding, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 7 P. M., M. E. Companion Morgan representing California.

Proposed Amendments to By-Laws were considered. The Committee on Finance reported matters to date. Communications were received announcing the death of several eminent and distinguished Masons of other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was called off for the purpose of exemplifying the Most Excellent Master's degree, and the Grand Chapter closed in Peace at 10:12 o'clock.

At the September Quarterly, attendance as usual, Grand High Priest Meredith presiding. The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 7 P. M.

Amendments to By-Laws of Chapters were considered and approved. The Committee on Finance submitted their quarterly report, and the Grand Secretary submitted a summary of the work for the year.

Announcement was made of the death of several distinguished Masons of other Grand Jurisdictions.

At the Convocation of December 5, the Grand High Priest, Comp. Wm. B. Meredith, presiding, the attendance was much fuller than at the preceding quarterlies, all the Grand Officers being present and 103 Chapters represented, with twenty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 2 o'clock P. M. as usual. M. E. Comp. Alex H. Morgan was present to respond for California.

The Finance Committee reported the receipts and expenditures of the year.

The Committee on By-Laws reported, their report was concurred in, and an amendment to the Constitution considered and adopted.

The M. E. Grand High Priest, in a most touching tribute, referred to the loss sustained by Grand Chapter in the death of its late Treasurer, Comp. Thomas Ranken Patton, and that a more formal and enduring record of his worth and services may be preserved in the published Proceedings he requested Past Grand High Priest, Comp. J. Henry Williams, to read an In Memoriam during the course of the evening.

The M. E. Grand High Priest further testified to the loss occasioned by the death of Comp. Charles W. Packer, one of the Committee on Finance, and whose death was so feelingly noted on the minutes of that committee.

Comp. J. Henry Williams, P. G. H. P., then presented a fraternal, able and worthy In Memoriam of Comp. Thomas Ranken Patton, which was listened to with close attention by all the Companions present.

The Annual Grand Convocation was held on St. John's Day, December 27, 1907, the Grand High Priest presiding. The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 7 o'clock P. M.

The M. E. Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address, a very interesting one but too lengthy for our report. The usual routine was observed in reporting the official business of the recess. In making his appointments, twenty District Deputies headed the list, closely followed by eight Grand Chaplains and the usual list of appointed Grand Officers and standing committees.

Comp. Stockton Bates was appointed Assistant Grand Secretary, which appointment was approved by Grand Chapter.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Peace at 9:30 o'clock P. M.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Correspondence Reports of this great jurisdiction are the work of a syndicate of distinguished Companions, whose chief is M. E. Comp. Matthias H. Henderson, who assigns the work of reviewing certain jurisdictions to each, directing each Companion to place his mark on any piece of work executed by him.

Observing the same rule, we note the Proceedings of California for the Fifty-third Annual, with the mark affixed of M. H. H. He comments pleasantly on our efforts at rehabilitation and wishes us better luck in the future, all of which we appreciate.

M. E. Comp. Wm. B. Meredith, Grand High Priest; M. E. Comp. Charles Cary, Grand Secretary.

QUEBEC.

Eleven Chapters.

1,152 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Quebec held its Thirty-first Convocation in Masonic Temple, Montreal, March 27, 1908,—M. E. John McLean, Grand First Principal Z.; the M. E. Comp. Will H. Whyte, Grand Scribe E. The four Grand Superintendents of District, twenty-two Past Grand Officers, with the Representatives of twenty other Grand Jurisdictions, were in attendance. All the Constituent Chapters were represented.

The portrait of the Grand First Principal Z.-elect appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Committee on Credentials having reported, the Grand First Principal Z. proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a hearty welcome to his Companions, assembled for the observance of the thirty-first anniversary, to perform those duties which are inseparably connected with its organization and to enjoy the pleasure of a renewal of former friendships, he first called their attention to absent Companions who had been with them for years "among the old ruins," but from them today there was no response. He then spoke of the Fraternal Dead and paid to them the tribute of sincere affection. In closing he said: "I beg to recommend that memorial pages be set apart in the Journal in remembrance of our beloved dead." He said further, "Our Companions of other Grand Jurisdictions have our deepest sympathy in their sorrow for the loss of distinguished and Eminent Companions," and in the lengthy list submitted we recognize the names of our own beloved M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick.

There was nothing especially new in the business submitted, the usual routine prevailing.

The Grand Superintendents of district made able reports, referring to the progress and present condition of Capitular Masonry in Canada.

The Grand Scribe E. also submitted a complete report of the financial and general condition of the jurisdiction.

The Grand Z. made the appointments and all were installed by M. E. Comp. Will H. Whyte.

The standing committees were named and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form at 11 o'clock P. M.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report, is as usual in late years, written and submitted by M. E. Comp. E. T. D. Chambers—it is an excellent summary of the condition of Capitular Masonry, especially in America, for the year commencing in 1908.

He reviews California in its Fifty-third Annual Convocation, and although he finds us principally engaged in "cleaning house" and working at our plans for rehabilitation, he gives us cheering words and wishes us success, for which we thank him.

M. E. Comp. Harry G. Elliott, Grand Z.; M. E. Comp. Will H. Whyte, Grand Scribe E. Correspondent, M. E. Comp. E. T. Chambers, Quebec.

RHODE ISLAND.

Ten Chapters.

3,517 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Rhode Island held its One Hundred and Tenth Annual Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, Providence, March 10, 1908,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles F. Richardson, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. William R. Greene, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with twenty-six Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Twenty-six Past Grand Officers, thirty Past High Priests, and nine of the ten Constituent Chapters were represented.

A fine portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. With a warm welcome to the Companions he embraced the opportunity to thank them again for the exalted position they had conferred upon him.

The address was a brief paper, in which he reported his official acts during the recess, with an account of his visitations to six of the ten Chapters in the jurisdiction. There was but little new business submitted.

Reports were received from the Deputy Grand High Priest, King and Scribe. From the tenor of them all, we judge the Chapters to be in excellent condition.

Memorials were submitted and adopted devoted to the memories of M.°. E.°. Comp. Wm. T. C. Wardwell, the R.°. E.°. Comps. David Stevens, Geo. H. Burnham. The usual routine of business followed until the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen:

M.°. E.°. Wendell R. Davis, Bristol, Grand High Priest.

R.°. E.°. Willard A. Esten, Providence, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R.°. E.°. William H. Scott, Providence, Grand King.

R.°. E.°. George C. Knight, Woonsocket, Grand Scribe.

R.°. E.°. Amasa C. Tourtellot, Providence, Grand Treasurer.

R.°. E.°. William R. Greene, Providence, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect named the appointed Grand Officers and we note with pleasure that of Rev. Henry Warren Rugg, as Grand Chaplain and Correspondent.

And all were installed and Proclamation thereof made by the Grand Marshall.

The standing committees were named and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, with prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain.

The Grand Chapter ordered that a Past Grand High Priest's jewel and apron be procured and presented to the retiring Grand High Priest, and a committee was appointed for that purpose, who procured the articles and they were presented by the M.°. E.°. Comp. Caleb L. Knight.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Rhode Island Convention of Anointed High Priests assembled in Freemasons' Hall, Providence, March 10, 1908, at 3 o'clock P. M.,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Caleb L. Knight, President; the E.°. Comp. L. Penrose Williams, Recorder, with ten Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Ten Companions, high Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters were elected to receive the Order of High Priesthood, which was deferred for reasons as follows:

Past President Albert L. Anthony, for the committee appointed at the last annual meeting, makes a verbal statement, after which, upon motion, it is voted to continue the committee for another year, with instructions to make arrangements for a meeting of the Convention, at which the several candidates whose petitions have been accepted, together with such others as may be accepted at that time, may be received into the Order and become members of this association.

The election of officers being in order, the several officers who have served during the past year are unanimously re-elected to serve for the ensuing year.

The Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Rev. Henry Warren Rugg writes the Correspondence for this small but veteran body of Capitular Masons, and in presenting the present report he gives an interesting bit of Masonic history in the opening thereof, and we propose by "excerpt" to take advantage of the opportunity to know something about the jurisdiction known as Rhode Island and the Providence Plantations, leaving other matters to come later. His paper is addressed to the M.°. E.°. Grand Chapter of Rhode Island. He writes:

"The Masonic Body to which this paper is addressed, and under whose sanctions it is issued, has had a long and honorable career. It was established March 12, 1798, being designated at the first as a 'Deputy Grand Chapter' for the jurisdiction of Rhode Island, and acknowledging its allegiance to a General Grand Body which had been organized by a Convocation, representing nine Chapters, held at Hartford, January 24, 1798.

"The newly formed General Grand Body was first known as 'The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the Northern States of America.' In 1806 it assumed a broader scope of authority, and was thenceforth designated 'The General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons for the United States of America.'

It was only for a single year that the Rhode Island Grand Body was termed a 'Deputy Grand Chapter.' In 1799 it dropped the word 'Deputy' and declared that the 'Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations' has been duly organized 'agreeably to the second article of the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter.' Companion Moses Seixas was the first Grand High Priest of the Rhode Island Grand Chapter, being succeeded in 1804 by Thomas Smith Webb, who continued at the head of the Grand Body for a period of eleven years.

"A backward glance to that formative period reveals notable activities and advances on the part of the Royal Craft in Rhode Island. Providence Chapter, whose organic life began some six years before that of the Grand Chapter, was still gaining in numbers and influence. Several new Chapters had been established at important points in the States. Seemingly the conditions were most auspicious. Who could have forecast the adverse change in condition and feeling which was witnessed in the closing years of the third decade of the nineteenth century? Who could have anticipated how quickly and how strongly popular judgment was to turn against the institution which had been regarded with so much of favor?

"The anti-Masonic storm swept over the land with an intensity that almost baffles description—and in few places did the storm rage more fiercely than in Rhode Island. A period of trial and testing ensued which lasted for nearly twenty years. The Chapter suffered with the Lodge. Royal Arch Masons, as a rule, did not apostasize. The great majority of them kept the faith, and held fast to their profession; but they were depressed in feeling and greatly discouraged. There were few Companions who cared to take office in the local Chapter or in the Grand Chapter. A brave contingent kept up the organizations—continued to meet and plan—to give of their time and substance—that the institution might be preserved and its usefulness be unimpaired. They fostered Masonic interest and feeling, and at the right time, being possessed of a 'zeal according to discretion,' they did a work of re-establishment greatly to their credit. Abiding honor crowns the memory of Brothers and Companions who were thus loyal and active, and to whom Royal Arch Masons in Rhode Island justly owe so large a debt of grateful recognition."

We think that bit of Masonic history worth more than anything we might have written for the space.

Bro. Rugg reviews California for its Fifty-third Annual in 1907. He compliments the progress we are making towards getting our house in order and gives us words of encouragement, for which he has our thanks. We only wish we had space for his entire article.

SCOTLAND.

The Supreme Grand Chapter of Scotland held its Annual Convocation in Royal Arch Masons' Hall, Edinburgh, for the year 1908, on the 6th of March,—The M. E. Comp. C. Carthew Yorstoun, Deputy Grand Z., presiding, with a full attendance of officers and members.

Supreme Grand Chapter was opened in Due and Solemn Form at 5:30 P. M.

The Deputy Grand Z. referred to the death of Comp. J. D. G. Dalrymple of Woodhead, Past Deputy Grand Z., and moved that a letter of condolence be sent to the family. Comp. Chas. Martin Hardie, Grand H., seconded.

The Annual Convocation for the installation of office-bearers was held in the same hall in Edinburgh on the 23d of March, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. C. Carthew Yorstoun, Deputy Grand Z., presiding, and a full attendance of officers and members.

The Supreme Grand Chapter was opened in due and Solemn Form at 5:30 P. M.

The minutes of the Quarterly Convocation held on the 6th of March, so much as applicable to the nomination and election of the Grand Office-Bearers, were read and approved.

The Acting M. E. Grand Z. then said that it was now his pleasant duty and privilege to instal the Office-Bearers in their respective offices.

They were all exceedingly sorry to be deprived of the presence of their Most Excellent First Grand Principal. Comp. Col. R. King Stewart had not only written to Grand Scribe E., but he had also written to himself a very long letter explaining how ill his wife had been for some time, and how necessary it was for them to stay some time longer in the Riviera, and he was sure that all present greatly regretted the cause of the absence of their M. E. First Grand Principal.

The Grand Office-Bearers present, elected on the 6th inst., were thereupon duly obligated, invested and installed in their respective offices (see page 119).

The Supreme Grand Chapter was then closed in Due and Solemn Form, and the Companions adjourned to the banqueting hall to celebrate the Festival of the Vernal Equinox, M. E. Comp. C. Carthew Yorstoun, Deputy First Grand Principal, presiding; and Comps. A. Orr Deas, and Archibald Lang, First and Second Grand Sojourners, officiating as Croupiers.

From the reported events at the dinner it must have been a happy gathering of the Masonic clans of old Scotland. Toasts and songs were the rule, with an occasional eloquent speech to season the proceedings.

A subsequent Quarterly was held in the same hall on the 18th of September, 1908,—M. E. Comp. John F. K. Scott, Grand Superintendent as Grand Z.; M. E. Comp. R. S. Brown, Grand Scribe E., and a large attendance of Office-Bearers and members present.

The Supreme Grand Chapter was opened in Due and Solemn Form at 5:30 P. M.

After some routine business had been considered, the District Grand Chapter of New South Wales, S. C., was instructed to deal peremptorily with certain Chapters, and report to Supreme Grand Chapter.

Presents, consisting of the published Proceedings of the Grand Chapters of Connecticut, Florida, Indian Territory, Michigan, New Jersey, North Carolina, Oregon and Vermont, U. S. A.; and the District Grand Chapter of India, Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons of England and Wales, and Grand Councils of R. and S. Masters of Indian Territory, New Jersey, Vermont, Wisconsin, U. S. A., and of the Grand Orient of Spain were received, and the thanks of Supreme Grand Chapter voted therefor.

Subsequently the following notices of motion were given:

1. That the Degree of Installed Master in the Mark Degree shall be conferred only upon the Principals and Past Principals Z., H. and J. of Royal Arch Chapters, and the Masters and Past Masters of Mark Master Lodges holding a separate Mark Charter from Supreme Grand Chapter; and the names of all Principals and Past Principals, and Masters and Past Masters, of Mark Master Lodges so installed, shall be transmitted to Grand Scribe E. for registration in the Books of Supreme Grand Chapter, when they shall be supplied with a diploma on parchment, on payment of a fee of two shillings and sixpence.—By Comp. R. S. Brown, L. M., and Comp. Geo. Dickson, L. M.

The routine business of Grand Chapter being concluded, the Supreme Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

At a Quarterly held December 18, 1908, M. E. Comp. R. K. Stewart, Grand Z.; Comp. R. S. Brown, Grand Scribe E.,—There was a full attendance of Excellent Companions.

Supreme Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

Presents, consisting of the published Proceedings of the Grand Chapters of Iowa, Nevada, New Brunswick, New Hampshire and Nova Scotia, U. S. A.; the Grand Councils of New Hampshire and Iowa, U. S. A., were received, and the thanks of Supreme Grand Chapter voted therefor.

On motion of Comp. Chas. G. Steuart, Z. 50, seconded by Comp. Wm. Inglis, G. S. N., it was unanimously agreed that a statement of the attendance of Grand Office-Bearers and members of Supreme Committee at meetings of these bodies be prepared and sent to members of Supreme Grand Chapter before next Convocation.

Thereafter Supreme Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Twenty-seven Chapters.

1,810 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of South Carolina held its Ninety-seventh Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Charleston, February 11, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Joseph Lindsay, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Jacob T. Barron, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Officers and Representatives of twenty-one of the twenty-seven Constituent Chapters were present, together with twenty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

Portraits of the Grand High Priests of this Grand Chapter from M. E. Comps. W. K. Bake of 1876-77, Wilmot D. De Saussure of 1878-79, F. F. Gary of 1880, J. Adjer Smith of 1881-82, Richard C. Watts of 1883, W. Tulley Branch of 1887, and Joseph Lindsay of 1907-8, and E. Comp. James H. Crawford, Sentinel of Franklin Chapter, No. 14, making this number of the Journal thoroughly representative of Royal Arch Masonry in South Carolina.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

After roll call the Representatives of the Chapters, together with the Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, were called up and cordially welcomed to the Ninety-seventh Annual Convocation. California was represented by E. Comp. William G. Mazyck of Charleston.

Grand High Priest Lindsay then delivered the Annual Address.

He gave the Companion in attendance a hearty welcome and invited them to join him in thanksgiving to the Lord for His watchful care during the recess, and referring to Companions gone whom they sorrowfully missed on the opening of the ninety-seventh anniversary of the Grand Chapter: "I am pleased to report that while the Great Reaper has been busy. He has not invaded the ranks of our present or past Grand Officers; ten of the subordinate Chapters, however, mourn the loss of fifteen Companions, who were, I trust, faithful craftsmen. If so, their life's work has now passed the Master Overseer's square."

We note in the death roll submitted by him the names of three Most Excellent Companions of California, with whom we were sorely grieved to part, Companions Blackmer, Tuttle and Myrick. God give them rest!

There was but little new business placed before the Grand Body, the usual routine prevailing.

The decisions were of local interest and governed, of course, by the local law.

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the formation of two new Chapters at Pickens, Pickens County, and at Conway, Horry County.

He closed his address by complimenting the Grand Secretary for aid and assistance.

Of the condition of the Chapters the Grand Secretary says:

"The annual returns and dues were again made with reasonable promptness by most of the Chapters. I am glad to be able to report that as a whole the returns were more accurate than any I have yet received, and I desire to thank the secretaries for the same.

"Every Chapter except only one has done some work during the year, and our growth has again been healthy and gratifying, as will more fully appear by the statement made up from the returns."

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Anointed High Priests of South Carolina held their Thirteenth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Charleston, February 11, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. J. T. Barron, President; E. Comp. Wm. A. Giles, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Eight Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

At the election of officers for the ensuing year, M. E. Comp. John R. Bellinger was chosen President, and E. Comp. Jacob T. Barron was chosen Recorder. The other Companions were re-elected and proclaimed.

The Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Comp. Barron submits an excellent Report on Correspondence of seventy pages, in which he carefully reviews Capitular Masonry as it is organized in America. He has looked through the doings of California since the "great disaster" and gives us credit for doing our best toward the rehabilitation of our Grand Chapter, with its lights, jewels and ornaments. He says in his conclusion:

"I have followed my usual plan of trying to select matter for this Report which is of interest to our home readers, and to emphasize those things which may incite our officers and Companions to nobler efforts and higher attainments. That I have not written for the pleasure or the plaudits of the Guild, must not be construed as a lack of esteem or regard for them. They don't pay for our Report—the Companions of South Carolina do. And yet my heart is filled with gratitude for the kindly consideration so often extended by my co-laborers in this field."

We thank Companion Barron for his kind words and wishes and assure him that with God's help we shall surely "make good."

M. E. Comp. Joseph Lindsay, Grand High Priest; M. E. Comp. Jacob T. Barron, Grand Secretary. Correspondent, M. E. Comp. Jacob T. Barron, Columbia.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Thirty-one Chapters. 2,370 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of South Dakota held its Nineteenth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall in the City of Mitchell, June 11, 1908,—M. E. Comp. A. C. Biernatzki, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Geo. A. Pettigrew, Grand Secretary.

There were present besides the Grand Officers seven Past Grand High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-eight of the thirty-one Chapters, and also the Representatives of twenty other Grand Jurisdictions.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

There were also present twenty-nine Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Rev. Edward Ashley, Acting Grand Chaplain.

Comp. William Blatt of Chicago, who was the first Grand High Priest of Dakota and the only one who ever held the position for two years, who had been absent from the State for several years, was at this time presented by Comp. Benj. F. Ives, G. L., and was given an ovation by the members and properly received by Grand High Priest Biernatzki. Companion Blatt feelingly responded.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He gave the Companions a hearty welcome to the Nineteenth Annual Convocation and he invited all to unite with him in reverently returning thanks to the Great I am for His protection and the blessings of the year.

Referring to absent Companions and that "dread sleep" which robs us of so many beloved Companions, he said:

"Death has indeed invaded our ranks, but so it must ever be, for this is the common lot of man from which there can be no exemption—'All rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full; for whence the rivers come, thither they return again.' Nineteen of the Companions of this jurisdiction have crossed the bar in answer to the call to 'meet their Pilot face to face.' One of these Companions, James S. Huston, was a past officer of this Grand Chapter, having been Grand Treasurer for four years, and having also held the very important office of Grand Lecturer for three years. His love for and devotion to Masonry and his labor in its behalf in the early history of this jurisdiction has left an abiding influence. His is a gentle memory which the Companions will tenderly recall. Upon notice of his death, which occurred at Redfield, S. D., April 15, 1908, I caused to be issued an In Memoriam reciting his Masonic record, life and character.

"Death has also visited our sister jurisdictions and taken a large number of Eminent Companions," and we note on the roll quoted by him the names of three M. E. Companions, beloved Past Grand High Priests of California—Past Grand High Priests Eli Tucker Blackmer, Milton Hills Myrick and Benj. Franklin Tuttle. God give them rest!

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the forming and opening of three new Chapters. He was unable to visit but few of the older ones. He made or reported no important decisions. He reported the carrying out of the orders of the preceding Grand Chapter by presenting three Past Grand High Priests with the jewels ordered by the Grand Body.

He reported the working condition of the Chapters as excellent. M. E. Comp. Louis G. Levoy was continued as Correspondent. The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood held its Thirteenth Annual Convocation in the Hall of Mitchell Chapter, No. 16, June 11th at 7:30 P. M.,—M. E. Comp. Louis G. Levoy, President; E. Comp. George A. Pettigrew, Recorder, with twenty Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The Grand Treasurer submitted his report, which was considered and approved.

Eight Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The present officers were re-elected and the Grand Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M.°. E.°. Comp. Louis G. Leroy gives us another good report of the progress of Capitular Masonry in the great Northwest; his paper of seventy-two pages is a fine summary of the condition of Royal Arch Masonry in America. He is a faithful worker among the old series, and we note that he never fails to discover and bring to light treasures of value to the Craft. But we will let him give his conclusion in his own words. Listen to him:

"Our journey is completed and we have arrived at the end of our labors.

"We have thoroughly enjoyed our travels and are fully impressed with the fact that prosperity to this branch of our institution is being continued. Many of the jurisdictions record a banner year, despite the fact that several of them in the past seven years had announced 'the largest increase of any year.' This year they proclaim it again.

"We regret the absence of New Brunswick; this is the third year its proceedings have failed to reach us, and Montana for 1907 is also missing, otherwise we think we have covered every jurisdiction on this continent.

"This closes our Nineteenth Annual Report. We hope our Companions will enjoy its perusal and become interested in the activities of the various. Grand Chapters, which make for the welfare of Capitular Masonry."

TENNESSEE.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Tennessee held its Eightieth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Nashville, January 25, 1909.—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles Comstock, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. Wm. A. Clendening, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with sixteen Past Grand High Priests and forty-one Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled. Eighty-six Constituent Chapters were represented.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He welcomed the Companions to the Eightieth Annual Convocation, and following his welcome and friendly greeting, he said:

"Our Companions have not been idle, and while we have some losses to record, the Royal Craft has made perceptible gains throughout the State, and I feel that much good has been accomplished.

"The Silent Messenger has summoned a few of our Companions to the Supreme Council on High; yet no vacancies have occurred in the official roster of the Grand Chapter. Truly, the merciful, loving kindness of Our Heavenly Father is beyond our human comprehension."

He also reported the "death roll" of sister jurisdictions and paid affectionate fraternal tribute to the Eminent Masons who had passed to rest. He issued four dispensations for the forming and opening of four new Chapters. He made but few visitations.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Correspondence, the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Western Australia were given fraternal recognition by the Grand Chapter and an exchange of representatives invited.

We excerpt a model report from the Committee on Dispensations. Read it:

"Trenton Chapter U. D., for which dispensation was granted April 17, 1908, has twenty-five members, eleven of which have been exalted since June 1, 1908. They also have sixteen more brethren elected to receive the degrees of the Chapter.

"They have their paraphernalia paid for and the use of a good lodge room. They have adopted the uniform code of By-Laws as recommended by the Grand Chapter. We recommend that charter be granted."

And, we need hardly add, the charter was granted.

We note that we have neglected to notice in the proper place the presence of twenty-two Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, thereby ignoring the services of our honored Representative, M. E. Comp. Andrew P. Trogden, who was on the "firing line" at the proper time.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by M. E. Comp. Isaac J. Thurman, M. E. Comp. E. S. Miller acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The following was adopted: On motion, the duty of employing a Lecturer, whose duty it shall be to visit and inspect the Subordinate Chapters and Councils in this jurisdiction and to instruct them in the work of conferring degrees, was assigned to the Grand High Priest, Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King and Grand Scribe of this Grand Chapter, and the Most Illustrious Grand Master, Illustrious Deputy Grand Master, and Grand Principal Conductor of the Work of the Grand Council. These officers were instructed to limit the salary of said Lecturer to $75 per month, during actual services rendered, and that his traveling expenses shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum.

The Grand Chapter of Tennessee was then closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Order of High Priesthood in the State of Tennessee held its Forty-fifth Annual Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, Nashville, January 27, 1909,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles H. Smart, Grand President; E.°. Comp. Bradford Nichol, Grand Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Thirty-four Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was called on. The M.°. E.°. Comp. M. F. Flenniken was chosen President, and the other present officers re-elected.

A copy of the Constitution adopted October 9, 1860, is published herewith.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Past Grand High Priest M.°. E.°. Comp. J. H. McClister writes the Correspondence for the Grand Chapter of Tennessee. He works like a veteran and has brought to light many discoveries of value to Capitular Masonry. His report is a summary of useful information to him who would know the condition of Capitular Masonry in America. He gives a pleasant review of California in its Fifty-fourth Annual and hopes to see our house again in order. "So mote it be," Companion McClister.

TEXAS.

228 Chapters.

13,916 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas held its Fifty-ninth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Waco, November 30, 1908,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles F. Smith, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. John A. Bryan, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with twelve Past Grand High Priests, were present. There were also in attendance forty Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled, the Representatives of 150 Constituent Chapters, and the Representatives of thirty-three other Grand Jurisdictions.

Excellent portraits of M.°. E.°. Comps. Ed. R. Bryan, Grand High Priest, and John A. Bryan, Grand Secretary, with those of M.°. E.°. Comps. Frank R. Williams, Grand High Priest in 1882-83, G. W.

Foster, Grand High Priest in 1883-84, B. F. Frymier, Grand High Priest in 1885-86 and present Grand Treasurer, and Rufus Pierce, Grand High Priest in 1889-90, make this number of the Journal seem like a Texas photo album.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The thirty-three Grand Representatives of sister Grand Jurisdictions who were present, as reported by the Committee on Credentials, were invited by the M. E. Grand High Priest to present themselves before the Grand East, and were cordially welcomed.

Comp. B. F. Frymier, Representative of the Grand Chapter of Pennsylvania, reported that he had the pleasure during the past year of visiting that Grand Jurisdiction, and was courteously welcomed by the Grand Officers, who requested him to present fraternal greetings to the Grand Chapter of Texas on the occasion of this Annual Convocation.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address, in which he reported the business of Grand Chapter transacted during the recess. In addressing the Companions, he cordially welcomed them to the Fifty-ninth Annual gathering, its duties and pleasures, giving them his heartiest congratulations on the good work of the Chapters during the year, sustaining the high standing of the Grand Chapter of Texas among the Capitular Grand Bodies of the nation; but before considering the routine business of the Convocation, he spread before them the death roll of the year, on which were inserted the names of 164 beloved Companions, members of their own "tribes and families," who had passed to rest. He said an appropriate mention of these beloved Companions will be made by the Committee on Obituaries.

He also, in sympathy with sister Grand Jurisdictions, reported the extended roll of Eminent Companions whose names are as "household words," familiar to the Royal Arch Mascons of America, dropping, in spirit, his sprig of acacia on their last resting-places.

Among his appointments of Representatives near other Grand Chapters we are pleased to note the name of Comp. James R. Tapscott as the Representative of that Grand Chapter near us of California.

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the forming and opening of eleven new Chapters and the Constitution of nineteen under dispensation.

Comp. W. Goodrich Jones, Grand Orator, delivered the Oration, his subject being "Freemasonry and its Teachings," a scholarly address. His closing lines were:

"Alexander, no doubt, was one of the guards whom Paul had converted to Christianity. In deserting his Roman gods he had to face the calumny and mockery of his fellow-soldiers. Alexander's faithfulness is a lesson to us all to be true to the principles to which we subscribe.

"Zerubbabel remained faithful to his God and his country. He could have remained in Persia and enjoyed high honors and great wealth, but he preferred to climb to the summit with duty as his staff, and God and his country as his highest aim.

"Our Masonic creed is short, and may well be summed up in this little poem by some unknown author:

"I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

"I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless.
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift."

The Grand Chapter recognized the Grand Chapter of Idaho as a just and legally formed Grand Chapter and invited an exchange of representatives.

We note the following reference to the San Francisco "Relief Fund:"

"We desire to express our commendation and appreciation of the course pursued by the Grand Chapter of California in this matter, and recommend that the amount refunded, $778.17, be covered into the general fund of this Grand Chapter.

"The expressions of our Grand High Priest regarding the beautiful and tender meaning of the word 'Companion,' which we so constantly use, must strike a responsive chord in the heart of each and every true Royal Arch Mason, and we lovingly commend them to their thoughtful consideration."

The Grand High Priest-elect announced the names of the standing committees and appointed Grand Officers, and all were installed by M. E. Comp. John C. Kidd, Comp. W. L. Grogan acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The retiring Grand Commander was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel by Past Grand High Priest John C. Kidd, in his usual impressive manner.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter of Texas was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood in Texas held a Convention in the Masonic Temple, Waco, December 2, 1908.—The M. E. Comp. John Watson, President; E. Comp. John A.

Bryan being Grand Secretary, with more than 100 Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Forty-four Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

President Watson declining a re-election, M.°. E.°. Comp. B. F. Frymier was chosen President, and E.°. Comp. F. W. Fitzpatrick, Master of Ceremonies. The other officers were re-elected.

On motion of Comp. M. Faber a committee consisting of Comps. Charles F. Smith, Jno. A. Bryan and B. J. French was appointed to procure a Past High Priest's jewel to be presented to the retiring High Priest, John Watson.

On motion the three principal officers were instructed to purchase robes and other necessary paraphernalia for use of the Council, and sufficient funds out of the treasury were appropriated to pay for same.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is written by our old-time friend and Companion, John L. Terrill. In it he reviews our Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Willett. He notes kindly our efforts at reconstruction and predicts that we will "make good." All of which we believe. We thank Companion Terrill for his "hand to back" good words.

VERMONT.

Twenty-nine Chapters.

3,922 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Vermont held its Ninety-first Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Burlington, June 12, 1908,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Collins Blakely, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. Henry H. Ross, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with eight Past Grand High Priests, thirty Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled, and twenty-four Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, were present. Twenty-seven of the twenty-nine Constituent Chapters were represented.

A handsome portrait of Grand High Priest Collins Blakely appears on the opening page of this number of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest named the Committee on Jurisprudence and proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. In addressing his Companions his opening words, although in plain American words, were so expressive and appropriate that we excerpt rather than substitute our own. He said:

"We are glad to see each other's faces, extend the hand of a hearty fraternal greeting, expressing the hope of continued health and happiness of us and ours. It has been meet for us on assembling to give thanks and praises to the Divine Architect of the Universe, and acknowledge Him as the source of all our joy, 'for He is good, for His mercy endureth forever.'"

He reviewed in full Vermont's lengthy death roll, upon which were inscribed the names of fifty-nine beloved Companions. He closed his four pages of tribute to the missing ones with these words:

"In many instances I have been able to give but a bare statement of the death of Companions, nor have I embraced other jurisdictions than our own. This will doubtless be covered by the report of our Committee on Necrology. Thus have all these our Companions passed beyond the outer veils of these earthly courts, and we trust are now partaking of the joys and peace of a blessed immortality.

"I recommend that memorial pages in our Proceedings be set apart and inscribed to their memories.

"There's a world where all are equal;
We are traveling to it fast;
We shall meet upon the level there
When the gates of death are passed.
We shall stand before the Orient,
And our Master will be there
To try each block we offer
By His unerring Square.'"

He reported no important decisions.

The Grand Secretary, Comp. Henry H. Ross, in his admirable report gives the following summary of "The Work of the Year":

Number chartered Chapters	29
Number making returns	29
Number Royal Arch Masons, June, 1907.....	3,811
Number exalted	221
Number admitted	11
Number restored	3
Number dimitted	25
Number died	59
Number suspended	7
Number erroneously reported, 1907	36
Number omitted, 1907	3
Number Royal Arch Masons, June, 1908.....	3,922
Net gain	111

But little new business was presented for consideration by the Grand Chapter. The Finance Committee made the following sensible reply to a proposition to reduce the fees to the Grand Chapter:

"Your Finance Committee, to whom was referred the resolution to reduce the Grand Chapter dues, again reiterates its former position. As stated in the resolution offered, this Grand Chapter is in good financial condition, and your committee do not believe it advisable to commence now to undermine its financial structure. We do not consider that the present dues of $4 for the Mark and $3 for the Royal Arch are excessive or burdensome on the Chapters paying the same. Under existing conditions a weak chapter not doing any work does not contribute one penny toward the support of this Grand Chapter. It is the more flourishing Chapters that contribute the substantial amounts, and we believe this is as it should be. Your committee is of the honest and firm opinion that the matter of Grand Chapter dues should not be changed or disturbed for some years to come, certainly not until the Masonic Temple is paid for in full."

No further business appearing, the Grand Chapter of Vermont was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Convention of the Order of High Priesthood of Vermont was held in the Masonic Temple, Burlington, June 11, 1908, commencing at 8 o'clock P. M.,—The M.° E.° Comp. Collins Blakely, President; E.° Comp. Geo. F. Root being Recorder and Treasurer. A goodly number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Eleven Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood, in Royal Arch Masonry.

The Recorder and Treasurer reported and his report was approved.

The present officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Past Grand High Priest and long-time Correspondent M.° E.° Comp. Marsh O. Perkins submits his Annual for the Journal of 1908, wherein he reviews the proceedings of the forty-six Grand Capitular Jurisdictions, and submits his conclusions in a report of 110 pages. He notices California in its Fifty-third Annual, under the M.° E.° Jno. F. Hugues as Grand High Priest. There was but little of importance to the Craft to review, as our efforts at rehabilitation have controlled our desires and acts for the tow years last past. We are improving and feel like getting into line again and skirmishing for the head of the class. We thank our friend and Companion for his kind words.

VICTORIA.

The Supreme Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Victoria held a Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, Collins street, Melbourne, October 16, 1907,—M. . E. . Comp. Phillip Cohen, Grand Z.; M. . E. . Comp. John Braine being Grand Scribe E., and a full attendance of officers.

A second Convocation was held in the same place January 15, 1908,—The M. . E. . Comp. Phillip Cohen, Grand Z., with a full attendance of officers, Principals and Past Principals of several Private Chapters, with Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample, Ancient and Solemn Form at 8 P. M.

The business of the session was almost entirely routine and of local interest only.

Convocations were also held April 15th, July 15th and August 7th.

At the July Convocation an interesting communication was received and read by the Grand Secretary from the First Grand Principal, M. . E. . Comp. Phillip Cohen..

The Grand Chapter elected a Grand Treasurer and a Grand Janitor, with a Committee of General Purposes.

All Companions having been admitted, the installation of the Second and Third Grand Principals was then proceeded with, M. . E. . Comp. Frank Davies, P. G. Z., acting as Installing Grand Principal.

V. . E. . Comp. T. M. Thompson, Grand Scribe N., was introduced and presented as Second Grand Principal, and V. . E. . Comp. Chas. Oakley, P. G. Treasurer, as Third Grand Principal, and after prayer by the Acting Chaplain, M. . E. . Comp. R. O. Thompson, they were obligated, installed, proclaimed and saluted.

The Grand Scribe E. stated that letters conveying hearty congratulations had been received from the Grand Chapters of South Australia and New South Wales, and the District Grand Chapter of Queensland, E. C., and the congratulations of the sister Grand Chapters were tendered by the representatives thereof then present.

Hearty congratulations were also tendered by Comp. the Hon. C. E. Davies, P. Z., Tasmania.

The M. . E. . First Grand Principal briefly thanked the Grand Chapters of South Australia and New South Wales, and the District Grand Chapter of Queensland, E. C.; also the representatives of other sister Grand Chapters, for their hearty congratulations.

All business being ended, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample, Ancient and Solemn Form.

VIRGINIA.

Sixty-one Chapters.

5,564 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia held its One Hundred and First Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Richmond, October 27th, commencing at 8 o'clock P. M., when after prayer by Comp. H. F. W. Southern, Acting Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

All the Grand Officers were present,—The M.°. E°. Comp. John Henry Fisher, Grand High Priest, presiding; the R.°. E°. Comp. James Braxton Blanks being Grand Secretary. There were also in attendance nine Past Grand High Priests, seven District Deputies, Grand Lecturer Hubard and his Assistants, twenty-three Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, fifty-five Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled, and the Representatives of forty Constituent Chapters. There were also a large number of visitors present.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver his Address, a brief welcome to the Companions assembled to observe, by their presence, the one hundred and first anniversary of the Grand Chapter of Virginia, and he submitted the death roll of the jurisdiction, on which was inscribed the names of seventy-seven beloved members of the several Constituent Chapters, paying to each, as his name was read, the tribute of sincere fraternal affection. Of other jurisdictions he said: "The call has come to many Grand Chapters, and the list is long."

The report of Grand Lecturer Hubard is certainly out of the usual routine of duty required of that official, the performance of which seems to have required of him labor on the generally exempted periods of nights and Sundays. As chairman of the Committee on Credentials, his duties must have been arduous, and we think Grand Lecturer Hubard honestly entitled to the freedom of the jurisdiction of old Virginia during the remaining years of his life in Virginia.

The Representatives of other jurisdictions present were called up, and the M.°. E°. Grand High Priest most cordially welcomed the Grand Representatives to this our one hundred and first Convocation, and invited them to participate in the labors, joys and festivities of the occasion, and requested them to extend to their several Grand Jurisdictions the fraternal regard and best wishes of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia.

We are pleased to note our Companion Jeffries as on the roster of those "present and accounted for."

A large number of visitors were present at every session of the Convocation.

The Grand High Priest-elect named the appointed Grand Officers, and all were duly installed or reinvested and inducted into their respective offices.

The M.°. E.°. Comp. Wm. James Hubbard was reappointed Grand Lecturer, and E.°. Comp. C. A. Nesbitt, Correspondent.

The jewels prepared for presentation at this Convocation were placed in the hands of M.°. E.°. Comp. James E. Alexander, who, calling to the East our beloved Past Grand High Priests, Comps. W. L. Jeffries, John T. Carter and John H. Fisher, presented each with a beautiful gold jewel as a token of esteem and love from their Companions of the Grand Chapter. The touching and eloquent words of Companion Alexander awakened a responsive echo in the hearts of his fellow Companions, who rejoiced at the opportunity afforded them of giving to our beloved Companions a tangible evidence of their esteem.

Each of the Companions thus honored responded in graceful manner to this renewed evidence of appreciation of their services by the Grand Chapter.

Most Worshipful Joseph William Eggleston, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, being present, was escorted to the East and introduced to the Grand Chapter by M.°. E.°. William James Hubbard, Past Grand High Priest and Grand Lecturer. The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest extended to our honored Companion a most cordial and fraternal welcome, which was gracefully acknowledged by the Grand Master.

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest announced the appointment of District Deputies for each of the eighteen districts.

The minutes of the second day's proceedings of the One Hundred and First Grand Annual Convocation were read and approved, and after prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain, E.°. Comp. H. F. W. Southern, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia was closed in Ample Form to convene in the Masonic Temple in the city of Richmond, Va., on the fourth Tuesday in October, A. D. 1909, A. I. 2439, it being the 26th day of the month, at 8 o'clock P. M., unless sooner convened by the M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests of Virginia held their Annual Convention in Masonic Temple, Richmond, October 28, 1908, at 3 o'clock P. M.,—M.°. E.°. Comp. William J. Hubbard, President; E.°. Comp. James B. Blanks, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Twenty-two Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Pristhood in Royal Arch Masonry.

A business address was delivered by President Hubard, in which he paid affectionate tribute to the remembrance of eight Excellent Companions who had passed to rest during the year, and he directed memorial pages in the Journal to be set apart and devoted to a record of their Masonic history and virtues. He also reported the anointing of twenty-four Companions during the year while in the discharge of the duties of Grand Lecturer.

The Recorder reported the financial condition of the Grand Council, and his report was approved.

At the election of officers for the ensuing year the present Companions were re-elected.

Several Companions favored the Council with short addresses, alluding to the very impressive manner in which the Order had been conferred at this session, one of the most enjoyable ever held, and most cordially welcomed our Companions who for the first time participated with us in the beautiful ceremonies of our Holy Order.

The Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report, by E.°. Comp. Chas. A. Nesbitt, is a paper of sixty-five pages, in which a general review of the Capitular world is set forth. California is noticed in its Fifty-third Annual, under the direction of Grand High Priest Hughes, and as we were at that time devoting most of our time and energies to reconstruction, there was little room for experimental speculation.

WASHINGTON.

Twenty-eight Chapters. 2,626 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Washington held its Twenty-fourth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Tacoma.

The Companions were called to order at 10 o'clock A. M., and there being several vacant stations, the Grand High Priest appointed E.°. Comp. Thomas P. Hastie, Grand King. E.°. Comp. William O. Nicholson, Grand Scribe, and the M.°. E.°. Comp. William A. Fairweather, Grand Chaplain. There were present eleven Past Grand High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-seven Constituent Chapters.

A portrait of M.°. E.°. Comp. Francis B. West, Grand High Priest, appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The R. E. Grand Secretary read a communication from Comp. Abraham L. Miller, Grand King, regretting his inability to be present owing to business which called him out of the State. Also from Comp. Fred J. Elsensohn, Grand Scribe, stating his inability to be present, owing to the serious illness of his mother.

Having named the committees, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver his address. After a welcome and greeting to the Companions assembled in honor of the Twenty-fourth Annual Convocation, he said:

"We have met to deliberate upon the transactions of the past and devise means for the advancement of Capitular Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction, for the coming Masonic year, and may the guiding hand of the Supreme Grand High Priest lead us and direct us in our deliberations."

He reported the death roll of the jurisdiction, on which was inscribed the names of thirty-seven beloved Companions who had passed to rest, and in sympathy with sister Grand Jurisdictions he dropped, in spirit, his sprig of acacia over the many eminent and distinguished Companions from Alabama to Wisconsin who had been called home during the recess. Among this band of veterans we note the names of three of California's Most Excellent and beloved Companions, M. E. Comps. Blackmer, Myrick and Tuttle. God give them rest!

His visitations were few, and when compared with his "intentions," not worth mentioning.

Companion Blalock reported the following summary of the work of the year:

"The annual dues of all Chapters have been paid. A synopsis of the annual returns show 267 exalted, 84 admitted, 22 reinstated, 23 new Chapter U. D., 25 dimitted, 65 dropped for N. P. D., 37 died; giving a total membership, including Pacific and Carnation Chapters U. D., of 2626, and a net gain for the year of 269. All but four of the Chapters show a gain in membership. Everett, No. 24, being first, with a gain of 33."

The Grand Secretary presented a petition in regular form for a dispensation to form a Chapter at Prosser, and on motion and vote the same was referred to the incoming Grand High Priest, and should a dispensation issue and the Constitution and By-Laws of this Grand Chapter be complied with to the satisfaction of the Grand High Priest, that a charter be granted them.

The Grand High Priest-elect having named the appointed Grand Officers, all were installed by the retiring Grand High Priest.

In naming the standing committees he appointed R. E. Comp. Blalock Correspondent to succeed himself.

The Grand High Priest then expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred in being elected to that high office, and with the assistance of the proper officers the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Washington was closed at the hour of 7:15 o'clock P. M.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Order of High Presthood for Washington met in Annual Convention in Masonic Temple, Tacoma, June 19, 1908,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Horace W. Tyler, President; the E.°. Comp. Edward R. Hare being the Recorder. A goodly number of Excellent Companions and visitors from other jurisdictions were present.

Sixteen Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

The Treasurer and Recorder reported the financial condition of the Convention, and their reports were approved.

The present officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Comp. Yancey C. Blalock writes the Correspondence for Washington. His present report is a paper of 146 pages, giving a comprehensive summary of the Capitular world, its progress and present condition. To make up his conclusions he examined and reviewed forty-six Grand Bodies in the American States and the Dominion of Canada.

His review of California was of the Fifty-third Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Hughes, a period when we were engaged, practically all the time, "mending our fences." However, we thank Companion Blalock for kind words and favorable comment.

M.°. E.°. Comp. Robert L. McCroskey, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. Yancey C. Blalock, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

WEST VIRGINIA.

1907-1908.

Thirty-six Chapters.

4,474 Royal Arch Masons.

The Thirty-seventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of West Virginia was held in the Masonic Temple of Parkersburg, November 12, 1907,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Joseph C. LeSage, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. David K. Reed, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with nine Past Grand High Priests, were present, and all the Chartered Chapters, with two under dispensation, were represented. There were also present the Representatives of twenty-four other Grand Jurisdictions.

Portraits of Grand High Priest LeSage and his successor, M.°. E.°. Comp. Tom G. Strickler, appear on the opening pages.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest delivered an interesting address of twenty pages.

We note also a portrait in this number of the Journal of M. E. Comp. Jere A. Miller, who was Grand High Priest in 1883-84.

The Report on Correspondence by E. Comp. J. D. Baines is an excellent paper of seventy-six pages. He reviews California in its Fifty-second and Fifty-third Convocations.

The Order of High Priesthood was conferred upon eleven Companion High Priests by M. E. Comp. Hiram R. Howard, President.

This Grand Royal Arch Chapter held its Thirty-eighth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Fairmont, November 10, 1908,—The M. E. Comp. Tom G. Strickler, presiding; Past Grand High Priest David K. Reed being the Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with eleven Past Grand High Priests, were present. We note also that all the Chapters, thirty-six, were represented, together with twenty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

A portrait of Grand High Priest John W. De Veber appears on the opening page, and another of M. E. Comp. William G. Bennett, who was Grand High Priest in 1886-87, in the body of the Journal; also an "In Memoriam" of Comp. Henry Byron Baguley, Royal Arch Captain, who died in 1908.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form and Grand High Priest Strickler read the Annual Address. In it he gave the assembled Companions a cordial welcome and hearty greeting to the pleasures and labors of the Thirty-eighth Annual Convocation. With words of fraternal affection he dropped his sprig of acacia upon the last resting-places of beloved Companions of the jurisdiction who had passed to rest. He made no reference to matters without the jurisdiction.

The Grand Secretary made the following reference to California and the Relief Fund in his report:

"About September 1, 1908, I received from Comp. William A. Davies, Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of California, a check for the sum of $157.96, which is explained as follows: The amount of money received for the benefit of the earthquake sufferers from Masonic sources exceeded their needs, and they decided to return the excess amount to the donors, pro rata, according to the amounts given. This is our share. This, of course, will appear in the financial reports, but the reason I make more extended mention of it here is, the question was raised as to whether it should be kept in the Grand Chapter funds or again disbursed, pro rata, to the various Chapters who gave it. I thus present it and suggest that it be referred to the Finance Committee for further report."

The Grand Lecturer reported the condition of the Chapters visited in the discharge of his duties.

Very little new business was brought before the Grand Chapter for its consideration.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by M.°. E.°. Comp. H. R. Howard, E.°. Comp. J. M. McConihay acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The retiring Grand High Priest, M.°. E.°. Comp. Tom G. Strickler, was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel by the M.°. E.°. Comp. David K. Reed.

M.°. E.°. Comp. David K. Reed, as chairman of the Committee on Obituaries, made an excellent and feeling report, closing with these lines:

"By the returns received from our Subordinate Chapters, I am informed that thirty-five of our beloved Companions throughout this Grand Jurisdiction have passed within the 'Great White Veil' during the past year.

"They have ceased, one by one, from their labors,
So we clothed them in garments of rest.
And they've entered the Chambers of Silence;
God will do for them now what is best."

"I recommend that the usual Memorial pages be set apart for their names also."

Grand Chapter voted its thanks to Orient Chapter, No. 9, for its reception and kind attentions bestowed on the officers and members during the present Convocation.

The Grand Chapter was then closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Order of High Priesthood in West Virginia assembled in the Masonic Temple, Fairmont, November 10, 1908,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Hiram R. Howard, President; E.°. Comp. David K. Reed being Recorder, and a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Sixteen Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

The Recorder and Treasurer submitted their reports and they were considered and approved.

The present officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The present report is a very able one by M.°. E.°. Comp. John D. Baines. It is a splendid summary of the present condition of the Capitular world, boiled down and shrunk to fit a paper of seventy-five pages. For some unexplained reason California is not in it. We regret it for good companys sake; but better luck next year.

M.: E.: Comp. John W. De Veber, Grand High Priest; R.: E.: Comp. David K. Reed, Grand Secretary. Correspondent, M.: E.: Comp. John D. Baines, Charleston.

WISCONSIN.

Eighty Chapters.

8,533 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Chapter of Wisconsin held its Fifty-eighth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Building, Milwaukee, February 18, 1908,—The M.: E.: Comp. Homer B. Hubbell, Grand High Priest; the R.: E.: Comp. William W. Perry, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present and all the Chapters were represented. There were also present eighteen Past Grand High Priests, and the Representatives of thirty-three other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

Having named the standing committees the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

After a brief welcome and cordial greeting to the Fifty-eighth Convocation, he reported the condition of Capitular Masonry in Wisconsin as most satisfactory.

Under the head of Necrology he said:

"Through the bounteous mercy of the Great I Am no alarms have sounded at the inner door of this Grand Chapter during the past year, and the officers and permanent members are permitted to survive in an unbroken circle.

"The low-twelve bell, however, has tolled the passing of 112 Companions of our subordinate Chapters who have wrought in the quarries and presented specimens of their skill to the Grand Master Overseer. Let us hope in every case that these specimens may prove to be good work, true work, square work, such as is wanted for the building. The Committee on Obituaries will later offer a loving tribute to their memory."

He also reported the death roll of sister jurisdictions and paid a sympathetic tribute to the Eminent Companions whose names were inscribed thereon..

He reported his visitation of fourteen of the Constituent Chapters and described the courtesy and cordiality of his reception by the Companions. He reported no important decisions, although he answered many inquiries about the laws and usages.

Grand Secretary Perry reported the following summary of the work of the year:

Total amount of due for 1907.....	$4,047.00
Membership January 1, 1907.....	8,009
Membership January 1, 1908.....	8,533
Net gain	524
Exalted	696
Affiliated	113
Reinstated	20
Died	112
Dimitted	139
Chapters reporting this Convocation	77
Chapters represented this Convocation	77
Past Grand High Priests present.....	18
Representatives of sister Grand Chapters present.....	33

The Journal also reports the conferring of the Order of High Priesthood on thirteen High Priests-elect.

The Grand Lecturer submitted an interesting report.

The Committee on Obituaries, Comp. Wm. Davy Thomas, chairman, made a feelingly eloquent report, closing with the following lines:

"This life is but the vestibule to the endless life beyond the tomb. Here, death, early graves, broken columns, frustrated purposes, pain, bereavement, sorrow—out of this chaos shall come to the penitent, believing soul life, sainthood, heaven. Here only we struggle, suffer, agonize; yonder we rest, wear the crown and shout the paean of victory. It is better farther on: farther on no tears dim the eyes, nor sorrow blanch the cheek, nor pain pierce the heart. Farther on it shall be all Life, Light, Love, and Joy. Farther on, we trust our tired feet shall touch the streets of the New Jerusalem—Home at last and peace and love shall pour themselves forever more into our souls. Till then, adieu, Comrades and Companions, of our earthly pilgrimage!"

A beautiful Past Grand High Priest's jewel was presented to the Junior Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Comp. Jno. Frimshaw, by the Grand Secretary on behalf of the Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Thomas Jefferson Pereles, M. E. Comp. Rock J. Flint acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Order of High Priesthood for Wisconsin assembled in Convention in Masonic Building, Milwaukee, February 18, 1907, at 2 o'clock P. M.—The M. E. Comp. Samuel Wright, President; E. Comp. Wm. W. Perry being the Recorder.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Thirteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

The Recorder submitted his report of the finances of the Convention, which was approved.

The present officers were re-elected and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The veteran M. E. Companion William C. Swain, now a leading official of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, is the writer of Correspondence for the Grand Chapter of Wisconsin. His report is a review of forty-eight Capitular Grand Bodies, and is an intelligent summary of the condition of that branch of Masonry in America.

In it he reviews California in its Fifty-second and Fifty-third Annuals, embracing the time of our great tribulation. We are pleased to assure Companion Swain that at present writing we are convalescent, with the hope of complete recovery.

M. E. Comp. David Harlowe, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Wm. W. Perry, Grand Secretary. M. E. Comp. Wm. C. Swain, Correspondent.

CONCLUSION.

This report has been so lengthened and "hardened" by the writer's ill health and an unusual arrival of the Journals of the Grand Bodies of Capitular Masonry, that we will cut our conclusion short by concluding, and with all good wishes to our co-workers, we bid them a fraternal good-bye.

WM. A. DAVIES,
For the Committee.

Recapitulation.

Present all of the Grand Officers except the Grand Scribe and Grand Royal Arch Captain.

Fifteen Past Grand High Priests.

The officers, their proxies, or the duly accredited representatives of 84 chartered Chapters.

Delegates from the three Chapters under dispensation.

Ninety-seven Past High Priests and Thirty Grand Representatives of other Grand Chapters near this Grand Jurisdiction.

Of the 94 Chapters on the roll 87 were represented; the absentees being Merced No. 12, Naval No. 35, Donner No. 39, Woodland No. 46, Tulare No. 71, Ferndale No. 78 and Oxnard No. 86.

The report was concurred in.

Grand Chapter was then opened in Ample Form, the excellent music furnished being a feature of the ceremonies.

Opening Prayer.

Oh, Thou Supreme Eternal High Priest of the Universe, Our Lord God Jehovah Forever! We bend beneath Thine own illimitable arch of the heavens above us, and implore thy blessing upon all the Officers and Companions of this Grand Royal Arch Chapter of California, assembled before Thee, in this our Fifty-sixth Annual Convocation.

We thank Thee for this day in our National and Masonic history. Our country's altar was sprinkled with the blood of our Brethren, 135 years ago this day, at Lexington and Concord, which, under Washington at last, through the Red Sea of Revolution for Liberty, Union and Independence raised us up into a nation of free men.

We thank Thee that sixty years ago this day our faithful Brothers and Companions, though few in numbers, met and organized the M. W. Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of California, from whose bosom this Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons sprang.

Though four years ago this day our Temple and habitations were destroyed by earthquake and fire, Thou gavest a Tabernacle in which to worship Thee; and in Thine own fullness of time we shall assemble in our Temple rebuilt and erected to Thee, and as of yore dedicated to the memory of Zerubbabel, thy chosen servant of old.

And so we come to Thee in Faith and Hope, trusting in Thy love and mercy, for Thou hast declared that Thy Word shall not return unto Thee void. Guide us in our counsels and bless the work of our hands, and Thy Name shall have all the praise and glory forever. Amen!

The General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of the United States being in waiting, an escort was formed of Past Grand High Priests and M.'. E.'. Companion Nathan Kingsley conducted to the East and introduced by M.'. E.'. Companion W. Frank Pierce.

Grand High Priest Monroe:—"On behalf of the Grand Chapter of California I bid you a most cordial welcome to this session. You have journeyed far to visit us on this occasion, and we truly appreciate the high honor conferred and hope your stay with us will be one of much pleasure.

"Kindly allow me to escort you to a seat and present you with the gavel of authority."

General Grand High Priest Kingsley:—"It affords me sincere pleasure to be with you on this occasion. It is the first time I have traveled across the Rocky Mountains, and I find in this comparatively new portion of our glorious republic the same men, having the same kind of hearts, beating with the same kind of enthusiasm, and enjoying the same blessings of liberty,—the same blessings which are conferred upon Royal Arch Masons, and upon Masons in general, as are enjoyed and conferred wherever the Masonic Institution may be found, and it is now world-wide.

"While I look about me and see this great city and the great country which has developed during the last sixty years,—for your history dates back only sixty-one or sixty-two years,—and when I find what has been accomplished by man, when I learn that sixty years ago the first Chapter of Freemasons was organized in this city and state, when I realize that these cities which I have seen along the Pacific Coast have grown in that period of time,—or many of them at least,—I marvel indeed at the genius and industry of man.

“I return you the gavel which you so generously placed in my hands, and at some period later during this session of your Grand Chapter, I may have something further to say to your Companions.”

The reading of the minutes of the last Annual Convocation was dispensed with, printed copies being at the disposal of the Companions.

The Grand High Priest then named the regular committees.

The roll of Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions near the Grand Chapter of California was then called: the Companions responding were assembled west of the Altar, received with the Grand Honors, heartily welcomed by M.' E.' Comp. Monroe and invited to seats in the East.

The Grand High Priest then read the following address:

To the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of California.

COMPANIONS: Through the beneficence of the Supreme Grand High Priest of the Universe, we are permitted to again assemble in Annual Convocation, and I take pleasure in extending to you a most fervent and fraternal greeting and a cordial welcome to the Fifty-sixth Annual Convocation of this Grand Chapter. This session should be extremely pleasant and enjoyable, and we should feel highly honored, for we are being visited by M.' E.' Nathan Kingsley, General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, under the authority of which this Grand Body acts. May his visit be one of much pleasure and interest to himself, as we know it will be one of much benefit and profit to us, and we trust he will carry home with him fond memories of California, and especially of this Grand Body.

I can truly congratulate you on the excellent condition of Chapter affairs at this time. The year has been one of peace and harmony, and we have enjoyed the usual prosperity and growth.

Before proceeding with a recital of my official acts, as required by our Constitution, let us pause and offer up thanks for our preservation and the manifold blessings bestowed on us during the past year. Also let us pay a tribute to the memories of our honored Companions who have answered the call from life's labor to eternal refreshment in the world beyond.

On August 1, 1909, Past Grand High Priest Adolphus Hewel, of Modesto, answered the last summons. He was Grand High Priest of this Grand Chapter in 1895-96. He was one of the most able and learned Masons of this State; author of our present Constitution. I have not the ability to frame words eulogizing in a proper manner the worth of this wise, worthy and distinguished Companion. I will therefore pass it to more competent hands and refer it to our honorable Committee on Necrology.

On the afternoon of May 8, 1909, R. V. E. Franklin Henry Day, Grand Treasurer of this Grand Chapter, was discovered prostrate on the floor of his office in an unconscious, paralyzed condition, from which state he never recovered, finally passing away March 16, 1910.

He was Grand High Priest of this Grand Chapter in 1890-91, and Grand Treasurer from 1893 until August, 1910; Grand Lecturer from 1900 to 1905.

He was one of the most active, energetic, competent, learned and beloved Masons in our Grand Jurisdiction. Masonry seemed to occupy his entire nature, and his happy, jovial disposition and entertaining wit enlivened all occasions where he was present. Our Order has indeed suffered a distinct loss in his taking off.

Several Past High Priests and Companions of the Chapters throughout the jurisdiction have been taken during the year, and "In Memoriams" have been received from other Grand Jurisdictions of their dead. In remembrance of these Companions, memorial pages will be inserted in our Proceedings and fitting tributes paid to their memories by the Committee on Necrology.

My first official act was the signing of the Charters of East Gate Chapter, No. 103, and La Purissima Chapter, No. 104.

I approved and took charge of the bonds of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, and now place the same in the hands of the Committee on Finance.

On August 30th, after consulting with the Grand Council, I appointed M. V. E. Comp. W. Frank Pierce, Grand Treasurer, for the reasons as stated in the following letter:

SAN FRANCISCO, Monday, August 30, 1909.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of California.

COMPANIONS: The mental and physical condition of our Grand Treasurer, R. E. Comp. Franklin Henry Day, continues to be such that he is incapacitated from performing the duties of that office, and the statements of his physicians lend no encouragement to our hopes of a change for the better.

Feeling that the interests of Grand Chapter demand some action at this time, to insure the proper care and control of its funds and property, and that under existing conditions an emergency has arisen calling for the exercise of the prerogative of the Grand High Priest in the premises, I do hereby declare said office vacant and appoint and commission Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Comp. W. Frank Pierce, to fill the office thus vacated, and possess all the powers and perform all the duties of Grand Treasurer of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of California, until the next Annual Convocation thereof.

Witness my signature with the seal of our Grand Chapter and the attestation thereunto of our Grand Secretary, this 30th day of August, A. L. 5909, A. Inv. 2439, A. D. 1909.

[SEAL]

GEO. H. MONROE,

Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons
of the State of California.

Attest: WM. A. DAVIES,
Grand Secretary.

Copy of Resolutions with attestation of Secretary offered by Alameda Chapter, for approval by Grand High Priest.

Hall of Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M.

Alameda, Cal., December 10, 1909.

W. A. Davies, Grand Secretary, R. A. M., Cal.

DEAR SIR AND COMPANION: At a regular meeting of the above Chapter, held on November 12, 1909, the following resolutions were offered, and on motion duly carried. A copy of same were ordered printed and sent to each member.

Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M.,

Alameda, Cal.

At a regular meeting of Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M., held November 12th, the accompanying resolutions were offered and will come up for final action December 10th.

You are requested to be present.

Fraternally yours,

OSWALD LUBBOCK,

Secretary.

Resolved: That any member, upon the payment of the sum of one hundred dollars, to this Chapter, may become a life-member thereof, shall receive a certificate to that effect, and be forever freed from dues.

Resolved: That by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a stated meeting, this Chapter may remit the fee for life membership.

Resolved: That all moneys received from Life-Memberships, from and after the adoption of this resolution, shall be kept in a separate fund, to be known as "The Life Membership Fund," and that said fund shall be separately invested, and that only the income thereof shall be available for current expenses of the Chapter.

And on motion duly carried a ballot was taken on the adoption of the resolutions as read, number present and voting were 40, including the Excellent High Priest.

Ballots counted: Ayes, 21; Noes, 19; total, 40, and the Excellent High Priest declared the motion carried.

A ballot was then taken on the following resolutions:

Resolved: That each and every Companion who has served Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M., as Excellent High Priest for one or more terms, be and is, hereby made a life member of this Chapter, and that the fee for same be, and is, hereby remitted.

Resolved: That each and every Companion who shall in future serve Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M., as Excellent High Priest, shall, on expiration of his term as Excellent High Priest, become a life member of this Chapter, and that the fee for same shall be remitted.

J. Q. MESSER,

JNO. GERBER.

Number present and voting, forty, including the Excellent High Priest.

Ballots counted: Ayes, 20; Noes, 20.

The Excellent High Priest insisted on casting the deciding vote, which was Aye, and declared the resolutions carried.

Witness my hand and seal of the Chapter on this, the 10th day of December, A. I. 2439, A. D. 1909.

Fraternally submitted,

OSWALD LUBBOCK,

Secretary.

To which I replied as follows:

FRESNO, CAL.

Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M.

December 18, 1909.

Oswald Lubbock, Secretary, Alameda, Cal.

DEAR COMPANIONS: Yours of December 10th, containing resolutions adopted by you on same date, was forwarded to me by Grand Secretary William A. Davies for my approval, and after careful consideration I must report that I can not approve same.

My reasons for this action are as follows: Resolutions marked Nos. 1 and 3 are virtually amendments or additions to your By-Laws and affect your revenue clause, and as such comes under the regulation of Sec. 6, Art. 2, Part 2 of our Constitution, and would require the approval of at least two-thirds of the members present for its adoption. The report of the vote shows only a bare majority. If you wish to amend your By-Laws to allow life memberships, proceed with it in the regular manner and call it an amendment to your By-Laws, and if it carries according to above provisions of our Constitution I will be pleased to approve same.

Resolutions marked Nos. 2, 4 and 5 are in conflict with your By-Laws, which fix the dues of each member of the Chapter at a stated amount, and it is illegal to remit future dues, and accrued dues can only be remitted for charitable reasons. This is in conformity to a decision rendered by the Jurisprudence Committee, April 17, 1901, which is as follows:

"To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California.

"Your Committee on Jurisprudence, to whom was referred the matter of 'remitting dues for all time to come' of certain Companions, report as follows: That in remitting dues for all time to come the action of the Chapter was illegal and void. Dues of Companions may be remitted after such dues have accrued, for charitable reasons only, but can not be remitted for a future time or period."

I trust I have made my reasons for this action clear and plain to you and with kind regards and fraternal greetings I am,

GEO. H. MONROE,
Grand High Priest.

VISITATIONS.

1909.

May 4. Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93, in company with Companion Ascroft, Grand Lecturer.

May 10. San Diego, No. 61, with Companion Ascroft.

May 11. Fullerton, No. 90, with Companion Ascroft.

June 30. Union meeting at Oakland, which was participated in by Oakland, No. 36; Alameda, No. 70; Berkeley, No. 92, and Alcatraz, No. 82. This was one of the most enjoyable Royal Arch meetings it has been my pleasure to attend, and I heartily recommend these union meetings, because you become acquainted with Companions from other places and it broadens one and makes you realize there are other Chapters beside your own.

July 1. Mission Chapter, No. 79, San Francisco.

December 21. Sacramento Chapter, No. 3, with the assistance of Companion Ascroft I installed the officers of said Chapter.

December 28. Hanford Chapter, No. 74. Installed the officers.

October 27. Kern Valley, No. 75, with Companion Ascroft.

January 11. Cyrus Chapter, No. 15, Yreka. With Companion Ascroft's assistance I installed the officers of this very active and prosperous Chapter.

January 18. Fresno, No. 69. Installed the officers of said Chapter.

CONSTITUTED.

1909.

May 7. With the assistance of Grand Lecturer Ascroft I constituted La Purissima Chapter, No. 104, and installed the officers.

May 12. With the assistance of Companion Ascroft I constituted East Gate Chapter, No. 103, and installed the officers.

In all of my visitations I was received in a cordial and companion-like manner and treated with all the courtesies due the exalted office I occupied. California hospitality is second to none.

PUEBLO, COLO., September 29, 1909.

Mr. George Hays Monroe, Grand High Priest, Grand Chapter, R. A. M., Fresno, Cal.

M. V. E. V. SIR AND COMPANION: I respectfully report that I had the pleasure to attend the thirty-fifth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Colorado, held at Masonic Temple, in the city of Denver, Thursday, September 23, 1909.

As the Representative of your Grand Chapter I was cordially received and welcomed to this Convocation by M. V. E. V. George D. Kennedy, Grand High Priest, and requested to convey to you and your Grand Chapter fraternal greetings and best wishes of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Colorado.

The reports of the Grand Officers show the Royal Craft to be in a very prosperous condition, with peace and harmony prevailing.

Fraternally yours,

IRVING W. STANTON.

October 25, 1909.

Mr. Irving W. Stanton, Pueblo, Colo.

E.°. SIR AND COMPANION: Yours of September 29th received, and it is with much pleasure I note the cordial and courteous welcome extended you, as the Representative of our Grand Chapter, by the Grand Chapter of Colorado at their Annual Convocation, held September 23, 1909. On behalf of the Grand Chapter of California, I wish to thank you most sincerely for your services as our Representative and trust and hope that the cordial and friendly relations existing between these two Grand Bodies may continue indefinitely.

I am, most sincerely and fraternally, yours,

GEORGE HAYS MONROE,
Grand High Priest.

EXCHANGE OF COURTESIES.

May 21, 1909, at the request of M.°. E.°. M. Earl Brackett, Grand High Priest of Michigan, I asked Keystone Chapter, No. 56, San Bernardino, to confer the degrees upon a Brother elected in Michigan. Keystone Chapter kindly consented to do the same.

On February 4, 1910, pursuant to a communication received through the office of R.°. E.°. Comp. A. W. Johnston, Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of Washington, D. C., from Anacosta Chapter, No. 12, of that Grand Jurisdiction, I requested Riverside Chapter, No. 67, to confer the Degrees of P. M., M. E. M. and R. A. Mason upon a Brother Mark Master of the former Chapter.

December 23, 1909, at the request of M.°. E.°. John B. Hershey, Grand High Priest of Colorado, I asked Kern Valley Chapter, No. 75, of Bakersfield, to confer the degrees upon a Brother elected in Colorado but removed to California before being able to receive them.

Through the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts I was requested to ask some Chapter in Los Angeles to confer the M.°. E.°. Master and R. A. degrees upon a Brother who had received the M.°. M.°. and P. Master degrees in Massachusetts. In accordance therewith I asked East Gate Chapter, No. 103, and they readily assented.

March 1, 1910, at the request of Granite Chapter, No. 94, of Loyalton, Sierra County, I asked M.°. E.°. Edward E. Kittle, Grand High Priest of Oregon, to kindly request Eugene Chapter, No. 10, to confer the degrees upon a Brother of the first named Chapter. He at once replied that the request had been made and the work promised, done.

April 12th I received a communication from Grand High Priest James C. Doughty, of Nevada, stating that Reno Chapter, No. 7, of Reno, Nev., had petitioned him to ask me to request Granite Chapter, No. 94, of Loyalton, Cal., to grant waiver of jurisdiction on a Brother, so that he might petition Reno Chapter for the degrees. I immediately replied that I would do so, and I have made the request, which no doubt will be granted.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I recommend that the Committee on Jurisprudence and By-Laws be requested to prepare a new uniform Code of By-Laws, and that the adoption of the same by the Subordinate Chapters of this Grand Jurisdiction be mandatory.

I recommend that a resolution be prepared and presented to this Grand Body by the Committee on Finance, to embody the following meaning: It shall be the duty of the Grand Council of this Grand Chapter to attend each Triennial Convocation of the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America, and that their actual expenses (meaning railroad fares and hotel bills) be paid by this Grand Body.

DECISIONS.

I have been asked a number of questions, all of which have been answered by references to our Constitution, except the following: "Has our Chapter the right to confer all of the Chapter degrees upon a candidate who was elected in another Chapter, and at the request of the Chapter in which he was elected, but received none of the degrees in said Chapter?"

I ruled yes.

"Would our Chapter be entitled to the fees?"

I ruled, "not unless the requesting Chapter voluntarily relinquishes it, as it was done only as an act of courtesy."

MEMBERSHIP.

Total membership last year, 11,008. Total membership now, 11,471. A gain for the year of 463.

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER.

I had the pleasure of attending the Thirty-fourth Triennial Convocation of the General Grand Chapter, held in Savannah, Georgia, November 10 to 14, 1909. Held in that beautiful old, historic city, which boasts of having the first Royal Arch Chapter in the United States, in the very heart of the noted hospitable South, how could it be other than an extremely pleasant, profitable and enjoyable meeting? The duties of the General Grand Chapter are not arduous, and its legislation is, as its name implies, general and not specific.

There you meet some of the brightest and most interesting Masonic minds in the entire country, and it is a profitable pleasure to mingle and become acquainted with them.

Past Grand High Priest W. Frank Pierce and myself were the only Representatives from this Grand Jurisdiction, and we (I mean he) came very nearly securing the next Triennial Convocation for San Francisco. Earlier effort I have no doubt would have brought it here. However, I think it will be easy to secure it next time if this Grand Body so desires.

There was no legislation of a startling nature transacted at the session, but I forget we have the head of the Most Excellent Grand Body with us, and I am afraid I have assumed his prerogative already in speaking so much on this matter, but I can say that not only the members of the General Grand Chapter were royally entertained but our ladies were also most cordially received, taken care of and given every possible attention. I advise all of you who can to attend the Thirty-fifth Triennial Convocation, which will be held in Indianapolis, Ind., in 1912. It will surely be an event of much pleasure, interest and benefit to you.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

March 25th I appointed the following Special Committee to look after the entertainment of our M. E. General Grand High Priest Kingsley while here: Comps. W. Frank Pierce, Edward Sharp Valentine, Frederick Lawrence Wight, Henry Ascroft, John Tonningson, Edwin Warren Tucker, Wm. P. Filmer, Chas. Pinkerton MacLafferty. We will not thank them yet, but will wait until Companion Kingsley reports how they performed their duty.

In conclusion permit me to assure you of my appreciation of the high honor conferred upon me by being placed in this exalted position. I am sensible of my shortcomings and my inability to discharge the duties of this high office in a manner which I think they should be, but I enjoy the satisfaction of not being able to question my sincerity in my Masonic work.

I desire to thank our distinguished and learned R. E. Grand Secretary and the able Assistant Grand Secretary for their valuable advice and assistance so willingly rendered me at all times during the past year.

Companions, I desire to call your attention to just one matter in regard to our Chapter life: We are bound together for the purpose of mutual help and assistance. Were we perfect and without sin we would not have need of this and kindred fraternities. We pledge ourselves to help and assist one another while traveling through this life, and I do not believe any fault can be found with the material assistance and charity rendered by this Order, but in many, many cases Companions need and require moral assistance, support and charity more than silver or gold. Words of encouragement, advice, admonition and reproof are in many cases absolutely invaluable. We are not frank enough with one another in telling of faults and actions which need correction. Let us consider each other's welfare as our own, as near as possible, and be ever ready to offer a helping hand and give words of encouragement and hope to an erring Companion, ever remembering that we all have faults. "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone."

My term of office is about closed and I take my place in the ranks with much satisfaction, only asking for opportunity to work and assist in advancing the cause of our beloved Order.

May God in His infinite mercy bless this Grand Body and all of its Subordinate Bodies, and carefully preserve and protect you all, is my prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. H. MONROE,
Grand High Priest.

The address was referred to a special committee of five, and the Deputy Grand High Priest appointed as such committee Companions Charles Lewis Patton, Harry Clifton Knox, William Edwin Oliver, Harvey Johnson Sarter and Herbert Lincoln Breed.

The Grand Lecturer announced that he had invited the officers of Berkeley Chapter, No. 92, to exemplify the Mark Master's degree at two o'clock.

On motion of Past Grand High Priest Wm. M. Petrie, the election of officers was made the special order, to take place immediately after the exemplification of the Mark Master's degree.

The Grand Chaplain was requested to furnish a copy of the opening prayer to the Grand Secretary, the same having been ordered published in the journal of proceedings.

The reports of the Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer and Grand Lecturer were then read and referred as follows: of the Grand Secretary and Grand Lecturer to the committee on address of Grand High Priest, for segregation and reference; that of the Grand Treasurer to the Finance committee.

Grand Secretary's Report.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

The fifty-fifth year of the Grand Chapter has passed into history, with its duties and responsibilities, and we have assembled today to review the results and devise new plans for our future guidance.

The year has been one of quiet progress, yielding a healthy increase in membership with corresponding results.

In due time following the close of the last Annual Convocation the proceedings were published and distributed to our own Chapters, the Grand Chapters of other jurisdictions, to Representatives, Correspondents and the libraries of the country, as provided by law and usage.

The M. E. Grand High Priest issued during the year Dispensations for the forming and opening of three new Chapters, to be located at Ontario, San Mateo, and Quincy.

And each will probably apply for a Charter perpetuating its existence during the present Convocation.

He having also reported among his official acts the constituting of Chapters under Dispensation theretofore issued, special Dispensations issued and By-Laws approved, no further mention thereof is necessary.

Referring to finances, the receipts of the Grand Secretary's office have been as follows:

Received for annual dues.....	$8,527.60
Dispensations for new Chapters.....	270.00
Charter fees	120.00
Special Dispensations	30.00
Diplomas	5.00
Ascroft's Monitors	318.00
Sundries	109.00
Total	<hr/> $9,379.60
All of which has been paid to the Grand Treasurer.
Interest received on deposits by the Grand Treasurer.....	$ 233.32
Making total receipts.....	<hr/> $9,612.92

STATISTICS.

The annual reports of the ninety-one Chartered Chapters for the year ending January 31st, 1910, show a membership of 11,366.

A gain since our last report of 358.

The three Chapters U. D. report a membership April 1st of 105, making the total gain for the past year 463, with a membership of 11,471.

Fraternally submitted,

WILLIAM A. DAVIES,

Grand Secretary.

Grand Lecturer's Report.

April 19th, 1910.

To the Most Excellent Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California:

With profound gratitude for the divine blessings bestowed upon our beloved Order during the past year, I have great pleasure in presenting for your consideration a resume of the "Work" accomplished since the last Convocation of this Grand Chapter; the session terminated, I forthwith commenced a revision, and ordered printed a second edition of the Chapter Rituals; only thirty-four of the first edition of one thousand being left on hand.

Written requests from book stores for these Rituals were refused in every instance, same not being for public sale.

INSTALLATION OF GRAND HIGH PRIEST.

1909.

May 4. Witnessed the installation of our Grand High Priest, Companion George Hays Monroe, in Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93; the retiring Grand High Priest, Companion W. F. G. Moebus, officiated as Installing Officer, assisted by Past Grand High Priest Companion Charles Lewis Patton, as Master of Ceremonies; about thirty Companions being present, including five Grand Officers of this Grand Chapter.

LA PURISSIMA CHAPTER, NO. 104.

May 7. Assisted Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe in Constituting La Purissima Chapter, No. 104, and installing the Officers; C. K. Hardenbrook, High Priest, and an enthusiastic corps of Officers, will undoubtedly make a success of this new Chapter at Lompoc.

SAN DIEGO CHAPTER, NO. 61.

May 10. Held School of Instruction in San Diego Chapter; Officers anxious to perfect themselves in the Ritual "Work;" everything satisfactory and harmonious; our Grand High Priest, Companion George H. Monroe, being present on this occasion.

FULLERTON CHAPTER, NO. 90.

May 11. Accompanied by Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe, visited Fullerton Chapter; witnessed the conferring of the P. M. and M. E. M. Degrees; High Priest Companion Albert S. Bradford displayed sufficient proficiency in his rendition of the Ritual to warrant his appointment as Deputy Grand Lecturer for the Sixteenth District, and I so appointed him.

EAST GATE CHAPTER, NO. 103.

May 12. Assisted Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe in constituting East Gate Chapter, No. 103, and installed the Officers, this Chapter organized June 18th, 1908, with twenty members, has at this date a membership of sixty-five.

CROWN CHAPTER NO. 72.

May 13. Held School of Instruction in Crown Chapter at Pasadena; Past Grand High Priest, Companion Charles J. Willett being present, and a large attendance of members; Officers deserving the highest commendation for proficiency in the rendition of the Ritual "Work;" a pleasant feature of the occasion being the presentation to the Chapter of a full set of Officers' Regalia, a gift from the High Priest and Royal Arch Captain, Companions Earl W. Nay and John W. F. Binderheim.

AZUSA CHAPTER NO. 80.

May 14. Witnessed the conferring of the Royal Arch Degree in Azusa Chapter; High Priest Companion George Martens is the right man in the right place, and is ably supported by an enthusiastic corps of Officers. I regret exceedingly having to leave before the ceremonies were concluded, owing to the lateness of the hour in commencing, and the time of the last train precluding my remaining; however, it is my intention to repeat the visit under more favorable circumstances.

OAKLAND CHAPTER NO. 36.

June 16. Witnessed the conferring of the Royal Arch Degree in Oakland Chapter, all the Officers showing commendable proficiency; the Principle Sojourner, Companion M. P. Hill, meriting special mention for his exemplification of the Symbolic Journey.

NAVAL CHAPTER NO. 35.

June 19. By special invitation I accompanied the Officers of San Francisco Chapter, No. 1, together with Grand Royal Arch Captain Companion Thomas O. Heydenfeldt and Assistant Grand Secretary Companion Thomas A. Davies to Vallejo on a fraternal visit to Naval Chapter, the Officers of San Francisco Chapter conferring the Royal Arch Degree with their usual ability, in the presence of delegations from Benicia, Antioch, Suisun, Vacaville and Napa; all of whom were entertained by Naval Chapter in a manner not to be surpassed.

MISSION CHAPTER, NO. 79.

June 24. Witnessed the conferring of the Royal Arch Degree in Mission Chapter, the Officers maintaining their usual proficiency, not only in their "Work," but in their well merited reputation of entertaining their visitors.

OAKLAND CHAPTER, NO. 36.

June 30. At the invitation of Oakland Chapter a joint meeting was held by Alameda, No. 70, Alcatraz, No. 82, Doric, No. 66, and Berkeley, No. 92, at which the Royal Arch Degree was conferred in a very superior manner, Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe and Grand Royal Arch Captain Companion Thomas O. Heydenfeldt being present, also two Past Grand High Priests and about three hundred and fifty Companions; Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley Chapters each furnishing one of the candidates; a very pleasant and instructive evening, due to the untiring and zealous work of High Priest Companion Wallace C. Price, of Oakland Chapter, No. 36.

MISSION CHAPTER, NO. 79.

July 1. Accompanied Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe on a visit to Mission Chapter; there was no "Work" on this occasion, just a social reception to the distinguished visitor.

SAN FRANCISCO CHAPTER, NO. 1.

August 4. Witnessed the conferring of the Mark Master's Degree in San Francisco Chapter, No. 1, the Officers of this, the Mother Chapter, maintaining their usual proficiency.

GRANITE CHAPTER, NO. 94.

August 9. Held School of Instruction in Granite Chapter at Loyalton; only five Officers present, meeting very informal; did the best we could under the circumstances.

ALTURAS. U. D.

August 10. Held School of Instruction for two days, afternoons and evenings, with the Officers of Alturas Chapter, rehearsing the several Capitular Degrees, all of whom were anxious and willing to perfect themselves in the Ritual Work, and with the prospect of the Western Pacific Railroad passing within reasonable distance of their chosen surroundings, the future seems full of promise for the better; the robes purchased by this Chapter from the Grand Chapter were shipped to them on October 18th, 1909. Having full confidence in the integrity of these Companions, and their ability to maintain the standard of Capitular Masonry in Plumas County, I recommend that a Charter be issued to them.

OAKLAND CHAPTER, NO. 36.

August 25. Accompanied the Officers of California Chapter, No. 5, on a fraternal visit to Oakland Chapter to witness the conferring of the Royal Arch Degree; an enjoyable and instructive evening.

MARIN CHAPTER, NO. 102.

Sept. 21. Witnessed conferring of Royal Arch Degree in Marin Chapter, No. 102, all the Officers showing commendable proficiency.

FRESNO CHAPTER, NO. 69.

Oct. 26. Accompanied Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe in an official visit to Fresno Chapter, the Home Chapter of our Grand High Priest; a large number of Companions in attendance; Royal Arch Degree conferred in a very creditable manner.

KERN VALLEY, NO. 75.

Oct. 27. Accompanied Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe in an official visit to Kern Valley Chapter; very good representation of Companions from Tulare and Porterville being present; Royal Arch Degree and instruction in the several Capitular Degrees.

CORINTHIAN CHAPTER, NO. 51.

Nov. 15. Visited Corinthian Chapter at Santa Barbara and witnessed the conferring of the M. M., P. M., and M. E. M. Degrees in the afternoon, and Royal Arch Degree on two "Teams" in the evening; large attendance, including fifteen Companions from Lompoc and three from Ventura, all of whom were well pleased with the instruction received, together with the generous hospitality extended by the Companions of Santa Barbara, voting the time spent a great success, with a sincere desire to repeat the same.

PALO ALTO CHAPTER, NO. 93.

Nov. 30. Visited Palo Alto Chapter; witnessed conferring P. M. and M. E. M. Degrees by Thomas A. Davies.

Dec. 7. Witnessed conferring Royal Arch Degree by Companion Thomas A. Davies, High Priest of Palo Alto, No. 93.

SACRAMENTO CHAPTER, NO. 3.

Dec. 21. Assisted Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe in installing the Officers of Sacramento Chapter, No. 3.

SAN FRANCISCO CHAPTER, NO. 1.

Dec. 22. Witnessed conferring Royal Arch Degree in San Francisco Chapter, No. 1, upon three candidates of Charles Frederick Crocker Chapter, U. D., of San Mateo; all the Officers and members of the last named Chapter attending in a body, and all well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

CYRUS CHAPTER, NO. 15.

1910.

Jan. 11. Assisted Grand High Priest Companion George H. Monroe in installing the Officers of Cyrus Chapter, No. 15, at Yreka; held School of Instruction the following day; all the Officers doing their level best to make the visit agreeable; the attention and generous hospitality extended could not be excelled.

SHASTA CHAPTER, NO. 9.

Jan. 13. Held School of Instruction with the Officers of Shasta Chapter, No. 9, at Redding; High Priest Companion I. J. Johnson can be relied upon to keep this Chapter up to the standard.

SAN DIEGO CHAPTER, NO. 61.

Jan. 17. Witnessed conferring M. M. Degree in San Diego Chapter, the Officers all showing commendable proficiency; are very enthusiastic Masons.

ORANGE GROVE CHAPTER, NO. 99.

Jan. 19. Witnessed conferring M. M. Degree in Orange Grove Chapter, No. 99; very inferior "Work" was done in this Chapter; the Officers were, however, willing to learn, and accompanied me on a visit to their neighbor Chapter, Orange, No. 73, at Santa Ana the following evening, where they had an opportunity of seeing perfect "Work."

ORANGE CHAPTER, NO. 73.

Jan. 20. Witnessed conferring Royal Arch Degree in Orange Chapter at Santa Ana, impressively rendered and letter perfect; large attendance of members and visitors; this Chapter for appointments and "Work" cannot be excelled.

DIXON CHAPTER, NO. 48.

Jan. 25. Installed the Officers of Dixon Chapter and held School of Instruction in the several Capitular Degrees; Officers anxious and willing to learn, but few opportunities to practice.

MARIN CHAPTER, NO. 102.

Jan. 29. Attended the Installation of Officers in Marin Chapter; very pleasant evening's entertainment.

ANTIOCH CHAPTER, NO. 65.

Feb. 5. Installed the Officers in Antioch Chapter; this Chapter had not had any "Work" during the year; the High Priest, Companion John A. Cull, having moved away, not appearing even to install his successor; the new Officers are sanguine of better prospects.

March 9. Held School of Instruction in Berkeley Chapter, No. 92.

March 16. Held School of Instruction in Berkeley Chapter, No. 92.

March 23. Held School of Instruction in Berkeley Chapter, No. 92.

April 13. Held School of Instruction in Berkeley Chapter, No. 92.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Replying to inquiries from our own and other jurisdictions, I have invariably maintained that the "Virtual" Past Master's Degree should be conferred strictly according to the Ritual adopted by the General Grand Chapter, and which is designated as a brief ceremony permitting the candidate to "Pass the Chair" as a qualification for further advancement.

Constitution of the Most Excellent Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons of the State of California, Article II, Section 3: "All Chapters under this jurisdiction, in the conferring of Degrees, must conform to the Ritual adopted by the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, adopted in 1880."

The arguments advanced, that much can be made of this Degree, in the lessons sought to be inculcated, and so forth, are not appreciated by the majority of candidates just entering our portals, totally unacquainted with our laws, customs and usages, and lacking the long experience necessary to qualify an "Actual" Past Master; and only resulting in impressing the novitiate with having furnished those present with a little amusement at the expense of his ignorance, which is abhorrent to an intelligent mind.

The question has been asked, whether two or more candidates in the same Chapter are permitted to select similar Marks; and if not, why not?

Answer: Legally they are not.

Masonic tradition informs us that each Brother was required to select for himself a private Mark, to designate his Work; the lesson inculcated in the selection of a Mark is lost, unless the purpose for which it was originally intended is adhered to as far as it is practicable to do so; therefore, in Speculative Masonry we should endeavor to carry out the same principle, to distinguish our work among our fellow-men; and while it would be impracticable for each Chapter to keep advised of the character of the Marks selected throughout the jurisdiction, and more so throughout the United States; each particular

Chapter can and should see to it that no two or more of their members select similar Marks; exception having to be made, however, in the case of a Companion affiliating with a Chapter, and having his Mark re-recorded.

MILL VALLEY.

October 18th, 1909, I received a copy of petition from fourteen Companions, Royal Arch Masons, residents of Mill Valley, Marin County, for the formation of a new Chapter of Royal Arch Masons at that place, the necessary recommendation for which was denied by Marin Chapter, No. 102, at their stated meeting on October 12th, 1909; these fourteen Companions claim to hold petitions for Capitular Degrees at this date from twenty-two Master Masons, making a total of thirty-six to start with; that said applicants for a Dispensation do not desire affiliation with Marin Chapter, on account of the distance, time and expense involved in holding membership in said Marin Chapter.

Mill Valley claims a permanent population of 4,500.

The Roster of the Grand Lodge shows a membership in Mill Valley Lodge, No. 356, F. & A. M., as follows: 1906, 62; 1907, 86; 1908, 104; 1909, 118—an increase of fifty-six members since 1906.

As these Companions are out of the fold, with an expressed determination to remain in that condition under present circumstances, and it being known to the members of Marin Chapter that preparations for the organizing of said Chapter at Mill Valley were in progress, granting dimitts to newly initiated members with a view of becoming Charter members thereof, and no intimation given that any opposition was contemplated, it is my opinion that the Companions of Mill Valley should be given an opportunity to show their metal; that they be permitted to work under Dispensation for one year, in friendly contention of who best can work and best agree, the Grand Chapter reserving the right to withdraw said Dispensation at the next Annual Convocation, if in their judgment it is deemed advisable to do so.

RITUALS.

Cash received by the Grand Lecturer for Rituals sold by him during the past year $78, which has been paid to the Grand Secretary, together with an itemized account of same.

Number of Rituals in possession of the Grand Lecturer April 1st, 1910, 46.

DEPUTY GRAND LECTURERS.

Companion Elmore Myron Billings, Deputy for the Fourth District, resigned December 10th, 1909; the "smelter fumes at Benicia compelling him to seek a more congenial climate."

Companion Charles C. Van Valkenburgh, Deputy for the Seventh District, reports favorable conditions existing in all the Chapters under his supervision, making special mention of the Secretary's books of Merced Chapter, No. 12, Companion James Leonard's methods in that line being a model of perfection.

Companion William P. Butcher, Deputy for the Eighth District, reports good work in all the Chapters in his district; with one exception, Oxnard, No. 86, having lost during the past year that "fervency and zeal which should actuate all Royal Arch Masons;" Companion Butcher, however, predicts a much brighter outlook for the coming term.

Companion William H. Gaynor, Deputy for the Ninth District, reports all the Chapters in his District as working harmoniously, and the usual amount of interest displayed in advancing the principles of Capitular Masonry.

Companion Harry Horne, Deputy for the Fifteenth District, reports a healthy condition existing in all the Chapters in his District, with the exception of San Jacinto, No. 87, whose Officers appeared to take no interest in their work during the past year; the new Officers, however, Companion Horne predicts, will do much better. He reports Ontario Chapter, U. D., as doing good work and plenty of it, and recommends that a Charter be issued to them.

Companion John G. Bisbee, Deputy for the Tenth District, reports the several Chapters under his supervision as "Holding their own," with Delta, No. 27, in the lead; the last named having exalted fourteen Brethren during the year.

Expenses.

of Grand Lecturer and Deputies incurred in visitations from April, 1909, to April, 1910, were as follows:

Grand Lecturer	$297.35
Chas. C. Van Valkenburgh, Seventh District.....	16.40
William P. Butcher, Eighth District.....	12.50
William H. Gaynor, Ninth District.....	11.60
Harry Horne, Fifteenth District.....	8.60
Total	$346.45

An itemized account of which has been furnished the Grand Secretary.

In conclusion, and in a general sense, Harmony and Prosperity prevail throughout this jurisdiction;—we trust that we are correspondingly thankful, and supplicate a continuation of the Divine Guidance of the Great Ruler of All.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY ASCROFT,
Grand Lecturer.

Grand Chapter was called off until 2 o'clock p. m.

In Grand Chapter.

Afternoon Session, April 19, 1910.

The Grand Chapter called on at 2 o'clock, the Grand High Priest presiding.

A communication was read from the Grand Scribe, R.'. E.'. Companion Leo Youngworth, conveying his regrets and stating that he was unable to be present owing to the illness of his wife.

M.'. E.'. Companion Monroe stated that Grand Royal Arch Captain Excellent Companion Thos. O. Heydenfeldt was also detained at home by reason of his wife's illness, but expected to report later in the day.

The Grand Officers then vacated their several stations and the officers of Berkeley Chapter, No. 92, exemplified the degree of Mark Master. The exemplification proved most entertaining and reflected great credit upon the Companions participating in the work; the officers and members of Grand Chapter showing their appreciation by a rising vote of thanks to Berkeley Chapter.

The Grand Officers resumed their stations and M.'. E.'. Companion Charles Lewis Patton read the report of the special committee on Grand High Priest's address; the report was concurred in and the references made as recommended.

Report of Committee on Grand High Priest's Address.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California:

Your committee, to whom was referred the Grand High Priest's address, have considered that able document carefully, and congratulate the Grand High Priest and this Grand Chapter upon the manner in which our Grand High Priest has performed the duties incumbent upon him in administering the affairs of the Grand Chapter during the year past, and recommends that the thanks of the Grand Chapter be extended to him for his untiring zeal in his work for the good of the Craft; and the committee also recommends:—

That so much of the address as refers to dispensations, decisions, and Alameda Chapter, No. 70, be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence;

That the matter of a Uniform Code of By-Laws be referred to the Committee on By-Laws to formulate such a code and that the code when formulated be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence;

That so much as refers to new Chapters be referred to the Committee on New Chapters;

That so much as refers to finance and the recommendation as to the duty of the Grand Council to attend the triennial Convocation of the General Grand Chapter be referred to the Committee on Finance;

That the part of the address referring to By-Laws be referred to the Committee on By-Laws;

That the portion referring to the appointment of representatives be approved.

The committee joins with the Grand High Priest in regrets for the death of so many of our Companions, and recommends that the part of the address referring thereto be referred to a Special Committee on Necrology, to be appointed.

Your committee has also considered the report of the Grand Secretary and congratulates the Grand Chapter upon the efficient services of this able officer and recommends that the financial portion of his report be referred to the Committee on Finance and that the balance thereof be approved.

Your committee has also had under consideration the Grand Lecturer's report, and desires here to express its high appreciation for his efficient services, and recommends that the thanks of the Grand Chapter be extended to him for the able manner in which he has conducted the affairs of his office.

The committee recommends that his action in printing and distributing the Ritual and his refusal to place it on sale in the book stores be approved.

That his recommendation as to the Degree of Past Master be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence, and that his decisions be also referred to that committee. That his recommendation in relation to the petition of the residents in Mill Valley to form a new Chapter be referred to the Committee on New Chapters, and that the financial portion of his report be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. LEWIS PATTON,
WILLIAM EDWIN OLIVER,
HARRY CLIFTON KNOX,
HARVEY JOHNSON SARTER,
HERBERT LINCOLN BREED.

Committee.

Cryptic Masonry.

On motion of M. E. Companion Henry Sayre Orme it was ordered that a committee of three be named to confer with a like committee which had been appointed by the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters, for the purpose of advancing the interests of Cryptic Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction, and to formulate a plan similar to that adopted by the Grand Chapter and Grand Council of Texas, whereby a petition for the Chapter degrees must be accompanied by a petition for the Council.

Companions Edward Swift West, William Henry Gaynor, and Henry Ascroft, were appointed as such committee with instructions to report at the Annual Convocation of Grand Chapter in April next.

Election of Officers.

The hour for the special order, the election of officers, having arrived, Companions William Preston Butcher, Edward Swift West, and Harry Clifton Knox, were appointed Tellers and the election proceeded with the following result:

M. E. JAMES ROBERT TAPSCOTT, Grand High Priest.

R. E. CHAS. WILLIS NORTON, Deputy Grand High Priest.

R. E. LEO VALTUS YOUNG WORTH, Grand King.

R.'. E.'. WM. WHITTINGHAM LYMAN, Grand Scribe.

R.'. E.'. W. FRANK PIERCE, Grand Treasurer.

R.'. E.'. WILLIAM ABRAHAM DAVIES, Grand Secretary.

On motion, it was ordered that the ballot cast for R.'. E.'. Companion Youngworth, he having received the unanimous vote of Grand Chapter, be conveyed to him by Companion Knox.

At his request, the resignation of M.'. E.'. Companion W. Frank Pierce, as a member of the Committee on Jurisprudence, was accepted by the Grand High Priest.

The Grand Chapter was called off until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Wednesday, April 20th, 1910.

In Grand Chapter.

Asylum of Golden Gate Commandery,

Wednesday, April 20, 1910.

The Grand Chapter was called on at 10 o'clock a. m., the M.'. E.'. Grand High Priest presiding.

The minutes of April 19th were read and approved.

Companion Hugh James Owen moved that the salary of the Grand Organist and Grand Tyler be increased to forty ($40) dollars each per year. Motion was seconded and referred to the Finance Committee, who subsequently reported the same back without recommendation. The motion was carried unanimously.

Companion Wm. Dennison Stephens was appointed a member of the Committee on Jurisprudence to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Companion W. Frank Pierce; Past Grand High Priest Charles Lewis Patton to act as Chairman of said committee.

Companion Henry Ascroft, Chairman of the Committee on New Chapters, presented the following reports:

Reports of Committee on New Chapters.

I.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on New Chapters have made an examination of the books and records of the three Chapters organized under Dispensation during the past year, and find same to be correct in every particular; also that the proficiency of the respective Officers of said Chapters is vouched for by the proper authorities; we therefore make the following recommendations:

That Ontario Chapter, U. D., at Ontario, San Bernardino County, be granted a Charter under the name and number of Ontario Chapter, No. 105.

That Charles Frederick Crocker Chapter, U. D., at San Mateo, San Mateo County, be granted a Charter under the name and number of Charles Frederick Crocker Chapter, No. 106.

That Alturas Chapter, U. D., at Quincy, Plumas County, be granted a Charter under the name and number of Alturas Chapter, No. 107.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY ASCROFT,
ALBERT SUMNER BRADFORD,
WM. PRESTON BUTCHER,
HARRY HORNE,
CHAS. C. VAN VALKENBURGH,
Committee.

The report was concurred in and charters ordered issued under the names and numbers recommended by the committee.

II.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on New Chapters, to whom was referred the question of the advisability of granting a Dispensation to institute a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons at Mill Valley, Marin County, report as follows:

That upon a thorough and impartial investigation, and verbal statements of the parties interested on both sides of the controversy, unanimously submit the following recommendations:

That a Dispensation to form and open a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons and Lodges of the intermediate Degrees, with power to confer the several Degrees thereof, and to receive members by affiliation, be issued to the petitioners.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY ASCROFT,
ALBERT SUMNER BRADFORD,
WM. PRESTON BUTCHER,
HARRY HORNE,
CHAS. C. VAN VALKENBURGH,
Committee.

The report was referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

M.'. E.'. Companion W. Frank Pierce offered the following amendments to the Grand Chapter Constitution, which were referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

Amendments to Constitution.

I.

Resolved, That Article XII, Part I, of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

ARTICLE XII

OF THE GRAND TREASURER.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the Grand Treasurer,

1st. To take charge of and receive all moneys, bonds, stocks, evidences or securities for debt, and other property of the Grand Chapter (except such as is to be kept by the Grand Secretary, as provided in the next Article.)

2d. All moneys shall, from time to time, immediately on receipt thereof, be deposited to the credit of "Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California, Grand Treasurer," in a bank selected as depositary, with the approval of the Grand High Priest, and shall be withdrawn and paid out only on warrants or drafts signed in the name of "Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California," by the Grand High Priest, or, in his absence, by the Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King, or Grand Scribe, together with the Grand Secretary, and countersigned by the Grand Treasurer.

3d. To maintain and keep true and accurate books of account, showing his receipts and disbursements, together with his other transactions, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Grand Chapter, its Officers, and its committees appointed for the purpose.

4th. To attend the Grand Chapter at all its Convocations; to attend the Grand High Priest, or any committee of the Grand Chapter, appointed to act in relation to its fiscal concerns, with all his papers, books, and vouchers, when required.

5th. To report at each Annual Convocation a detailed statement of all his receipts and disbursements, with proper vouchers, for the latter, and to present a full statement of the existing condition of the property and finances of the Grand Chapter.

SECTION 2. He shall receive for his services such compensation as the Grand Chapter may direct.

Respectfully submitted,

W. FRANK PIERCE.

II.

Resolved, That Article XIII, Section 1, Part I, Subdivision IV of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows: .

4th. To collect all moneys due the Grand Chapter, keep a correct account thereof in proper books, open at all times to the inspection of the Grand Chapter, its Officers, and its committees appointed for the purpose; and, from time to time, immediately on receipt thereof, he shall deposit all such moneys to the credit of "Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California, , Grand Treasurer," in such bank as shall, under the provisions of Article XII, be selected as depository, taking duplicate deposit tags or receipts therefor, one to be immediately delivered to the Grand Treasurer, the other to be kept by the Grand Secretary as a voucher. He shall also, with the Grand High Priest or other Officer prescribed in Article XII, sign all warrants or drafts drawn on the funds of the Grand Chapter, under such regulation as may be prescribed by it.

Respectfully submitted,

W. FRANK PIERCE.

III.

Companion Frederick Duke Brandon proposed to amend the Grand Chapter Constitution as follows:

Amend Section 2 of Article I, Part II, by inserting between the words "issue" and "unless," on line six of said section, the words

"except upon a vote of the Grand Chapter," so that the sentence will read: "But no such Dispensation shall issue, except upon a vote of the Grand Chapter, unless the petition be accompanied," etc., etc.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK D. BRANDON.

The proposed amendment was referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence.

Companion William Henry Davis offered the following recommendation, which was ordered printed with the Proceedings.

Recommendation.

I beg leave to recommend for the guidance of the Subordinate Chapters in this jurisdiction that hereafter when the members desire to honor their retiring High Priest by presenting him a testimonial for meritorious service that said testimonial be in form of a Past High Priest's Jewel similar in design to that adopted by this Grand Chapter, the same to be selected in accordance with the amount of money the members of the Chapter set aside for that purpose; that is, the Jewel may be manufactured of gold, silver, gun-metal or any other composition, but whether costly or inexpensive it will always be a distinguishing badge of honor, and being uniform in design will readily be recognized and respected by all Royal Arch Masons.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. DAVIS.

Companion Edward Swift West, for the Committee on Grievances, reported as follows:

Report of Committee on Grievances.

Your Committee on Grievances have had a great deal of hard labor to perform, and as I happen to be chairman of that committee, I have grown old since I came to this session trying to hunt up something to report upon. It was thought at one time that charges might be preferred against the Present or a Past High Priest of Santa Cruz Chapter, simply in order that there might be something for this committee to work upon; but that has proven an utter failure. It is too bad that a committee composed of such fine looking young men as we are have nothing to do at all. That is our report.

Companion West was congratulated on the results of his good work and inability to discover trouble of any kind.

It was ordered that the pay-roll be amended by adding the names of Companions Frederick Wm. G. Moebus and Albert Sumner Bradford.

On motion of Companion Petrie it was ordered that the installation of officers take place at 1:30 o'clock.

The following query, relative to jurisdiction, was read and referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence:

Relative to Jurisdiction on Extension of Town and City Limits.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

COMPANIONS: A question of jurisdiction arises from the following circumstances, upon which the undersigned would like a ruling:

On June, 1908, San Leandro, Alameda County, annexed certain territory on the westerly boundary, including the territory known as Broadmoor. In November, 1909, Oakland, Alameda County, annexed a large territory on the north and east, extending its city limits in one direction to the city line of San Leandro, and including territory known as Fruitvale, Melrose and Elmhurst.

The question is, do the extensions of these political boundaries extend the jurisdictions of the Chapters in San Leandro and Oakland to the new city limits, and also limit the jurisdictions thereto.

H. L. BREED,

High Priest Oakland Chapter, No. 36.

E. W. GRIFFIN,

High Priest Alcatraz Chapter, No. 82.

Companion Charles Lewis Patton, Chairman of the Committee on Jurisprudence, read the reports of that committee.

Reports of the Committee on Jurisprudence.

I.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Jurisprudence, to which was referred certain portions of the Grand High Priest's address, have carefully considered the matters referred to it and report as follows:

We find that the dispensations granted by the Grand High Priest were all properly granted, within the law, and his powers under the Constitution, and we recommend that his action in regard to them be approved.

The decisions submitted by the Grand High Priest as to conferring all the degrees at the request of another Chapter, and as to the disposition of the fees therefor, correctly state the law on the subject, and we recommend that they be approved.

The Grand High Priest's decisions about life membership, the vote necessary for its adoption, and the remission of future dues, rendered in response to the communication of Alameda Chapter, No. 70, R. A. M., are strictly in accordance with our laws in relation to these matters, and we recommend that they be approved.

The committee believes that the Grand Lecturer has correctly stated the law in his suggestions as to the Degree of Past Master and the selection of Mark, and we recommend that his report be approved in these matters.

Relative to the petition of Companions at Mill Valley to form and open a Chapter there, we approve the action of the Committee on New Chapters in that respect, and recommend the adoption of their report.

The committee recommends that the amendments to Articles XII and XIII, Part I, of the Constitution, offered by M. E. Comp. W. Frank Pierce, be adopted.

The committee recommends that the amendment to Article I, Section 2, Part II, of the Constitution, offered by E. Comp. F. D. Brandon, be adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES L. PATTON,
CHAS. J. WILLETT,
WILLIAM D. STEPHENS,
E. M. BILLINGS,
W. J. MOSSHOLDER,

Committee.

The report was concurred in and the several amendments to the Constitution were each unanimously adopted.

II.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Relative to the question of jurisdiction, submitted by Companions H. L. Breed and E. W. Griffin, your committee is of the opinion that each Chapter has jurisdiction over the incorporated city, town or place in which it exists. If more than one Chapter exists in such city, town or place, their jurisdiction is concurrent. The Chapter or Chapters can receive petitions from Master Masons residing in such city, town or place, and also from those residing nearer thereto than to any other Chapter; the distance is to be determined by an air line between corporate limits and not between Chapter Halls.

Consequently, when a change is made in the boundaries of the city, town or place where the Chapter is located, whereby new territory is added, the Chapter or Chapters within the new limits thereof have jurisdiction over all material within the new limits, and the jurisdiction between it or them and other Chapters is governed by an air line between corporate limits.

Applying this to the question before the committee, if the new limits of Oakland and San Leandro coincide the San Leandro Chapter's jurisdiction extends to its corporate limits and the concurrent jurisdiction of the Oakland Chapters extend to the corporate limits of Oakland.

If the boundaries do not coincide, the jurisdiction is controlled by the air line distance between the new corporate limits of Oakland and San Leandro.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES L. PATTON,
CHARLES J. WILLETT,
E. M. BILLINGS,
W. J. MOSSHOLDER,
WILLIAM D. STEPHENS,
Committee.

The report was concurred in.

Companion James Bestor Merritt reported for the Finance Committee as follows:

Reports of Finance Committee.

I.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Finance have carefully examined the books of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer and find the same kept in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution. We find that the statement of receipts and disbursements, as shown by their several reports, is correct and that the warrants are authorized by Grand Chapter.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. MERRITT,
WM. HENRY DAVIS,
WM. M. PETRIE,
RAYMOND H. WILLCOX,
BRENTON J. METZLER,
Committee.

The report was concurred in.

II

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your committee on Finance recommend the payment of the following bills:

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. MERRITT,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,
WILLIAM M. PETRIE,
RAYMOND H. WILLCOX,
BRENTON J. METZLER,
Committee.

The report was concurred in and the bills ordered paid.

III.

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Your Committee on Finance offer the following resolution and recommend its adoption:

Resolved, That a warrant be drawn on the Grand Treasurer for $300 in favor of the Order of High Priesthood, to cover the balance due on paraphernalia.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. MERRITT,
WILLIAM HENRY DAVIS,
WILLIAM M. PETRIE,
RAYMOND H. WILLCOX,
BRENTON J. METZLER,
Committee.

The resolution was adopted.

IV.

 Committee.

Companion Wm. D. Stephens presented the report of the Committee on Fire and Earthquake History in a book of 77 pages, and the report was unanimously adopted.

On motion it was ordered that the Grand Secretary include a copy of the report in the packages of Proceedings of this Convocation, to be mailed by him to the Grand Officers, Past Grand Officers, Chapters and the 44 survivors of the earthquake and fire.

On motion of Companion Edward Swift West it was ordered that 200 extra copies of the photographs issued by the committee be printed and mailed to the Grand Officers, Chapters, etc., by said committee.

On motion of Companion James Robert Tapscott, a unanimous rising vote of thanks was given to Companion Stephens, Chairman of the Committee, for his untiring efforts in securing the material contained in the report.

Grand Chapter called off until 1 o'clock.

In Grand Chapter

Afternoon Session, April 20, 1910.

The Grand Chapter called on at 1 o'clock, the Grand High Priest presiding.

The survivors of the earthquake and fire in attendance at the Fifty-second Annual Convocation of Grand Chapter, April 18th, 1906, were called to the west of the Altar, facing the east, received with the Grand Honors, and welcomed and eulogized by the General Grand High Priest, M.°. E.°. Companion Nathan Kingsley; an eloquent response was made by Companion Charles Fayette Lott.

Past Grand High Priest M.°. E.°. Companion W. Frank Pierce, on behalf of the Royal Arch Masons of the State of California, presented M.°. E.°. Companion Kingsley with a beautiful loving cup, in token of the warm personal regard established in those who had the pleasure of meeting and knowing him intimately, and as a memento of his pleasant sojourn with the officers and members of Grand Chapter.

M.°. E.°. Companion Kingsley in accepting the testimonial expressed in glowing terms his appreciation, with the assurance that the memory of his visit to Grand Chapter and his associations with the Royal Arch Masons of California would remain with him always.

R.°. E.°. Companion James Robert Tapscott, Deputy Grand High Priest, responded on behalf of Grand Chapter, voicing the kindly sentiments of all present in a few well chosen words.

The Officers, elected and appointed, were then installed by M.°. E.°. Companion Nathan Kingsley, M.°. E.°. Companion George Hays Monroe officiating as Master of Ceremonies.

Presentation.

The retiring Grand High Priest was the recipient of a beautiful jewel as a token of the esteem of the Royal Arch Masons of California, and in recognition of faithful and efficient service during his term of office. The presentation was made by Past Grand High Priest M.'. E.'. Companion Frederick Wm. G. Moebus, who paid an eloquent tribute to the retiring Grand High Priest.

In response M.'. E.'. Companion Monroe expressed his appreciation of the sentiment and fraternal feeling expressed in the presentation of this testimonial, assuring the Companions of his warmest personal regards and wishing them all God speed and a happy return to their homes and families.

No further business appearing, the minutes of the session were read and approved, and Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

Grand Secretary.

GRAND CONVENTION
OF THE
ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD
OF THE
STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Fifty-first Annual Convocation.

The Fifty-first Annual Convocation of the Anointed High Priests of California assembled in Golden Gate Commandery Hall, 2135 Sutter Street, Wednesday evening, April 20, 1910, at 7:30 p. m., being at the close of the Fifty-sixth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter.

All of the Officers were present except Excellent Companion Franklin Henry Day, Grand Recorder, who was called by death on the 16th day of March.

The following Excellent Companions were in attendance:

Benjamin B. Cartwright, Thompson W. Drullard, Wm. Henry Davis, Dozier Finley, John C. Gerichs, Jerome B. Richardson, Edward Swift West, Thomas Jonathan Wilson, Philip A. Gonsolus, James Bestor Merritt, George Hays Monroe, William E. Oliver, Samuel H. Wagener, Charles Joseph Willett, and Adolphus Leigh Fitzgerald, of Nevada Council, Carson City.

At the request of the President Excellent Companion William Henry Davis assumed the Recorder's duties.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with as the Proceedings of the preceding Annual were published in the Grand Chapter Journal, of which the Excellent Companions had been furnished with printed copies.

Order of High Priesthood.

Before placing the business before the Convention the Most Excellent President announced the death of Excellent Companion Franklin Henry Day, who had been detained at the Lane Hospital since May 8, 1909, passing through a "living death" from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy, with its death-dealing associate, paralysis, until the end came on the 16th of March.

Our beloved Excellent Companion received the Order of High Priesthood in the Convention of 1881. He has been a faithful student in searching among the old ruins for the hidden secrets of Royal Arch Masonry, as evidenced by his attainment of the exalted positions of Grand Lecturer, Excellent High Priest and Most Excellent Grand High Priest. He met death as our Grand Recorder. It is needless for me to exalt the Masonic virtues of Excellent Companion Frank Day. You who knew him require no voucher of his ability or his faithful discharge of what ever duties were assigned him. He has left us forever; God give him the rest he has so well deserved.

The conferring of the Order of High Priesthood being the business before the Convention, the following named Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and separately set apart to the Order of High Priesthood, each Companion being presented with a copy of the Blessed Book of the Law, as a symbol of his consecration:

FREDERICK DUKE BRANDON, of San Francisco Chapter, No. 1.
 FREDERICK ALBERT ROBLIN, of Sacramento Chapter, No. 3.
 FREDERICK WERNER, of Sutter Chapter, No. 11.
 LEWIS BOYD WILCOXON, of Washington Chapter, No. 13.
 IRVING LAMPHRY RYDER, of Howard Chapter, No. 14.
 HENRY JOHNSON SARTER, of Cyrus Chapter, No. 15.
 ELMER HOOVER MCGOWEN, of Stockton Chapter, No. 28.
 HARRY WALTER SLOTTERBECK, of Los Angeles Chapter, No. 33.
 EDGAR MILES WILSON, of Santa Cruz Chapter, No. 38.
 FREDERICK JOHN LENNARD, of Temple Chapter, No. 41.
 CHARLES ELLSWORTH KENYON, of Corinthian Chapter, No. 51.
 LENNAN BENTON BREWSTER, of Antioch Chapter, No. 65.
 EDWIN WARREN TUCKER, of Mission Chapter, No. 79.
 EDMUND WAITE GRIFFIN, of Alcatraz Chapter, No. 82.
 JESSE CHILTON, of Fullerton Chapter, No. 90.
 OCTAVIUS KING CLOUDMAN, of Berkeley Chapter, No. 92.
 THOMAS ABRAHAM DAVIES, of Palo Alto Chapter, No. 93.
 WALTER HENRY DUNCAN, of Granite Chapter, No. 94.
 JAMES THOMAS PEASGOOD, of Santa Monica Bay Chapter, No. 97.
 JOSEPH C. GILLESPIE, of Redondo Chapter, No. 101.
 CHARLES BAKEWELL ATTERBURY, of Marin Chapter, No. 102.
 HARRY CLIFTON KNOX, of East Gate Chapter, No. 103.
 CHAS. K. HARDENBROOK, of La Purissima Chapter, No. 104.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being in order, on motion of E.'. Companion Wilson the stations as at present filled were continued for the ensuing year. The official list is as follows:

M.'. E.'. Comp. WILLIAM ABRAHAM DAVIES.....President
 E.'. Comp. HENRY SAYRE ORME.....Vice-President

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

ADOPTED APRIL, 1910

Part 1, Article XII, amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE XII

OF THE GRAND TREASURER.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the Grand Treasurer,

1st. To take charge of and receive all moneys, bonds, stocks, evidences or securities for debt, and other property of the Grand Chapter (except such as is to be kept by the Grand Secretary, as provided in the next Article.)

2d. All moneys shall, from time to time, immediately on receipt thereof, be deposited to the credit of "Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California,, Grand Treasurer," in a bank selected as depository, with the approval of the Grand High Priest, and shall be withdrawn and paid out only on warrants or drafts signed in the name of "Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California," by the Grand High Priest, or, in his absence, by the Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King, or Grand Scribe, together with the Grand Secretary, and countersigned by the Grand Treasurer.

3d. To maintain and keep true and accurate books of account, showing his receipts and disbursements, together with his other transactions, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Grand Chapter, its Officers, and its committees appointed for the purpose.

4th. To attend the Grand Chapter at all its Convocations; to attend the Grand High Priest, or any committee of the Grand Chapter, appointed to act in relation to its fiscal concerns, with all his papers, books, and vouchers, when required.

5th. To report at each Annual Convocation a detailed statement of all his receipts and disbursements, with proper vouchers for the latter, and to present a full statement of the existing condition of the property and finances of the Grand Chapter.

SECTION 2. He shall receive for his services such compensation as the Grand Chapter may direct.

Part 1, Article XIII, Section 1, Subdivision 4th, amended to read as follows:

4th. To collect all moneys due the Grand Chapter, keep a correct account thereof in proper books, open at all times to the inspection of the Grand Chapter, its Officers, and its committees appointed for the purpose; and, from time to time, immediately on receipt thereof, he shall deposit all such moneys to the credit of "Grand Chapter, R. A. M., of California, Grand Treasurer," in such bank as shall, under the provisions of Article XII, be selected as depository, taking duplicate deposit tags or receipts therefor, one to be immediately delivered to the Grand Treasurer, the other to be kept by the Grand Secretary as a voucher. He shall also, with the Grand High Priest or other Officer prescribed in Article XII, sign all warrants or drafts drawn on the funds of the Grand Chapter, under such regulation as may be prescribed by it.

Part 2, Article I, Section 2, amended by inserting on line six between the words "issue" and "unless" the words "except upon a vote of the Grand Chapter," so that said section will read:

SEC. 2. Upon the petition of nine (9) or more Royal Arch Masons in good standing, the Grand High Priest may issue a Letter of Dispensation, authorizing them to form and open a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons and Lodges of the intermediate degrees, with power to confer the several degrees thereof, and to receive members by affiliation. But no such Dispensation shall issue, except upon a vote of the Grand Chapter, unless the petition be accompanied by a recommendation from the nearest (the term "nearest," whenever used in this Constitution, in relation to a Chapter, means: by geographical measurement or in an air line) Chapter to the location of the proposed new one, which shall certify to the good standing of each of the petitioners, and that a suitable place of meeting has been provided; that the establishment of such new Chapter will conduce to the good of the Order; and by a certificate from the Grand Lecturer (if there be one) or from a High Priest whom the Grand High Priest is satisfied is well skilled in the Royal Art, declaring: that the High Priest proposed in such petition is well qualified to properly confer all the Chapter degrees and deliver the lectures thereunto appertaining; nor, unless the petition shall also be accompanied by a certificate of withdrawal of each petitioner from the Chapter of which he was last a member. Such Dispensation shall terminate on the first day of the month in which the next succeeding annual Convocation shall be holden, and then shall be returned to the Grand Secretary, together with the book of Records, the By-laws and returns of the new Chapter to that date.

Necrology

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

In the words of an Eminent Mason, "Everything summons us to die." The daily experience of our lives teaches us the uncertainty of human life and the certainty of death; Nature, as if she were regretful of the kindness she had done, as often declares to us and causes us to be warned that she cannot long permit us to retain this little quantity of matter which she has loaned, and which cannot long remain in the same hands; but shall be eternally in transition. She has need of it for other forms; she demands its return for other works; but then Love and Memory beseech us to "Forget not the dead who have loved, who have left us,

Who bend o'er us now from their bright homes above,
But believe, never doubt, that God who bereft us
Permits them to mingle with Friends they still love."

And so we live, as time goes on, waiting for the summons; perhaps with confidence, perhaps with fear—knowing that "There is a stream that we all must cross,

The River of Death so cold;
When the lights of earth are seen no more,
And the green moss turns to mould;
When a hand of ice shall push our bark
Out on the swelling tide;
When friends will leave us alone in the dark,
Alone on the waters wide.
But why should I fear and falter?
Or cry with bated breath?
I shall go and speak to the Captain
When I cross the River of Death."

Since the last Annual Convocation the names of two Most Excellent Companions have been stricken from the rolls of the living, and we have but the loving remembrance of their companionship and faithful work to console us for their absence—Past Grand High Priests and Most Excellent Companions Adolphus Hewel and Franklin Henry Day have passed to eternal rest, and the following memorials have been placed of record in the Archives of the Grand Chapter:

Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons
of the State of California

Office of the Grand High Priest

Fresno, August 10th, 1909

IN MEMORIAM

Most Excellent Companion

Adolphus Hewel

Grand High Priest of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of California from April, 1895 to April, 1896.

To the Officers and Members of Grand Chapter and Chapters within its Jurisdiction:

DEAR COMPANIONS: It is with extreme sorrow that we announce the death of M.°. E.°. Companion Adolphus Hewel, which occurred at his home in Modesto, Sunday morning, August 1st, in his 74th year.

Our beloved Companion was born in the city of Hanover, Germany, on May 9th, 1835. Attended school at the Lyceum, or High School, in Hanover, until he was 13 years old, when he went to sea. This life was followed four years, when he bade adieu to the Old World and settled in the United States, taking up his residence in California in the year 1852, and where he has since remained.

He studied law and soon attained an enviable position in his chosen profession. From 1866 to 1868 he was County Clerk of Stanislaus County, and from 1880 to 1885 was its Superior Judge. In sterling citizenship, in the profession of the law and as a wise and accomplished Freemason, Judge Hewel has long been known.

He married Miss Maria Fisher, a daughter of Jacob Fisher, of Schoharie County, New York, on the 22d day of November, 1871. A son and two daughters were born to them, all of whom are living.

His Masonic record is as follows: He was initiated an Entered Apprentice Mason in Stanislaus Lodge, No. 206, at Modesto, Stanislaus County, February 13th, 1874; passed to the degree of Fellow Craft February 20th, and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason February 27th. In 1875 Brother Hewel was appointed Senior Deacon; in 1877 elected Senior Warden, and in 1878 Worshipful Master of Stanislaus Lodge.

Companion Hewel received the Capitular degrees in Modesto Chapter, No. 49. He was advanced to the honorary degree of Mark Master May 26th, 1875, elected and presided as Past Master June 23d, received and acknowledged a Most Excellent Master September 15th, and exalted to the august degree of Royal Arch Mason November 24th. From 1876 to 1878 he was Principal Sojourner, and from 1879 to 1885 the Excellent High Priest of Modesto Chapter.

Companion Hewel has long been a very active member of the Grand Chapter of California. He became Grand Scribe in 1892, and after passing the stations of Grand King and Deputy Grand High Priest, was elected Most Excellent Grand High Priest in 1895. He officiated with dignity and during his term of office, Royal Arch Masonry was in a flourishing condition.

Sir Knight Hewel was constituted a Companion of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, created a Knight Templar and Knight of Malta in Stockton Commandery, No. 8, at Stockton, in 1876, and was a member of that Commandery at the date of his death.

In the various bodies of Freemasonry, Companion Hewel has not only taken an active part, but as a worker he excelled; and to a thorough understanding of the significance of the mysteries and philosophy of our Ancient Craft is added a courteous bearing and the scholarly attainments and learning of the Judge. As a presiding officer he was possessed of those graces and amenities which make the communications and convocations pleasant and instructive. Such Masons as our departed Companion reflect credit on and bring honor to the fraternity.

His funeral was held in Modesto, Wednesday forenoon, at 10 o'clock; citizens of all classes testifying to their love and esteem for their departed friend and brother by accompanying his remains to their final resting place.

A kind husband and father; a genial, pleasant friend, loved and esteemed by all who knew him. His long and faithful service as an officer in the various Masonic bodies is a sufficient testimony of his zeal and fidelity as a Mason, and of the regard in which he was held by his Brethren.

Let this memorial be read at the first stated convocation of each Chapter of this Grand Jurisdiction after its receipt, and the altar, jewels and banners draped in mourning for a period of thirty days thereafter.

"Sleep on, O friend! until thy waking day;
And ever we who loved thy presence here
Will keep for thee, through changes manifold,
A tender memory, growing with the years."

GEO. H. MONROE,
Grand High Priest.

Official:
WM. A. DAVIES,
Grand Secretary.

Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons

IN MEMORIAM

Franklin Henry Day

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

Among the constantly recurring lessons of the uncertainty of human life and the certainty of death, probably none has more forcibly illustrated the solemn warning contained in the Great Light—"In the midst of life we are in death"—than in the calling from among his companions of our beloved Brother, Companion and Frater.

FRANKLIN HENRY DAY has passed to his eternal rest. While in the apparent enjoyment of his usual health, engaged at his desk in the discharge of a Secretary's duties, the summons came, the pen dropped from his nerveless hand, and he fell as one dead to the floor of his office. The shock came on the 8th day of May, 1909. He was conveyed without delay to the Lane Hospital, where every means were taken to restore him to conscious life, without success, and after nearly ten months' endurance of a living death, on the 16th of March, 1910, the end came and our beloved Companion passed to rest.

FRANKLIN HENRY DAY was born in the town of Gowanda, Cattaraugus County, New York, on the 5th day of January, 1827, and after the usual experience of an American boy, at home and at school, he came to California in 1853, and soon engaged in the business of his life, assuming the discharge of the duties of Secretary or Cashier in the business of assaying metals and banking.

In his domestic life he was twice married; two sons were born to him; but death, "the never to be denied" master, removed from him all his family associations. His general health has been excellent; of robust form and military bearing, six feet in height and of excellent proportions, with a swinging, elastic step that denoted prompt action, the surprise has been greater at his "taking off" than in cases of death where conditions were different.

But our beloved Brother, Companion and Sir Knight has passed as a shadow. Without premonition he was summoned and obeyed the call and in remembrance of his good companionable life, we quote the lines he often repeated to the writer:

"The good Knight sleeps where the daisies nod,
And the clover hangs its head;
Where the wild bird comes and the wild bees hum above his lonely bed.
He fought the fight, he kept the faith,
His fame shines bright and clear,
And his memory lives in loving hearts
Who will hold it ever dear.
The Good Knight sleeps."

Our Frater's Masonic history was as follows:

He was made a Mason in California Lodge, No. 1, in 1870. He served as Master thereof in 1877-78.

He was Exalted in California Chapter, No. 5, in November, 1870; served as High Priest four years, and was its Secretary at the time of his death.

Was greeted a Royal and Select Master in 1885; was Grand Master of the Grand Council in 1887, and Grand Treasurer at the time of his death.

He received the Orders in California Commandery, No. 1, in 1871; served as Commander thereof in 1884.

Was elected and served as Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter in 1890 and was Grand Treasurer thereof from 1893.

He received the degrees of the A. and A. Scottish Rite up to and including the 32d degree in 1880.

Was for many years a member of the Masonic Hall and Masonic Cemetery Association and Recorder of the Convention of Anointed High Priests.

Companion Day was also the senior member of a Quartette of Knights Templar who formed years ago an association for the cultivation of closer relations by the observance of the birthdays of each other. Brother Day, the senior member, was born in January, 1827;

Bro. William A. Davies in February, 1827;

Bro. Jerome B. Richardson in June, 1827; and

Bro. Jacob H. Neff in October, 1830.

The oldest and the youngest have been summoned—the others await the call.

The funeral ceremonies were held at Golden Gate Commandery Hall, under the auspices of California Lodge, No. 1, of which he was the Secretary, escorted by California Commandery, No. 1, of which he was a Past Commander, and was largely attended by Masons of every Rite and Degree.

Fraternally submitted,

WILLIAM A. DAVIES,

SAMUEL H. WAGENER,

CHARLES F. LOTT,

Committee on Necrology.

San Francisco, April 30, 1910.

In addition to the Most Excellent Companions named, sixteen E. V. Companions, Past High Priests, have passed to the great beyond.

I have friends in spirit land—
Not shadows in a shadowy band.
Not others but themselves are they,
And still I think of them the same
As when the Master's summons came.

—Whittier.

RULES OF ORDER

OF THE

Grand Chapter of California

Rule 1. When the Grand Chapter shall have assembled, the Grand Secretary shall call the roll of its members, and if a sufficient number of the Chapters are represented, the Grand Chapter shall be opened. The Grand High Priest shall then appoint a Committee on Credentials, and no further business shall be transacted until after its report shall have been received.

Rule 2. After the reception of the Report on Credentials, the proceedings of the preceding Convocation shall be read by the Grand Secretary, unless their reading be dispensed with; the Address of the Grand High Priest, and the reports of the Deputy Grand High Priest, Secretary, and Grand Treasurer, shall be presented, and appropriately referred, in the order here named; and the Grand High Priest shall appoint the regular committees, to whom all papers then in the hands of the Grand Secretary, requiring such reference, shall be at once referred. The Committee on Correspondence shall then present its annual report.

Rule 3. After the business of the Convocation is thus begun, the regular order for each session, during its continuance, shall be as follows:

1. Reading of the minutes of the last session.
2. Report of the Committee on Credentials.
3. Reception and action upon, or reference of, petitions, memorials and appeals.
4. Reports of Regular and Special Committees, and action thereupon.

5. Motions, resolutions, and other business.

Rule 4. All reports submitted, all petitions, memorials, or appeals presented, and all orders, motions, or resolutions, shall be in writing, and shall be read by the Grand Secretary, before any action is taken thereupon.

Rule 5. No motion to reconsider shall be entertained, unless made during the same session when the question proposed to be reconsidered was decided, nor unless such motion be made by one who voted with the majority upon that question.

Rule 6. When a day and hour shall have been named for the election of Grand Officers, such election shall, at that time, take precedence of all other business, unless the Grand Chapter, by a two-thirds vote, shall otherwise direct.

Rule 7. These rules shall only be suspended by unanimous consent, but may at any time be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

OF THE

Grand Chapter of California

1 Each Chapter under this jurisdiction shall pay, in addition to its annual dues, the sum of twenty-five cents for each Royal Arch Mason borne upon its roll at the date of its annual report; which additional assessment shall be used as a fund to defray the actual expenses of transportation of one delegate from each Chapter represented at the Annual Convocations of the Grand Chapter—the same to be apportioned by a special committee appointed for that purpose.

2. From and after the first day of September, 1874, no High Priest of a Chapter under this jurisdiction shall be installed, unless he shall present to the installing officer a certificate from the Grand Lecturer, or some Companion known by the Grand Lecturer to be skilled in the work, that he is qualified to properly confer all the Chapter degrees and deliver the lectures thereunto appertaining; and the installing officer shall forward such certificate to the Grand Secretary.

3. That at all future Convocations of this Grand Chapter, no member thereof shall receive his per diem and transportation expenses from the Representative Fund until such Convocation shall have been regularly closed.

4. That whenever the charter or dispensation of any subordinate Chapter of this jurisdiction shall have been destroyed by fire, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Grand Secretary, on satisfactory proof of such loss, to issue a duplicate charter or dispensation to such Chapter without charge.

5. At each Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter, at 2 o'clock p. m., on the first day thereof, the Grand Lecturer shall exemplify before the Grand Chapter one or more of the degrees, or cause the same to be done by Companions selected by him for that purpose.

6. It shall be a Masonic offense for any Royal Arch Mason to appear at any meeting of his Chapter, or in the Chapter hall, or in public, in a state of intoxication, and any Companion so offending, shall, on conviction thereof, be expelled from all the rights and privileges of Royal Arch Masonry.

7. That the Past Grand High Priests of this Grand Chapter be allowed the same mileage and per diem as the Grand Officers thereof

8. That commencing with the Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation, at each annual convocation of Grand Chapter, upon the conclusion of the installation ceremonies, a Past Grand High Priest's Jewel, be presented to the retiring Grand High Priest; the cost of the Jewels to be paid from Grand Chapter funds, and not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars each. That the Grand Secretary is hereby authorized and directed to procure such testimonial and have the same ready for presentation at the proper time.

REPORT

OF THE

COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE

For the Year Ending April, 1910

To the M. E. Grand Chapter of California:

The undersigned, Chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, respectfully submits herewith the report of that committee for the year ending with the present Annual Convocation.

WILLIAM A. DAVIES.

San Francisco, March 31, 1910.

ALABAMA.

Sixty-two Chapters.

3,190 Royal Arch Masons.

A portrait, in memoriam, of M. E. Comp. Rob't William Southerland, Grand High Priest, who passed to rest October 11, 1909, appears on the opening page.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama held its Eighty-third Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Montgomery, December 6, 1909,—R. E. Comp. John B. Christian, Deputy and acting Grand High Priest, presiding; the R. E. Comp. George A. Beauchamp, Grand Secretary. All the officers except Grand High Priest were present, with seven Past Grand Officers and thirty-one Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Fifty-eight of the sixty-two Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, and the acting Grand High Priest addressed the Companions as follows:

"COMPANIONS: Under the blessings of the Almighty Father we assemble in our Eighty-third Grand Annual Convocation. By the dispensation of the same Almighty Father I have been called to assume the gavel at this Grand Annual Convocation by reason of the death of our lamented Grand High Priest, Robert W. Southerland, who died at his home in the city of Mobile on the 11th day of October, 1909. Immediately upon receipt of the information of his death I assumed the duties of the office and as soon as practicable thereafter in memory of our well beloved and lamented Companion."

His "Memorial," issued at the time of the death of M. E. Comp. Southerland, containing the personal and Masonic history of that lamented Companion, and closing with these words:

"As a further token of our esteem and love for our beloved Companion I recommend that this Grand Chapter appoint a special committee to report suitable resolutions on the great loss that we have sustained."

Continuing the subject of death's doings in Capitular Masonry, he said:

"Since the last meeting of this Grand Chapter our sister Grand Chapters have also been called on to mourn the death of some of their greatest and best loved Companions, and we mourn with them in the loss by death of the following Companions who had been honored by their respective Grand Chapters."

And in the lengthy roll we note the name of our beloved Companion, Past Grand High Priest Jacob Hart Neff.

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the forming and opening of two new Chapters; he recommended the reprinting of the Journal of Proceedings, and the early establishment of a Masonic Home. The Grand Secretary closed his report as follows:

"I beg further to report that in accordance with the order of the Grand Chapter I have reprinted its proceedings from its organization to the year 1852 inclusive, not being able to carry the reprint to the year 1860 as ordered on account of the insufficiency of the appropriation."

On motion of E. Comp. Titcomb, Committee of Correspondence, the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Western Australia were acknowledged to be just and legally formed Grand Chapters, were welcomed to the sisterhood of Grand Chapters and an exchange of Representatives cordially invited.

The Committee on Work proceeded to exemplify the Mark Master degree for the instruction of the Companions present.

On motion the exemplification of the Past Master and Most Excellent Master degrees was dispensed with and the conferring of the Royal Arch degree was made the first act in the order of business after the reconvening of the Grand Chapter this evening.

The committees having generally reported and the routine work disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following Companions were chosen:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

John B. Christian, Grand High Priest; William E. Bingham, Deputy Grand High Priest; Lawrence H. Lee, Grand King; John B. Lyons, Grand Scribe; William H. Dingley, Grand Treasurer; George A. Beauchamp, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles R. Bricken, Past Grand High Priest, Robert L. Teague acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees, and after solemn prayer the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Anointed High Priests of Alabama held their Thirty-eighth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple at Montgomery, November 7, 1909,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. George A. Beauchamp, President; E.°. Comp. Basil M. Hill, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present. The Council was opened in Solemn Form. Sixteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

At the election held for officers for the ensuing year the present officers were re-elected.

After prayer the Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

We have perused another of Companion Titcomb's excellent reports with the satisfaction of learning that all is well in Alabama, although why we are "not in it" we do not understand. The paper is a most excellent one of 135 pages, and in it the capítular world is thoroughly looked into.

We can, however, use the space at hand by giving Companion Beauchamp's summary of the work of the year which we missed in going through the Journal, somehow:

ARIZONA.

9 Chapters.

591 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Arizona assembled in its Nineteenth Annual Convocation at the Masonic Temple in Prescott, November 18, 1908,—The M.'. E.'. Grand High Priest, Francis Marion Zuck, presiding; the R.'. E.'. George James Roskrug being Grand Secretary.

Five of the nine Chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present except the Grand King, Grand Scribe, Grand Captain of the Host, and the Grand Master of the Third Vail. Eighteen Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions and eight Past Grand High Priests were in attendance. An excellent portrait of Grand High Priest Zuck appears on the opening page.

The Committee on Credentials reported, the Grand High Priest filled the vacant stations, and the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The address was devoted principally to the local affairs of the jurisdiction. As many another Grand High Priest before him, the Most Excellent Companion regretted his inability to visit the Constituent Chapters and cheer them on their way during the year. Of the condition, however, of Capitular Masonry in Arizona he said:

"That Capitular Masonry is growing in our jurisdiction is shown from the fact that there has been an increase in membership of 37 during the year, and only one Chapter shows a loss. However, it is regrettable to know that the increase has come from about three of our weaker Chapters, and two, composed of the largest number, have made no gain, the membership of which, being the highest order of intelligence and most devoted Masons, I can not believe it to be from a cessation of their enthusiasm for Royal Arch Masonry, but charitably attribute their ill success to untoward circumstances beyond their control."

Grand Secretary Roskruge made, as usual, a concise and exhaustive report, including a copy of the "trade mark" of the Grand Chapter of Arizona, which he certified had been duly filed with the state department as required by the law of Arizona.

The Committee on Necrology reported a feeling and affectionate tribute to the members of their own and sister jurisdictions who had passed to rest within the past year, and Past Grand High Priest Morris Goldwater made a brief Report on Correspondence.

But little new business was presented for consideration. The dispensation instituting Keystone Chapter was continued until the next Annual Convocation.

The following named Companions were chosen to serve Grand Chapter for the ensuing year, and those present duly installed:

On motion it was ordered that the officers, elected and appointed, who were not present, be installed by the High Priests of the several Chapters of which they are members as soon as convenient, and that the R. E. Grand Secretary be notified of such installation.

The retiring Grand High Priest was presented with the recognized jewel of his office. The committees were named, and after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

3,921 Royal Arch Masons

We have just received the journal of the Sixtieth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Arkansas, and although our report for the year 1909 is closed, we shall try and coax the printer to sandwich this paper in.

This M. E. Grand Chapter held its Sixtieth Annual Convocation in Little Rock, November 18, 1909,—the R. E. Companion J. L. Davis, Deputy Grand High Priest, presiding; the R. E. Comp. John C. Bone, Grand Secretary. The Grand Officers were all present except the Grand High Priest.

M. E. Companion Reese Bowen Hogins passed to rest March 2, 1909.

Sixty-six of the eighty-four Chapters were represented, together with the Representatives of twenty-one other Grand Jurisdictions. Eleven Past Grand High Priests were in attendance.

A handsome portrait of the Grand High Priest-elect appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Due Form, with an invocation by the E. and Reverend Grand Chaplain.

The Acting Grand High Priest, after naming the committees, proceeded to deliver the annual address.

He delivered an excellent address of twelve pages, in which, after the usual fraternal greetings, he referred to the sad cause of his call to preside over the present assembly. The shadow of death had passed over the Jurisdiction and with its passing had enveloped the person of their beloved Grand High Priest. He said:

"Companions, before we enter upon the duties of this occasion let us pause for a moment that we may pay tribute to the lives and memories of our beloved dead.

"We bow our heads in great sorrow, our official circle has been grievously smitten. Since last we met the Angel of Death has claimed three distinguished Companions, two of our Grand and one Past Grand officer—one who wielded the Gavel in years gone by, and one who was delegated by us to preside over our deliberations at this time, as well as one who so faithfully guarded our outer Courts, have been summoned to the life beyond."

He reported his visitations, dispensations issued and the official business transacted during the recess, including the official visitation of the Grand Officers to the General Grand Chapter at Savannah in November last. He reported the organization of the Grand Chapter of Wyoming, and recommended an exchange of representatives with that Grand Body.

Nothing new or strange was developed during the transaction of the routine business of the Convocation.

The Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions present were called up, welcomed with a cordial greeting and requested to convey to the Jurisdictions they represented the best wishes of the Companions of Arkansas for their progress and prosperity.

The usual excellent reports were submitted by the Grand Treasurer and Secretary.

M.°. E.°. Comp. Fay Hempstead submitted an excellent report devoted to the remembrance of dead Companions.

M.°. E.°. Companion J. L. Davis of Fayetteville was chosen Grand High Priest, and R.°. E.°. Comp. John C. Bone was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The elected and appointed Grand Officers were duly installed.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The report on Correspondence is by Comp. E. G. Schoonover, who reviews the several Capitular Grand Jurisdictions in a paper of sixty pages. California is noticed in its Fifty-fifth Annual, M.°. E.°. Comp. F. W. G. Moebus, Grand High Priest. We should like to notice it more at length, but tempus fugit.

One Hundred Forty-nine Chapters. 14,100 Royal Arch Masons

The Report on Correspondence for the Fifty-sixth Annual Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of California was supposed to have been delivered to and locked up by the printer on the last of March, but knocks come to our door at the close of the first week in April from Arkansas and from Canada that we are in duty bound to heed, and accordingly arrange with the printer to hold the copy and sandwich in.

The proceedings of the Grand Chapter of Canada come to hand inclosed in bright colors, with the portrait of Comp. Harry H. Watson, P. G. Z., on the opening page. This Grand Chapter held its Fifty-second Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Temple Building, Toronto, February 23, 1910,—M.°. E.°. Comp. George Moore, Grand Z; R.°. E.°. Comp. George J. Bennett, Grand Scribe E. All the Grand Officers were present, with thirty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

One hundred and fourteen of the one hundred and forty-six Chapter were represented, with thirteen Grand Superintendents of Districts.

A constitutional number of Chapters being represented by their qualified officers, the Fifty-second Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Canada was opened in Ample Form at 10 o'clock a. m.

The M. E. the Grand Z. directed the Grand Scribe E. to call the roll of representatives of sister Grand Chapters and invited those in attendance to seats on the dais, where he greeted them, the Companions of Grand Chapter standing.

The grand honors having been accorded the representatives of sister Grand Jurisdictions, and suitable responses made, Grand Chapter was called to order, when the M. E. the Grand Z. read his annual address.

The address is an exceedingly well written and interesting paper, embracing all the different matters of interest to the Jurisdiction, and of value as a summary of the conditions of Capitular Masonry in the Jurisdiction of Canada—but the information of value concerning the progress and prosperity of Capitular Masonry in Canada will be found in the reports of the several Grand Superintendents of Districts. We cannot comment as we would in this report on the admirable system that represents beyond a doubt the real condition of Royal Arch Masonry in Canada, but as a result we excerpt the following summary from the report of the Grand Scribe E.:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report by the veteran correspondent, Geo. J. Bennett, is another of his excellent papers. In it he reviews fifty-six Grand Capitular Jurisdictions in his thorough, exceedingly interesting manner. California, as usual, receives careful notice at his hands, with always his best wishes for our progress and prosperity. He reviews the administration of our Fifty-fifth Annual, Grand High Priest Moebus presiding. We would like to notice his kind review at greater length, but must forbear this time.

The Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form at 6 o'clock p. m. of February 23, 1910.

COLORADO.

Forty-one Chapters.

3,951 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Colorado held its Thirty-fifth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Denver, September 23, 1909,—The M.°. E°. Comp. George D. Kennedy, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E°. Comp. Charles H. Jacobson, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with fourteen Past Grand High Priests. Thirty-eight of the forty-one Chapters were represented, with twenty-eight other Grand Jurisdictions.

A portrait of the incoming Grand High Priest, M.°. E°. Comp. John B. Hershey, appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest named the committees, filled vacancies, called up the Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, entrusted them with his salutations to their respective jurisdictions, and, calling the Companions of the Grand Chapter to their feet, saluted them with the Grand Honors.

Comp. Thomas J. Forhan, of Trinidad Chapter, No. 23, on behalf of the Representatives present, made a most eloquent and impressive response to the address of the Grand High Priest.

With a cordial welcome to the Thirty-fifth Annual Convocation, the Grand High Priest congratulated the Companions on the peace, existing harmony and prosperity of Royal Arch Masonry in Colorado. He paused, however, before the consideration of the business to come before the Grand Body, to offer the last sad tribute to the memory of those who within the year had passed beyond the White Veil. Under the head of Necrology he said:

"It is with a heart filled with gratitude to the All Wise Father that I report that not a single officer or member of this Grand Chapter has received the Final Summons. Our Constituent Chapters, however, have not been so blessed. Fifty-one of their members have brought up their work for final inspection and now rest from their earthly labors.

"The Angel of Death has visited many of our sister Grand Chapters, and has removed several distinguished Companions who were high in the councils of the Royal Craft."

And among the names on the long roll we note that of our beloved Jacob Hart Neff. Of these sad events, from which none are exempt, he said:

"The Committee on Necrology will present proper resolutions on the death of these distinguished Companions."

Under decisions he reported:

"1. It is not lawful for a Chapter to donate its funds for any other than Masonic or charitable purposes. The High Priest or Chapter shall determine what constitutes a Masonic or charitable purpose."

Comp. Jacobsen submitted his usual concise report, from which we excerpt the following abstract:

On motion of Chairman Ernest La Neve Foster, Grand Chapter recognized the Grand Chapter of Wyoming as a just and legal Body and invited an exchange of Representatives.

An excellent and feeling report was made by Chairman James R. Killian of Committee on Necrology, closing with the following words:

"We are not unmindful of the sorrows of our sister Grand Chapters that have been deprived of the further help and support of many noble Companions. The Grand Chapters of Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, Nova Scotia, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota and Texas have each had their ranks broken and have each given of their very best to the Unyielding Claimant. Our hearts are touched by their sorrows and our sympathy is fraternally extended.

"Amid all our confusion and apparent losses, let us ever look for the brightest here and hope for the best hereafter.

"Somewhere the sun is shining,
Somewhere the song birds dwell,
Hush, then, thy sad repining,
God lives, and all is well."

Reports were made by the several standing committees, amendments to By-Laws and routine matters disposed of. Among other matters, a charter was granted South Denver Chapter and registered as No. 42.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, M. E. Comp. John B. Hershey was chosen Grand High Priest, and R. E. Comp. Chas. H. Jacobson was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect was installed by his retiring predecessor, who made his appointments and installed all the other officers.

The retiring Grand High Priest, George D. Kennedy, was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel in a few eloquent words by M. E. Comp. William W. Cooper which was thankfully acknowledged.

The standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter of Colorado was closed in Ample Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Past Grand High Priest, Ernest Le Neve Foster, Chairman of Committee on Correspondence, submits a splendid report of 120 pages, in which he reviews the doings of forty-eight Grand Bodies of Capitular Masonry, with a nine-page index of decisions rendered by the several Grand Chapters; in it he notices California in its Fifty-fourth Annual, with M. E. Comp. Charles J. Willett at the wheel. Comp. Foster quoted from the address and the rulings and expressions of our M. E. Comp. Willett with approval and gave us his congratulations on rehabilitation of our organization. For his kind words we hold him in remembrance.

CONNECTICUT.

Forty Chapters.

8,050 Royal Arch Masons.

The M. E. Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Connecticut held its One Hundredth and Eleventh Annual Convocation at Masonic Hall, New Haven, Tuesday, May 11, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. George A. Kies, Grand High Priest, whose portrait appears on the opening page of the journal, presiding; Past Grand High Priest James McCormick being Grand Secretary. All the Chapters were represented, with thirteen other Grand Jurisdictions, among them the Grand High Priest and official staff of the Grand Chapter of New York and the Grand Representatives of Arkansas and California. Thirteen Past Grand High Priests were present.

Portraits, "In Memoriam," of M. E. Comp. John H. Barlow, old-time Correspondent, and James L. Gould, Grand High Priest in 1857-58, with that of M. E. Comp. Edward Tweedy are noted in the body of the journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest named the committees and proceeded to read his annual address.

After giving the Companions fraternal greeting and a cordial welcome to their annual love feast, as though noting the absence of loved ones, before considering the business of the past year, he paid a loving tribute to one who had been with them through the joys and sorrows of many years in the official circle of the Grand Chapter of Connecticut. Of him he said:

"On June 16, 1908, the sad news reached us that Past Grand High Priest John H. Barlow had peacefully passed away at some time during the preceding night. Companion Barlow was born in Ridgefield, Conn., November 7, 1832, afterwards removing to Shelton. As his Masonic record, together with that of Companions Gould and Post, will be recounted in detail in the 'In Memoriam' pages of our Proceedings, I forbear to repeat it here, except to mention his long, faithful and efficient service for thirty years as Committee on Correspondence of this Grand Chapter, in which capacity he was known, beloved and respected from ocean to ocean. Good old 'Uncle John,' we shall sadly miss his genial presence and wise counsel."

M. E. Comps. James R. Post and James L. Gould, Past Grand High Priests, also having passed to the Great Beyond, received a tribute of sincere regret for their loss as beloved and faithful Companions, and he, in spirit, dropped his sprig of acacia in remembrance of beloved and faithful Companions. He also, in sympathy with sister jurisdictions, referred to the heavy death rolls and the loss of the many eminent Masons at rest within the past year.

No specially new legislation was transacted during the session. The reports of the Grand Officers, including the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, were read, considered and disposed of; the regular routine prevailed. In due time the election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the following Companions were chosen and installed:

Charles A. Farnham, Grand High Priest; Eugene A. Hall, Deputy Grand High Priest; George R. Morris, Grand King; W. J. Bissell, Grand Scribe; Isaiah Baker, Jr., Grand Treasurer; James McCormick, Grand Secretary; Louis L. Beach, Grand Captain of Host; Horace W. Eddy, Grand Principal Sojourner; Harry S. Pearsons, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

Grand Chapter adopted a revised and uniform code of By-laws.

The organization of the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming were acknowledged as just and legally constituted Grand Bodies. They were welcomed into the family of legitimate Grand Chapters and an exchange of Representatives invited with both.

Of the Masonic Charity Foundation the Grand High Priest said in his address:

"This Grand Chapter has up to the present donated to this noble cause sums aggregating $5,500,000. While we may well congratulate ourselves upon this record, we should not allow ourselves to become 'weary in well doing.' I therefore recommend the additional appropriation of a sum commensurate with our means."

And the Grand Chapter appropriated $750 therefor.

A Past Grand High Priest's jewel was presented to the M.' E.' Comp. George A. Kies, the retiring Grand High Priest, whom we are pleased to learn takes up the work of the lamented Companion Barlow as Chairman of Correspondence.

The routine business of Grand Chapter having been completed, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

Following the close of Grand Chapter, the Anointed High Priests of Connecticut assembled in Convention at Masonic Hall, Church street, New Haven, May 11, 1909, for the purpose of conferring the Order of High Priesthood. The M.' E.' Comp. Frank W. Beardsley, President, presided; the E.' Comp. Charles W. Skiff being Recorder and Treasurer. A large number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form at five o'clock and ten minutes p. m. Fifteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, being duly qualified, were regularly received, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The death roll of the year was presented and read, and affectionate tributes paid to the memory of the absent Companions.

The annual election of officers was held and M.' E.' Comp. Beardsley declining a re-election, M.' E.' Comp. Reuben H. Tucker was chosen President, and other officers re-elected and installed.

At the conclusion of the routine business of the Convention it was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

In taking up the pen laid down by the lamented Companion Barlow, M. E. Comp. George A. Kies says:

"Our great loss in the lamented death of P. G. H. P. Barlow, Correspondence Committee of this Grand Chapter for thirty years, makes it necessary to place that work in other hands. That a report might be provided at this Convocation, we have prepared the following review of Proceedings of other Grand Chapters, which we herewith fraternally submit."

He follows with a most excellent paper of one hundred pages, wherein he reviews the Proceedings of nearly all the Grand Bodies of the Capitular World. Our M. E. Companion's first report marks him as one whose conservative views are founded upon his experience as an active participant in the exemplification of the ritual and system of Royal Arch Masonry.

His notice of California is of the Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of M. E. Comp. Charles J. Willett, from whose address he quotes with approval. We class the report as a most excellent one.

DELAWARE.

Four Chapters.

986 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Delaware held its Forty-first Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Wilmington, January 20, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. Alfred M. Clower, Grand High Priest, presiding, the R. E. Comp. James H. Price being the Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with six Past Grand High Priests and thirty other Past Grand Officers, were present. All the Constituent Chapters, with the Representatives of twenty-four other Grand Jurisdictions, were in attendance.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

With a cordial and fraternal welcome to the Companions in attendance on the Fifty-first Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Delaware, Grand High Priest Clower proceeded to address the Grand Chapter, submitting the record of his stewardship as their executive officer during the now closing recess of the Grand Body.

As a first duty, thanksgiving for the preservation of their official circle, blessings received during the year, the health and growth of the jurisdictions, with an affectionate remembrance of Companions at rest, he said:

"As we gather around our sacred altar, let us thank the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for the many blessings and comforts He has been pleased to bestow upon the Royal Craft in this jurisdiction during the past year.

"Our circle has been broken by the grim messenger, Death, and one member of this Grand Body has been called to cross the silent river that separates time from eternity.

"R.'. E.'. Comp. James Parke Postles, Past Grand Treasurer, died May 27, 1908.

"Our Subordinate Chapters have lost eight Companions during the year."

He also submitted a tribute of sympathy with sister jurisdictions, and in spirit dropped his sprig of acacia on the last resting places of the many eminent Masons mourned by the many jurisdictions of the nation.

No unusual legislation was considered or placed before the Grand Body. The usual routine of business prevailing, in due time the election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the following named Companions chosen and installed:

A. Henry Berlin, Grand Priest; Stuart J. Horn, Deputy Grand High Priest; Thomas B. Pepper, Grand King; Francis K. Smith, Grand Scribe; Thomas Reardon, Grand Treasurer; James H. Price, Grand Secretary.

The retiring Grand High Priest was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel.

The usual committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Convention of the Order of High Priesthood of Delaware was held in Masonic Hall, Wilmington, January 11, 1909. M.'. E.'. Comp. Harry W. Lowe, President, E.'. Comp. Charles McIntire, Recorder, and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present. The Convention was opened in Solemn Form. Three Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, being duly qualified, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The officers were re-elected and installed and the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Report on Correspondence was presented by M.'. E.'. Comp. Virginius V. Harrison, who submits a review of thirty-three Grand Capitular Jurisdictions in a report of forty pages. California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, being the administration of Grand High Priest Chas. J. Willett, whose address and rulings are favorably mentioned. In his conclusion he says:

"We cannot close without paying our respects to the knights of the quill and bid them God speed. Another year has passed and gone, and we ask ourselves if we feel satisfied with results, and the answer comes slowly and faintly, yes, which implies a doubt, and we resolve to redouble our efforts so that when the time arrives for us to propound the question again, we hope to get a more significant answer. Then, Companions, for a time we say adieu, and may the God of our fathers, who has guided your past, direct your course for the future."

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Twelve Chapters.

3,518 Royal Arch Masons.

Prior to the Forty-second Annual Convocation the Grand Chapter held two Specials, the first on June 13, 1908, for the purpose of paying the last sad tribute of love and affection in the burial of Nathaniel Brady Fugitt, Grand King. The R. E. Companion died from heart failure while in the performance of his duties as Captain General of Washington Commandery, No. 1. All the Grand Officers, with many Past Grand Officers, were in attendance.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Second Special was held in Masonic Temple, July 3, 1908. All the Grand Officers and a goodly number of Past Grand Officers were present.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

In a brief address the Grand High Priest said:

"COMPANIONS: This is a stated Convocation of the Grand Chapter specially provided for. Likewise, the business which may properly come before the Grand Chapter at this Convocation and which is directed to be disposed of, is also specially provided for."

The business in hand was the receiving and acting on the report of the committee appointed to consider the entire subject of the removal to the New Masonic Temple and to make such recommendations concerning fees, dues, per capita tax, etc., as in the judgment of said committee are necessary for the best interests of Royal Arch Masonry.

After a thorough discussion of the report, the conclusions of the committee were concurred in with entire unanimity.

On motion of Comp. Kenton N. Harper the thanks of the Grand Chapter were voted to the committee for its excellent report.

The Grand High Priest complimented the committee upon its able exposition of the financial affairs of the Grand Chapter, and congratulated the Grand Chapter upon the unanimity with which it had indorsed the recommendations of the committee.

The Grand Chapter was then closed in Ample Form.

The Forty-second Annual Convocation was held at the New Masonic Temple corner of Thirteenth street and New York avenue February 10, 1909,—The M. . E. . Comp. E. St. Clair Thompson, Grand High Priest, presiding; R. . E. . Comp. Arvine W. Johnston, Grand Secretary. All the Chapters were represented, with fifteen Past Grand High Priests and the Representatives of thirty-five other Grand Jurisdictions.

The portrait of M. . E. . Comp. E. St. Clair Thompson appears on the opening page, and that of Comp. Nathaniel Brady Fugitt, Grand King, "In Memoriam," in the body of the volume.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The M. . W. . Henry K. Simpson, Grand Master of Masons in the District of Columbia, was welcomed and saluted with the Grand Honors.

The Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were called up, cordially welcomed and addressed by the Grand High Priest, after which he proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a cordial greeting, clothed in eloquent words, the Grand High Priest welcomed the Companions to the comforts and privileges of their home in the New Masonic Temple.

We can readily understand that the business interests connected with the erection of the New Temple by the Masons of the District of Columbia would furnish material in abundance for this address to the sacrifice of some of the usual comment; hence, much of this able paper is taken up with matters concerning the New Home, its furnishings and conveniences with the financial interests involved.

The undertaking was one requiring the expenditure of much time and money; it has been successfully accomplished, and we congratulate M. . E. . Comp. E. St. Clair Thompson for his share in the good work.

In submitting the death roll under the head of "Our Dead," he said:

"On Wednesday, June 10, 1908, at eight o'clock p. m., in his station as Captain General of Washington Commandery, No. 1, K. T., our R. . E. . Grand King, Nathaniel Brady Fugitt, was suddenly stricken with death.

"As a Grand Chapter, we took part in his funeral and followed his remains to their last resting place in Rock Creek Cemetery on Saturday, June 13, 1908. On that occasion the station of the Grand King was left vacant. As a mark of respect for the man and in token of our sense of a fitting testimonial to his memory, at all subsequent convocations of the Grand Chapter this station has been vacant, and the chair draped in mourning."

He also said: "We sympathize with our Companions of other jurisdictions in the loss of many distinguished Companions whose loss has been reported to us, and I recommend that pages in our Proceedings be set apart and suitably inscribed in memory of Companions at home and abroad who passed to rest during the year."

He declares the state of the Craft to be "prosperous, healthy and happy."

He writes the following good words for the Order of High Priesthood:

"I find it agreeable to again call your attention to these Orders. Interest in them has continued to grow. The Order of High Priesthood was never in more flourishing condition.

"The new Council of Royal and Select Masters (Adoniram), then but lately formed under the fostering care of Washington Council, No. 1, has more than doubled by the addition of new members, and the two Councils are rendering most acceptable service in disseminating among Royal Arch Masons an interest in the study of the history and structural conceptions of the institution.

"With no lack of respect for our affiliations and the opinions which decreed our policy, I could wish that this Grand Jurisdiction might follow the example of the Grand Chapter and Grand Council of Texas. While they are not affiliated with either of the General Grand Bodies, if my information is correct, their solution of the matter of relationship between the capitular and cryptic degrees is the preferable one."

Grand Secretary Johnston made his usual concise and full report of the conditions, financial and working, of the Grand Chapter. The usual routine of business prevailed in the legislation of the session; reports of standing committees were considered and disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, was held. M. E. Comp. Francis J. Woodman was chosen Grand High Priest, and R. E. Comp. Arvine W. Johnston was again chosen Grand Secretary. All the officers were installed by the retiring Grand High Priest, who, as a token of remembrance, was presented with a jewel of his rank as Past Grand High Priest.

The standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Convention of the Anointed High Priests of the District was held in the New Temple January 13, 1909,—M. E. Comp. E. St. Clair Thompson, President, presiding. The illness of the Secretary, E. Comp. Goodwin Y. At Lee, being announced, E. Comp. Arvine W. Johnston assumed the duties thereof. A good attendance of Excellent Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

The M. E. President addressed the Convention, and in his address reported the passing to rest of six Excellent Companions during the year, and in spirit cast his sprig of acacia upon the last resting place of each. Thirteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, were elected to receive the Order of High Priesthood, and February 27 was designated for their consecration.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, the M. E. Comp. Ben. W. Murch was chosen President, the other officers being re-elected, and all were installed.

The Convention was continued until February 27, on which occasion a banquet and the conferring of the Order will be in order February 27, 1909.

At the continued Convention, held in the New Temple this date, President and M. E. Comp. Ben. W. Murch presided. Eight of the Companions elected on the 13th being present, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

The Annual Banquet was held at the Hotel Gordon on March 31, President and M. E. Comp. Ben. W. Murch presiding.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is simply another Chapter of the excellent work of Grand Secretary Johnston. In it he reviews the work of fifty-three Grand Capitular Bodies in a paper of 70 pages. As he sends us this message, as his "valedictory," we will let him state his own reasons. He says:

"The undersigned presents his ninth and last annual report for the Committee on Correspondence, with a feeling of profound thankfulness and satisfaction that he is at last able to say, even at this late day, 'it is finished.'

"The past year has been the most strenuous the writer has ever known. The occupation of the new Masonic Temple brought to him many new duties and responsibilities which, added to those regularly belonging to his three offices, occupied all his working hours, and at the time of the Annual Convocation this report was not half finished. If in the following pages there is more of the reporter and less of the reviewer than there has been in his previous productions; if the report falls below the standard he has established in former years, permit him to plead in justification that it was prepared in the time symbolized by the third division of the twenty-four-inch gauge, and at the cost of refreshment and sleep.

"The writer retires from the field of correspondence not only because of increasing official duties, but because he is tired of threshing old straw. The placid current of capitular thought brings no new questions to the surface, and having discussed the old ones 'all the way 'round and all the way back,' he is weary of the 'damnable iteration' of ideas and opinions for which he can no longer find even new forms of expression.

"It is with great regret that he bids farewell to the scribes, whose kindly consideration he will always prize. He commends to their favor his successor, Comp. Roe Fulkerson, whose bubbling humor and striking originality will enliven these pages if his reports fulfill the promise of his writings in the American Tyler-Keystone."

The Fifty-fourth Annual of California is noticed under the administration of M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles J. Willett. He gives us good words for our efforts in reconstruction and gives his approval of our legislation.

ENGLAND AND WALES.

The Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons of England and Wales held its several Quarterlies in September and December, 1908, and March and June, 1909. The M.°. W.°, The Earl of Euston, Pro-Grand Master, presided,—with the R.°. W.°. C. F. Matier, P. G. W., Grand Secretary, the usual number of Officers and Past Officers, which with the Principals and Past Principals of many subordinate Chapters, make up a lengthy roll.

The Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form.

The Board of General Purposes reported.

The report was considered.

The business of the session was entirely of a routine character.

At the December Quarterly the Earl of Euston presiding, with about the same attendance.

Reports of the several funds were considered, after which the Pro-Grand Master said: "Brethren, our next business is the nomination of the M.°. W.°. Grand Master for the ensuing year."

W. Bro. W. H. H. Jessop, P. G. S.: "Most Worshipful Pro-Grand Master, the high honor devolves upon me of nominating, in connection with Mark Masonry, the M. W. Grand Master for the ensuing year. No words of mine can in any way help to increase the love and affection shown by every member of our Fraternity towards our present Grand Master. We look upon him as a man who has done everything in his power for his King and his country. We find he has shown that kindly feeling towards suffering which is always shown by Masons. Even in the last few days we have read of his rendering the last rites to those unhappy children who lost their lives through the fire that occurred on a steamer close to Malta, and he has done everything in his power as a Mason and a man to relieve the suffering of those who are alive. It is thus we, as Masons, look upon him as the most fitting Mason for the post of Grand Master. I have much pleasure in proposing the nomination of H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn as M. W. Grand Master for the ensuing year."

The routine business of the session was considered, the report of the Board of Benevolence, etc.

The Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form.

In reply to a telegram of congratulation sent by the M. W. Pro-Grand Master to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, the following gracious reply was received:

"The Queen thanks the Grand Lodge of Mark Masons for the good wishes on the occasion of her birthday."

At the March, 1909, Quarterly, the Earl of Euston presiding, with about the same attendance, the Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form.

After the transaction of some local routine business,—

W. Bro. H. H. Jessop, P. G. S.: "Most Worshipful Pro-Grand Master, at the last meeting of Grand Lodge I had the honor and privilege of nominating H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and I now have the honor of proposing that he be elected Most Worshipful Grand Master of Mark Master Masons for the ensuing year. The work of H. R. H. is so well known to all Mark Master Masons that I am sure of the unanimity of his election, so therefore there is nothing further for me to say than to formally propose the election of H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught as Grand Master of Mark Masonry for the ensuing year."

Bro. G. A. King (Grand Steward): "Most Worshipful Pro-Grand Master, I beg to second that."

M. W. Pro-Grand Master: "Brethren, I am certain that we cannot have a better man as Most Worshipful Grand Master, and I am sure that if his duties to his country allowed him to be more often in England, we hope to see more of him in our Grand Lodge."

The motion was put and carried unanimously, and the usual Proclamation, with his long list of titles by the Grand Director of Ceremonies.

The election of a Grand Treasurer followed.

Grand Secretary: "There is no further business, Most Worshipful Pro-Grand Master, except that on this occasion I have to announce the receipt, I am sorry to say, of more letters of apology for non-attendance than I have done for many years. No doubt many other Brethren would have been here tonight had it not been that they were suffering from the unpleasant climatic conditions that now prevail."

Grand Lodge was closed in Ample Form.

At the June Quarterly, the Earl of Euston, Pro-Grand Master, presiding, with about the same attendance as at previous Quarterlies.

Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form.

The Board of General Purposes reported.

The Grand Master begs to present the following message:—

"Twenty-six years having elapsed since a permanent addition was made to the number of Grand Officers, during which period a very large increase has taken place, both in number of the Lodges and members of the Order, the Grand Master is of opinion that the time has arrived when some addition may be properly and advantageously made to the list of Grand Officers annually appointed.

"The Grand Master therefore recommends that an addition be made accordingly, that such addition take the form of the appointment annually of two additional Deacons (six in all), and a Deputy Director of Ceremonies, and that the same take effect on and after the Grand Festival, June 1, 1909, and that the following alterations be made in the Book of Constitutions:"

The necessary changes were made and the resolution adopted.

The Most Worshipful Pro-Grand Master: "The next business is the Installation of the Most Worshipful Grand Master. I declare him duly installed."

Whereupon the lengthy Proclamation was again made.

The Earl of Euston announced that the M.^c. W.^c. Grand Master had re-appointed him Pro-Grand Master,—and again the lengthy Proclamation was made.

All the appointments having been honored by installation and investiture, the Grand Lodge was closed in Ample Form.

FLORIDA.

Twenty-nine Chapters.

1,817 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Florida held its Sixty-third Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Jacksonville, Tuesday, May 11, 1909,—The M.^c. E.^c. John H. Weddell, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Wilber P. Webster, Grand Secretary. Twenty-two Constituent Chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present, with eleven Past Grand High Priests, five Past High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-nine other Grand Jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form. After naming the committees, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

After a cordial welcome and fraternal greeting, with a brief acknowledgment of the honor conferred upon him by Grand Chapter, he paid a feeling tribute to the Companions who had passed to rest during the year. After naming the thirty beloved associates of his own jurisdiction whose companionship now existed only in memory of the past, he noted the loss of the many Eminent Companions of other jurisdiction in the following words: "From other jurisdictions I have received official notice of the death of many distinguished Companions, whose loss is felt by them and whose memory will be cherished and honored by those who knew them. Sixteen jurisdictions have suffered losses as we here record them." After reporting his visitations and the condition of the Chapters, he read the reports of the Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King and Grand Scribe.

He reported no important decisions, his rulings referring entirely to the local business of the jurisdiction.

Grand Secretary Webster read his as usual concise and detailed report.

While considering the responsibilities assumed by their neighbors and beloved Companions, the Royal Arch Masons of Georgia, in the entertainment of that Body of eminent and distinguished Masons, the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America, about to hold its Triennial Convocation in the city of Savannah, a committee having the matter in charge reported and the report was unanimously adopted:

"Your committee, consisting of the Council members of the Grand Chapter, charged with the duty of submitting 'a well defined plan' by which this Grand Body can participate in giving our Companions from all over the United States a cordial welcome to our beloved Southland, at the next meeting of the General Grand Chapter, would respectfully report:

"We have given the matter frequent and careful consideration. From the precedent established by the last General Grand Chapter in Boston, it may be expected that all entertainments and festivities will be conducted by the Grand Chapter of Georgia and the Royal Arch Masons of that jurisdiction, and that addresses at receptions that may be held will be made by the Council members of the General Grand Chapter and others representing the Royal Arch Masons of Georgia.

"The committee are therefore of the opinion that it will not be necessary or expected of the Companions from Florida to prepare a banquet or any other formal entertainment, but would recommend that one or more suitable rooms be engaged at the hotel where most of the Representatives are likely to be, and that our Representatives there keep open house, with light refreshment ready at all times. If those rooms can be decorated so as to indicate the semi-tropical character of our State, and provided with our fruit products, it will be appropriate and add to the pleasure of visitors who may be drawn to our headquarters from all parts of the country.

"The committee also recommend that the incoming Grand High Priest, or Senior Past Grand High Priest, in attendance be appointed to make a short address of welcome on behalf of the Royal Arch Masons of Florida, should occasion offer.

"We further recommend that a Committee of Arrangements, consisting of three, of whom the incoming Grand High Priest (if in attendance) shall be one—be appointed, with full power to have in charge and carry out the plan adopted for the purpose in view."

The degrees were exemplified during the Convocation under the direction of the Committee on Work.

The usual routine in the dispatch of business of the Grand Chapter prevailed, and in due time the election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the following named Companions were chosen and installed:

Samuel Pasco, Grand High Priest; T. Picton Warlow, Deputy Grand High Priest; Frank B. Stoneman, Grand King; Robert McClellan, Grand Scribe; Charles S. Bonacker, Captain of the Host; Harry N. Sweeting, Principal Sojourner; Harry T. Wescott, Royal Arch Captain; Earnest H. Kratz, Master Third Vail; William G. Tilghman, Master Second Vail; James B. Young, Master First Vail.

The Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary and Grand Chaplain were re-elected, and, in accordance with Florida law, were not reinstalled. Several memorials were read and adopted in remembrance of departed Companions. A jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest.

No report on Correspondence was presented, and after prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood of Florida was held in Masonic Temple, Jacksonville, May 12, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Olin S. Wright, President, presiding; E. Comp. Wilber P. Webster being Grand Secretary. All the officers and several Excellent Companions present.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The Secretary and Treasurer reported the financial condition of Grand Council; the reports were considered and adopted.

Ten Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The annual election of officers was held, the present officers were re-elected and installed, and the Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

M. E. Comp. Samuel Pasco, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Wilber P. Webster, Grand Secretary.

GEORGIA.

One Hundred Twenty-nine Chapters. 6,368 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Georgia assembled in Masonic Temple in the city of Macon, April 28, 1909, it being the Eighty-seventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Body,—The Grand High Priest L. M. Heard presiding; the R. E. W. A. Wolihin being Grand Secretary. One hundred Chapters were represented, with twenty-six Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, six Past Grand High Priests, twenty-six Past High Priests not otherwise enrolled, and eight of the eleven District Grand Lecturers, were in attendance.

A handsome portrait of Grand High Priest Heard appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He congratulated the Companions present on their coming together as the Representatives of the Royal Arch Masons of Georgia now assembled in its Eighty-seventh Annual Convocation. Continuing he said:

"We have witnessed the coming and the going of another year of joy and sorrow, of hope and disappointments, of toil and accomplishment, of endeavor and progress," and, as though in remembrance of Companions absent from vacant seats among them, he said: "I am very much gratified to report that each and every one of the Companions who were elected and installed at our last Grand Convocation are with us today in health and strength, and that the Grim Reaper has spared our official body. But many of the Companions in the Subordinate Chapters throughout this jurisdiction have been called from this earth to labor in a brighter and better world; your Committee on Memorials will pay proper tribute to their memory."

He also remembered the Companions of sister jurisdictions and paid fraternal tribute to the memory of the many Eminent Companions of the nation who during the passing year had entered into rest.

Of the transactions during the recess, the finances, dispensations granted, new Chapters instituted and Charters granted, also the concerns and needs of the Masonic Home, he made a full and detailed report.

Under the head of Decisions, he said: "The new Code which was adopted at the Eighty-fifth Annual Convocation is so complete and the officers of the Subordinate Chapters are so intelligent and capable that I have not been called upon to make a single decision of any kind during the year."

He reminded the Companions that their next assemblage would be for the purpose of welcoming that body of Eminent Masons, the General Grand Chapter of the United States, who had chosen their own city of Savannah for the holding of the approaching Triennial Convocation of that distinguished body of Masons, and he bespoke for the General Grand Body a royal Georgia welcome.

He concluded with a merited compliment to the efficient Grand Secretary and his heartfelt thanks to the members of Grand Chapter who had conferred upon him the honor of presiding over the destinies of the Grand Chapter of Georgia for the past year, and he now returned to the Grand Body the royal robe with which it had clothed him during his term of service, closing with the present Annual Convocation.

The regular committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter settled down to the consideration of the business of the session.

Past Grand High Priest Hamilton of the Grand Chapter of New York was received and welcomed and the general routine was resumed.

In due time the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen and installed:

J. A. Walton, Grand High Priest; W. F. Bowe, Deputy Grand High Priest; John R. Wilkinson, Grand King; W. G. England, Grand Scribe; S. H. Griswold, Grand Treasurer; W. A. Wolihin, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest accepted the honors conferred upon him in an eloquent address.

The retiring Grand High Priest, the M. E. L. M. Heard, was presented with the jewel of a Past Grand High Priest.

Among the appointed Grand Officers were eleven District Grand Lecturers.

The Grand High Priest named the committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Georgia Council of the Order of High Priesthood assembled in Masonic Temple, Macon, April 28, 1908, at 8 o'clock p. m.,—The M.° E.° W. B. Kent Acting President, E.° Comp. W. A. Wolihin, Recorder and Treasurer. All the officers and a number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Four Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were separately introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood. The officers were re-elected and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M.° E.° Comp. A. M. Lamdin submits a fine Report on Correspondence, in which he reviews the Proceedings of forty-four Grand Jurisdictions in a paper of eighty-six pages. The writer is no amateur, the present being his tenth annual report. We note his review of the Fifty-fourth Annual of the Grand Chapter of California—the administration of Grand High Priest Willett. The report is an excellent one and sustains fully the reputation of its distinguished author.

Comp. Ralph Lowe, of San Jose, represents the Grand Chapter of Georgia near the Grand Chapter of California.

IDAHO.

Twelve Chartered Chapters.

785 Royal Arch Masons.

Of these, eleven Chapters were represented at the First Annual Convocation, held at the Masonic Temple in the city of Wallace, June 22, 1909,—The M.° E.° Comp. James A. Pinney, Grand High Priest, the R.° E.° Comp. Albert A. Jessup being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, and the Convocation was opened with prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain.

The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He congratulated Grand Chapter upon having passed through their first year as a Grand Body without inconvenience from the application of the organic law and regulations adopted for their government at its organization.

For the pleasant existing conditions he gave credit to the hearty co-operation and support of all the Royal Arch Masons of the jurisdiction. Universal harmony prevailed, the desire of all being the greatest good for Capitular Masonry in Idaho.

He paid affectionate tribute to the Companions who had aided and assisted in the organization of the Grand Chapter of Idaho who had passed to their eternal rest before enjoying, with them, the pleasure of exchanging congratulations at the First Annual Convocation thereof. The address, generally, was devoted to the working interests of the new organization.

The usual committees were appointed, to whom the several matters contained in the address were referred.

Charters were granted the two Chapters U. D., Grangeville, No. 13, and Salmon, No. 14.

We excerpt the report of the Committee on Necrology as a fitting tribute to the beloved Companions named:

"Again does it become our sorrowful duty to give expression to our grief for the loss of true and tried Companions. A brief year ago Comps. Thomas E. Woodward, High Priest of Wallace Chapter, No. 9, and Grand Principal Sojourner of the Grand Chapter of the State of Idaho, and Comp. Jesse A. Dubois, Past High Priest of Boise Chapter, No. 3, were with us, but alas, today we seek in vain for their presence.

"Comp. Thomas E. Woodward was electrocuted while in the discharge of his duties as electrician, and by his sad death the Grand Chapter loses one of its most zealous workers. He will be sadly missed in the councils of our Grand Bodies, and among his friends and associates. He was married but a very brief period before his tragic death. He was a valuable member of the Fraternity and devoted to its interests with ardor and pleasure.

"Comp. Jesse K. Dubois died at his home in Boise after a brief illness. He had served long and faithfully in the various Masonic Bodies of this jurisdiction, and was never found wanting in upholding the grand principles of our Order. He was an exceptionally companionable man, and won the hearts of his Brother Masons as well as the common Brotherhood of Man. He reflected great credit to the Fraternity and his counsel will be greatly missed in the various Masonic Bodies with which he was affiliated."

The following Companions were chosen Grand Officers to serve for the ensuing year and were installed:

Frank D. Winn, Grand High Priest; Jotham A. Lippincott, Deputy Grand High Priest; Thomas Barnes, Grand King; George Doehne, Jr., Grand Scribe; Jay R. Mason, Grand Treasurer; Albert A. Jessup, Grand Secretary.

The Second Annual Convocation will be held at Boise, June 13, 1910.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

A portrait of M. E. Comp. James A. Pinney appears on the opening page.

IOWA.

One Hundred Twenty-eight Chapters. 11,005 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Iowa held its Fifty-sixth Annual Convocation in the hall of Davenport Chapter, No. 16, October 7, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Louis Block, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Alf Wingate, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with thirteen Past Grand High Priests, thirty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions and the three custodians of the work. Ninety-two Chapters were represented.

A fine steel engraved portrait of Grand High Priest M. E. Louis Block appears on the opening page, and in the body of the volume, "In Memoriam," one of Rev. S. R. J. Hoyt, Past Grand Chaplain.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain.

Among the distinguished visitors present were the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, M. E. Comp. Joseph E. Dyas, and Comp. Frederick W. Craig, General Grand Principal Sojourner of the same exalted Body. They were presented to the Grand Chapter, and in response M. E. Comp. Dyas responded in the following neat and appropriate address:

"Most Excellent Grand High Priest and Companions of the Grand Chapter of Iowa, I intend to occupy your time but a few moments, because I am aware that at the Annual Convocation of a Grand Chapter there is a good deal of business to be transacted, and you are not here for any other purpose.

"I assure you that I sincerely appreciate the cordial welcome which I have received from the officers and members of this Grand Chapter since my arrival in the city of Davenport, and I also appreciate meeting old friends, many of whom I have known for many years, besides the pleasure of making the acquaintance of new ones.

"I am familiar with the history of the Grand Chapter of Iowa since its organization in 1854. It has always been a loyal constituent of the General Grand Chapter. Many eminent Masons have resided in Iowa—men who have been prominent nationally in Capitular and other branches of Masonry.

"At the Triennial held in Detroit in 1880 Robert F. Bowers, of Keokuk, was elected General Grand High Priest, and my recollection is he died during his term of office.

"That distinguished Companion was the first in any of the western States to hold that position.

"The General Grand Chapter was organized in 1797 by committees representing three Chapters located in Massachusetts and New York.

Its original object evidently was to issue charters for Chapters in unoccupied territory, which is evidenced by the fact that most all the old Chapters in the then western country obtained their first charters from the national body. Three chartered Chapters in a State of Territory have the privilege of forming a Grand Chapter, with the consent of the parent body, and with the exception of Utah Grand Chapters are now established in every State and Territory, so that there only now remain eight Chapters in Utah and one Chapter each in Honolulu, Manila, Valparaiso, Shanghai, San Juan, Havana, and Alaska—fifteen in all, immediately subordinate to the General Grand Chapter. There are now forty-six Grand Chapters within its jurisdiction, representing a total membership of nearly three hundred thousand Royal Arch Masons.

"The General Grand Chapter fifty years ago relinquished all supervision and disciplinary powers over Grand Chapters, and since that time has simply been an advisory body as to Grand Chapters—settling disputes between Grand Chapters should they be submitted—and deciding questions of Capitular law whenever such questions are presented.

"The use of the ritual of the General Grand Chapter, and which you have recently adopted, is not obligatory on any Grand Chapter, or Subordinate Chapter, except those Chapters under its immediate jurisdiction, is now in use in seventeen Grand Jurisdictions, and is the ritual more in use than any other.

"I have given a brief sketch of the General Grand Chapter, believing it would be of interest to you. It seems so far removed from the Subordinate Chapters and the officers thereof so seldom indulge in visitations that it is not remarkable that so little is known of it, and in many instances its existence is entirely unknown to the membership.

"I have endeavored while I held the office of General Grand High Priest to visit as many Grand Chapters as possible, for the purpose not only of meeting the Royal Arch Masons of the jurisdiction and thereby bring the Grand Chapters into closer relations with the national organization, but also because it is always a pleasure to me to meet any assemblage of Royal Arch Masons.

"As much as my absence from my business would permit, I have visited Chapters, both Grand and subordinate, in nearly every section of this country, and my observation has been that the personnel of the membership is about the same all over—the mainstay of our progress and civilization—and representing the highest type of American citizenship."

An address of welcome to the city of Davenport was delivered by Past Grand High Priest W. H. Hart.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He spoke in eloquent words of the rapid passage of the intervening months since "good bye" was said at the preceding Annual, the blessings received by them as individuals and as an organization, and the great prosperity vouchsafed them by the Great Architect, and disbursed with a generous and kindly hand. He said:

"I welcome you this morning, my Companions, as co-workers in this great cause, and rejoice at the privilege of meeting with you in fraternal reunion. To my mind there is no more august or dignified assemblage than the gathering together of a body of Masons possessed of sovereign legislative, judicial and executive powers. I know that if we labor together with that kindly consideration and harmony which history shows has marked all great Masonic gatherings in the past, that the results of our efforts will be crowned with beauty and go forth in strength to wage new war 'on chaos and the dark.'"

Under Necrology he said: "It is with exceeding great regret that I am compelled to report to you on the occasion of the opening of this Grand Chapter that the relentless hand of death has invaded our official line and has carried away from our midst two Excellent Companions of high standing as men and citizens, and well beloved by the Companions of Iowa."

The Companions referred to were E. J. Grand Chaplain Samuel R. J. Hoyt and Past Grand Treasurer Herbert Church Shadboth; to the memory of these beloved Companions he paid the tribute of fraternal affection, and when, in spirit, casting his sprig of acacia upon the last resting places of the 171 Companions, late members of the eighty-six Chapters of the jurisdiction, he said: "For the lesson taught us by the evergreen sprig of acacia is not one of resurrection from death, but of deathlessness here and now. It serves to remind us of that imperishable part of man which bears the nearest affinity to that Supreme Intelligence which pervades all nature and which can never, never, never die."

He reported the constitution of Mechanicsville Chapter, No. 134.

In closing his report of the business of his office and the condition of the jurisdiction, he paid the following compliment to the faithful service of Grand Secretary Wingate: "I have never written Companion Wingate a single letter without receiving an acknowledgment or a reply by return mail. His correspondence has been crisp, concise and straight to the point, and at the same time has ever exhibited a never-failing kindly courtesy. His clerical work and the keeping of his records have been accurate to the point of nicety. He has been watchful of the best interests of Capitular Masonry in this State and has never failed to furnish a helpful suggestion when the opportunity offered, or anticipated a troublesome cloud before it appeared on the horizon, and to make the Masonic ship all ready to come through the storm in splendid style."

The Grand High Priest announced the usual standing committees.

The Grand Secretary submitted his as usual concise and detailed report of the financial and working condition of the Grand Jurisdiction.

In accordance with a special order, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named, and the following named Companions were elected and installed:

Comp. George W. Ball, Grand High Priest; Comp. J. M. Thompson, Deputy Grand High Priest; Comp. G. A. Reimcke, Grand King; Comp. Cromwell Bowen, Grand Scribe; Comp. M. R. Ansbach, Grand Treasurer; Comp. Alf. Wingate, Grand Secretary.

On motion of Past Grand High Priest and Chairman of Correspondence, W. F. Cleveland, Grand Chapter adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That this Grand Chapter extends fraternal recognition to the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Wyoming, and the incoming Grand High Priest be requested to arrange for an exchange of Grand Representatives with them."

From the report of Grand Secretary Wingate we excerpt his abstract of the work of the year:

Under Necrology a mournfully eloquent report was submitted by Past Grand High Priest and Chairman, Ashley Van Storm, in which the tribute of fraternal affection was recorded to the memory of the 171 beloved Companions who had been called to sever their companionship in eighty-six Chapters of Iowa, as well as the Illustrious and Eminent Companions of sister jurisdictions of whose departure official notice had been received—and among those names California is represented by one beloved by every Royal Arch Mason among us, the M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff.

The report, which was adopted and ordered printed in the Journal, closes with these lines: "And, Companions, in the few fleeting hours that shall be left to us on earth no greater tribute can we pay to our beloved dead than to let the life they lived and the death they died inspire in us a nobler purpose, a higher aim. Then, indeed, will they not have died in vain if each of us shall hold this high ideal:

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free;
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea."

The Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions present were called up and welcomed by the Grand High Priest.

A Past Grand High Priest's jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest.

The committees having reported, the general routine of business was concluded. The Grand High Priest made his appointments and the Grand Chapter of Iowa was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Convention of Anointed High Priests of Iowa assembled in the hall of Davenport Chapter, No. 16, October 7, 1909; President George R. Turner being absent from illness, M. E. Comp. W. F. Cleveland assumed the duties of President, E. Comp. Alf Wingate being the Recorder. Besides the officers, sixty Excellent Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form. The E. Companions, Treasurer and Recorder, reported the financial condition of the committee. The reports were considered and approved.

Twenty-three Companions, High Priest and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

Although prevented by illness from attending the Convention, President George R. Turner submitted a most excellent and feeling address which was read by Acting and Past President Cleveland.

E. Comp. R. F. B. Portman submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted, ordered published in the Proceedings and a copy forwarded to M. E. Comp. Turner:

"WHEREAS, It is with sincere regret that we are compelled to convene this Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests of Iowa without the presence of our beloved President, George R. Turner, whose absence is caused by the condition of his health; it is therefore

"Resolved, That this Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests of Iowa deeply deplore his absence from its deliberations, where his wise counsel is so much needed and so highly appreciated. We know that his heart is with us in this great and glorious work, and trust that he may be restored to health to enjoy the uplifting influence of a happy home, and participate in the labors of the Fraternity for many years to come. It is further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread in full upon the proceedings, and a copy be sent to Companion Turner."

The election of officers for the ensuing year was held and M.^o. E.^o. Comp. W. F. Cleveland was chosen President, and E.^o. Comp. Alf. Wingate was re-elected Recorder.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The veteran reporter, Past Grand High Priest Cleveland, continues his excellent record by submitting a paper in which he gives the salient points in the legislation of fifty Grand Bodies in a report of 115 pages, and although several jurisdictions, California among them, were not at hand, it makes an excellent summary of the progress and present condition of Royal Arch Masonry in America. We appreciate these words in his conclusion:

"If we were quite sure that these reports would be read by the rank and file of the Companions of Iowa, for whose benefit they are prepared, the incentive for careful, conscientious work would be largely increased. We know that the Correspondence Reports are not as accessible to the Companions at large as we wish they could be, to the end that interest might be awakened among the craft regarding the great work that is being done in Royal Arch circles throughout the world in the dissemination of its teachings and the upbuilding of the institution until it has become today a vital, living force, exerting a wholesome influence upon society at large."

ILLINOIS.

One Hundred Ninety-five Chapters.

29,344 R. A. Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Illinois held its Sixtieth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Chicago, October 28, 1909.—M.^o. E.^o. Comp. Frederick E. Hoberg, Grand High Priest; the R.^o. E.^o. Comp. George W. Warvelle, Grand Secretary. One hundred seventy-two of the one hundred ninety-five Chapters were represented; there were also present twenty-four Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions—California by M. E. Comp. George W. Curtis, Grand Treasurer. All the Grand Officers, with fifteen Past Grand High Priests, were in attendance.

A handsome portrait of the incoming Grand High Priest, M. E. Comp. Henry H. Montgomery appears on the opening page; also in the body of the Journal portraits "In Memoriam" of M. E. Comps. Loyal L. Munn, Grand High Priest in 1865, and John O'Neill, Grand High Priest in 1888. The death roll in this great jurisdiction numbers 374.

M. E. Comp. Frederick E. Hoberg proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. Giving the assembled Companions a cordial welcome, he plunged at once into the consideration of the business for which they had come together. He said: "My first official act after the close of the last Annual Convocation was to issue the usual circular dividing the jurisdiction into nine districts for visitation and assigning them to the charge of the line Grand Officers, in compliance with Section 5 of Grand Chapter By-Laws. Following is a copy of this circular:"

The circular gives the formation of the jurisdiction into nine districts. He concludes the district question as follows: "Grand Chapter By-Laws require the Grand High Priest to make such a subdivision of the jurisdiction each year, but I fail to see any reason for this provision in our law. The Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois provides for a division of the State into districts every ten years and the Code of Grand Commandery divides the subordinate Commanderies into permanent districts; an amendment to our Grand Chapter By-Laws providing for more permanent subdivision of the jurisdiction into districts would result in a saving of unnecessary work for future Grand High Priests and the printer."

Then under the head of "Obituary," he reports the closing of life's record in the "passing to rest of the" of the two beloved Past Grand High Priests—Loyal L. Munn and John O'Neill. His tribute of fraternal affection to these beloved Companions was worthy of and a fitting tribute to men who had devoted their lives to the service of Masonry. We note also in his report of Eminent Companions of sister jurisdictions who have passed the veil the name of our M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff.

We join him in spirit in dropping our sprig of acacia upon the last resting places of these devoted Masons. He says in closing: "I leave to the Committee on Obituaries the mournful task of preparing a more extended tribute to the memory of these craftsmen whose seats are vacant."

In his report of Special Dispensations, we note the following: "I received an application for a special dispensation from Kishwaukee

Chapter, No. 90, of Belvidere, authorizing said Chapter to take two teams to the neighboring city of Rockford to confer the Royal Arch degree on them, which was refused by me for the reason that Section 27 of Grand Chapter By-Laws provides that a Chapter can only legally meet in the town or municipality named in its charter or warrant."

He issued dispensations for the forming and opening of four new Chapters, and the constitution of Robinson Chapter, No. 225. The following is among his recommendations:

"I would recommend that the Committee on Obituaries be reduced from three members to one. As a rule one member of the committee does all the work and the two others have nothing to do but sign the report and draw their mileage and per diem. Prior to the year 1875 the Committee on Correspondence consisted of three members, but the By-Laws adopted at the Annual Convocation of 1874 provided that thereafter this committee should consist of but one member. The work of these two committees is similar and can best be done by having only one Companion for each committee, and I would urge upon you to adopt an amendment to Grand Chapter By-Laws to carry this recommendation into effect."

He concluded his address with a compliment to the Grand Secretary for faithful service.

The reports of Grand Treasurer Curtis and Grand Secretary Warvelle were received, read and concurred in.

A feelingly eloquent and interesting report was submitted by E. Comp. Ransom Bennett, Chairman of Committee on Obituaries.

The report was adopted and ordered published in the Journal of Proceedings. We excerpt the closing lines:

"These Companions have completed their labors on this earth and in this life and departed for a better world and a higher life in which, we trust, all scales of doubt and darkness will fall from their eyes and the works of the Divine Architect will be displayed in all their splendor. To those to whom they were near and dear their loss is a grief which only the healing hand of time can soothe. But with them, if our Masonic and religious faith means anything, it is well—with them it is well. Let us therefore be encouraged to well-doing by their example, that when our final hour comes we may with calm confidence go forward to share their peace and their rewards."

The Chairman of Correspondence, Past Grand High Priest George W. Warvelle, presented the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Your Committee on Correspondence, to whom was referred the matter of the Grand Chapter of Wyoming, respectfully reports: that on April 6, 1909, at the city of Rawlins, a Grand Chapter was duly organized in and for the territorial jurisdiction of Wyoming under and by virtue of the authority of the General Grand Chapter of the United States and in conformity to its constitutional usages.

"Wherefore, your committee recommends that the Grand Chapter of Wyoming be duly recognized as a lawfully organized governing body of Capitular Masonry and that relations of amity and correspondence be established therewith."

We excerpt the following summary of the work of the year:

The time having arrived for the election of officers for the ensuing year, Tellers were appointed and the election proceeded.

The M.°. E.°. Comp. Henry H. Montgomery was chosen Grand High Priest, and the R.°. E.°. Comp. George W. Warvelle Grand Secretary.

Past Grand High Priest Whipple offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the officers of Grand Chapter be permitted to retain their respective jewels during the recess, provided, however, that they shall severally be responsible for the safe keeping and return of some at the next ensuing Annual Convocation."

The Committee on Jurisprudence having reported and certain amendments to By-Laws adopted, and the general routine of business considered and disposed of, the installation of officers was called on.

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest then called M.°. E.°. Comp. Jos. E. Dyas to the East as Installing Officer, and appointed M.°. E.°. Comp. Geo. M. Moulton as Grand Marshal for the occasion. And thereupon the officers, elected and appointed, were duly installed into their respective offices in Ample Form, were duly proclaimed and saluted by the members with the Grand Honors of Royal Arch Masonry.

We are pleased to announce the re-appointment of Past Grand High Priest Geo. W. Warvelle as Committee on Correspondence.

The following little ceremonial speaks for itself:

Comp. Robert L. McKinlay then briefly addressed Grand Chapter, referring in eloquent terms to the work of retiring Grand High Priest, M.°. E.°. Comp. Frederick E. Hoberg, during the past year, as well as to his long and continuous service as a member and officer, after which he duly decorated Companion Hoberg with the official jewel of past rank and proclaimed him a member of the illustrious order of "has beens."

Companion Hoberg feelingly responded to the honor thus bestowed, regretting that the power of words was insufficient to enable him to express the thoughts which the gift inspired, and assured Grand Chapter that in becoming a "has been" he only changed the field and method of his labors for the Royal Craft, but with no diminution of his interest and zeal in its welfare.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form after prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood held its Fifty-fifth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Chicago, October 28, 1909,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. William K. Forsyth, President; E.°. Comp. George W. Warvelle, Recorder and Treasurer. All the officers and a good number of Excellent Companions present. The Council was opened in Solemn Form. Thirty-three Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, petitioned to receive the Order of High Priesthood, and the said petitions were referred to a committee of three. Whereupon the committee duly reported that each of the petitioners had been duly elected to preside over their respective Chapters, and the said several candidates were then received, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood.

The Excellent Companion Recorder reported the financial condition of the Council and his report was approved and concurred in.

The present officers were re-elected to serve for the ensuing year.

E.°. Comp. Bennett, from the Committee on Revision of Ritual, reported back the changes, alterations and emendations determined upon by the committee, whereupon the report was duly received and adopted.

On motion the report of the committee was ordered placed in some durable and permanent form and the committee were authorized and instructed to have same typewritten and suitably bound.

The business of the Grand Council being concluded, it was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Comp. Geo. W. Warvelle contributes a finished paper of sixty-two pages, in which he notes the doings of forty-eight Grand Capitular Bodies. He precedes this with a fifteen-page article of "Observations on the Order of High Priesthood," a scholarly review of the claims made of its origin and history. The paper is a most interesting one, furnishing "food for thought" for the student interested in this wonderful creation. We excerpt Companion Warvelle's conclusion:

"The year has been prosperous in the Capitular word and the depressing influences which late commercial disturbances have occasioned do not seem to have reached us. As I used to depend on the statistics gathered by the late Comp. John M. Barlow, of blessed memory, so now I turn to the table compiled by his successor, Comp. Geo. A. Kies. From this it would seem that the total membership in the United States, as shown by the latest published returns, is 348,317, distributed among 3,009 Chapters. The increase for the year is 21,221.

"The largest membership is that of New York, with 32,800 Royal Arch Masons. Pennsylvania comes next with 28,177, and then Illinois with 27,789. These are the 'Big Three.' The next in size is Ohio, with 25,698 members, and so the line tapers down until we come to Nevada, which has but 373. But four Grand Chapters show a membership of less than one thousand, while eleven have memberships in excess of ten thousand.

"The largest increase for the year was in Pennsylvania, which shows 2,888. The smallest was in Nevada, which reports 31. But no Grand Chapter shows a net loss. All report gains, and some of them very large gains.

"The contest for supremacy lies between New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois. New York leads us by a wide margin; Pennsylvania by a narrow one. Our increase, however, compares favorably with both of the others, and I fully expect to see the day when the Prairie State will lead the van as the premier Grand Chapter of the world."

INDIANA.

One Hundred Fourteen Chapters.

13,207 R. A. Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Indiana held its Sixty-fourth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Indianapolis, October 20, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. Robert M. H. Britton being the Grand High Priest, and the R. E. Comp. Calvin W. Prather, Grand Secretary. One hundred and twelve of the 114 Chapters were represented, with thirty-three other Grand Jurisdictions. All the Grand Officers and fifteen Past Grand High Priests, with the venerable Lucien A. Foote, Grand High Priest in 1875, at the head of the class—were in attendance.

A portrait of the incoming Grand High Priest appears on the opening page, and portraits "In Memoriam" of Past Grand High Priest Philemon A. Clugston, Simeon Stevens Johnson, Rees J. Chestnutwood, James W. Smith and Comp. Roger Parry, Grand Guard, are noted in the body of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, the Rev. Comp. Samuel L. Shirley, Grand Chaplain, leading the devotions.

After naming the standing committees the M. E. Comp. Robert M. H. Britton proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He opened with a recitation of the 133d Psalm, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity," etc. Continuing he said:

"Companions, these words you have heard hundred and thousands of times; you have repeated them time after time; you have been enthused by them, and you have enthused others by them. Why? Because they are eternal truths. Can you imagine anything more delightful, good and pleasant than a Convocation of enthusiastic Masons assembled to perform a constitutional duty, and to greet, love, renew old and make new Masonic acquaintances? But with all the sweetness and the pleasures of a meeting of this kind a tinge of sadness comes over us and we feel that there is something missing. We find that five of our distinguished and beloved Companions have been called away, and while we rejoice with each other in this Convocation we cannot forget those loved ones, members of this Grand Chapter, whom we have always delighted to honor—Companions Johnson, Clugston, Chestnutwood, Smith and Parry, a cluster of jewels bright in the firmament of Royal Arch Masonry."

Truly the Grand Chapter has been sadly stricken the present year, and well might the Grand High Priest exclaim upon the completion of the death roll, "Behold! what havoc the scythe of time has made." At the close of an affectionate and fraternal tribute to the beloved dead he said: "Let each of these beloved Companions have a memorial page in the Journal of the session," and then he continued:

"Let us pause for a moment and pay our respects to one hundred and ninety-nine loyal and beloved Companions of this Grand Jurisdiction, many of whom have labored long and have assisted in the upbuilding and progress of this Grand Chapter. They have attended meetings on many an unpleasant evening, and have gone out of their way and have even neglected their duty in other things, all for their love and zeal for the institution. In remembrance of them let us bow our heads in silence.

"I recommend a memorial page be set aside to our own fraternal dead."

And in the roll of the eminent dead of sister jurisdictions we find the name of our beloved Companion of all the Orders, Past Grand High Priest and Past Grand Commander, Jacob Hart Neff.

He reported the constitution of Center Chapter, No. 136, at Muncie. He reported his visitations of Constituent Chapters and the special dispensations issued, and we note the following refusal: "I have refused dispensations on several occasions to ballot on petition same evening received, referring them to General Regulations and Proceedings of 1908 covering this question."

We rather like his closing words: "And now, Companions, I thank you, one and all, for the honor conferred upon me in electing me to this high office. I feel just as important as Companion Marshall. He is Governor of everybody in Indiana, and I am governor of all the Royal Arch Masons in Indiana, including His Excellency."

The report of the Grand Treasurer is full and complete, but published over the black lines of instead of the name, with the following note "explanatory."

Note: The report of the Grand Treasurer was prepared by our late Grand Treasurer, Jacob W. Smith, the day prior to his death, and was found in all things correct.

Grand Secretary Prather submits his full, complete and correct report as usual. We excerpt his statement of "The work of the year": "Statistical—Number of active Chapters in Indiana, October 14, 1909, 114.

"Work of the Year—Mark Masters, 900; Past Masters, 884; M. E. Masters, 888; R. A. Masons, 895; reinstated, 22; affiliated, 176; died, 199; dimitted, 238; suspended for non-payment of dues, 138; suspended for other cause, 8; expelled, 7. Total membership, 13,207. Net increase in membership, 503."

The Grand Inspector made a full detailed report of the condition, financial and working, of the Chapters.

Feeling and eloquent memorials were submitted, devoted to the remembrance of the Eminent Companions at rest, and unanimously adopted by the Grand Chapter.

Many reports of committees were considered and disposed of. The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, Tellers were named and the election prevailed. M. E. Comp. Charles M. Worden was chosen Grand High Priest, and R.° E.° Comp. Calvin W. Prather was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all the officers, elected and appointed, were installed by the retiring Grand High Priest, who, at its conclusion, was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel.

Resolutions of thanks for courtesies extended were adopted to the Masonic Temple Association of Indianapolis, and to Raper Commandery, No. 1, K. T.

We are pleased to note the designation of M.° E.° Comp. Robert M. H. Britton as Correspondent.

The usual routine of business being concluded, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form after prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Council of High Priests of Indiana assembled in the Chapter-room of the Masonic Temple, Indianapolis, October 20, 1909,—The M.° E.° Comp. John J. Glendening, President; the E.° Comp. Calvin W. Prather, being Recorder. Besides the officers, twenty Excellent Companions were present. The Council was opened in Solemn Form, E.° Comp. William H. Hamelle, Chaplain, leading the Companions in prayer.

The M.° E.° President addressed the Council, paying an earnest and eloquent tribute to the Excellent Companions of the Council who had passed to rest since their last Annual. In conclusion the following prepared by E.° Comp. Calvin W. Prather was unanimously adopted: Comp. Prather in presenting the memorial said:

"Two vacant chairs in the official roster of this Council of Anointed High Priests sadden our hearts more than words can express—Companions Simeon Stevens Johnson and Jacob W. Smith. You have just listened to an eloquent tribute to the memory of our distinguished Companion, Simeon Stevens Johnson. To me has been assigned the duty of a few words relative to another equally beloved.

"On Sunday last our beloved Companion Smith, robust, and apparently in the best of health, a magnificent specimen of physical manhood, was with us, cheery and happy as usual. This morning the clods of the valley were placed over his remains in beautiful Crown Hill Cemetery. Beautiful tributes have been paid to him by both the Grand Council and the Grand Chapter. Further eulogy would be superfluous. To those who knew Jacob W. Smith no mead of praise could increase the affection in which he was held by his Companions of this Council of High Priests. We mourn his loss. We sympathize with his wife and children."

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, Tellers were appointed and the election proceeded. The M. E. Comp. John J. Glendening was chosen M. E. President, and E. Comp. Calvin W. Prather, Recorder. Forty Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The E. Companion Recorder reported the financial condition of the Council. The amount on hand was ordered paid into the Treasury of the Grand Chapter.

The Council was then closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

An excellent Report on Correspondence was submitted by M. E. Comp. Robert M. H. Britton, in which he observes the doings of fifty-two Grand Capitular Bodies in a paper of seventy pages. He notices California during the administration of M. E. Comp. Moebus, and is favorably impressed with the address and rulings of our Grand High Priest. He quotes liberally from his address and gives us his good wishes.

KANSAS.

Eighty-nine Chapters.

7,929 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kansas held its Forty-fourth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Wichita, February 15, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Augustus G. Wellman, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Albert K. Wilson being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were in attendance, with eleven Past Grand High Priests, fifty-nine Past High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-eight other Grand Jurisdictions. Fifty-seven of the eighty-nine Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Wellman appears on the opening page, and in the body of the journal a group of six appointed Grand Officers, with "In Memoriam," and a portrait of Spencer P. Wade, Grand Sentinel.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

By direction of the M. E. Grand High Priest, the Grand Marshal retired and escorted M. E. Bestor G. Brown, General Grand Master of the Third Vail of the General Grand Chapter, to the East of the sanctuary, where he was officially received by the M. E. Grand High Priest, saluted with the Grand Honors, and invited to occupy a seat in the East.

After announcing the standing committees the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. This paper of twelve pages is an interesting disquisition upon Capitular Masonry, its symbols and rites and its relations to human life. Recalling the events of the year he reported the passing to rest of E. Comp. Spencer P. Wade, Grand Sentinel, and gave to his memory the tribute of fraternal affection.

Under the head of Visitations, he repeated the oft heard declaration of "good intentions" as follows:

"As others have done before, a resolve was made to visit every Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in the State that should extend a special invitation during the present administration.

"Like many a good resolution made in the heat and zeal of gratitude, this one went a-glimmering. But few, if any, of us are perfect masters of our time. The burdens of business necessitate absence from home and office, preventing the acceptance of many kind invitations, and but few opportunities are found to make official visits."

The report of the Grand Secretary is of unusual length, twenty pages, Companion Wilson giving a full illustrated description of the improvements in his office. The filing cases for blanks and letters, historical registry and the entire vault equipment. This information is interesting and valuable. The report is one of Companion Wilson's ablest efforts; it omits no item of interest connected with the financial or working condition of the organization. We excerpt his summary of the work of 1907:

Number Companions on rolls Dec. 31, 1907..... 7,459

The Committee on Necrology made a feeling and eloquent report upon "Companions at rest," devoted particularly to the memory of the E.° Comp. Spencer P. Wade, and in sympathy with the Companions of Illinois and Michigan of Gilbert Woodsworth Barnard and Hugh McCurdy, the report closing with the appropriate poem,—

"Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea."

The Grand Chapter of Western Australia was recognized and an exchange of Representatives invited.

The reports of the standing committees were considered and disposed of in the usual routine.

The retiring Grand High Priest was presented with the jewel of a Past Grand High Priest.

M.° E.° Edward W. Waynant moved that the thanks of this Grand Chapter be extended to the Scottish Rite and other local Masonic Bodies of Wichita for the courtesies extended at this Annual Convocation. Motion adopted.

The standing committees were appointed, and after prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Royal Arch/Chapter of Kansas was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood assembled in the Scottish Rite Temple in Wichita, February 16, 1909,—M.° E.° Comp. William Frank March, President; E.° Comp. Albert K. Wilson, Recorder. All the officers and a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form. Twenty-three Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Treasurer and Recorder reported the financial condition of the Council; their reports were considered and approved.

The election of officers being held, M.° E.° Comp. A. O. Wellman was chosen President, and E.° Comp. Albert K. Wilson, Recorder.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is a fine paper of sixty-five pages, in which Comp. Matthew M. Miller reviews the doings of fifty-three Grand Capitular Jurisdictions. Although a new Chairman in this department, Companion Miller is by no means an apprentice at the work, as we remember his familiar signature attached to good square work of the Grand Lodge of Kansas. It is but fair to say that the hand has fully sustained its reputation for good work. In this report he notices California in its Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett. He comments favorably on the ruling and address of M. E. Comp. Willett and the work of this writer. We hope Companion Miller may find it pleasant to keep the pen in hand.

KENTUCKY.

Ninety-five Chapters.

7,311 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kentucky held its Ninety-second Annual in the New Masonic Temple, Louisville, October 19, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Laban T. Everett, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Henry B. Grant, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with fourteen Past Grand High Priests, forty Past High Priests and thirty-two Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Ninety-one of the ninety-five Chapters were represented. California's Representative, E. Comp. William C. McChord of Springfield, present.

A portrait of G. Allison Holland, retiring Grand High Priest, appears on the opening page, and in the body of the volume that of Capt. Thomas Todd, "In Memoriam," who was Grand High Priest in 1859. He was a veteran of the Mexican War.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, and the Grand Commander proceeded to deliver his address. We excerpt his opening words, which, with his announcement of the death of the veteran soldier and Past Grand High Priest, Thomas Todd, we consider of general Masonic interest. Addressing the Grand Chapter he said:

"COMPANIONS: It is with a heart full of gratitude that fraternally I greet you. Masonically the year has been a pleasant one to me, and I trust a profitable one to the Craft, but while this is true we have had sorrows intermingled with pleasure. As I look about me I see a vacant chair and 'Long for the touch of his tender hand and the sound of his voice that is still.' At the time of his death Comp. Thomas Todd was the oldest living Grand High Priest, as well as Grand Master, in our State. On receipt of information of his death on the 29th day of April, last, I wired to Companion Grant to provide suitable floral offering and to attend his funeral, if possible. I also caused notice of his death to be published in the Masonic Home Journal, a copy of which is attached and forms a part of this report.

"'GRAND CHAPTER OF KENTUCKY, R. A. M.,

"'CATLETTSBURG, KY., May 3, 1909.

"To the Chapters and Companions of Kentucky:

"'It becomes my sad duty to announce the death of our Venerable Companion, Past Grand High Priest Thomas Todd, who entered within the Fourth Vail, April 29, 1909, from his home in Shelby County, Ky., at the ripe old age of 88 years and 4 months.

"'He was born in Lincoln County, Ky., attended the common schools, was instructed by a private tutor and became a student of Center College. He returned to the farm, and served as Captain in the Third Kentucky Infantry during the Mexican War; was Master of the Army Lodge connected with his regiment and was elected a member of the Kentucky Legislature (1850) as a Whig.

"'He was initiated (1842), exalted to the Royal Arch Degree in Shelbyville Chapter, No. 2 (1845), and elected Grand High Priest in 1859. For years he had been the oldest living Past Grand High Priest in Kentucky and at the Annual Convocation in 1906 a special seat was set aside for his use in token of the high esteem in which he was held.

"'Captain Todd had been presiding officer of his Lodge and Chapter; was also Grand Master of the Grand Lodge in 1853, and was Grand Master of the Grand Council of Kentucky, R. & S. M. (1840), President of the Grand Council of High Priests for very many years, and held that office at the time of his death.

"'He was also a Knight Templar, and elected Grand Captain General in 1859.'"

He mentions the setting to work of a new Chapter which, from its name, ought to be a "good one": "Acting as my proxy, Comp. Samuel S. Foss, High Priest of H. B. Grant Chapter, U. D., on January 6, 1909, installed R. E. Comp. H. B. Grant Grand Secretary of this Grand Chapter. On the occasion of the installation, the new Chapter conferred degrees on a candidate and reported good prospect for success."

His decisions reported being of local interest only, we will not quote. The address is devoted almost entirely to matters of local concern.

The Grand Secretary, Comp. H. B. Grant, made a full and comprehensive report of the condition, financial and working, of the Grand Chapter. The committee after recording its approval of the Report of the Grand Secretary, inserted this brick, evidently intended for somebody: "That this Grand Chapter feels some satisfaction in knowing there are some Grand Representatives that have sufficient appreciation of their position as to induce them to make a report."

Past Grand High Priest John G. Orndorff, Chairman of Committee on Necrology, submitted a feeling and eloquent report devoted to the memories of the lamented dead Companions and expressing the sympathy of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky with its sister jurisdictions on the losses sustained in the passing to rest of the great number of Eminent Companions, beloved workers and representatives of Capitular Masonry. We note in the list of names mentioned that of our M. E. and Beloved Companion, Jacob Hart Neff.

No new or specially important business developed during the transactions of the session. Reports of the several standing committees were considered and disposed of.

The retiring Grand High Priest was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel.

Past Grand High Priests R. R. Burnam, Charles H. Fisk and John G. Orndorff, as a committee, introduced Comp. B. G. Witt, General Grand Scribe of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, who was received with Grand Honors.

The standing committees were appointed, the final roll called and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

An excellent Report on Correspondence was submitted by E. Comp. W. W. Clarke. Half a hundred Capitular Jurisdictions are reviewed in a paper of eighty-three pages. California was not reviewed, probably owing to our unsettled condition, having at the time barely regained our working form. We have carefully read Companion Clarke's report and find it not only entertaining but instructive.

LOUISIANA.

Thirty Chapters.

2,700 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Louisiana held its Sixty-second Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, New Orleans, February 2, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. C. C. Kramer, Grand High Priest; the M. E. Comp. Richard Lambert, Grand Secretary. Twenty-seven Chapters were represented. Eleven Past Grand High Priests and eleven Past High Priests were in attendance, with twenty-eight Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Kramer appears on the opening page.

After an invocation to the Great I Am by the E. and Rev. Comp. Herman C. Duncan, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a fraternal welcome and hearty greeting he gave his first thoughts to the memory of the forty-eight Companions whose names were inscribed on the death roll of the year. He said:

"There is always the mingling of the bitter-sweet in the contemplation of death, sorrow for the loss of Companions along the rough and rugged road of this mortal life, and rejoicing because they have gained admission through the white veil to the Holy of Holies above. Yet at each Annual Convocation we must pay our pious tribute to those dear Companions who have passed on before us. Faces once so familiar, lives once so active, souls which were ever a sweet balm of sympathy and succor to the sorrowful, are with us no longer.

"So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone:
And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since and lost awhile."

In a few eloquent words he paid to their memories the tribute of fraternal affection and recommended that "memorial pages be set apart in the Journal of Proceedings for all Companions who have descended the Arch and been exalted by the Supreme High Priest above."

He reported the several special dispensations issued, and the routine of business transacted during the recess.

Before closing he registered the following compliment to the official known as "Uncle Dick": "Before concluding my address, I must offer my gratitude to M. V. E. Comp. Richard Lambert, Grand Secretary, for many courtesies and invaluable helpfulness in the conduct of the affairs of my office. I might paraphrase Tennyson's Brook: Grand High Priests may come and Grand High Priests may go, but our Grand Secretary goes on forever. Though some day his kind and sympathetic face will be seen no longer in our midst, yet wherever the gospel of Freemasonry is preached his good deeds will be told as a memorial of him."

MAINE.

Sixty-one Chapters.

9,204 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maine held its Eighty-fourth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Portland, May 4, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. Franklin R. Redlon, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Stephen Berry being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with twenty Past Grand Officers and the Representatives of thirty-six other Grand Jurisdictions, were in attendance. Fifty-five of the sixty-one Constituent Chapters were represented.

M. E. Comp. Edward Coleman represents Maine near the Grand Chapter of California.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Full and Ample Form by the Grand High Priest, with the assistance of the officers and Companions, prayer being offered by the Rev. Ashley A. Smith, Grand Chaplain.

After naming the standing committees the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. With a cordial welcome and friendly greeting he expressed to the assembled Companions his gratitude: "That so many of us are permitted to return and meet old and welcome new friends is a source of great satisfaction, and let us hope the future years will deal lightly with us."

He extended the thanks of Grand Chapter to the Great Ruler for his protection and preservation of their official circle during the past year, while sister jurisdictions had been sorely afflicted with the loss of many Eminent and Beloved Companions. He tendered the fraternal sympathy of the Grand Chapter of Maine to the stricken jurisdictions and added that the Committee on Memorials would render suitable tribute to the eminent dead in connection with their own "death roll," upon which was inscribed the names of 138 beloved Companions. Nothing new or strange was developed by the action of the Grand Chapter upon the address.

Reports were submitted by the Deputy Grand High Priest, King and Scribe and four District Deputies. With so strong a supervising force in the field, the Chapters should have an excellent chance of a visit during the year.

The conditions given of the jurisdiction, financial and working, are excellent.

The Grand Secretary and Treasurer reported the Grand Secretary, Comp. Stephen Berry, making one of his "much in little," famous reports—all told in seven lines.

Comp. Herbert Harris, Correspondent and Chairman of Committee on Memorials, submitted a report of death's doings in the several Grand Jurisdictions during the year. We note in the long roll the name of our friend and Most Excellent Companion, Jacob Hart Neff. The paper is a feeling tribute of respect and affection devoted to the remembrance of the beloved Companions named in its pages. We excerpt its closing lines:

"O grave! a sacred trust
To thee is given. No common ashes sleep
Within thy guardian arms; securely keep
This consecrated dust,
Till, quickened with new life, it shall arise,
A glorious body, fitted for the skies."

"These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple."

We excerpt the following report from the Committee on Returns:

Your committee having attended to the duty assigned them, would report as follows: Returns have been received from all the fifty-nine Chapters, also the one under dispensation.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, the Companions were installed by M. E. Comp. Albro E. Chase, M. E. Comp. Edwin A. Porter, acting as Master of the Ceremonies and the Rev. Comp. Ashley A. Smith as Grand Chaplain.

The standing committees having reported and the routine of business disposed of, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Council of the Order of High Priesthood for Maine held its Annual Convocation for the year 1909 in Masonic Hall, May 5th,—The M.·. E.·. Comp. Alfred S. Kimball, President; E.·. Comp. Stephen Berry being the Recorder. All the officers and a large number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The Recorder presented a report of the condition of the finances of the Council, which was considered and approved. Twenty-two Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The annual election of officers was held and the present officers were re-elected.

As in California the following rules prevail:

Wednesday evening of the second day of the Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter is the time for the Annual Meeting.

All candidates must present a certificate of election and installation under seal of the Chapter, and be present at that time. If not present at that or the ensuing annual session, the election lapses.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Comp. Herbert Harris, Maine's Correspondent, is a workman who never gets tired, a proof of which is in the Journal before us.

In this Journal of Proceedings he submits a paper of 120 pages in which he reviews the Grand Bodies of the Capitular World. The report is of value to the library as a literary production and affords striking proof of the steady advancement and prosperity of Capitular Masonry in America.

Companion Harris "kicks" a little at dependent membership, "modern methods," etc. Why, bless you, Companion Harris, therein is the key to our progress, and will not down.

He takes in California on his journey in its Fifty-fourth Annual, the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett, for whose address and rulings he has a good word, and from which he quotes liberally. He gives his general approval to our legislation. Thank you, Companion Harris.

MARYLAND.

Twenty-three Chapters.

3,138 Royal Arch Masons.

A Special Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maryland was held prior to the opening of the One hundred Twelfth Annual Convocation, for the dedication of the Capitular apartments of the new Masonic Temple, Baltimore, November 18, 1909. All of the Grand Officers were present, with twelve Past Grand Officers and upwards of two hundred of the Representatives to and members of the Grand Chapter.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Full Form.

A delegation of Past Grand High Priests proceeded to the Grand Secretary's office and escorted many distinguished Companions to the Grand Chapter.

The visiting Companions were members of the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America and of the Grand Chapters of Virginia, Delaware, the District of Columbia, New York and Pennsylvania.

The Grand High Priest, preceded by the Grand Principal Sojourner and followed by Grand and Past Grand Officers in reverse order, entered the center of the hall, when they were received by the Deputy Grand Master and Board of Managers. The Deputy Grand Master, in an eloquent address, presented the Chapter Apartments to the Grand High Priest.

The Grand High Priest in accepting the apartments made another eloquent and appropriate speech.

The Grand Officers then assumed their respective stations, the Ark of the Covenant was safely seated, and the Book of the Law and the Chapter deposited upon the altars.

The R. E. Grand Chaplain, Comp. Rev. Edward W. Wroth, then delivered the prayer of dedication.

A procession of the Grand Officers then moved thrice around the hall, the Grand Chaplain reading the following selections and the organ playing soft music:

"There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains. the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon; and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

"His name shall endure forever; his name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in him; all nations shall call him blessed."

"And blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

"Blessed be His glorious name forever; and let the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen, and Amen."

The Grand Scribe then presented the vessel of corn to the Grand High Priest, who poured corn upon the Chapter.

The procession again moved thrice around the hall, the Grand Chaplain reading the following selection and the organ playing soft music:

"For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers; and we will not forsake the house of our God.

"And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart."

The Grand King then presented the vessel of wine to the Grand High Priest, who sprinkled the Chapter with wine.

The procession again moved thrice around the hall, the Grand Chaplain reading the following selection and the organ playing soft music:

"And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary; it shall be an holy anointing oil.

"And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony,

"And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense,

"And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot,

"And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

"And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, and they may minister unto me in the Priest's office."

The Deputy Grand High Priest then presented the vessel of oil to the Grand High Priest, and he sprinkled oil upon the Chapter.

All joined in singing the Ode, as in the ceremonies of the M. E. M. degree: "All hail to the morning that bids us rejoice."

The Grand High Priest then announced: "By virtue of the high powers in me vested, I do now declare this Tabernacle duly consecrated and dedicated to the purposes of Royal Arch Masonry."

The Grand Chaplain pronounced the Benediction. An Ode was sung and M. E. Comp. James F. Allen delivered the address of the occasion. The exercises closed with the chant, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is," by the quartette.

The Grand Chapter was then closed and the Companions proceeded to the Banquet Hall, adjoining, the organ playing a march.

From a copy of the menu which survived the feast the work was uniform and most satisfactory.

"Long may the Capitular Apartments of the Masonic Temple in Maryland remain a shelter and refuge for Royal Arch Masonry in that Grand Jurisdiction."

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Maryland held its One Hundred Twelfth Annual Convocation in the Capitular Apartments of the Temple November 18th, commencing at 7 o'clock p. m.,—M.°. E°. Comp. John W. Linthienne, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E°. Comp. John H. Miller being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present and all the Chapters were represented. Eleven Past Grand High Priests were in attendance, with the Representatives of thirty-three other Grand Jurisdictions. Fifty Past High Priests were also present.

A handsome steel engraved portrait of Grand High Priest Linthienne appears in this number of the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The roll of the Grand Representatives near this Grand Chapter was then called by the R.°. E°. Grand Secretary, and the Companions given a most hearty welcome by the M.°. E°. Grand High Priest—Comp. Graham Dukehart, G. L., responding for the Grand Representatives.

In accordance with the custom of "the Fathers" in Maryland, the officers-elect, the High Priests, Kings and Scribes of all the subordinate Chapters in that Grand Jurisdiction were installed by the Grand High Priest, assisted by the other Grand Officers.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a pleasant greeting and a few words on the rapid flight of time, he added:

"We have much to be thankful for during the past year. Peace and harmony prevail throughout our jurisdiction, we have made substantial gains in numbers, and death has touched us lightly.

"The past year has seen our beautiful temple completed and ready for occupancy once more, and we have today a temple more beautiful, more substantial and more commodious than ever, for which blessing we are truly grateful to the Great I Am."

He paid fraternal tribute to the Companions at rest, and in spirit dropped his sprig of acacia on the last resting-place of those of their own household and families, and also those of sister jurisdictions.

The Grand Chapter Resolved, Condemning the use of the seal of the Grand Chapter on the payment of bills or receipts for dues.

The Grand Secretary submitted his as usual painstaking, detailed report.

Past Grand High Priest Charles E. Cochrane submitted the following:

"WHEREAS, It has been largely through the personal effort, energy and zeal of M.° W.° Bro. Thomas J. Shyrook, Grand Master of Masons in Maryland, that this Grand Chapter has been provided with these beautiful and appropriate quarters; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this Grand Royal Arch Chapter that a committee of five be appointed by the M.° E.° Grand High Priest for the purpose of procuring suitable engrossed resolutions expressing our appreciation of his invaluable services—time and place of presentation to be determined by the incoming M.° E.° Grand High Priest."

Comp. Charles E. Cochrane, Past Grand High Priest, was called to the East, and in a few well chosen words presented the Past Grand High Priests with Past Grand High Priest jewels of gold, with the Coat of Arms of Maryland in enamel and the breast plate in jewels.

Each of the recipients in turn making a happy response in acknowledgment of the honor conferred.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, the Grand High Priest-elect, with the Grand King and Scribe, were installed by Past Grand High Priest John W. Linthienne. The Grand High Priest-elect, William B. King, then installed all the other officers.

At 11:30 p. m. the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Eighty-fifth Annual Convocation of the Council of the High Priests of Maryland assembled in Masonic Temple, Baltimore, November 18th, at 10 o'clock a. m.,—M.° E.° Comp. John M. Carter, President; E.° Comp. John H. Miller, Secretary, with the other officers and forty Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The M.° E.° President submitted the death roll of the year and mourning pages were ordered prepared in the Journal devoted to the memory of five Companions at rest.

The M.° E.° President extended a most cordial welcome to Comps. James L. Michie, E.° Master of Ceremonies of the Council of High Priests, R.° E.° Deputy Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter and M.° W.° Grand Master of Masons in South Carolina, and James B. Blanks, E.° Secretary of the Council of High Priests and Past Grand High Priest and R.° E.° Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of Virginia.

Both of these distinguished Companions made very suitable and eloquent responses to the address of welcome by the M.° E.° President and afterwards assisted, with the Past Grand High Priests present—Carter, Allen, Cook, Foble, Martin, Trippe, Larrabee, Isaacs and Cochrane—in receiving the thirteen candidates.

Thirteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The reports of the Treasurer and Secretary were read and approved. The box of fraternal assistance was passed and the Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This review of the Grand/Bodies in the Capitular world is by the veteran Companion, Edward T. Shultz. He submits a fine paper of seventy-five pages, in which he reviews the Grand Bodies in their order. He notices us of California in the Fifty-fifth Annual, F. W. G. Moebus, Grand High Priest. Our M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff was the Representative of the Grand Chapter of Maryland, and M. E. Comp. Schultz pays him this tribute:

"He was a pioneer of 1850, and had been actively and prominently engaged in the business interests of the State; had served in various positions of importance, including that of Lieutenant Governor, was active and zealous in all branches of Masonry for more than half a century; had been presiding officer of all the Grand Bodies except the Grand Lodge, where he was Junior Grand Warden, and in the Scottish Rite, where he was Grand Chancellor."

Our dear old Brother indulges in the retrospective, at times, as do all of us old fellows. Now listen to Brother Schultz a moment:

"Since the loss of my eyesight, just twelve years ago, my Brother Correspondents, with scarcely an exception, have expressed their sympathy in the kindest manner, often accompanied with high commendation of my labors. Some of these I have from time to time quoted in my reports, not from motives of personal vanity, but as an acknowledgment of their kindness and fraternal regard.

"Some twenty-five years ago some one dubbed the Reportorial Corps a mutual admiration society. While fulsome adulation or flattery is not to be commended, to every right thinking person praise given to one's best and conscientious efforts, especially to his views and opinions formed after long years of study, is not only pleasant and agreeable, but is healthful, as it stimulates us to renewed efforts in our field of labor.

"The Grim Reaper has been busy among the Corps Reportorial; since July no less than five have been cut down by his relentless scythe. These were Dr. Joseph Robbins, of the Grand Lodge of Illinois; Rufus E. Anderson, of the Grand Chapter of Missouri; William Moore Cunningham, of the Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter of Ohio; William C. Swain, of the Grand Chapter of Wisconsin, and Alexander Morrill Lambdin, of the Grand Chapter of Georgia.

"The receipt of the news of the death of these Brethren, with the exception of Brother Cunningham, did not reach me until my reports were in the hands of the printer and a portion of them in type. I can therefore only make this brief mention of their deaths. Should my life be spared to make reports next year, it will be my mournful pleasure to speak more at length of their lives and services to the Fraternity; they were all able and forcible writers, and will be greatly missed at the round table.

"The death of Companion Cunningham leaves four octogenarians still in the Guild: William Y. Titcomb, of Alabama; William A. Davies, of California; Thomas M. Matthews, of Texas, and myself. We have all passed the eighty-second mile-stone, and it is quite certain that we will not be able to prepare many more reports, but our dear, venerable Brothers will unite with me in the hope and prayer to our Heavenly Father that when He causes the pen to fall from our lifeless fingers we may be found acceptable in His sight through the merits and mediation of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah; and that it may be said of us, that in the hundreds of pages we have written we were ever actuated alone by the interest and welfare of our beloved Fraternity."

MASSACHUSETTS.

Seventy-six Chapters.

20,818 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts assembled in three Quarterly and one Annual Convocations during the year 1908. The Quarterlies were held on March 10, June 5 and September 8, and the Annual on December 8, 1908, in Ionic Hall, Masonic Temple, Boston,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Baalis Sanford, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. J. Gilman Waite, Grand Secretary. At the Quarterly Convocation of March 10 all the Grand Officers were present except the Grand Scribe, the R.°. E.°. Comp. Henry Pinkham Brown, who passed to rest February 21, 1908. Fifty-four Chapters were represented. Twenty permanent members, Past Grand Officers, and twenty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance. Comp. Albert L. Richardson of Boston represents California near the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts.

An amendment to General Regulations concerning the vote of Bodies in Grand Chapter was fully discussed and unanimously rejected.

The appointed Grand Officers not installed because of absence at the Annual were introduced and duly installed.

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest referred with much tenderness of feeling and with a deep sense of appreciation of the loss the Grand Chapter had sustained in the death of its R.°. E.°. Grand Scribe, Comp. Henry P. Brown of Nantucket.

An affectionate fraternal memorial devoted to the record of his private and Masonic life was presented, read and adopted.

The committee to whom was referred the Annual Address of the Grand High Priest requested and was granted further time.

No further business appearing, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, Rev. R. Perry Bush, D. D., officiating at the Altar.

At the Quarterly of June 9 there was a full attendance of officers and permanent members.

The entrance of the Grand Officers was proclaimed by E. V. Comp. Walter F. Medding, Grand Captain of the Host, and the Grand Chapter was duly organized at 7:40 o'clock p. m.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, Excellent and Rev. Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The Committee on Address of the Grand High Priest reported, of which we can only give the closing lines: "In conclusion, your committee desires to express its warm appreciation of the constant, conscientious service which M. V. E. V. Comp. Hunt has been ever ready to give to Capitular Masonry in Massachusetts, not only during the past three years as Grand High Priest, but during many previous years as Grand Lecturer.

"It has been a labor of love, given freely and gladly out of the abundance of his desire to build strong and true, and Capitular Masonry lovingly acknowledges its debt of gratitude to him."

A feeling memorial was presented and adopted devoted to the remembrance of the R. V. E. V. Comp. Arthur Trueman Way, Grand High Priest in 1898, who passed to rest March 10, 1908. We excerpt the committee's closing lines:

"All who knew him felt that any matter with which he had to do would receive the highest and best consideration from the standpoint of fair and honorable treatment. He loved and practised the precept, 'Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you,' and in this spirit he built up a noble, useful and loving life and character.

"His home life was all that was beautiful, serene and happy in the companionship of a beloved and loving wife and two daughters, who remain with us to mourn the loss of one whose soul is with us no more, but, as we believe, has passed on to higher usefulness to receive the crown of 'Well done, good and faithful servant.'

"As a man he was the soul of honor. As a Mason he was zealous and conscientious in the discharge of every duty. As a husband and father he was kind and indulgent.

"Such was the life and character of the Companion whom this Grand Chapter is called to mourn.

"How fast they fall—those we have known—
As leaves from autumn branches blown
So quickly sear!
Yes, one by one they drop away
As withered leaves that fall and stray
And disappear."

At the Quarterly of September 8 all the Grand Officers, seventeen permanent members were present, thirty-three Chapters were represented, and twenty Representatives of other Grand Chapters were in attendance.

The entrance of the M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest and Grand Officers was proclaimed by Comp. Walter F. Medding, E.°. Grand Captain of the Host, at 7:30 o'clock, and the Grand Chapter was duly organized.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, Rev. Comp. Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The following action was had as to the establishment of a Masonic Home in the jurisdiction:

"Resolved, That this Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts hereby expresses its thorough and hearty sympathy and accord with the endeavors of the Grand Lodge of Masons to establish a Masonic Home and offers its services toward the accomplishment of this excellent measure, begs leave to report:

"The Grand Chapter having already expressed its hearty approval of the project to establish a Masonic Home in Massachusetts, the question comes on the method by which the Grand Chapter may render service towards the accomplishment of that end.

"Upon careful inquiry by this committee, it would seem that the time is not yet ripe for this Grand Chapter to determine in what way it may best co-operate with the Grand Lodge in this project. We therefore recommend that further action by this Grand Chapter be postponed to some future date."

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest announced the death of two of the permanent members of this Grand Chapter since its last Quarterly Convocation: Comp. George Wilby, Grand Scribe in 1889, and Comp. Olin C. Towle, R.°. E.°. Grand King in 1898, and committees were appointed to prepare and present suitable memorials to their memory.

No further business appearing, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, Excellent and Rev. Paul Sterling conducting the devotional exercises.

The Companions then repaired to the banquet hall, where an hour that was enlivened by the music of the Schubert Quartette was passed socially.

The One Hundred Tenth Annual Convocation was held in Ionic Hall of the Masonic Temple, Boston, December 8, 1908. All the Grand Officers, twenty-three permanent members and the Representatives of twenty-five other Grand Jurisdictions were present.

The entrance of the M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest and Grand Officers was proclaimed at 9:30 o'clock a. m. by Comp. Walter F. Medding, E.°. Grand Captain of the Host, the Grand Chapter was duly organized, and opened in Ample Form, Comp. Rev. Paul Sterling officiating at the Altar.

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest extended a brief but hearty welcome to the Companions, who had already assembled in considerable numbers, at this early hour, to witness the annual exemplification of the work by the Grand Lecturers and their corps of assistants, who were requested to proceed with the work of the day.

In the exemplification the Grand Lecturer, E.°. Comp. Lorenzo L. Green, officiated as M.°. E.°. High Priest, and the other stations were filled by his assistants.

At 1:20 o'clock p. m. the Grand Officers resumed their stations for the purpose of declaring a recess until 2:30 o'clock. The Companions present were invited to partake of a substantial collation which had been provided by the Grand Chapter. Two hundred and ten Companions were present. Work was resumed in the Royal Arch Degree at 2:30 o'clock and closed at 4:55 o'clock, when the Grand Lecturers and their assistants vacated their stations to the Grand Officers.

On assuming the East, the M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest commended the work of the day highly for its general excellence, dignity and correctness. Its beautiful and effective rendition received the warmest praise from the Companions who had been present through the day.

An intermission was then declared until 7 o'clock in the evening.

Sixty-three Chapters were represented at the exemplification of the work.

At 7 o'clock the entrance of the M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest, accompanied by the Grand Officers, was officially announced and the Grand Chapter was declared to be opened in Ample Form, Comp. Rev. Paul Sterling leading in the devotional exercises.

The Committee on By-Laws and the Auditing Committee reported. The Committee on Returns reported the work of the year as follows:

Membership as reported Aug. 31, 1908.....	20,087
Members affiliated or reinstated.....	1,312
	<hr/>
Making	21,399
Number dimitted	126

	20,818
Net gain for the year	731

The receipts from the several Chapters by the Grand Secretary have been as follows:

76 Chapters, fee $6.....	$ 456.00
1,234 Candidates, "Marked," $5.....	6,170.00
	<hr/>
	$6,626.00

Memorials were presented, read and adopted devoted to the memories of Olin Clark Towle, R.'. E.'. Grand King in 1898, and R.'. E.'. Comp. George Wilby, who was Deputy Grand High Priest in 1889.

At the close of their reading the memorials were adopted unanimously, the Companions standing in token of their respect for the memory of the deceased.

The Grand High Priest then delivered the Annual Address—an excellent paper of eighteen pages, devoted to the local interests of the Bay State Jurisdiction. We excerpt the following because of the well-deserved compliment to Grand Secretary Waite and the excellent and flattering condition of the jurisdiction:

"I was pleased, as was also the Grand Secretary, at the promptness with which all the secretaries of subordinate Chapters sent in their annual returns and the correct manner in which the work was done, showing careful thought and attention to all the details, which is very commendable and creditable to the several secretaries and gratifying to the Grand Secretary.

"The Chapters throughout the Commonwealth have been unusually prosperous and harmonious, and the large number of affiliates has attested the interest taken in Capitular Masonry."

The election of officers for the ensuing year having been ordered, Tellers were appointed and the election proceeded. M.'. E.'. Comp. Baalis Sanford was re-elected Grand High Priest, and R.'. E.'. Comp. J. Gilman Waite was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The officers having been chosen and appointments made, were installed by M. E. Comp. and Past Grand High Priest Harry Hunt.

The committees were appointed and on motion it was voted: That the thanks of the Grand Chapter be, and hereby are, tendered to the Grand Lecturers and their assistants for the beautiful and effective rendition of the work of the several degrees of Capitular Masonry that had been given this day; for the reverential spirit, power and inspiration that was everywhere manifest in the work, giving to every listener's mind an uplift and a higher conception of the beauties of the Ritual.

On motion it was voted: That the thanks of the Grand Chapter be, and are, tendered to St. Andrew's and St. Paul's Chapters for the use of their paraphernalia loaned the Grand Chapter this day.

No further business appearing, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, Rev. Comp. R. Perry Bush, D. D., leading the Companions in their devotions.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Assembly of the Massachusetts Convention of High Priests was held in Ionic Hall of the Temple in Boston, March 10, 1908,—M. E. Comp. Warren B. Ellis, President; E. Comp. J. Gilman Waite, Grand Secretary. A goodly number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form. Sixteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

Reports were presented, read and approved by the Convention from the E. Comps. Secretary and Treasurer.

The officers were re-elected and the routine business of the Convention concluded. The Secretary reports:

No further business appearing, the Convention was closed in Due Form and the Companions repaired to the banquet Hall, where an hour was passed socially.

At the close of the banquet the Companions were entertained by E. Comp. Clarence A. Brodheur, Past High Priest of Evening Star Chapter, who announced as his topic "The Mark of a Mason."

At the close of the address the Companions, in accordance with a time-honored custom, joined in singing the "Sweet Bye and Bye," in remembrance of those who have passed on to the Celestial Lodge.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Our R. E. Comp. and Co-Correspondent, J. Gilman Waite, contributes an unusually full report of all the bodies known in Capitular Masonry, a paper of 289 pages, wherein he reveals fifty-five Grand Jurisdictions thoroughly, giving their financial and working condition. The report is a fine summary of the condition and strength of Capitular Masonry in America. California receives its full share of attention, this report reviewing the Fifty-fourth Annual, the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett, from whose address he quotes freely and with approval. He takes no exception to our legislation generally, and drops, in spirit, his sprig of acacia with us in remembrance of our beloved dead.

We appreciate his kind words and give him salutation.

MICHIGAN.

One Hundred Forty-seven Chapters. 19,111 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Michigan held its Sixty-first Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Bay City, May 18, 1909,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. M. Earl Brackett, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. Charles A. Conover, Grand Secretary. One hundred forty-four of the 147 Chapters were represented and there were fifteen Past Grand High Priests in attendance.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page. Portraits "In Memoriam" of Past Grand High Priests James P. Fiske of 1867, Hugh McCurdy of 1871, Samuel C. Randall of 1891, and James H. Cummings of 1894 appear in this number of the Journal. These M.°. E.°. Companions passed to rest during the years 1908-9, and their names were added to Michigan's Roll of Honor.

A constitutional number of Chapters having reported by their Representatives to the Grand Secretary, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form by the M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest, assisted by his associate Grand Officers. Prayer was offered by the Grand Chaplain.

An address of welcome was delivered by the Mayor of Bay City, followed by one from Comp. George L. Lusk, the "Village Postmaster" and chairman of the Entertainment Committee, who also extended a most hearty and fraternal welcome. He also gave notice of a theater party which had been arranged for the visiting Companions in the evening, and a special automobile ride for the ladies at 10 o'clock the next morning.

Having named the committees, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. His opening words were brief. He said:

"COMPANIONS: Another Michigan year in Capitular Masonry is closing. The last rays of this particular Masonic sun will soon darken and tomorrow another and brighter one will light the way.

"It becomes my duty to report to you the manner in which I have conducted my office and performed the duties which you have intrusted to me."

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the forming and opening of four new Chapters.

He made but few visitations, but something seems to have impressed him on some occasions. We excerpt:

"If it has been your practice, Companions, to confer any of the degrees in a frivolous manner and with the idea of impressing upon your candidate that he has 'been through' something, change your methods. Right about; make your candidate feel, not on his person, but in his mind, that he is receiving lessons which he will be expected to live up to. Give him a true idea of the beautiful lessons you aim to teach. His regard for Capitular Masonry will be increased and you will also be called upon, from the very force of your endeavor to increase, if possible, your abilities to correctly impress the next candidate."

In presenting the subject of the legitimate expenses of a Grand Body, salaries paid, etc., he presented for comparison the salaries paid and necessary expenses of several jurisdictions of like class. Concluding his review he placed of record the following compliment to the present Grand Secretary and Grand Lecturer:

"High praise has been given by Past Grand High Priests to our present Grand Secretary and Grand Lecturer. All of the good things which they have said I heartily concur in, and add to them all which I have said that these two officers should be, in my plea for one representative. For true courtesy, good counsel, patience under circumstances which would try the temper of most of us, and for their pleasant but business-like way of doing things, they surely excel."

Full and complete reports were made by the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary. Grand Secretary Conover's report is a full and complete record of the working as well as the financial history and present condition of the Grand Chapter of Michigan. We excerpt his summary of the work of the year:

An Amendment to the Constitution was recommended by the Finance Committee and adopted, reducing the number of Representatives to all Convocations of the Grand Chapter by striking out the word two and inserting one, the amended law to read as follows:

Section 1. The Grand Officers, Past Grand High Priests and one Representative of each Subordinate Chapter shall each receive three dollars per diem for each day's actual attendance upon all Convocations of the Grand Chapter, and six cents a mile in the Lower Peninsula and eight cents in the Upper Peninsula, one way, the usual route traveled to the place of meeting of the Grand Chapter.

Comp. Charles A. Conover, Committee on Correspondence, presented his report, which was adopted. The review will be found printed in the appendix.

Companion Conover as Committee on Correspondence recommended the recognition of the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming, and both were accorded recognition as just and legal Grand Chapters and each was fraternally welcomed into the family of Grand Chapters.

Comp. Charles Cottrell announced that the steamer State of New York would start at 2:30 p. m. for an excursion down Saginaw Bay, and all members of Grand Chapter and their ladies were cordially invited to participate. The very kind invitation was accepted.

Comp. Hiram Marks, Chairman of Committee on Obituaries, made an excellent report paying the last sad tribute of respect and affection to the four Eminent and Most Excellent Companions, the last names on their Roll of Honor, but also remembering those of other jurisdictions who had passed to rest within the year, closing their report with the following lines:

"How fast they fall, those we have known,
As leaves from autumn branches blown,
So quickly sear; Yes, one by one they drop away,
As withered leaves they stray and disappear.

"The air is full of farewells to the dying,
And mourning for the dead.
There is no Death: What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life Elysian,
Whose portal we call Death."

The time having arrived for the election of Grand Officers for the ensuing year, Tellers were appointed and the election proceeded. M.' E.' Comp. George W. Armstrong was chosen Grand High Priest, and R.' E.' Comp. Charles A. Conover was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments and the standing committees reported, the installation of Grand Officers was in order.

The Grand High Priest called Comp. Thomas H. Williams, Past Grand High Priest, to the chair for the purpose of installing the Grand Officers-elect, and Comp. Frank N. Clark, Past Grand High Priest, was appointed as Grand Marshal. The several officers of Grand Chapter were duly installed and the Grand Marshal so proclaimed.

The standing committees were announced and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Forty-ninth Annual Convocation of the High Priests of Michigan was held in Masonic Temple, May 18, 1909,—M.' E.' Comp. Travers Phillips, President; E.' Comp. Arthur S. Hudson being the Recorder, with a good attendance of Excellent Companions.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The President announced the death during the past year of E.' Comps. John P. Fiske and James H. Cummings, loyal and devoted members of the Order of High Priesthood. He paid affectionate and fraternal tribute to the memory of each.

Fourteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

A general discussion was had concerning the interests of the Council, after which the election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the present officers were re-elected, with the exception of Grand Treasurer, made vacant by the death of E.' Comp. James H. Cummins. E.' Comp. Emerson M. Newell was chosen Grand Treasurer.

The Grand Recorder reported the financial condition of the Grand Council and his report was approved.

The Council then closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is submitted by R.'. E.'. Comp. Charles A. Conover, also Committee on Correspondence. In it he reviews the doings of forty-six Grand Royal Arch Jurisdictions in a paper of 145 pages, and certainly makes a fine exhibit of the progress and present condition of Capitular Masonry in America. He notices California in its Forty-fifth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett. He salutes M.'. E.'. Comp. Willett as a former Michigan man in the following complimentary words:

"A splendid steel engraving of a former Michigan man forms the frontispiece of these proceedings. He formerly lived in St. Louis, Michigan, and since leaving his home has been honored twice in his far western adopted State. Charles J. Willett presided at the Fifty-fourth Annual Convocation, held in San Francisco, April 21, 1908. He had previously received all the honors in the Grand Council and retired a year or so ago. Michigan extends congratulations and best wishes to Companion Willett."

Seventy-seven of the eighty-nine Chapters were represented. In opening his address the Grand High Priest said:

"Those who were present at the closing hour last year will not soon forget the prayer of the Grand Chaplain and the gradual fading away of his words as he fell backward in a fainting condition. This seemed to foreshadow the early passing of our beloved Companion and soon after we were informed of his departure to the better land.

"Eli Tucker Blackmer, Past Grand High Priest and our Grand Chaplain, was a rare man. Much reading and observation had fed a mind naturally bright and receptive, until it had acquired a remarkable store of learning. He was always delightful as a Companion, ever loth to criticise, yet firm in the expression of all his convictions. It was my pleasure to meet him on my first visit to the State, and a friendship was then begun which was only intercepted by death. His death occurred on the 16th day of July, 1907."

Speaking of his work, Companion Conover says in his conclusion: "The review on the whole is most encouraging for the future of Royal Arch Masonry. Almost without exception there has been progress and increased interest."

And so say we all of us.

MINNESOTA.

Seventy-one Chapters.

7,753 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Minnesota held its Forty-eighth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, St. Paul, October 12, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Jerome E. Cooley, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. John Fishel, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with eighteen permanent members (Past Grand Officers), and the Representatives of thirty other Grand Jurisdictions, California being represented by Past Grand High Priest George N. Houghton. Sixty-six of the seventy-one Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Cooley appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

M. E. Comp. Nathan Kingsley, G. G. King of the G. G. Chapter of the United States, and M. E. Comp. Thomas C. Cassidy, Past Grand High Priest of New York, being present, were escorted to the East by all the Past Grand High Priests present, received with the Grand Honors and each addressed the Companions.

After appointing the standing committees the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a fraternal greeting he said: "I bid a welcome to you all, old and young. May you enjoy this meeting and go home to your Companions with the feeling that your time has been profitably spent." And then while congratulating the Companions upon the preservation of their official circle from the approach of the Grim Messenger, he presented the record of deaths in sister jurisdictions, and among them we find recorded that of M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff, a much beloved Past Grand High Priest of California. In concluding his submission of the Death Roll of the year he said:

"A committee will be appointed to draft suitable resolutions expressing our sympathy to those Grand Jurisdictions who mourn the loss of deceased Companions."

He reported the constitution of Jewel Chapter, No. 76.

He issued a dispensation for the forming and opening of Morris Chapter at Warroad, Roseau county. He reported his visitations and rulings.

He reported a pleasing incident in connection with the installation of Chapter officers:

"After the ceremony of installation, I presented each of the three Chapters with a black walnut gavel taken from a tree planted by my father at my old home in New York State 100 years ago."

The Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer submitted their reports. We excerpt from the Grand Secretary's report an abstract of the work of the year:

The Committee on Correspondence, Comp. Irving Todd, recommended and Grand Chapter resolved, that the Grand Chapter of Wyoming be and the same is recognized as a constituent member of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, and an exchange of Representatives is herewith recommended.

According to the Journal, the Grand Chapter celebrated its Fiftieth Anniversary on this its Forty-eighth Annual Convocation.

The time for the special order, the election of officers for the ensuing year, having arrived, Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen: The M.°. E.°. Comp. James Ridler, Grand High Priest, and the R.°. E.°. Comp. John Fishel was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The standing committees having reported, the usual routine business was concluded.

The Representatives of the various Grand Jurisdictions present were called upon, each made report, and each was instructed to convey to the Companions of the Grand Jurisdiction which he represented the fraternal greetings of this Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, the Grand Officers, elected and appointed, were duly installed into their respective offices by M.°. E.°. Comp. Nathan Kingsley, assisted by M.°. E.°. Comp. Isaac L. Hart as Grand Marshal.

The jewel procured for M.°. E.°. Comp. Jerome E. Cooley was then presented to him by M.°. E.°. Comp. Nathan Kingsley on behalf of the Grand Chapter. Companion Cooley accepted the same with a graceful response.

Thanks were extended to the Masonic Union for use of Hall and Comp. T. W. Hugo for his eloquent and instructive address at the semi-centennial exercises.

The Grand High Priest named the committees and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests of Minnesota was held in Masonic Hall, October 12, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. James Kelly, President; E. Comp. John Fishel being the Recorder, and a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Eleven Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood. At the election of officers M. E. Comp. Henry M. Tusler was chosen President and authorized to appoint the other officers.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Minnesota's Correspondent, Comp. Irving Todd, submits a report of fifty-four pages, in which he reviews the doings of forty-nine Grand Capitular Jurisdictions. The report is necessarily brief from the number of Grand Chapters visited. His notice of California is of the Fifty-fifth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Moebus. He notes the death of Past Grand High Priest Neff and says of the session:

"Address and rulings of purely local interest; a regulation was adopted providing for the presentation of a jewel to the retiring Grand High Priest, at a cost not to exceed $150, and to take effect four years later; two charters were granted; the Committee on Fire History was granted further time; an additional stock subscription of $10,000 was voted to the Masonic Temple Association, and fourteen Companions were admitted to the Order of High Priesthood."

We don't understand, Companion Todd, about the taking effect "four years later," as that matter was disposed of at once.

MISSISSIPPI.

Seventy-four Chapters.

3,813 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Mississippi held its Sixty-first Annual Convocation in the Hall of Meridian Chapter, No. 25, in the city of Meridian, February 18, 1909,—The M. E. Comp. Charles H. Blum, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Frederic Speed, Past Grand High Priest, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with eleven Past Grand Officers, nine of whom were Past Grand High Priests, twenty-seven Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and twenty Past High Priests not present in any other capacity. Sixty-two of seventy-four Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Edwin J. Martin, Grand High Priest, chosen at the present Convocation, appears on the opening page.

The Grand Secretary having announced that there was a constitutional quorum present, the Most Excellent the Grand High Priest, with the assistance of the Grand Officers in their several stations and places, opened the Grand Chapter in Ample Form, the Grand Chaplain invoking the divine blessing upon its labors.

With a cordial greeting he welcomed the Companions to the return of their annual festival, and said to them:

"As the High Priest Aaron, the original prototype of the office with which you honored me, was supposed to 'bear the cause of the Children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually;' so should the mitre teach the Masonic High Priest the dignity of his office and the breast-plate his responsibility to the laws and ordinances of the institution, and that the honor and interest of the Chapter should always be near his heart. Such has been my aim, and if in the discharge of my duties aught has been left undone which should have been done, or mistakes of any kind have ever been in evidence, they are but the errors of the mind and not the heart.

"What more can I say to you in now surrendering to you the jewel of my exalted office? However, may it please you to let my record speak for itself."

And then he, in spirit, dropped his sprig of acacia upon the last resting-places of "Companions gone" in the following eloquent words:

"Let us pause, however, to join our Companion Chaplain, who will offer thanks to the 'Great I am,' who presides in the holy of holies above, for having left our official circle unbroken. And now, Companions, let us in unison exclaim 'Thy will be done,' because it has pleased Him, who in wisdom has placed us here, to call hence many of our Companions during the past year. To mourn their loss is but an evidence of human weakness. Let us rather rejoice in the thought that, in response to the summons of the Most High, they have been called from labor, in the terrestrial quarries, to eternal rest in the celestial Lodge. To which:

"He leads us on

Through all the unquiet years:

Past all dream-land hopes and doubts and fears.

He guides our steps through all the tangled maze

Of sin of sorrow, and o'erclouded days.

We know His will is done;

And still He leads us on.

“And He at last
After the weary strife,
After the restless fever we call life,
After the dreariness, the aching pain,
The wayfare struggles, which have proved in vain.
After our toils are past
Will give us rest at last.

“Sister jurisdictions report the following transitions of distinguished Companions: ‘Transition because there is no death, what seems so is transition. This life of mortal breath is but a suburb of the life elysian, whose portals we call death.’”

In the death roll submitted many jurisdictions were represented, their own roll having inscribed upon it the names of seventy-six Companion Royal Arch Masons.

In consideration of the great increase of work in the office of the Grand Secretary, he recommended the addition to Companion Speed's salary of two hundred and fifty dollars. Of that distinguished Companion he said:

“To Companion Speed, our efficient Grand Secretary, I am again indebted for guidance and official advice beyond expression. Ever kind and indulgent, full of Masonic knowledge, seldom equaled and surpassed by none, I have ever found him responsive to every call. May our Father in Heaven, in His infinite wisdom, leave us Frederic Speed, as the Manna for future Grand High Priests for years to come.

“May the guidance of heaven be with you in your deliberations.”

Grand Lecturer Sadler made an interesting report of the condition of the jurisdiction, a vineyard in which he seems to have worked faithfully and so successfully that Companion Speed says in his report: “All of our Chapters are in a prosperous condition, and, under the influence and painstaking care and assiduity of our admirable Grand Lecturer, have made themselves proficient in the work, thereby stimulating interest.”

Good words, those, from one who knows whereof he writes.

Grand Secretary Speed's report is just such a paper as we would expect from that eminent Mason—a full and complete record of the year's progress. We excerpt his report or summary of the “work of the year”:

A dispensation was issued for the forming and opening of a new Chapter at Marks, and the Charters of Chickasaw, No. 65, and Cato, No. 89, were revoked for lack of vitality.

The standing committees having reported and the general routine of business transacted, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following Companions were chosen: Grand High Priest, Edwin J. Martin; Deputy Grand High Priest, Wiley H. Clifton; Grand King, George P. Power; Grand Scribe, Harry T. Howard; Grand Treasurer, James C. French; Grand Secretary, Frederic Speed; Grand Chaplain, Martin Ball; Grand Captain of the Host, William A. Johns; Grand Lecturer, Edmund Sadler; Grand Sentinel, Julius Yaretzky.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Frederic Speed, who was himself installed by the Grand High Priest.

The thanks of Grand Chapter were voted to the M.·. E.·. Charles H. Blum for the splendid manner in which he discharged the duties of his office; to Mrs. Blum and the Eastern Stars for their invaluable aid and assistance; to Meridian Chapter, the Masons and citizens of Meridian, for their hospitable reception and entertainment during the Convocation of Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest named the committees, and no further business appearing the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form by the Most Excellent the Grand High Priest, with the assistance of the Grand Officers in their several stations and places, until its Sixty-second Annual Grand Convocation, to be held in the City of Columbus on the third Thursday in February, in the year nineteen hundred and ten, the Grand Chaplain invoking the divine blessing.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Council of the Order of High Priesthood was held in the Masonic Temple, Meridian,—the M.·. E.·. Comp. Frederic Speed, President; E.·. Comp. Samuel I. Solomon, Recorder. All the officers, with twenty-six Excellent Companions, were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Seventeen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Council was then closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Past Grand High Priest Enoch George DeLap has written another delightful report for the present number of the Journal. In it he reviews the Capitular world in a paper of 106 pages. California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, under the guidance of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett. He quotes freely from the address, and approvingly of M.·. E.·. Comp. Willett, and remarks that "although largely of local interest, is a comprehensive resume of a quiet but creditable administration," writing of the transactions of the business routine. He says:

"These, also, are confined to local matters, in the main. The Grand Lecturer's report is somewhat on the style of Companion Sadler's, but is not nearly so full or indicative of as much earnest work. Not that I think that the California Companion was at all lax in the performance of his duties, but the difference is in the requirements of the two bodies of these two officers are different. Both earn their money and are faithful. Total membership, 10,580, a gain of 730. Treasury balance, $68,332.80."

We hardly know how to express our surprise and regret at the absence of our M. E. Companion's name from the roll of committees at the close of the session. Can it be that Companion DeLap has taken a vacation for rest and recreation? If so, 'tis well, but for good? No. We won't have it so, but to hang on to him as long as we can we excerpt his conclusion with no good-bye at the end:

"Having finished our work for the current year, we submit it for your inspection. Scanning the multitude of pages that have passed in review before us, we have found indications everywhere of peace and harmony, and in a large majority of the jurisdictions abundant evidence of growth and material, desirable and satisfactory progress. There is nothing disturbing the equanimity of the Craft, nothing to fuss about or fight over, hence the paucity of spice and other condiments that would interest the casual reader, are lacking in this report. We have had the chip on our shoulder ready to be knocked off, while we have been ready to pick up the gage of battle any time, but, alas! everybody is peaceable and quiet.

"We have done our best to please you; if we have succeeded, we are glad; if not, we sincerely regret it.

"With the same old affection and regard for you and your predecessors with whom we have met in Annual Convocation for more than forty years, without a single break, and with best wishes for your personal prosperity and happiness and the welfare of Royal Arch Masonry the world over, I beg to remain,

"Fraternally yours,

"DeLAP."

MISSOURI.

One Hundred Twenty-three Chapters. 11,428 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Missouri held its Sixty-third Annual Convocation in Scottish Rite Hall, Joplin, April 27, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Alfred H. White, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Robert F. Stevenson being the Grand Secretary.

The Committee on Credentials advised the Grand High Priest that the enrollment was more than the law requires to form a quorum.

All the Grand Officers were present, with thirteen Past Grand High Priests, twenty-three Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and twenty-three Past High Priests not otherwise reported. One hundred six Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest White appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, and the Grand High priest proceeded to deliver his Annual Address. He gave the Companions a brief welcome, referred to their duties as members of the Grand Chapter, and proceeded to consider the honored and beloved names inscribed on the death roll of the jurisdiction. Mentioning the names of several beloved Companions, he said:

"The reports of our constituent Chapters show the death of 159 other Companions. Let us pause for a moment and, standing in silence, render tribute to their memory, with a prayer to the Father of All that those near and dear who survive them be protected from all harm. Our efficient Committee on Necrology will present a more extended tribute than is possible in this report."

On the subject of Fraternal Correspondence he writes:

"The Fraternal Correspondence which appears as an appendix to our printed Proceedings, has attained a size largely exceeding in volume the Proceedings, including memorial pages and tabulated statements. If the Fraternal Correspondence has a purpose, it is to give information concerning the condition and doings of other Grand Chapters, and if this purpose were kept in view, not only would the disproportionate size of the correspondence be reduced, but also our printing bill."

And he suggests: "To give facts and not express personal opinions is the duty of a Correspondent; it should be his aim to instruct rather than to amuse. At the present time much of the material contained in these reports is of a personal nature—one Correspondent quoting from another and very little is devoted to Grand Chapter proceedings."

A full and complete report was made by the President of the Masonic Home Board, Comp. Ethelbert F. Allen. Referring to the work of the Home he says:

"At the last annual report, September, 1908, the total membership of the Home was 156. Since then there have been admitted 15 adults and 4 children, a total of 19. Since the same date there have been 4 deaths in the family and 15 discharged; a total of 19, leaving the number in the family exactly as at last annual report—156—as follows: boys, 35; girls, 33; men, 43; women, 45.

"The 4 deaths were among the old people, and 2 adults and 13 children were discharged; most of the children having reached the age limit."

M. E. Comp. Corona H. Briggs, Chairman, submitted the Report on Necrology devoted to the remembrance of Companions who had passed to rest during the year. The report embraced not only the 160 of their own friends and families but those of sister jurisdictions throughout the nation, closing with these words:

"We recommend that memorial pages in our Proceedings be set apart in honor of these illustrious dead and our own worthy Companions who, in the several Chapters, have faithfully fulfilled their tasks and whose work we trust has stood the test of the Grand Overseer's square. While we pass them without the special mention of their names in this report, yet we honor their devotion to the Royal Craft and cherish their memories in the abiding faith that we shall meet again."

The general routine of the business of the Convocation being nearly concluded, Tellers were appointed and the election of officers for the ensuing year was held. The M. E. Comp. Van Fremont Boon was chosen Grand High Priest, and the R. E. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, Comp. Alexander M. Dockery, Past Grand High Priest, presided at the installation of the elected and appointed officers, assisted by Past Grand High Priest and Comp. William F. Kuhn, who formally presented them. Briefly, but effectively, they were inducted into their respective positions.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the thanks of the Grand Chapter be and they are hereby extended to Joplin Royal Arch Chapter, No. 91, and to Webb City Royal Arch Chapter, No. 119; to the Ladies of the Eastern Star; to the members of the Bodies of the Scottish Rite and to all local Royal Arch Masons for their generous hospitality and pleasant accommodations furnished during our stay in their city."

The special and standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter closed in Due Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests of Missouri held its Annual Convocation in the Scottish Rite Temple, Joplin, April 27,—M.°. E.°. Comp. David M. Wilson, President; E.°. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson being the Recorder. All the officers and forty Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Fifty-one Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The "Book of the Law" was presented to each Companion.

It was decided to provide a collation at the next annual, and a committee was named to attend to its preparation.

The Grand Recorder and Grand Treasurer read and submitted their reports, which were considered and approved.

The annual election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the officers were re-elected.

The Convention was entertained with addresses from E.°. Comps. Wesley P. Rickart, Alex M. Dockery and William F. Kuhn.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The R.°. E.°. Robert F. Stevenson, in addition to his duties as Grand Secretary, wields the pen that records the doings of the many Grand Bodies of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic World. The report is full and a very able one, in which he reviews the legislation of fifty-one Grand Chapters in a paper of 166 pages. California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, held under the supervision of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett, whose address is quoted and ably reviewed and commended.

He comments in fraternal sympathy with us on the loss of M.°. E.°. Comps. Tuttle, Myrick and Blackmer, and drops his "sprig of acacia," in spirit, with us on the last resting-places of the beloved Companions.

The report is a fine one and a credit to Missouri and her vigorous Grand Secretary.

M. E. Comp. Van Fremont Boon, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Robert F. Stevenson, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

MONTANA.

Seventeen Chapters.

1,457 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the Montana held its Eighteenth Annual Convocation at the hall of Deer Lodge Chapter, No. 3, in Masonic Temple, Butte, September 17, 1907,—M. E. Comp. J. Benton Leggat, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Cornelius Hedges, Jr., being Grand Secretary. Fifteen Chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers except the Deputy Grand High Priest, with ten Past Grand High Priests, were present.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

After prayer by the Rev. Comp. Frank B. Lewis, Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, and the Grand High Priest, after naming the committees, delivered the Annual Address.

First extending to the Companions in attendance a cordial and fraternal welcome, he said:

"I can hardly realize that a year has passed since we last met in Helena, and that the time has arrived for me to render an account of the trust reposed in me at that time.

"I will not elaborate on the conditions of the world at large, or this nation in particular, but join with you in thanking the Great Jehovah that we have peace and prosperity on every hand, and that our own commonwealth is especially blessed.

"Our Royal Hive has been unusually busy, and we have labored in the vineyards with gratifying results.

"Most of our Chapters are zealous in their work, and show a healthy condition of growth and quality of work. We have added another Chapter to our number—Glasgow, No. 17—and we welcome them into our Council most heartily. They have, 'like the brothers of old,' 'come up, to help, aid and assist in the noble and glorious work of rebuilding the House of the Lord.'

"And now, Companions, after these words of welcome and congratulations, let us pause and pay tribute to our Companions who have passed the White Vail into the Holy of Holies above.

"We of this Grand Chapter have been doubly bereaved in our official ranks the past year."

If it were ever fitting to mourn for the loss of beloved Companions, most certainly the Companion Royal Arch Masons of the Mountain State had abundant cause to place the emblems of mourning on the banner and jewels, the altar and furniture of every Body of the Capitular Rite in Montana. We excerpt a few words of the announcement of the M.' E.' Companion in reporting the passing to rest of the following Eminent Masons: M.' E.' Comps. Alexander Fraser and Cornelius Hedges. God give them rest. He said:

"Alexander Fraser, our R.' E.' Deputy Grand High Priest, was called from our midst by the Great I Am on March 27th of this year. You all knew him well, and words of mine would be inadequate to express the esteem and love we had for our dear old 'Alick,' or 'Sandy,' as most of his intimate friends called him. He has represented Billings Chapter in this Grand Body for a number of years, and it would have been his proud honor to have been inducted into the Chair I now occupy could he have lived this day. He was a very dear personal friend, and I, as most of you who knew him, miss his hearty and genial companionship during this Convocation."

Of our friend and Companion, the M.' E.' Companion and distinguished Cornelius Hedges, he said:

"Cornelius Hedges, our R.' E.' Grand Secretary, was summoned by the Angel of Death on April 29th of this year. Although his health had been impaired to some extent the past year, still it was a shock to us all when the message reached us that he had laid down his able pen forever, and that his noble Christian heart had ceased to beat. He was beloved and respected above all his Companions, and his advice and counsel in the affairs of this Grand Chapter was ever hearkened to and heeded. He was a Companion in every sense of the word, whether to old or young, and his charming personality made every one who knew him love him.

"Companion Hedges was born in Westfield, Mass., October 28, 1831. He was a graduate of Yale College in the class of 1853. He removed in that year to Independence, Iowa, where he devoted a portion of his time to newspaper work. In 1864 he removed to Virginia City, Montana, and in 1865 to Helena, Montana, where he resided until the time of his death."

He also reported the loss of twenty Companions, members of the several constituent Chapters, four of whom were E.' High Priests. His tribute to these beloved Companions was fraternal and affectionate, and we hope to find space for more of the record before closing this review.

He reported the appointment of Cornelius Hedges, Jr., to the place so long and so honorably filled by his father, and the usual routine of the business during the recess, dispensations granted, visitations made and the condition of the several Chapters of the jurisdiction.

At the annual election of officers the following named Companions were chosen: Grand High Priest, Frank B. Lewis; Deputy Grand High Priest, Edward C. Day; Grand King, Maurice A. Walker; Grand Scribe, Henry J. Rainsford; Grand Treasurer, Henry M. Parchen; Grand Secretary, Cornelius Hedges; Grand Captain of the Host, Harry M. Allen; Grand Principal Sojourner, J. Arthur Lamb; Grand Royal Arch Captain, E. E. Sweeny.

It was announced by Comp. M. C. Riley, the M.°. E.°. President of the Order of High Priesthood, that the Order would be conferred upon any eligible to receive it at 8 o'clock this evening in the Chapter hall.

The Grand High Priest-elect having announced his appointments, all were installed by M.°. E.°. Comp. A. D. Macdonald, M.°. E.°. Comp. R. H. Wearing acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

After thanking Deer Lodge Chapter, No. 3, for courtesies and general good treatment while at Butte, the Grand Chapter closed, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Council of Anointed High Priests held their Twelfth Annual Convention at the close of Grand Chapter in the same hall at 8 o'clock p. m.,—M.°. E.°. Comp. M. C. Riley, President; E.°. Comp. Cornelius Hedges, Jr., Recorder. All the officers and a number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Three Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

At the annual election of officers the present officers were re-elected, and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

At the Nineteenth Annual Convocation of this Grand Chapter M.°. E.°. Comp. Frank B. Lewis, Grand High Priest, and all the officers were present; fifteen Chapters were represented, with five Past Grand High Priests in attendance.

A portrait of M.°. E.°. Comp. Frank B. Lewis, Grand High Priest in 1907-8, appears in the Journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

After naming the committees the Grand High Priest delivered the Annual Address. Giving the Companions a cordial welcome to the Nineteenth Annual Convocation, he told them of the progress, prosperity and healthy condition of the jurisdiction. Referring to absent Companions he said:

"We commemorate the fraternal dead with bowed heads and saddened hearts, because our hope has not yet become fruition; our faith, howsoever, strong as it may be, is not yet lost in sight. Pray God that as we assemble here from year to year the sadness may ever diminish, the rejoicing may ever increase.

"Since our last annual meeting there have been received the notices of these distinguished dead among our brethren of other jurisdictions."

And in the lengthy roll he read the names of three of the beloved Past Grand High Priests of California. He also submitted the roll of the dead of Montana, upon which were inscribed the names of twenty-three members of their own Chapters. In his address he dwelt on the importance of selecting for the office of Secretary of a Chapter the very best material obtainable. He reported his visitations and the condition of the Chapters visited.

No important decisions were reported aside from those rulings of interest to local Chapters.

The Grand Secretary submitted a general and a financial report, both of which received the Grand Chapter's approval. The standing committees reported and action was considered on amendments to the organic law.

We excerpt the following work of the year from the Grand Secretary's reports:

After due proclamation of their induction to office had been made a short time was occupied by the Grand Officers in returning thanks for the honors received.

The Grand Chapter was then closed in Due Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Montana Council of the Order of High Priesthood held its Thirteenth Annual Convention in the hall of Helena Chapter, No. 2, Helena,—the M. E. Comp. M. C. Riley, President; E. Comp. Cornelius Hedges, Jr., being Recorder. All the officers and a number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Eight Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood. Each Companion was presented with a Bible.

The present officers were re-elected and the Council closed in Solemn Form.

M. E. Comp. Edward C. Day, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Cornelius Hedges, Jr., Grand Secretary.

NEVADA.

Nine Chapters.

410 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Nevada held its Thirty-sixth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Carson City, June 7, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Pearis B. Ellis, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. C. N. Noteware being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with six Past Grand High Priests and the Representatives of eighteen other Grand Jurisdictions. Eight constituent Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Ellis appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest after naming the Committee on Credentials proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He said:

"Let us give hearty thanks to the Supreme High Priest for the many blessings bestowed on us since our last Convocation, and ask His aid in the guidance and deliberations of this Assembly.

"I bid you a most hearty welcome to this Convocation, and as it takes place within the walls of Lewis Chapter, No. 1, where Capitular Masonry first took hold in Nevada, it seems appropriate and proper that this meeting should be held here.

"The past year has been a satisfactory one, in that peace and harmony prevail over our jurisdiction. No questions have been presented that required a decision at my hands; some minor subjects have been brought to my attention, but each one has been disposed of by a reference to our Code."

Referring to Companions at rest, he reported for record on the Roll of Honor the names of eight Companions, members of the several Chapters who had died within the year.

He also reported the names of Eminent Companions of sister jurisdictions whose departure for the better world will be a distinct loss to the Capitular Masonry of the nation, and among them we note the name of our own beloved and M. E. Companion, Past Grand High Priest Jacob Hart Neff. But little new matter was developed during the session. The usual routine of business was considered and disposed of.

The reports of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary were approved. We excerpt from the report of the latter a summary of "The Work of the Year":

A Charter was granted to Elko Chapter, U. D., located at Elko and numbered eleven on the Registry of the Grand Chapter.

The business of the session being disposed of, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen:

James C. Doughty, Grand High Priest; T. J. Steinmetz, Deputy Grand High Priest; H. W. Miles, Grand King; F. M. Schadler, Grand Scribe; Walter J. Harris, Grand Treasurer; C. N. Noteware, Grand Secretary; C. J. Rulinson, Grand Captain of the Host; F. P. Thompson, Grand Principal Sojourner; H. F. Golding, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Matthew Kyle, Past Grand High Priest J. S. Burlingame acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report was submitted by E.° Comp. A. D. Bird of the committee, and in it he reviews the Capitular world in a paper of fifty-five pages. He notices California in its Fifty-fourth Annual, the administration of Grand High Priest Willett, whose address and rulings he commends with the legislation of the session. We are waiting for that boom to strike Nevada when it shall bud and blossom like Aaron's rod—not in a day but in the next decade, we believe.

NEBRASKA.

Fifty-nine Chapters.

4,100 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Nebraska held its Forty-second Annual Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, Omaha, December 16, 1908,—the M.° E.° Comp. Charles N. Kaley, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Francis E. White, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers except the Grand Chaplain and a Grand Steward were present, with twelve Past Grand High Priests, the Representatives of twenty-two other Grand Jurisdictions, and the Representatives of thirty-two Chartered Chapters.

A handsome steel engraved portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

A Chapter of Royal Arch Masons was opened. The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest declared the Grand Chapter open and in order for business.

Greetings and expressions of good will from Willis W. Rice, Grand High Priest of the M. E. Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, of New York, sent by William S. Ackert, our Grand Representative, Past Grand High Priest Milton J. Hull, now of Washington, D. C., through Past Grand High Priest Henry E. Palmer, and Past Grand High Priest Robert E. French, were presented to the Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He gave the Companions a cordial welcome, and after a tribute to the illustrious dead of the year reported such transactions as had occurred during the recess. Of decisions, he said:

"No questions requiring a construction of law were presented to me during the year. A few minor matters were submitted and were answered by reference to existing law.

"During the past year I have not been burdened with any large amount of labor in the interests of the Grand Chapter, such matters as were referred to me being attended to with reasonable promptness. From April 15th to June 27th I was absent from the State, and the interests of the Grand Chapter were properly cared for by our R. E. and zealous Companion, Oscar R. Allen, Deputy Grand High Priest, who will make you a full and complete report of his official acts."

But very little new legislation was developed during the session, the interests of the Home and the general routine of business occupying the time of the standing committees.

The Committee on Fraternal Dead made the following report:

"It becomes the painful duty of your Committee on Fraternal Dead from year to year to make its report. If it were possible to avoid this, your committee would feel grateful, but it is within the wisdom of the Great I Am that all men shall die, and in dying leave behind a remembrance which we, as Brothers and Companions, cherish.

"Within other Grand Jurisdictions there have occurred the deaths of thirty past and present Grand Officers, which have been reported to your committee during the past twelve months, and within our own jurisdiction fifty of our beloved Companions have entered into the Holy of Holies above. We ask that a page of our Proceedings be set aside and dedicated to their memory.

"Among others of our beloved Companions, we have suffered the loss of E. Uriah Chester, our Grand Chaplain for the past two years, who died at Long Pine, March 29, 1908, and E. Henry A. Turton, Past Grand Captain of the Host, and Grand Steward since December 12, 1906, who died at Lexington, December 10, 1908.

"We who survive them should recall their many kindnesses and their moral worth and character, and try, in a small degree, at least, to emulate their good qualities.

"We ask that a page of our Proceedings be set aside and dedicated to the memory of each of these Companions."

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Thirty-seventh Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood of Nebraska was held in Freemasons' Hall, Omaha, December 16, 1908,—the M. E. Comp. Samuel P. Davidson, President; E. Comp. Francis E. White being the Recorder. All the Grand Officers, with forty Excellent Companions, were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Reports were submitted by the E. Comps. Treasurer and Recorder and they were approved.

Eighteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been accepted by the Convention were separately introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The revised Constitution and By-Laws were presented for consideration, the M. E. President explaining the changes that he believed to be necessary, and giving his reasons therefor. After the Constitution and By-Laws had been read by the Recorder, they were carefully considered, adopted and ordered printed.

The M. E. President reported that he had given the question of a new seal for the Grand Convention careful consideration, and recommended that a new one be procured with suitable lettering and a change in the present design by substituting therefor an open Book of the Law. After full discussion, a new seal was ordered made in accordance with the views expressed by the M. E. President.

On motion the question of a certificate of the Order of High Priesthood, referred to a special committee at the last Grand Convention, was referred to the M. E. President, with full power to act.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was held and the present officers were re-elected.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Comp. Charles J. Phelps submits his Seventeenth Annual Report, in which he reviews the Capitular world in a paper of seventy-seven pages. The report is an excellent one, and as it seems to us "everything else" is noticed except California, whom for some reason failed to get within the vision of Companion Phelps—well, we console ourselves with the trite old phrase, "Better luck next time."

M.·. E.·. Comp. Oscar R. Allen, Grand High Priest; M.·. E.·. Comp. Francis E. White, Grand Secretary. M.·. E.·. Comp. Charles J. Phelps, Correspondent.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Eight Chapters.

681 Royal Arch Masons.

The M.·. E.·. Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Brunswick held its Twenty-first Annual Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, St. John, August 26, 1908,—the M.·. E.·. Comp. Andrew McNichol, Grand High Priest; the R.·. E.·. Comp. J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present. Seven of the eight Chapters were represented, with eighteen other Grand Jurisdictions; also several Past Grand Officers and Past High Priests.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Grand High Priest gave all in attendance a cordial and fraternal welcome to the Twenty-first Annual Convocation, and expressed his thanks for the honor of presiding over Grand Chapter.

Referring to visitations, like many another Grand High Priest he intended during the recess to visit and "break bread" with them all, but he didn't and explained why in these words:

"My intention had been to visit every Chapter in our jurisdiction during my year of office, but I found it was not convenient to do so at the times I had fixed for such visitations; however, I made some, and on all occasions was well and royally received."

In referring to absent Companions he said:

"Some voices will no longer be heard in our Sanctuary, for death, that grand leveler of human greatness, has indeed entered the portals of Grand Chapter and during the year three of our Past Grand Officers have been called to their eternal home."

No important business claimed the attention of Grand Chapter, and the usual routine of business prevailed.

From the concise detailed report of Grand Secretary Hartt we note the net increase in the membership of the jurisdiction to be 63.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, after balloting the Scrutineers reported the following as the result, and the Companions were duly installed: George Ackman, Grand High Priest; Alfred Dodge, Deputy Grand High Priest; Herbert E. Goold, Grand King; Percy W. Wetmore, Grand Scribe; Edwin J. Everett, Grand Treasurer; J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary. Comp. Robert Clerke was elected Tyler.

The business of the Annual Convocation being disposed of, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

M. E. Comp. George Ackman, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Convention of the members of the Order of High Priesthood was held at the close of the Grand Chapter in Masonic Hall, August 26, 1908,—the M. E. Comp. Frederick E. Danville, President, presiding; E. Comp. William B. Wallace, Recorder, with a good attendance of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Four Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

At the subsequent election of officers M. E. Comp. Daniel W. Kyle was elected President and E. Comp. William B. Wallace, Recorder.

The reports of the Treasurer and Recorder were presented, considered and approved, after which the Council closed in Solemn Form.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Twenty-six Chapters.

4,144 Royal Arch Masons.

A Special Convocation of this Grand Chapter was held in Freemasons' Hall, Keene, October 20, 1908,—M. E. Comp. Charles H. Sinclair, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Frank D. Woodbury being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with fourteen Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions and thirty Past High Priests. Thirteen Chapters were represented. Eight Past Grand High Priests were in attendance.

A portrait of M. E. Comp. William Franklin Knight, who was Grand High Priest in 1895-96, appears in this number of the Journal.

The M. E. Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, with prayer by Rev. and E. Comp. Joseph E. Robins, Grand Chaplain.

This special was called for the exemplification of the Capitular degrees upon candidates elected by different Chapters for the purpose. Assignments to official stations were made and the work proceeded.

When the M. E. Master's degree was exemplified, at its conclusion the M. E. Grand High Priest gave notice that a dinner had been provided at Wildey Hall, and extended an invitation to all Companions to be present.

At 7:30 o'clock p. m. labor was resumed in the Royal Arch degree, which being concluded the Chapter was closed and the officers of the Grand Chapter resumed their stations.

The thanks of the Grand Chapter were extended to the various Chapters for the excellent work presented, to the Keene Masonic Association for the use of their apartments, and to the Schubert quartette.

The M. E. Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, with prayer by E. and Rev. Comp. Joseph E. Robins, Grand Chaplain.

The Ninetieth Annual Convocation was held in Freemasons' Hall, Concord, May 18, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. Charles H. Sinclair, Grand High Priest, presiding. The R. E. Comp. Frank D. Woodbury being Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with sixteen Past Grand High Priests, fifty Past High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-five other Grand Jurisdictions. Eighteen Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form with prayer by Rev. Comp. Jesse M. Durrell, D. D.

After naming the standing committees the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He gave the Companions a cordial and fraternal welcome to the ninetieth anniversary of Capitular Masonry in New Hampshire, and congratulated them on the existing harmony and prosperity of the jurisdiction. In concluding his introduction, he said:

"As we look back upon the year just past, flushed with pride and pleasure at the prevailing conditions, let us not forget the grim messenger of Death has been among our loyal Companions of this jurisdiction, and many have passed to that undiscovered country and joined that great and silent majority. Let us pause for a moment and pay a fitting tribute to those whose presence we sadly miss this day."

In presenting the lengthy death roll, with its more than four score names inscribed thereon, he mentioned several pioneer Companions—"workmen in the vineyard"—and paid loving tribute to the memory of each. He closed his tribute with the following lines:

"I recommend that suitable memorial pages in the Proceedings of this Grand Chapter be set apart for those of our Companions who have passed on to their reward.

"Look onward! High above the tomb
The omens of the morning shine!
The evening has its transient gloom,
The morrow comes with beams divine."

He also mentioned, in sympathy with sister jurisdictions, the passing to rest of the many Eminent Companions in the several Grand Jurisdictions of the Masonic world, and in spirit dropped his sprig of acacia in their last resting-places in remembrance of their exalted virtues.

All the Grand Officers submitted reports of their visitations of the Chapters assigned them to visit.

Among the several reports submitted we excerpt from that of the Committee on Returns their summary of "The Work of the Year":

The election of officers being in order, Tellers were named and the election proceeded. The M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles Henry Sinclair was re-elected Grand High Priest, and the R.°. E.°. Comp. Frank Dana Woodbury was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all present were installed by M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles N. Towle, assisted by E.°. Comp. William D. Chandler as Master of the Ceremonies.

It was, on motion of M.°. E.°. Comp. John F. Webster, ordered that the officers not installed today be installed in their respective Chapters and certificate thereof be forwarded to the Grand Secretary.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form, with prayer by the E.°. and Rev. Comp. Joseph E. Robins, D. D.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convocation of the Council of the Order of High Priesthood of New Hampshire was held at Freemason's Hall, Concord, May 18, 1909,—M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles Henry Webster, President; E.°. Comp. Frank Dana Woodbury, Past Grand High Priest, being the Recorder.

A good attendance of Excellent Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Nine Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced and severally anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Grand Treasurer submitted his report of the financial condition of the Council and it was considered and approved.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, was called on. The M. E. Comp. Fred Elmer French was elected President, and E. Comp. Frank Dana Woodbury, P. G. H. P., was re-elected Recorder.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE

The present report is submitted by E. Comp. Josiah L. Seward, who very thoroughly reviews the Capitular world in a paper of 181 pages—a full and complete summary of the progress and present condition of the several Grand Jurisdictions of the rite in the Masonic world.

His notice of California is of our Fifty-fourth Annual, under the direction of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett. He notes with fairness the conditions of our Grand Body, its recent loss of Eminent Companions and the rehabilitation of its altars, furniture and jewels; our methods in legislation seem to be in harmony with his ideas. We wish him a pleasant sojourn with the rest of us.

NEW JERSEY.

Thirty-eight Chapters. 5,778 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Jersey held its Fifty-third Annual Convocation in the rooms of "Three-times-three" Chapter, No. 5, Masonic Temple, Trenton, May 12, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. James S. Ware, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Leonard L. Grear, P. G. H. P., being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with twenty Past Grand High Priests, thirty-six Past High Priests, and the Representatives of thirty-five of the thirty-eight Chapters in the jurisdiction. We also note the presence of Grand Lecturer Haines and his six assistants.

The portrait of Grand High Priest Rudderson appears on the opening page, and those of Past Grand High Priests Charles M. Zeh, of 1864, John V. Mathison, of 1867, and Jesse P. Case, of 1868, in the body of the Journal.

Our E. Comp. Henry Ascroft represents the Grand Chapter of New Jersey near California.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, after prayer by E. Comp. Daniel Demarest, Grand Chaplain.

The following distinguished visitors were admitted and introduced by Representative the M. E. Comp. Kirkner of New York: Charles C. Hunt, Grand High Priest; Frederick W. Culler, Grand Captain of Host; Alfred A. Adams, Grand Royal Arch Captain; Ossian Lang, Grand Master Second Vail; George McGowan, Grand Lecturer; George E. W. Stivers, Past Grand High Priest; Henry D. Hamilton, Past Grand High Priest; William E. Duncan, Grand Representative of New Jersey near the Grand Chapter of New York.

These distinguished Companions were received by the Grand High Priest with appropriate salutation, and pleasing responses followed.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address. He commenced with a kindly welcome to all present, and after referring with pride to the progress and prosperity of Capitular Masonry in New Jersey, he said, feelingly:

"During the year we have been visited by the great reaper, and his keen scythe has cut deeply. While we know that it is appointed unto all men to die, yet when the visit comes to our dear friends and Companions we are made mindful of the loss to us, little heeding that the grim visitor is sent to crown our deceased Companions' faith in that blessed immortality beyond the grave. They die; we miss them; we mourn. It was ever thus and will ever continue so long as man continues to entertain those feelings of companionship and love so wisely planted in our bosoms by the great Creator. Death has claimed three of our distinguished Past Grand High Priests: M. E. Comps. Charles L. Chovey, Charles Bechtel and Thomas H. R. Redway have passed to eternal rest. We miss them and shall continue to miss them—these three eminent men. Their lives and Masonic actions are worthy of our emulation, and as we gaze upon the vacant chairs, draped in their memory, we realize that they will never again meet us in this earthly tabernacle! They have passed beyond and have received the divine approbation, 'Well done, good and faithful servants.'

"While we delight in meeting our old Companions, we bow our heads while contemplating the list of those dear Companions who have passed beyond the vail.

"Let us not forget the many distinguished Companions of sister jurisdictions who have been called home during the year, and whose deaths command our sympathy. Their deaths will be chronicled in the report of the Committee on Necrology. I recommend that memorial pages be set apart in our printed Proceedings."

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

He reported no important decisions. He reported his visitations, and congratulated Grand Chapter upon the condition of the jurisdiction. He reports the following summary of "The Work of the Year":

Number of members last reported.....	5,609
Exalted during year.....	348
Reinstated during year.....	8
Affiliated during year.....	19
	<hr/>

Died during year	74
Suspended during year	89
	<hr/>
	206
	<hr/>
Total membership	5,778
Net gain	169

The address was referred to a committee probably better qualified to judge the quality of work done than will be found in most jurisdictions; Comps. Haines and McGill we personally vouch for. They say in closing their report:

"A careful view of the operations of the year gives assurance that the administration of the highest office has been conducted with earnest regard for the welfare of the Fraternity, and we especially rejoice that no apology has been needed for suffering a breach of constitutional law.

The Capitular field, as we view it, is full of promise, and a still better husbanding and garnering of its fruits is all that is needed to make it a means of spiritual nourishment and the development of manly character in its votaries."

E. C. Comp. George Scott submitted an admirable report on Necrology, which was adopted.

The general routine of business being concluded, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following Companions were chosen: Samuel G. Rudderow, Grand High Priest; Daniel L. Campbell, Deputy Grand High Priest; Ralph R. Eichlin, Grand King; Charles Berg, Grand Scribe; Frederic G. Wiese, Grand Treasurer; Leonard L. Gear, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Peter McGill, M. C. E. C. Comp. Joseph Mason acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The standing committees were appointed. The thanks of Grand Chapter voted to "Three-times-three" Chapter for courtesies and use of hall, and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests of New Jersey was held in Masonic Hall, Trenton, May 11, 1909,—E.° Comp. Frederick Wiese, Vice-President; E.° Comp. Abram A. Reger, Recorder.

The other elective officers and thirty E.° Companions were present.

In consequence of the death of Comp. Charles L. Chovey, M.° E.° President, the duties of the Chair devolved upon the Vice-President, E.° Comp. Frederic Wiese, who called the Convention to order, and it was opened in Solemn Form.

Eighteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The ceremonies being performed by M.° E.° Comp. Henry S. Haines, Grand Lecturer, acting President.

The annual election of officers was held and M.° E.° Comp. Henry S. Haines was chosen President, the other officers as before.

The President-elect, upon accepting the office, gave a brief but pertinent address upon the moral obligations which he conceived to be imposed upon those who are consecrated to the Holy Order, and paid a truthful and touching tribute to the character and Masonic work of his lamented predecessor, M.° E.° Companion Chovey.

The business routine being concluded, the Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is made by Grand Lecturer Past Grand High Priest Henry S. Haines, who writes in his opening lines:

"Some of the Correspondents seem to underestimate the value of their service; but we conceive that we should 'magnify our office' and endeavor to make it, as it was evidently designed to be, a means both of the enlightenment and of the moral elevation of the Craft. Stimulated with this thought, let us all renew our labors with a still stronger purpose and a still higher aim."

Now we simply "rise to remark" that if our M.° E.° Companion intended to "magnify his office by writing a paper that should be a sample and guide for future committees he has succeeded admirably.

His present review of the status and conditions of Capitular Masonry in the world is a most excellent one. California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett, and Companion Haines' review of his address, of the Grand Lecturer's work and his success and the general trend of the legislation of the session is good and as true as good.

M.° E.° Comp. Samuel Glover Rudderon, Grand High Priest; R.° E.° Comp. Leonard L. Gear, Grand Secretary. E.° Comp. Henry S. Haines, Correspondent.

NEW MEXICO.

Twelve Chapters.

796 Royal Arch Masons.

An Emergent Convocation of this Grand Chapter was held in Roswell, December 19, 1907, for the installation of E.° Comp. Robert Kellahin as Grand Lecturer,—M.° E.° Comp. John W. Poe presiding as Grand High Priest, and Comp. W. H. Cosgrove acting as Grand Secretary.

The Eleventh Annual Convocation was held in the hall of Rio Grande Chapter, No. 4, Albuquerque, October 21, 1908,—M.° E.° Comp. J. G. Fitch, Grand High Priest; the R.° E.° Comp. A. A. Keene being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, with forty-one Past Grand Officers, were present and eleven Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

After naming the committees, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

His text was "The Rise and Progress of Capitular Masonry in New Mexico." He said:

"COMPANIONS: We have assembled in annual convocation for the eleventh time in the history of this Grand Chapter. Ten years ago our first regular convocation was held in this hall. The proceedings were brief; little was done beside the installation of officers, and some of these appear to have been installed by proxy. Representatives from only five out of the eight subordinate Chapters, which had united to form the Grand Chapter of New Mexico, appear to have been present.

"The total membership of these eight Chapters was four hundred. Today we have twelve Chartered Chapters with a total membership of 796."

He spoke earnestly and well, and at the conclusion of his subject continued:

"We have assembled to review the history of our Order during the past year, to ascertain and correct our shortcomings, and, I trust, to profit by the lessons which its history should teach us.

"Our first duty on such occasions is to the memory of those Companions who have passed the eternal vails."

And in reading the death roll of the year he paid a feeling tribute to the memory of the Companions whose names were inscribed thereon, together with the many Eminent Companions of sister jurisdictions whose death is a loss to the Capitular Masonry of the nation, and among whom we find the names of two beloved M.° E.° Companions of California.

The Committee on By-Laws reported a uniform Code for Chapters, which was approved and adopted.

The routine of business being nearly concluded, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen: Cyrus D. Boucher, Grand High Priest; John J. Kelly, Deputy Grand High Priest; John C. Slack, Grand King; Salamon Spitz, Grand Scribe; Arthur J. Maloy, Grand Treasurer; Alpheus A. Keen, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Cahoon and Proclamation made.

The retiring Grand High Priest was presented with the jewel of his rank, the committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form after prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE

The following note explains itself:

Albuquerque, July 29, 1909.

Mr. A. A. Keen, Grand Secretary, City.

MY DEAR SIR AND COMPANION: I have about one-half of the correspondence reports finished, but continued sickness and death in my family has kept me from finishing the entire work. While I appreciate your kindness in delaying the report on my account, I think it would be better to leave the manuscript until next year when

I will give two years in one, as I do not feel equal at present to any continued work.

Thanking you and the others for the courtesy shown me, I am,

Faternally yours,

JAMES H. WROTH,

Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

NEW YORK.

Two Hundred Five Chapters. 34,132 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New York held its One hundred and Twelfth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Albany, February 2, 1909,—the M.·. E.·. Comp. William Wood Rice, Grand High Priest; the R.·. E.·. Comp. Christopher G. Fox being the Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with twenty Past Grand Officers, fifty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, E.·. Comp. Elias Whitney answering for California. Two hundred and two of the 205 constituent Chapters were represented.

Grand High Priest Rice is presented in a beautiful steel engraved portrait on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, and with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

The Grand High Priest then introduced to the Grand Chapter M.·. E.·. Thomas C. Cassidy, Grand High Priest in 1873 and 1874, non-resident of the jurisdiction for some years, who had traveled hundreds of miles to be present at this Annual Convocation, and referring to his active and useful career in the Grand Chapter for many years, heartily welcomed him to its well-remembered presence.

Companion Cassidy was accorded the Grand Honors, and though weakened from the effects of a long continued illness, and deeply affected by the cordial welcome of his Companions, made a brief but feeling response thereto.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

His welcome greeting was brief but full of meaning. The words are worth keeping together. He said:

"In bidding you welcome to this our One Hundred and Twelfth Annual Convocation, I can assure you that perfect peace reigns within our borders; not a ripple disturbs our tranquillity.

"The Capitular year just passed has been a fruitful one for the Royal Craft.

"All of the Companions working in perfect harmony, for the good of the institution and for the uplifting of the great brotherhood of mankind.

"I shall have but little business to bring before you, but in what we do regarding its disposition, let us use that care and thoughtfulness that have ever characterized our transactions.

"Before taking up the business of this Convocation, let us call to mind those with whom we have been associated in the work of the Grand Chapter, but who during the past year have quietly passed from our midst and have gone to their eternal rest."

The death roll of this great jurisdiction is a lengthy one, the names inscribed upon it numbering 500. His tribute to this army of the dead, Companions of their own "tribes and families," was fraternally impressive. As he said of one, let it apply to all, "The God of all faithful workmen has bidden him to lie down and rest; sweet be his sleep, and his awakening glorious." To this lengthy roll he added, in full sympathy with sister jurisdictions, the names of the many devoted and able exemplars of the national household now at rest.

He granted a dispensation for the forming and opening of Angola Chapter, and reported the constitution of "Owahgena Chapter, No. 303.

He reported the receipt of the unused balance of the California relief fund, $456.50, returned by Grand High Priest Moebus of California.

He was glad to report "that he had not been called upon to make any decisions that were necessary to bring before the Grand Chapter." In conclusion he said of Grand Secretary Fox:

"It would seem that my predecessors have said all the good things about him that could be said, but all has not been told.

"I have many times during the year called upon him for assistance which his long experience has so well qualified him to give, and always found him ready and willing to render all the assistance required.

"While we cannot ask the Lord to spare him to us for forty years more, we would at least ask for twenty."

Reports were made as usual by the Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King and Grand Scribe, Grand Treasurer, Grand Recorder and Grand Lecturer. These reports attest one and all to the most excellent financial and working condition of the Grand Chapter of New York. We excerpt the following summary of the work of the year from the report of Grand Secretary Fox:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Number exalted during the year.....	2,357
Number affiliated	141
Number restored to membership.....	132
<hr/>
Total increase	2,630
Number dimitted	243
Number suspended for non-payment of dues.....	574
Number suspended for other unmasonic conduct....	3
Number expelled	8
Number died	503
<hr/>
Total decrease	1,331
<hr/>
Net increase	1,299

As compared with the report of like nature made last year, the foregoing recapitulation shows an increase of 51 suspensions for non-payment of dues; 3 suspensions for unmasonic conduct and 5 expulsions—and a decrease of 334 in the number of exaltations, 15 affiliations, 8 restorations, 5 dimissions and 18 deaths.

Adding the net gain of 1,299 for the past year to the certified number of members on December 27, 1907, gives 34,099 as the number of affiliated Royal Arch Masons in the jurisdiction on December 27, 1908.

The Chapter returns prove that, aside from the comparatively few Chapters that have largely increased their membership, the Chapters generally have been injuriously affected by the serious business depression that has prevailed during the past year.

Pursuant to notice given by the Deputy Grand High Priest, the Grand Council of Anointed High Priests convened in Masonic Hall, New York City, January 30th, at 8 o'clock p. m.,—the M. E. Comp. Charles C. Hunt, as Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Charles R. Hatton as Grand Secretary, the other stations being filled by the officers of the Grand Chapter.

There were present M. E. Comps. William Sherer, William J. McDonald, George E. W. Stivers, John W. Palmer, J. Harris Balston, Henry D. Hamilton and Dana B. Pratt, Past Grand High Priests, and M. E. William H. Grosscup, Past Grand High Priest of New Jersey, and one hundred and forty-one Anointed High Priests, representing forty-two Chapters.

The Grand Council as thus organized conferred the Order of High Priesthood upon thirty-three Companions, High Priests of their several Chapters, upon proper certificates of election as High Priests duly attested and deposited with the Grand Secretary.

The Grand Council was closed in Due Form.

The Companions present were then called to refreshment in the banquet hall, by the courtesy and hospitality of the Fraternal Union of Anointed High Priests, of which R. E. William E. Duncan is President.

The Grand Council again assembled in the same place at 3 o'clock p. m. of February 2d,—the R. E. Charles C. Hunt, Deputy Grand High Priest, presiding, for the purpose of conferring the Order upon newly elected and installed High Priests in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution of the Grand Chapter.

The Grand Council was opened in Ample Form, and with the assistance of the associate Grand Officers and the Anointed High Priests present, the Deputy Grand High Priest, the R. E. Charles C. Hunt, conferred the Order on the eighty-three Companions duly qualified, all of whom were anointed, consecrated and solemnly set apart to the office of High Priest.

The Grand Council was then duly closed. The exemplification of work was had the same evening, the R. E. Comp. George McGown directing the work.

The degrees having been fully exemplified, the R. E. and Rev. Pierre Cushing, Grand High Priest, delivered his Annual Address, his subject being "The Relations of Freemasonry to Morals and Religion," for which he received the thanks of the Grand Chapter.

The annual election of Grand Officers having been made the special order for this hour, the Grand Chapter then proceeded to the discharge of the special order of business appointed for this hour, viz.: the election of Grand Officers, M. E. William J. McDonald, Past Grand High Priest, presiding, upon request of the acting Grand High Priest.

Comps. John H. Thompson, Charles L. Meyers and Frank P. Wiseburn were appointed Tellers, upon whose report of the result of the first balloting M. E. Willis Wood Rice was declared re-elected, by unanimous vote, to the office of Grand High Priest. While deeply appreciating the compliment of a re-election, the M. E. Comp. was compelled, for business reasons, to decline.

The following Companions were chosen to the respective stations: The R. E. Comp. Charles C. Hunt of New York, Grand High Priest; Jay B. Kline, Syracuse, Deputy Grand High Priest; Edward Finch Hill, Peekskill, Grand King; Marshall F. Hemingway, Troy, Grand Scribe; James B. McEwan, Albany, Grand Treasurer; Christopher G. Fox, Buffalo, Grand Secretary.

The R. E. Comp. Pierre Cushing, Chairman, presented the report of the Committee on Memorials of the dead, which was approved and his recommendation adopted.

The committees having generally reported, and the Grand High Priest having made his appointments, Comp. William Sherer, Past Grand High Priest, upon the invitation of the Acting Grand High Priest, assisted by Comp. Henry DeWitt Hamilton, Past Grand High Priest, acting as Grand Marshal, then proceeded to induct into office the Grand Officers-elect.

The standing committees were named, and the One Hundred and Twelfth Annual of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New York was declared duly closed.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

An excellent Report on Correspondence is submitted by the M. E. Comp. Marion I. Greenwood. He reviews the Capitular world in a paper of eighty pages. His work is such as might be looked for from an expert workman in the quarries good and square, with the unmistakable mark of the Craft upon it. He notices California on his travels in its Fifty-fourth Annual under the direction of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett, whose address and the legislation of the session both meet his commendation. We concur in his conclusion. He says: "The conclusion, reached after a survey of the Masonic field, is that our beloved institution was never in a better or more prosperous condition than now, and the future looks bright and promising." So say we all of us.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Thirty-five Chapters.

2,244 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of North Carolina held its Sixty-first Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Winston, May 11, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. James C. Braswell, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. James C. Munds being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with twelve past Grand Officers, forty Past High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-seven other Grand Jurisdictions. Twenty-six Chapters were represented.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

It having been announced that M. E. Comps. W. J. Hubard, Past Grand High Priest, W. B. McChesney, Grand High Priest, and J. H. Price of the Grand Chapter of Virginia, were in waiting, the Grand High Priest appointed Comps. A. B. Andrews, Jr., and Lat. Williams, Past Grand High Priests, to receive and introduce them into the Grand Chapter, where they were cordially welcomed and assigned seats in the East.

The Grand High Priest commenced his address by welcoming the Companions to the Sixty-first Anniversary. He voiced the thanks of the Grand Chapter to the Great Ruler of all for their preservation. While sister jurisdictions had been sorely stricken, their own official circle remained unbroken.

No important decisions were reported.

E. Comp. F. N. Skinner submitted his report as the Committee on Necrology. Of the Companions, of their own friends and families he said in closing:

"In this Grand Jurisdiction twenty-six Companions have been 'called from labor to refreshment.' We were accustomed to look forward to their presence in our Chapters with great pleasure. Their seats are now vacant, and in our earthly labors they will not again take part. The world seems more gloomy for their removal; the future life seems brighter by their entrance 'within the veil'—for "It is not all of life to live,

Nor all of death to die."

And of the many Eminent Companions of other Grand Jurisdictions at rest he added:

"To these sister Grand Jurisdictions we extend our sincere sympathy; but we rejoice with them in the glorious deeds of their departed great ones. They had wrought diligently, faithfully, earnestly. the highest honors their brethren and Companions could bestow were earned; and now, when 'life's fitful day is o'er,' they have entered into rest, and are receiving the reward which diligent labor always brings."

The committees having generally reported and developed no new or startling matter, in the general routine of business the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following named Companions were chosen: John B. Griggs, Grand High Priest; J. W. Shuford, Deputy Grand High Priest; Uel M. Robinson, Grand King; Hugh A. Murrill, Grand Scribe; Martin S. Willard, Grand Treasurer; James C. Munds, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all the elected and appointed Grand Officers were installed by Past Grand High Priest W. S. Liddell, Past Grand High Priest W. Anderson assisting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The standing committees were appointed. Thanks were extended to Winston Chapter, No. 24, for fraternal courtesies and entertainment during the session.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Grand Convention of the Order of High Priesthood assembled in Masonic Hall in Winston-Salem, May 12, 1909,—M.° E.° Comp. John T. Alderman, President; E.° Comp. A. B. Andrews, Jr., P. G. H. P., Recorder, with a goodly number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

The M.° E.° President announced that this Council had been regularly convened pursuant to notice heretofore issued.

The Grand Herald then announced the presence of the following officers of the Grand Council of Anointed High Priests of Virginia, namely: M.° E.° W. J. Hubbard, P. G. H. P., President; M.° E.° W. B. McChesney, G. H. P., Master of Ceremonies; E.° James H. Price, Conductor.

These Excellent Companions were received by the President and cordially welcomed to this session of the Grand Council, they coming by invitation to confer the Order upon the class of candidates. They then took charge of the work and business of the Council.

Petition for affiliation from E.° Comp. George E. Beard, a member of the Grand Council, Anointed High Priests of Vermont, was then received, and upon the ballot being spread he was declared duly elected.

Twelve Companions, high Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Recorder submitted his financial report, which was approved.

On motion of M.° E.° Comp. H. G. Smallbones, a rising vote of thanks was extended to M.° E.° Comp. W. J. Hubbard, Past Grand High Priest, M.° E.° Comp. W. B. McChesney, Grand High Priest of Virginia, for their kindness in being present and conferring the degrees upon the Companions present.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Veteran Southgate seems to be growing young again. Here is a fine summary of the progress and present condition of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic world recorded in a paper of 123 pages, wherein forty-seven Grand Jurisdictions are thoroughly reviewed. California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett. He joins us in deploring the loss of our M. E. Comps. Tuttle and Myrick, and commends our legislation generally. Our Companion is resourceful, but we don't know whether to credit it to the climate of the old North State generally or confine it to its Southgate district. The report is an excellent one.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Eighteen Chapters. 1,932 Royal Arch Masons.

This Grand Chapter held its Twentieth Annual Convocation at Grand Forks in the Masonic Temple, June 24, 1909.

All the Chapters of the jurisdiction were represented and all the Grand Officers present, with the Representatives of twenty-five other Grand Jurisdictions. Ten Past Grand High Priests were in attendance.

A handsome portrait of M. E. Frank H. Sprague, Grand High Priest, appears on the opening page, and in the body of the volume a group of most excellent looking gentlemen representing twelve former Grand High Priests, from M. E. Comp. Peter Pickton of 1886-7, to M. E. Comp. A. B. Taylor of 1909-10. Grand High Priest Sprague presided, the R. E. Comp. Frank J. Thompson being Grand Secretary.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Committee on Credentials reported and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver his Annual Address, which was chiefly devoted to the consideration of the local business of the jurisdiction, first noting, as the most important duty, the passing of beloved Companions who had been called from among their number since the last annual meeting.

Grand Secretary Thompson as usual submitted his detailed, elaborate report of the financial condition and general workings of the Grand and Constituent Bodies.

The Committee on Obituaries submitted a feeling and painstaking report, in which they paid the last sad tribute of fraternal affection to the many earnest and devoted Companions who have passed from among the living during the past year, and among them we note the familiar name of one endeared to the Masons of California by years of faithful service in all the departments of Masonry, the M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff. God give him rest!

Nothing out of the usual routine occurred to mark the business of the session. The following Companions were chosen and installed to serve Grand Chapter for the ensuing year: Alexander B. Taylor, Grand High Priest; Walter L. Williamson, Deputy Grand High Priest; Anson Bartlett, Grand King; Clarence A. Hale, Grand Scribe; Harry Lord, Grand Treasurer; Frank J. Thompson, Grand Secretary; Charles E. Tillson, Grand Captain of the Host; Thomas Sims, Grand Principal Sojourner; Fred G. Kneeland, Grand Royal Arch Captain.

APPOINTED: John K. Burleson, Grand Chaplain; John H. Fraine, Grand Master Third Vail; Laurence G. Moultrie, Grand Master Second Vail; William Spriggs, Grand Master First Vail; Fred W. Turner, Grand Sentinel; E. Grand Lecturer and Auditor.

The usual committees were appointed, a handsome jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest, and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

1,200 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Nova Scotia held its Fortieth Annual Convocation in Freemasons' Hall, Halifax, June 8, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Thomas Van B. Bingay, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Samuel J. Waddell, P. G. H. P., being the Grand Secretary.

The Grand Chapter has jurisdiction over Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island and Newfoundland.

All the Grand Officers were present, with twenty-four Past Grand Officers and twenty-one Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Thirteen Chapters were represented.

A splendid portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

The R. E. Grand Secretary, by order of the M. E. Grand High Priest, called the roll of subordinate Chapters, showing that a constitutional number were represented.

The R. E. Grand Secretary laid on the table the returns of subordinate Chapters.

The V. V. E. Grand Captain of the Host, by order of the M. V. E. Grand High Priest, organized Grand Chapter, and at 10 o'clock a. m. the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nova Scotia was opened in Ample Form by the M. V. E. Grand High Priest, Thos. Van B. Bingay.

The Grand Secretary read communications from M. V. E. Comp. and Rev. H. D. DeBlois, Permanent Grand Chaplain, and the R. V. E. Comp. Barry D. Bent, Grand King, regretting their inability to attend on account of illness.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He extended to all present a cordial and fraternal greeting and hearty welcome to the Fortieth Annual Convocation, to newcomers and old, and continued:

"With humble and grateful hearts we offer up to the Almighty Father our voices in thanksgiving and praise for His watchful and loving care and guidance, and for the manifold mercies and bounties that He has showered upon each one of us during the past year; and whilst in His providence our immediate official circle is unbroken, yet, alas! we miss the pleasant greeting, the hearty clasp of the hand of some of the Companions we have known in the past and expected to meet again, but who have heard and answered the last call, and have passed from labor here to the rest and peace that remains for the children of God. Let us therefore pause for a moment and render to our departed Companions that loving tribute of remembrance which is but the natural outpouring of our inner consciousness, and which at this time is but fitting for us to express."

He paid fraternal tribute to the fifteen names inscribed on their own death roll, naming with fraternal affection the well-known and efficient workers in Capitular Masonry, M. V. E. Comps. James Dempsey and William A. Prindeville, and, passing to the remembrance of the eminent dead of sister jurisdictions, he, in spirit, dropped his sprig of acacia with us on their last resting-places, not knowing, at the time of his writing, that the final call had been made on their own Representative near this Grand Chapter, M. V. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff. God give him rest!

He closed his tribute to the dead with the familiar and beautiful lines:

"Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea."

He reported his visitations in detail with the conditions, financial and working, of the Chapters visited by himself and also the visitations made by proxies.

The following reference to the Order of High Priesthood reflects credit on the M.·. E.·. and Hon. Comp. Nelson Williams of Ohio:

"I have devoted a great deal of time and correspondence in connection with the Order of High Priesthood, and I wish at this time to express my sincere thanks to M.·. E.·. Comp. Nelson Williams, President of the Order in the State of Ohio, for invaluable information as to the ritualistic work. M.·. E.·. Companion Williams was one of the committee to whom the work of remodelling the ritual of the Order was entrusted, at a General Convention of the Order in 1894, and the so-called Chamberlin work, now in almost universal use in the American jurisdictions, was the result of their labors."

In response to the opinions of the Grand High Priest, Grand Chapter adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That all previous legislation pertaining to the Order of High Priesthood be repealed, and that the regulations for the government of the Order as recommended by the M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest in his address be adopted, and that the same be published with the Constitution of Grand Chapter."

The Representatives of sister Grand Chapters were called up and formally welcomed by the M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest, who extended, through them, cordial, fraternal greetings to the several Grand Bodies by whom they were accredited, and brief replies were made by those present.

The Grand Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming were formally acknowledged and welcomed into the family of just and legally constituted Grand Chapters.

Grand Secretary Waddell submitted a full, concise report of the transactions during the recess of Grand Chapter.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, it was proceeded with, when the following Companions were chosen: Malcolm McF. Hall, Grand High Priest; Donald F. Fraser, Grand King; Welsford D. Mackay, Grand Scribe; William Crowe, Grand Treasurer; Samuel J. Waddell, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed, invested and proclaimed by the retiring Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. D. Darrach, acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

There being no further business, the Fortieth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nova Scotia was closed in Ample Form by the M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest, Comp. Malcolm McF. Hall, to meet in the town of Wolfville on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, A. D. 1910, A. I. 2440, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held in Freemasons' Hall, Halifax, June 8, 1909,—M. E. Comp. William M. Black, President; E. Comp. Samuel J. Waddell, P. G. H. P., being the Recorder. All the Grand Officers, with a goodly number of Excellent Companions, were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Nine Companions, High Priests or Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, being duly qualified, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

At an election of officers for the ensuing year, M. E. Comp. M. McF. Hall was chosen President, and E. Comp. Samuel J. Waddell, Recorder.

The officers, with the exception of the E. Chaplain, who was absent owing to illness, were installed by the retiring President, M. E. Comp. William Marshall Black.

The work of the Convention being completed, the M. E. President closed the Convention of Anointed High Priests of Nova Scotia in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Our Companions of Nova Scotia entrust the review of the work of the other Grand Bodies of the Capitular world to the three Wise Men of the jurisdiction, M. E. Comps. William M. Black, S. J. Waddell and Thos. Van B. Bingay. These three Companions do agree in "peace, love and unity" to form the syndicate of Correspondence and submit annually an excellent summary of the progress and present condition of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic world. The present report notices California in its Fifty-fourth Annual Convocation, M. E. Comp. Charles J. Willett, presiding.

The review is a fine one, and we return our thanks for the good words and kind treatment at the hand and pen of our Supervisor, M. E. Comp. Thos. Van B. Bingay. May his shadow never be less.

M. E. Comp. Malcolm McF. Hall, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. S. J. Waddell, Grand Secretary. E. Comp. Thos. Van B. Bingay, Correspondent.

OHIO.

One Hundred Sixty-six Chapters.

28,777 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ohio held its Ninety-third Annual Conviction in the Lyric Theater, East Liverpool, October

6, 1909. The Grand Body was escorted from headquarters at the Thompson House by Pilgrim Commandery, No. 55, Knights Templar, at 9:30 o'clock a. m.

M. . E. . Comp. Edward H. Archer, Grand High Priest; R. . E. . Comp. Edwin Hagenbuch, Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present, with fourteen Past Grand High Priests and thirty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. One hundred sixty of the 166 Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Archer appears on the opening page, and "In Memoriam," one of William M. Cunningham, the veteran Correspondent, and Grand High Priest in 1900.

The chairman of the Committee on Credentials then reported that, in addition to the above Grand Officers and Past Grand High Priests, more than a constitutional number of subordinate Chapters were represented by duly accredited Representatives enrolled upon the credential register.

After a fervent invocation to the Throne of Grace by the Grand Chaplain, the M. . E. . Grand High Priest declared the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of Ohio opened in Ample Form in its Ninety-third Annual Convocation, and proclamation was made by the Grand Marshal.

The Grand Chapter was welcomed to East Liverpool by Comp. Frank Grosshaus, on behalf of the Companions. He also tendered with his welcome a beautiful key made of the ware that has made the city famous.

By direction of the Grand High Priest, Comp. William A. Reiter made fitting reply to the address with his usual eloquence.

Many distinguished visitors from the Grand Lodge, Grand Council and Grand Commandery of Ohio were introduced, received with Grand Honors and invited to seats in the East.

The Grand Secretary called the roll of Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and those present were welcomed by the Grand High Priest and received with the Grand Honors.

The standing committees were announced and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

Congratulating the Companions upon the presence of all the Grand Officers and the unusually full representation of the Chapters in honor of the Ninety-third Annual, he gave to one and all a cordial welcome and fraternal greeting, adding: "I do now and herewith submit for your consideration the work and duties performed since the close of the preceding annual."

As a first duty he directed their attention to the death roll of the year. He said 320 of our Companions have crossed the divide. The roll is filled with the names of illustrious Masons. Earnest and devoted in all Masonic duties, they were especially zealous in the progress and prosperity of the Capitular rites. The names of Morrell and Cunningham are written high upon the Masonic Column of Ohio. He left to the Committee on Necrology the preparation of a proper memorial devoted to the passing to rest of these illustrious Companions.

He referred to the loss of sister jurisdictions, saying: "This Grand Chapter has not been alone with that sorrow that comes with death. Memorials from sixteen of our sister jurisdictions which have been likewise stricken are herewith submitted." And on this roll we find the name of a beloved Grand High Priest of California, M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff. God give him rest!

He reported the constitution of Chapters Nos. 183 and 184. He devoted much attention to the inspection and condition, working and financial, of the Chapters. Of decisions, he said:

"I have not been called upon to pass upon any complicated question which would in any manner disturb our present jurisprudence. In every question submitted to me I have been able, by referring those who inquired, to our Code and the various decisions, and thereby settle all questions submitted."

He reported a very thorough visitation of the Chapters.

Grand Secretary Hagenbuch submitted a full and complete report. We excerpt his summary of the work of the year:

Number of active chartered Chapters, 166; under dispensation, 2.
Vacant numbers, 18. Highest number assigned, 184.

Submitted herewith is a tabulated statement of their returns, from which the following recapitulation is made:

Present membership, July 31, 1909..... 28,777

Net gain, 1,440. This is 199 less than last year, and smaller than any year since 1905, but greater than any previous years.

The business of the session having been distributed to the several committees, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were appointed and the election proceeded. The following named Companions were chosen: Grand High Priest, William T. S. O'Hara; Deputy Grand High Priest, Frank Crumit; Grand King, Joseph Kirkup; Grand Scribe, Thomas H. Isitt; Grand Treasurer, Ralph R. Rickly; Grand Secretary, Edwin Hagenbueh.

M. E. Comp. Jacob L'H. Long submitted a feeling report on Necrology, of which we excerpt the reference to the lamented Companion Cunningham and a few closing lines, regretting that we could not find place for the entire report. We note in it, among the "dead of sister jurisdictions," the name of our beloved Comp. Jacob Hart Neff:

"M. E. Comp. William Moore Cunningham, Past Grand High Priest, died at his home in Newark, Ohio, August 16, 1909, in the eighty-first year of his age.

"Our M. E. Grand High Priest has given in his letter announcing the sad news, the Masonic record of Companion Cunningham; it remains for us to speak of the personal qualities which so endeared him to all those whose privilege it was to have known him in the social circle, in the walks of business, and in the close brotherhood of Masonry.

"His genial courtesy, his kindly heart, his ready wit, and the broad scope of his knowledge marked him as a bright ornament in the social circle and on festive occasions; and his sturdy honesty and high sense of honor commanded the respect and confidence of his business associates. But it was to the cause of Freemasonry that his most earnest efforts were directed. For more than half a century he was a valued working member of the Grand Bodies, and their rituals, their jurisprudence, and their legislation bear living testimony to the brightness of his mind and the extent of his knowledge.

"As a Masonic writer his fame extends to the limits of the world of Masonry. We may say of him in Masonry as the poet said of the great lawgiver of the Hebrews, that "Never Earth's philosopher traced with his golden pen

On the deathless page truths half so sage
As he wrote down for men."

"Modest and retiring in his nature, yet firm in sustaining that which he deemed to be the right, prompt and faithful in the discharge of every task entrusted to him, indefatigable in his efforts to inculcate the moral precepts of Masonry, in his life he has left us an example of a great as well as a true and faithful Mason.

"Lives of great men all remind us
We may make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;
Footprints that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, may take heart again."

The Grand Chapter of Wyoming was recognized as a just and legally formed Grand Chapter and an exchange of Representatives invited.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by M.·. E.·. Comp. Graff M. Acklin, Past Grand High Priest Owen B. Hannan acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The retiring Grand High Priest was presented with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel and apron.

The standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form and proclamation made.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests of Ohio held their Annual Convocation for the transaction of business in Masonic Temple, East Liverpool, October 6, 1909,—M.·. E.·. Comp. Nelson Williams, President; E.·. Comp. Edwin Hagenbuch, Recorder. All the officers and twenty-seven Excellent Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The President addressed the Grand Council:

"MY EXCELLENT COMPANIONS: The seasons have come and gone since last we met, and we have again assembled around our common Altar to renew old acquaintances and make new ones; to drink in once more the beautiful and impressive lessons and teachings of our Holy Order, and repledge ourselves to the due observance and faithful performance of every requirement of our solemn covenant.

"During the past year I have had no official duties to perform of sufficient importance to require mention here, and am pleased to report that, so far as I am advised, our Order is moving forward in the different Grand Jurisdictions as rapidly as could reasonably be expected.

"While death has not entered our official household during the year, a number of Companion Anointed High Priests have answered the call of the Holy One, who closes down the eyelids still, and have gone the way of all the world.

If it were possible, I would gladly wreath a garland of immortelles about each name, for these were all good men and true.

"Two of these Companions have for many years been so faithful in their attendance upon the sessions of this Grand Council, and have done so much for Freemasonry generally, that I desire to make special mention of their death. I refer to E.°. Comps. Edwin Morrell and William Moore Cunningham, both of whom were with us one year ago, but are absent today."

We regret our inability to publish the eloquent tributes paid to the memories of these illustrious Masons by President Williams.

After appointing an Auditing Committee, the M.°. E.°. President proceeded with the work.

Seventy-three Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Auditing Committee reported on the financial statements of the Recorder and Treasurer and their report was approved.

The annual election was held, the present officers being re-elected.

Very interesting remarks were then made by Comps. Benton S. Oppenheimer, Theodore Weyant and John W. King from the class of candidates, all testifying to their high appreciation of the work and lessons of the order as exemplified on this large class of candidates.

There being no further business, after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Council was closed in Ample Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The present report will be read and considered as the last message of the beloved Cunningham to the Craft. We will attempt no comment on his last work, but submit the prefatory statement of his successor and for Companion Cunningham we pray, God give him perfect rest.

OKLAHOMA.

Sixty-two Chapters.

3,183 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Indian Territory convened for its Twentieth Annual Convocation in Indian Temple, Oklahoma City, April 20, 1909,—M.°. E.°. Comp. Daniel M. Hailey, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. J. S. Murrow being the Grand Secretary.

All the Grand Officers were present with fourteen Past Grand Officers or Permanent Members, twenty Past High Priests, and thirteen Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Forty-eight of the sixty-two Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Hailey appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer by the M. E. and Rev. Joseph S. Murrow.

The standing committees were named by the Grand Secretary, and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

He commenced by interesting the Grand Chapter in repeating the following bit of Masonic history concerning the life and progress of the Grand Chapter of Indian Territory:

"The cycles of time have brought us to the close of another year in Capitular Masonry, and it becomes my pleasure to bid you welcome to this the Twentieth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Indian Territory. You will pardon me at this time if I indulge in a personal reminiscence, when I say that I was one of the first Royal Arch Masons made in the Indian Territory, and today, by the grace of God, I remain the only one left of that team; Dr. H. B. Smith and James Holland, the other two, have been called to that beautiful Arch above, not made with hands, and they await our coming; and today I stand before you perhaps the last Grand High Priest of said Territory. At the last Annual Convocation a resolution was introduced to amend Art. I of the Constitution by striking out the words Indian Territory and substituting therefor the State of Oklahoma, and as I have no doubt but what this will be concurred in at the present convocation, it is certainly a coincidence never before in the history of our Order, that the first Companion who journeyed from Babylon to Jerusalem should be permitted to live to see the outer vails of the New Tabernacle, once the country of the Indians, the greatest agricultural, coal, gas and oil fields of the world, and the brightest star on the azure fields of Old Glory."

In his report of "death's doings" among our Companions of sister jurisdictions he said: "The faults of our Companions we write upon the sand; their virtues we inscribe on the tablets of love and memory," and after paying fraternal tribute to the Companions at rest throughout the nation, he said: "Let us now turn to our immediate household, and while memory lasts let us keep in our hearts the remembrance of their virtues of mind and heart." He concluded by saying: "The proper tribute to them will be made by the Committee on Obituaries."

He reported the constitution of the four Chapters, Nos. 55, 57, 58 and 59, heretofore under dispensation, and the issuance of dispensations for the forming and opening of two still newer ones.

He reported his visitations, the condition of those visited, and said in concluding his report: "There seems to be a healthy increase in the numerical strength and sound financial condition of all the Chapters I have had the pleasure of visiting. My opinion is that Chapters should be strengthened numerically and financially, rather than that new Chapters should be organized with small membership and little activity."

He closed his address with this feeling reference to the Grand Secretary: "To our venerable Grand Secretary, Joseph S. Murrow, do I owe a debt of gratitude that I can never repay. His genial manner and cheerful compliance with every request has lightened my burdens and cheered me on my way. May there be for him many years of usefulness to the Craft ere his illustrious career shall come to a close. God bless him and keep him, is my prayer."

From the complete report of the Grand Secretary we excerpt the summary of the work of the year:

Number of active Chapters.....	62
Number making returns	58
Exalted during the year.....	378
Affiliated	86
Reinstated	15
Dimitted during the year	91
Suspended	78
Died	25
Expelled	2
Membership December 31, 1908.....	3,183

The afternoon was given up to the exemplification of the work in the Mark, Past, Most Excellent and Royal Arch degrees by the Oklahoma City Companions. This work was well done and reflects great credit on Cyrus Chapter, No. 7.

The Committee on Obituaries made a feeling report devoted to the memories of the twenty-five Companions, members of the several Chapters, Companions whom, in the language of another, "The God of all faithful workers has bidden to lie down and rest. Sweet be their sleep and their awakening glorious."

The committees having generally reported and the routine of business concluded, the election of officers for the ensuing year was called on. The M. E. Comp. I. H. G. Hulme was chosen Grand High Priest, and Past Grand High Priest Comp. Joseph S. Murrow was re-elected Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all the officers, elected and appointed, were installed. Past Grand High Priest Essex, acting as Installing Officer, assisted by Past Grand High Priest Doyle, installed the officers for the ensuing year in an impressive manner.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

M. E. Comp. I. H. G. Hulme, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Joseph S. Murrow, Grand Secretary.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Comp. Joseph S. Murrow submits again his report of the doings of other Grand Capitular Bodies, with the general progress and condition of the Capitular rite in the Masonic world. His paper is one of ninety pages and of the usual merit. He notices California briefly in its Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Willett, and takes no exception to our general legislation.

We excerpt his conclusion and remark that as Companion Murrow was in at the "borning" of the Grand Chapter of Indian Territory it is eminently fit that he give the benediction. He says:

"My work is done. Once more I lay down the pen to rest from my labors. I bespeak for this my last report for the old Indian Territory your charitable consideration.

"With charity to all and malice toward none, and praying God's blessings on you, I beg to remain,

"Fraternally yours,

"J. S. MURROW."

OREGON.

Twenty-nine Chapters.

2,774 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Oregon held its Forty-ninth Annual Convocation in Portland, June 14, 1909.—M. E. Comp. Albert Henry Steiner, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. James F. Robinson being Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with seventeen Past Grand Officers and twenty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Twenty-four of the twenty-nine Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Steiner appears on the opening page.

The Committee on Credentials having reported, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver his address.

In well chosen words he gave the Companions fraternal greeting and welcomed them to the pleasures and duties of the Forty-ninth Annual Convocation.

He said that "nothing out of the ordinary" has occurred during the past year affecting unfavorably the interests of Royal Arch Masonry in the jurisdiction.

Speaking the fraternal dead he said: "Again the official circle of the Grand Chapter has been broken and two of our beloved and distinguished Companions have, since our last convocation, passed the vails of these earthly courts, which forcibly reminds us that the living of today may become the dead of tomorrow, and that all must submit to the humbling level of the tomb and be gathered to the land whither our fathers have gone before us."

Two Past-Grand High Priests, M. E. Comps. John H. F. Irvine and R. F. Gibbons, had passed to rest since the preceding Annual Convocation, while the several Chapters mourned the loss of thirty-two beloved Companions. He paid affectionate tribute to their memories and recommended that pages be set apart in the Journal of Proceedings devoted to the remembrance of their Masonic lives. Continuing he said of Companions at rest in the several sister jurisdictions:

"Not alone do we mourn the loss by death of loved Companions; from many sister jurisdictions comes the sad announcement of Companions prominent in civil life, high in station, and who have devoted their best efforts to the advancement of the cause of Masonry.

"They have laid aside the working tools in life's quarries to answer the final summons of the Divine Overseer, to have their work approved, and pass on to their eternal reward."

He reported no important decisions, and after reporting the routine duties of the recess he said in conclusion concerning his visitation of the Chapters:

"I deeply regret the fact that my employment is such that it requires my constant attention, and prevented me from making many visits to the various Chapters throughout the jurisdiction, with the exception of Multnomah, No. 1, where I visited many times and was received with uniform kindness and consideration, as I am sure I would have been had I been permitted to visit others."

We excerpt from the report of Grand Secretary Robinson the following summary of the work of the year:

A fine address was delivered before the Grand Chapter by the Grand Lecturer, E. Comp. O. P. Cashow, his subject being "Capitular Masonry." At its conclusion the following action was had:

Companion Past Grand High Priest J. M. Hodson moved that the thanks of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter be and the same is hereby extended to Comp. O. P. Coshaw, Grand Lecturer, for the able and intelligent address delivered before the session of this Grand Chapter.

Charters were granted the two Chapters under dispensation.

The election of officers was called on for the ensuing year, and the following Companions were chosen: E. E. Kiddie, Grand High Priest; Frank J. Miller, Deputy Grand High Priest; C. J. Buchanan, Grand King; Oscar Hayter, Grand Scribe; D. P. Mason, Grand Treasurer; James F. Robinson, Grand Secretary; M. S. Woodcock, Grand Captain of the Host; W. R. Bilyeu, Grand Lecturer.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by the Grand High Priest, M. E. Comp. S. M. Yoran acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The standing committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood of Oregon met in Annual Convention at Portland, June 14, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. O. O. Hodson, President; E. Comp. James F. Robinson, Recorder, with a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Reports were made by the Treasurer and Recorder, which were considered and approved.

Nine Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

We deeply regret the cause for the passage of the following resolution, and pray that our Companion and Brother may be spared for many years of continued usefulness:

"Resolved, That this Council of High Priesthood, recognizing the efficient services rendered by our E. Vice-President, Comp. J. M. Hodson, for many years past, and regretting his enforced retirement from office on account of ill health, hereby unanimously tender him our fraternal thanks and hope that he may be spared many years in which to participate in our session and render us the benefit of his knowledge and experience."

At the election of officers for the ensuing year, the present officers were re-elected and the Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The present paper is but an added chapter to the volume of able reports made for the Grand Chapter of Oregon. In it Companion Hodson fully sustains his reputation as a studious, painstaking and able reviewer. We excerpt his introduction and let the report speak for itself:

"COMPANIONS: We take pleasure in presenting to you our findings for the current year. We will not vouch for the supreme excellence or the great wisdom thereof, but if you will devote a tithe of the time to the study of the principles taught in the extracts it contains, that we have to their selection, you will appreciate more fully the important place occupied by the Capitular degrees in the great system of religious philosophy known as Freemasonry."

In it California is noticed during its Fifty-fourth Annual, the administration of M.°. E°. Comp. Charles J. Willett, from whose address he quotes freely and with approval. We regret to hear of our Companion's illness and pray for his recovery.

PENNSYLVANIA.

One Hundred Twenty-Seven Chapters. 28,177 Royal Arch Masons.

This fine volume comes to us with a handsome steel engraved portrait of M.°. E°. Comp. William Whitney, who was Grand High Priest in 1843-44. "In Memoriam," and a fine colored view of Renaissance Hall, in the Masonic Hall, on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter, as usual, held its Quarterly Convocations in March, June, September and December, with the Annual on December 28th, closing the calendar for the new year.

At the March Quarterly, all the Grand Officers were present. The M.°. E°. Comp. William B. Meredith, Grand High Priest, presiding. There were present 17 Past Grand Officers and 21 Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions; 60 Chapters were represented.

Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 7 o'clock p. m.

The business of the session was confined chiefly to the consideration of reports of the Committees on Finance and on By-Laws.

The following tells us that "all is not well" with several Companions in our sister jurisdiction:

On motion of Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion George W. Kendrick, Jr., duly made and seconded, the Secretary was directed to convey to Past Grand High Priests M. E. Companions Matthias H. Henderson and James S. Barber, and to the M. E. Grand Secretary Companion Charles Cary, the kindest expressions of fraternal love and sympathy of the members of this Grand Chapter for them; with the earnest hope that the health of each will improve and that they may be long spared to honor this Grand Chapter and be esteemed by its members.

The Grand Chapter was called off, a Lodge of Mark Masters opened and the degree of Mark Master Mason exemplified, when the Lodge of Mark Masters was closed. Grand Chapter called on and labor resumed. The Grand Chapter was closed in peace at 9 o'clock and 5 minutes.

At the June Quarterly there was about the same attendance—45 Chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present. The Grand High Priest presiding.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

Reports were received and considered from the Committees on Finance and on By-Laws.

The M. E. Grand High Priest Companion William B. Meredith addressed Grand Chapter and in a most fraternal and touching manner referred to the death of Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion James Shallcross Barber.

He paid an eloquent tribute to his worth as a Companion Royal Arch Mason, and announced that he had directed Past High Priest Companion Stockton Bates to prepare and present to The Grand Chapter a suitable minute that would enshrine his memory and acknowledge his services to the fraternity.

Past High Priest Companion Stockton Bates then read a paper in memory of James Shallcross Barber, Past Grand High Priest of The Grand Holy Royal Arch Chapter of Pennsylvania, which was listened to with sympathetic attention by the Companions.

In closing the Memorial, M. E. Comp. Bates wrote: Companion Barber needs no monument, for another poet has sung:

"Trust not a stone to bear thy name:
The Fame is lost which it imparts.
Who for his dust a tear would claim,
Must write his name on living hearts—
And they will bear it on to fame.
Its sound shall make their pulses thrill
When, heeding neither praise nor blame,
Who bore it slumbers cold and still."

Communications were received from several Grand Chapters announcing the death of distinguished Companions.

Before closing, the Degree of Most Excellent Master was exemplified, after which the Grand Chapter was closed in peace at 9 o'clock and 15 minutes.

At the Quarterly of September 3d all Grand Officers were present, with about the same number of Past Grand Officers and Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Forty-four Chapters were represented. The Grand High Priest presiding.

Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 7 o'clock p. m. Reports were received from Committees on Finance and By-Laws. Grand Secretary Cary also presented the annual report, from which we excerpt the following summary:

We note the following action concerning the return of a portion of the generous donation of the Companions of Pennsylvania to California in her time of trouble:

"A Communication was received from the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of California, bearing date, San Francisco, August 20, 1908, enclosing checks for Thirteen hundred and eighty-nine dollars and ninety-seven cents ($1,389.97), being .28958 per cent. refund of the amount contributed by this Grand Chapter and the subordinate Chapters of the State of Pennsylvania, for the relief of the sufferers by the earthquake and fire on the morning of the eighteenth day of April, 1906; whereupon Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion Ezra S. Bartlett offered the following resolutions which, being duly seconded, were adopted:

"Resolved: That the sum of Thirteen hundred and eighty-nine dollars and ninety-seven cents ($1,389.97) returned by the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of California, this being .289 per cent. of $4,795.50, the amount contributed by the Grand Chapter of Pennsylvania and its constituent Chapters and Mark Lodges, to the 'San Francisco Earthquake Relief Fund,' and that much in excess of their needs, be paid over to the M. E. Grand Treasurer and by him made a special deposit, to be known on the books of the Grand Chapter as 'The Charity and Emergency Relief Fund of The Grand Holy Royal Arch Chapter of Pennsylvania,' to which is to be added from time to time any and all interest that may accrue thereon."

Communications were received from Grand Chapters announcing the deaths of distinguished Companions.

Before closing the Royal Arch Degree was exemplified. The Grand Chapter was closed in peace at 9 o'clock and 50 minutes.

At the Quarterly of December 3rd all the Grand Officers were present, with five Past Grand High Priests, sixteen District Deputy Grand High Priests, twenty-four Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions, and one hundred and six chapters were represented. Grand High Priest William B. Meredith presided. The M. E. Comp. Stockton Bates acting Grand Secretary.

Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 2 o'clock p. m.

The Committee on Finance made their annual report, also the Committees on By-Laws and on Printing and Publishing. The reports were considered and approved.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution reported progress.

The M. E. Grand High Priest, Companion William B. Meredith, touchingly referred to the loss sustained by this Grand Chapter in the death of Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion Matthias H. Henderson, and stated that he had requested Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion George W. Kendrick, Jr., who preceded Companion

Henderson as Grand High Priest of this Grand Chapter to prepare an "In Memoriam," which would be read at the proper time.

Past Grand High Priest M. E. Companion George W. Kendrick, Jr., then presented an "In Memoriam" on the life and services of Past Grand High Priest M. E. Companion Matthias Holstein Henderson, which was listened to with sorrowful attention and deep interest by the Companions.

After a brief recess other communications were received announcing the deaths of distinguished Companions. The Grand High Priest announced:

This being the time fixed by the Constitution for the election of Grand Officers to serve for the ensuing Masonic year, beginning on St. John the Evangelist's Day next, the M. E. Grand High Priest was pleased to appoint Tellers, who, having reported, the M. E. Grand High Priest announced the following named Companions duly elected:

Carl A. Sundstrom, Grand High Priest; A. G. Criswell Smith, Grand King; George B. Wells, Grand Scribe; Edward B. Spencer, Grand Treasurer; Charles Cary, Grand Secretary.

All the Companions present who had not received the Order of High Priesthood having retired, Companion Peter N. K. Schwenk was duly installed as High Priest of Keystone Royal Arch Chapter, No. 175, and had the Order of High Priesthood conferred upon him by Companion Daniel W. Hutchin, at the request of the M. E. Grand High Priest.

The Companions who had retired were readmitted.

At the suggestion of the M. E. Grand High Priest, on motion duly made and seconded, the Secretary was directed to convey in writing to Past Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion Alexander H. Morgan, the most fraternal expressions of respect and friendship, expressing the sincere hope that he may be long spared to his loving Companions of this Grand Chapter.

The Annual was held on St. John's Day, December 28th. All the Grand Officers were present, the Grand High Priest presiding, and forty Chapters were represented.

Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form at 7 o'clock p. m., and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address.

He paid affectionate and fraternal tribute to the Companions at rest. He reported the business transacted during the recess, his visitations and an interesting statement of unrecorded marks. After concluding his review of the business of the past year, he said: "Little remains for me to do, save only to install my worthy and distinguished successor, surrendering to him the sceptre of my authority and bid farewell to you, my Companions, only as your Grand High Priest, assuring you that so long as life and health are spared, I shall be regular in my attendance upon the meetings of Grand Chapter."

The Grand High Priest announced his appointments and all were installed.

A Past Grand High Priest's Jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest, and the Grand Chapter was closed in peace at 9:30 p. m.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee to whom is entrusted the duty of feeling the pulse of Capitular Masonry in the Masonic World for this great jurisdiction is composed of a syndicate of five wise men, composed of a Past Grand High Priest J. Henry Williams, as Chairman, and E. Comps. Thomas F. Penman, Robt. E. Umbell, Jas. W. Hughes and Geo. Hale, each of whom places his Mark on the part of the work executed by him, by affixing his initials thereto: We of California coming under the supervision of the M. E. Chairman.

The report is a paper of 136 pages: California is reviewed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Chas. J. Willett, whose address and rulings meet the approval of the M. E. Chairman.

M. E. Comp. Carl A. Sundstrom, Grand High Priest; M. E. Comp. Charles Cary, Grand Secretary.

QUEBEC.

Eleven Chapters.

1209 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Quebec held its thirty-second Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Montreal, on March 23rd, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. Harry G. Elliott, Grand First Principal Z; the M. E. Comp. Will H. Whyte being the Grand Scribe E.

All the Grand Officers were present, with eighteen Past Grand Officers, four Grand Superintendents of Districts and twenty Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Nine of the eleven Chapters were represented.

A portrait of M. E. Comp. Edward A. Evans, Grand High Priest-elect, appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form. A number of Companions were excused for unavoidable absence because of sickness.

The Grand Scribe E. read a telegram from M. E. Comp. Dr. O. M. Daly, Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Vermont, and also a letter from R. E. Comp. H. H. Ross, Grand Secretary, expressing regrets at their inability to be present at this session, invitations to both of these Companions having been forwarded. The M. E. the Grand Z. expressed the regret of Grand Chapter at their absence.

M. E. Comp. Elliott proceeded to deliver the annual address. After a brief fraternal welcome, he referred to the absent ones. He said: "While each year we welcome new faces and are glad to see the new blood coming in to keep this body in its full strength, we cannot but admit that each year also brings sad tidings of triumph through death—that faces and voices we have learned to love and respect have been called to serve in the Grand Chapter on High. It is proper that we honor their memories, emulate their virtues and by so doing may we truly say that their good work goes on, and that our lives are better and nobler for having known them. I recommend that in the report of this year's proceedings memorial pages be set apart in memory of our fraternal dead."

Continuing, he said: "Distinguished Comps. of sister jurisdictions, have, like our own, obeyed the call and entered the service of the Grand Chapter on High." He reported his visitations and the routine business transacted during the recess.

The usual thorough and detailed reports were submitted by the Grand Superintendents of Districts.

The Grand Scribe E. submitted his report, of which we excerpt so much as sets forth "the work of the year":

The record shows a net increase of 67 in the membership.

The Grand Lecturer made a full report embracing all the needs of the jurisdiction, and upon its consideration Grand Chapter resolved: "That R. E. Comp. Joseph I. Phillips be continued in office as Grand Lecturer for another year, and that the Finance Committee be requested to appropriate sum of $150.00 for his services."

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, Scrutineers were appointed and the election proceeded. The following Companions were announced as having been duly elected: Ed. A. Evans, Grand Z; Theo. A. Emmans, Grand H; E. L. S. Patterson, Grand J; Geo. O. Stanton, Grand Treasurer; Will H. Wyte, Grand Scribe E.

The Grand Z having made his appointments, all were installed by him, the M. E. Grand Scribe E acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

M. E. Comp. John N. Warminton, Grand Superintendent, on behalf of the Chapters of the Montreal District, cordially invited the members of Grand Chapter to meet them in the Banquet Hall after the close of the session.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is submitted by the Author, the well-known able correspondent and Masonic writer, M. E. Comp. E. D. T. Chambers. In the sixty pages of this report he gives ample testimony of the peace, progress and prosperity whereof he writes. We give his brief conclusion. He says:

"Peace, progress and prosperity is the glad acclaim from every quarter of the Capitular world, whereat we exceedingly rejoice.

"No contentious matter divides the Craft, there is no strife within, amongst the Companions, and no danger threatens from without.

"All this is certainly cause for congratulation and thankfulness.

"The membership of North American Royal Arch Chapters is now well over the 350,000 mark, and the exaltations exceed 25,000 annually."

M. E. Comp. Edward A. Evans, Grand High Priest; M. E. Comp. Will H. Whyte, Grand Scribe E; Ex-Comp. E. T. D. Chambers, Correspondent.

RHODE ISLAND.

Ten Chapters. 3656 Royal Arch Masons.

M. E. Comp. Wendell R. Davis, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. William R. Greene, Grand Secretary.

A Special Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Rhode Island was held in Free Masons' Hall, Providence, April 25, 1908,—all the Grand Officers were present, with ten permanent members, several Past High Priests, and the Representatives of five Chapters. The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

This Special Convocation was held for the consideration of a report of the Committee on Ritual.

The work as revised by the Committee was explained and exemplified, and the following action had by the Grand Chapter:

"Voted, That the report of the committee be adopted, that the thanks of this Grand Chapter be extended to the committee, and that the committee be continued until the next Annual Convocation."

On motion of R. E. William H. Scott, it is

"Voted, That the Committee on Ritual be invested with full authority to prepare in duplicate, in convenient and durable form, a complete copy of the ritual, as corrected, the same to replace the written work now in use; and that a sufficient sum be appropriated for the preparing of the same."

The business being completed, the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Rhode Island held its one hundred and eleventh Annual Convocation in Free Masons' Hall, Providence, March 9, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Wendell Richmond Davis, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. William R. Greene, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers, twelve Permanent members or Past Grand Officers, thirty-five Past High Priests, and the Representatives of nine of the ten Chapters were present.

A fine portrait of Grand High Priest Davis appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, with prayer at the Altar, by M. E. Arthur H. Armington, acting Grand Chaplain. Twenty-five Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance, Ex.-Comp. Osmond H. Briggs representing California.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address. He bid the Companions welcome to the One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Convocation and continuing, said:

"Before presenting to you an account of my stewardship, let me extend to you a cordial greeting upon this the Eleventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Rhode Island.

"As is meet, our first duty has been an offering of prayer to the Great I Am, and I ask that our second be a silent tribute to those members of this Grand Chapter who, since our last Convocation, have passed beyond the Vail.

"As the scroll is read on which the Angel of Death has inscribed, let the thoughts of each be upon that spiritual building still incomplete within himself, and let us resolve anew to heed the admonition of the Psalmist,—'That except the Lord build the house; their labor is lost that build it.'" and then follows the mournful list of names inscribed on the roll, and at the close he offered the following prayer:

"As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

"Most Merciful Father, who has been pleased to take unto thyself the souls of these thy servants, grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that having served thee with constancy on earth, we may be joined hereafter with thy blessed saints in glory everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

He reported his visitation of the Chapters with their condition, working and financial. Reports were also received from all the other Grand Officers.

Several amendments to the Constitution were considered and adopted. The routine of business being completed, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on. Tellers were appointed and the following Companions chosen: Willard A. Esten, Grand High Priest; William H. Scott, Deputy Grand High Priest; George C. Knight, Grand King; Herbert Bliss, Grand Scribe; Amasa C. Tourtelot, Grand Treasurer; William R. Greene, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed and proclamation made.

A Past Grand High Priest's gavel and apron were presented to the retiring Grand High Priest.

The Grand High Priest named the Standing Committees, and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form with prayer at the Altar by the acting Grand Chaplain.

M.°. E.°. Comp. William A. Esten, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. William R. Greene, Grand Secretary.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Special Convocation of the Anointed High Priests of Rhode Island was held in Taft Hall, Pawtucket, January 28, 1909,—the M.°. E.°. Comp. Cable L. Knight, President, E.°. Comp. S. Penrose Williams being Recorder, and a number of Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form. After the transaction of routine business, eleven Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters having been elected, were introduced, Anointed, Consecrated and set apart to the order of High Priesthood.

The Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

The annual Convocation of this Convention was held in Free Masons' Hall, Providence, March 9, 1909. After the close of the One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter, the M.°. E.°. Comp. Caleb L. Knight, President, presiding. Ex.-Comp. S. Penrose Williams being Recorder.

A goodly number of Excellent Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

The annual election of Officers being held, the M.°. E.°. Comp. John F. Oldham was chosen President, and the other Officers were re-elected. No further business appearing, the Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Companion Henry W. Rugg, Correspondent, submitted this report, a paper of ninety pages, in which forty-four Grand Jurisdictions of Capitular Masonry are reviewed.

California, under the administration of Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett, receives the attention of Comp. Rugg and his address and rulings commended.

The paper is a most excellent one, as might be expected from the eminent Companion.

M. E. Comp. Willard A. Esten, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. William R. Green, Grand Secretary; M. E. Comp. Henry Warren Rugg, Correspondent.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Thirty Chapters.

2140 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of South Carolina held its Ninety-eighth Annual Convocation in Columbia, February 9th, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Joseph Lindsay, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Jacob T. Barron, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with nineteen Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Twenty-six of the thirty Chapters were represented.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

After roll call, the Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were presented to the Grand Chapter and cordially welcomed.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the annual address, prefacing it with the following well chosen words:

"Companions: It again becomes my pleasant duty to welcome you to our Annual Convocation. For almost one-half of a century we have, year after year, met with the Companions in 'The City by the Sea.' It is now our privilege to assemble at our beloved capital and mingle with its noble-hearted Companions, and I bespeak for each of you a very pleasant and profitable occasion.

"We have just invoked the blessing of the Covenant-keeping God and we know He will not fail us."

He submitted the death roll of the year, with its twenty-eight names subscribed thereon, one of whom, the M. E. Companion John R. Bellinger, was a Past Grand High Priest. An illustrious Mason, who will be long missed from the Annual Convocations by the Royal Arch Masons of South Carolina. In closing the memorial notice of his death, the Grand High Priest said of him in closing:

"He was absolutely conscientious and faithful in the intelligent performance of every duty.

"There is no fading past for such a man;
God-blessed and self-respecting all his gifts
He treasured, and fulfilled the noble plan
That far above the earth the soul uplifts.
His voice will still return in pleasant cheer,
Though no sound-wave will break the silence deep;
His grand example lingers, bright and clear,
To cheer the spirit, though the eyes may weep."

He also reported in sympathy with Sister Jurisdictions, the names of distinguished Companions of whose death he had received official notice. He said of the roll:

"The above list also contains the names of twenty-eight Companions who will be missed; we would especially mention Comp. James W. Bowers, who was our representative near the Grand Chapter of Maryland."

He said of the then approaching Convocation of the General Grand Chapter:

"The General Grand Chapter of the United States will convene in Savannah on the second Tuesday of November next. We will elect delegates at this Convocation. Permit me to suggest that you designate the elective officers for these positions. The expenses of all eight will be no more than we usually expend on two.

"Our Grand Secretary has plans for the entertainment of our visiting Companions which are out of the usual order, and will be thoroughly enjoyed by the General Grand Chapter."

Excellent reports were submitted by the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, which met the approval of Grand Chapter.

The Grand Chapter, through a Special Committee, presented its Treasurer, the R. E. Comp. C. Frank Jackson, as a testimonial, the sum of one hundred dollars, and assigned the following excellent reasons for the act:

"For more than fifty years as custodian of the funds of our Grand Chapter you have exemplified in the highest degree the qualities that recommend a treasurer. You have been regular and punctual in your attendance, prompt in the discharge of your duties, and during the long period of your incumbency we felt perfectly assured that our funds were in safe keeping, and we still feel that there need be no anxiety on that score, so long as you wear the 'Cross Keys.'

"Added to this the uniform courtesy with which you received those having official relations with you, your daily walk and conversation, your genial and hearty manner of greeting friends, and your inexhaustible supply of good humor, have endeared you to your brethren of the Mystic Tie, whether of the Lodge, Chapter, Council or Commandery."

We think the reasons sufficient without adding thereto the many eloquent words that passed in the ceremony by Companions presenting and Companion receiving the testimonial.

Charters were granted the three Chapters under dispensation. The routine of business being nearly concluded, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following Companions were chosen: Wm. E. Gantt, Grand High Priest. J. L. Michie, Deputy Grand High Priest; George S. Mower, Grand King; George T. Bryan, Grand Scribe; Rev. D. M. Fulton, Grand Chaplain; C. Frank Jackson, Grand Treasurer; Jacob T. Barron, Grand Secretary; Wm. E. Giles, Grand Captain of the Host.

The Committee on Necrology, Comp. W. P. Smith, Chairman, submitted a feeling report, of which we excerpt the closing lines:

"We notice that twenty-eight Grand Officers of different Grand Chapters were called to lay aside their working tools and appear in the presence of the Great High Priest of the Universe, where, we trust, they have heard, 'Thou good servant, because thou wast found faithful, have thou authority over much.' While the workmen fall by the way, may the work ever go on. Let us remember that as their seats are now vacant, so will ours be ere long when our Companions have met for work; hence let us do all we can while it is called today.

"We would call especial attention to our Past Grand High Priest, John R. Bellinger; to his noble life; his faithful works for man's good and God's glory, and to his abundant work for our noble and time-honored institution. Farewell Companion, may you forever bask in the smiles of the eternal God, and your memory lovingly cherished by all our Companions."

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all were installed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Convention of High Priests of South Carolina held its Fourteenth Annual Convocation in Columbia, February 9, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Benjamin Burr, President; Ex-Comp. J. T. Barron, Recorder.

All the Officers and a number of Excellent Companions present. The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

The annual election of Officers being in order, was held, and the present Companions were re-elected. Nine Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the order of High Priesthood.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

A most excellent report of eighty-five pages is submitted by a Committee on Correspondence, who "he" is we know not, but we dare assert the paper to be a good one and a credit to the Jurisdiction for whom it is written.

California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual under the administration of Grand High Priest Willett, whose address and rulings he commends.

M. E. Wm. R. Gantt, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Jacob T. Barron, Grand Secretary; Correspondent, "The Committee."

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Thirty-four Chapters.

2549 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of South Dakota held its Twentieth Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Watertown, June 10, 1909,—M. E. Comp. John E. Hipple, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. George A. Pettigrew, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with eight Past Grand High Priests, thirty Past High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-three other Grand Jurisdictions.

The portrait of Grand High Priest Hipple appears on the opening page. Also "In Memoriam," in remembrance of Companions Henry Sebra Williams, Past Grand High Priest; John Henry Babcock, Grand Chaplain, and Bernard C. Jacobs, Grand Treasurer, with views of the Masonic Temples at Arlington and Redfield in the body of the journal.

The Grand High Priest then proceeded to deliver the address. He gave the Companions a fraternal greeting and passed at once to the mention of death's doings in the Jurisdiction since the closing of the preceding annual—a beloved Past Grand High Priest, a Grand Chaplain and Grand Treasurer had closed life's record and passed to rest. He paid fervent tribute to the memory of each. In concluding he said: "The several Chapters have also felt the hand of death pressed down upon their membership, and thirty other Companions have ceased to toil and rejoice with us here below. The report of the Grand Secretary will disclose the number of these. Let us devote to them memorial pages in our printed proceedings, and cherish in our hearts that affection which goes from one brother to another when a last farewell is said."

Continuing, he said: "Thus three good men have been called to receive their wages in one short year. Nothing I can say would be equal to the eulogy they deserve, and I trust the committee on obituary will prepare a fitting tribute to express the sentiment of this Grand Chapter because of their loss."

He said in closing his mournful report: "During the past year other Grand Jurisdictions have been called upon to mourn the departure of Companions who were prominent in rank and position." He granted dispensations for the forming and opening of two new Chapters. He reported the Chapters visited and their conditions. He also reported the Constitution of two new Chapters, Howard No. 40 and Japheth No. 41.

We excerpt from the report of Grand Secretary Pettigrew the following summary of the work of the year:

Number of Chapters in this Jurisdiction.....	34
Number of members.....	2,549
Number exalted	239
Number admitted	65
Number reinstated	3
Number suspended	30
Number dimitted	62
Number died	33
Net gain	181

The Committee on Obituaries, Ex.-Comp. E. Ashley, Chairman, made a feeling report in remembrance of Companions gone, closing with the following lines:

"We deeply mourn the loss of these our Companions. We sympathize with our Sister Jurisdictions in the losses they have sustained and our heartfelt sympathies are extended to them in their sorrows.

"Your Committee respectfully recommend that the names of our deceased Companions be inscribed on memorial pages in the printed proceedings of this Grand Chapter." Which was adopted while all the members arose, standing with bowed heads.

In accordance with a Special Order, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following Companions were chosen: David A. Douglas, Grand High Priest; Frank A. Brown, Deputy Grand High Priest; Jacob J. Nissen, Grand King; Chas. A. Christopherson, Grand Scribe; Louis Jacobs, Grand Treasurer; George A. Pettigrew, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Geo. V. Ayres, Ex.-Comp. Wm. H. Roddle acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The thanks of the Grand Chapter were extended to Watertown Chapter No. 12 for courtesies and hospitality during the present Convocation.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood held its Fourteenth Annual Convocation for the Jurisdiction of South Dakota in the hall of Watertown Chapter, No. 12, June 10th, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. Louis G. Levoy, President, Ex.-Comp. George A. Pettigrew being the Recorder. All the Officers and twenty Excellent Companions present.

The Grand Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The Grand Treasurer submitted his annual report, which was approved.

The President appointed as an Obituary Committee, Excellent Companions Geo. V. Ayres, H. L. Hopkins and Frank A. Brown. Eleven Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the order of High Priesthood.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on and the present Companions were re-elected.

The Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

M. E. Companion Louis G. Levoy again presents this report. The present paper is in his best style, measuring sixty pages, in which he reviews nearly the entire Capitular world—a few Chapters not coming to hand. He reviews California for its Fifty-fourth Annual, the administration of M. E. Comp. Willett, whose address and rulings he gives his approval. He says of our report: "The report on Correspondence is presented by the full Committee, headed by Grand Secretary Davies, however, the report reads as if Comp. Davies wrote it, as he has in the past. South Dakota has its usual fraternal notice in the report."

We mention this at this time to correct the statement that our reports have ever been the work of other than the Chairman, ourself; five names have at times been affixed thereto because our Constitution requires the Standing Committees to consist of five members each, and no one has taken the trouble to suggest to Grand Chapter the propriety of amending the organic law in that particular.

"Truly the first decade of the new century has shown wonderful progress in the dissemination of the vital truths contained in the Capitular Rite which makes for the betterment of mankind.

"Let us hope that the high plane it has attained in the Masonic system will be maintained in future years, that the works of the fathers in Masonry may be transmitted to posterity, pure and undefiled by commercialism or any other evil."

We are pleased to note the re-appointment of our M. E. Companion as Correspondent.

M. E. Comp. David A. Douglass, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Geo. A. Pettigrew, Grand Secretary; M. E. Comp. Louis G. Levoy, Correspondent.

TENNESSEE.

Eighty-four Chapters, including five U. D. 4,526 R. A. M. Maosns.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Tennessee held its eightieth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Nashville, January 25th, 1909,—M. E. Comp. Charles Comstock, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. William A. Clendening, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with sixteen Past Grand High Priests, forty-two Past High Priests, and the representatives of twenty-two other Grand Jurisdictions. All the Chapters were represented, including the five under dispensation.

An excellent portrait of M. E. Comp. Andrew P. Tredgen, Grand High Priest, appears on the opening page. M. E. Comp. Tredgen represents California near the Grand Chapter of Tennessee.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form.

The Standing Committees were named and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the Annual Address.

With a kindly greeting he said:

"Another year, with its lights and shadows, its pleasures and its pains, has swiftly passed since you placed me in this exalted station; and with earnest, heartfelt gratitude to the Giver of all good, I welcome you to the eightieth Convocation of the Grand Chapter.

"The year just passed has been full of activities in the outer world. Its records are replete with strife and tragedy. But within the sacred circle of our Mystic Brotherhood, peace and good will have quietly journeyed hand in hand.

"Our Companions have not been idle, and while we have some losses to record, the Royal Craft has made perceptible gains throughout the State, and I feel that much good has been accomplished.

"The Silent Messenger has summoned a few of our Companions to the Supreme Council on High; yet no vacancies have occurred in the official roster of the Grand Chapter. Truly, the merciful, loving kindness of Our Heavenly Father is beyond our human comprehension."

Continuing, he added: "Among our Sister Jurisdictions the 'King of Terrors' has found many 'shining marks.' With sorrowful hearts we chronicle the mournful roll. Many of these have been leaders in Masonry for many years, and some of them of world-wide reputation.

I recommend that pages in our Journal of Proceedings be set apart to their memory."

He reported the issuance of dispensations for the formation of four new Chapters. He reported his visitations and the pleasant receptions everywhere tendered him. In closing his remarks on the condition of the Jurisdiction, he said: "The Inspectors during the past year have done the best they could for the interests of Capitular Masonry, doing it gladly for pure love of the Order. In most instances the Chapters visited have paid their expenses. Some, however, failed to do so, and I earnestly recommend and urge you to pay the small amount that some of them may be short because of the work they have faithfully tried to do in our interests.

The subject of permanent quarters for the Grand Chapter was called up, and on motion of M. E. Comp. T. W. Crutcher, Grand Chapter adopted the following: -

"WHEREAS, The Grand Chapter has, by resolution, continued the committee on the question of purchase of a permanent home for the Grand Masonic Bodies of Tennessee; and,

'WHEREAS, It is the desire of this Grand Chapter to freely empower to act for this Grand Chapter said committee. Therefore be it

'Resolved, That the committee be and are hereby empowered to act in all matters such as the purchase of property, borrowing money or executing mortgages on said property when purchased in the name of this Grand Chapter."

By order of the Grand High Priest, Decatur Chapter, No. 133, was opened in the Hall of Cumberland Chapter No. 1. Another Royal Arch Degree was exemplified by conferring it upon three Most Excellent Masters.

In the general routine of business, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on and the following Companions chosen: Andrew P. Trogden, Grand High Priest; Jesse T. Spaulding, Deputy Grand High Priest; Archibald N. Sloan, Grand King; Junius Hobson, Grand Scribe; Nathan S. Woodward, Grand Treasurer; William A. Clendening, Grand Secretary.

We excerpt from the report of the Grand Secretary his summary of "The Work of the Year:"

The Most Excellent Grand Chapter proceeded to the installation of the Grand Officers, Most Excellent Isaac J. Thurman, P. G. H. P., presiding, and Most Excellent E. S. Miller, P. G. H. P., acting as Grand Captain of the Host, when the Grand Officers elect were severally installed into their respective stations, except Companion Jessee Arnold, Grand Captain of the Host, who was absent on account of sickness. M. E. Andrew P. Trodgen, Grand High Priest, announced that he would install Companion Arnold in Cookeville Chapter 112.

Companion C. H. Smart, the Grand Master of the First Vail, not being present at the Installation, the Grand High Priest requested Cumberland Chapter 1 to install him at its next stated Convocation.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Order of High Priesthood for Tennessee assembled in Grand Council in Freemasons' Hall, Nashville, January 27th, 1909,—it being the Forty-fifth Annual Convention. M. E. Comp. Charles H. Smart, President; E. Comp. Bradford Nichol, Recorder. All the Officers were present, with a number of Excellent Companions.

The Grand Council was opened in Ample Form.

Thirty-four Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Treasurer submitted his financial report, which was approved.

The President reported the death roll of the year, with the names of seven Anointed High Priests inscribed thereon, members of the Order who have passed to their eternal home.

The annual election of officers was called on. E.°. Comp. M. F. Flenniken was chosen M.°. E.°. President; the other officers were re-elected.

Business being concluded, several E.°. Comps. interested the Grand Council with short addresses.

The Grand Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The present is the sixth report of Past Grand High Priest J. H. McClister, the present Correspondent of Tennessee. The paper is one of 106 pages, in which are reviewed the transactions of fifty-two Grand Capitular bodies in as many Jurisdictions. The report is also prefaced with an interesting article of six pages, his subject being "The Divine Name."

California in its fifty-fourth annual, under the administration of M.°. E.°. Comp. Charles J. Willett, receives the fraternal attention of the reviewer, who quotes approvingly from his address and commends his general advice and rulings.

M.°. E.°. Comp. Andrew P. Trodgen, Grand High Priest; R.°. E.°. Comp. William A. Clendening, Grand Secretary; Past High Priest J. H. McClister, Correspondent.

TEXAS.

239 Chapters.

14,791 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas held its Sixtieth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Waco, December 6th, 1909,—The M.°. E.°. Comp. Ed. R. Bryan, Grand High Priest; E.°. Comp. John A. Bryan being the Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with ten Past Grand High Priests, eighty Past High Priests and the representations of thirty-four other Grand Jurisdictions, eighteen District Grand Visitors and the representatives of eighty Chartered Chapters.

Excellent portraits of M.°. E.°. Companions John P. Bell of 1890-91, and John Carson Kidd of 1898-99, who was also Grand Treasurer in 1890-92.

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest, being satisfied that a constitutional number of Chapters were represented, proceeded to open the Grand Chapter with full ceremony, and after prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter was declared open, in Due and Ample Form, for the transaction of business.

A resolution was then offered and adopted, inviting all Royal Arch Masons in good standing and members of Chapters in this Grand Jurisdiction to seats in this Grand Chapter during this Grand Convocation.

The Grand High Priest named the standing committees.

The Grand Representatives of other Chapters near the Grand Chapter of Texas were invited by the Grand High Priest to present themselves before the Grand East, and were extended a cordial welcome.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver his annual address, and after a welcome salutation to all Companions, the veteran member and the Companion for the first time present alike, he proclaimed the following good news: "Companions: With pleasure I welcome you to the Sixtieth Annual Convocation of our Grand Chapter. During the past year the greater portion of our beloved State has been visited by a severe drouth, but, so far as I have been able to ascertain, it has in no way affected Capitular Masonry, and the Craft throughout our great State are in a prosperous condition, and peace and harmony prevail." He expressed his thankfulness to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for His care and protection during the past year, and especially for the preservation of their official arch, unbroken, while the Great Reaper had taken the full quota from Sister Jurisdictions.

The 171 Companions members of their constituent Chapters who have been taken have caused many Chapters to mourn the loss of useful and beloved friends and Companions.

He also reported the eminent dead of Sister Jurisdictions, among whom we note the name of our beloved Past Grand High Priest M. E. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff—God give him rest.

He reported the constitution of fifteen new Chapters and the issuance of dispensations for the forming and opening of six still newer ones.

He reported twenty-nine official inquiries concerning questions of Masonic law and soliciting his ruling thereon. It certainly proves that the office of Grand High Priest is no sinecure in Texas, and that its possessor must have at hand the organic law rules and regulations of Capitular Masonry. We note the following good words for Grand Secretary Bryan: "I feel it my duty to state to the Grand Chapter that I am under many obligations to our Grand Secretary, John A. Bryan, for his assistance in the administration of the affairs of my office, and for many courtesies extended to me during the past year."

We excerpt from the report of the Grand Secretary the following summary of the work of the year:

Present membership	14,791
Deaths	171
Expulsions	5
Suspensions	214
Dismissions	569
Reinstatements	59
Past High Priests	1,096

Affiliations	261
Exaltings	1,337
Receivings	1,334
Passings	1,338
Markings	1,335
Net gain	689

There are now on the roll two hundred and thirty-nine Chapters; of these one hundred and forty show a gain; seventy-two show a loss; twenty-seven have held their own.

Excellent Comp. Walter Acker, Grand Orator, delivered an eloquent oration, his subject being "Friendship and Sympathy." In reading his interesting comment on his text we find described some of our wants and when we want them. We excerpt:

"It is a beautiful custom we practice to heap above the mound in yonder churchyard spring's fairest flowers, and with that practice I find no fault. But infinitely more beautiful to me would be the practice of strewing life's rugged pathway with wreaths and garlands from the flower-beds of friendship, sympathy and love. It was my privilege a short time ago to hear Grand Master Davis recite a few lines that I would stamp indelibly upon the hearts and lives of the Royal Craft:

"In your garden are many roses,
Some of them are white, and some are red;
Really, I am very fond of roses,
But I want them now, not when I'm dead.

"Don't wait to show me your affection
When the earth is piled above my head;
In your garden are many roses,
But I want them now, not when I'm dead.

"Why wait until my labor's ended?
Don't you think it better if you said:
'Please accept this little bunch of roses,
You want them now, not when you're dead.'

"For in your garden there are many roses,
And their blossoms, like our years, are sped;
Really, I am very fond of roses,
But I want them now, not when I'm dead."

The Committee on obituaries, E. J. Comp. Wm. James Chairman, submitted a feelingly eloquent report, closing with the beautiful lines:

"Let us rejoice to-day for the blessed memories of past associations, for the lessons learned, for the good examples promulgated, hoping, praying that when in turn we take our places in the ranks of the silent majority we too may find a haven in that blessed home which is only a little farther on.

"I hear it singing, sweetly singing,
Softly in an undertone,
Singing as our God had taught it,
It is better farther on.

"Night and day it brings the message,
Sings it when I sit alone,
Sings it so my heart can hear it,
It is better farther on.

"Sits upon the bier and sings it,
Sings of dear ones dead and gone,
Sings it to celestial music,
It is better farther on.

"Sings it when the dark is falling,
When the winds are making moan
In the somber night still calling,
It is better farther on.

"Farther on: Oh, how much farther!
Count the milestones one by one
No, not counting, only waiting—
It is better farther on."

The election of officers for the ensuing year was called on, and the following Companions were chosen: J. J. Gallaher, Grand High Priest; Joe Adams, Deputy Grand High Priest; C. L. Alderman, Grand King; Jno. L. Terrell, Grand Scribe; B. F. Frymier, Grand Treasurer; Jno. A. Bryan, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest having selected the appointed Grand Officers and the Standing Committees, he requested Past Grand High Priest Jno. C. Kidd to act as installing officer, and Companion Frank Nusom as Grand Marshal, for the purpose of installing the officers for the ensuing Capitular year, whereupon the Grand Secretary read the list of elected and appointed officers, who were then duly installed into their respective stations, and were so proclaimed by the Grand Marshal.

The retiring Grand High Priest presented the Seal and Morris cane to his successor, with fraternal congratulations.

Following the custom of this Grand Chapter, Past Grand High Priest Chas. F. Smith presented retiring Grand High Priest Ed. R. Bryan a Past Grand High Priest's Jewel, as a token of esteem from this Grand Chapter.

The Grand Chapter of Texas was then closed in Ample Form with full ceremonies.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood met in Grand Chapter Hall, Masonic Temple, Waco, December 6th, 1909,—Companion B. F. Frymier, M. E. High Priest; E. Comp. John A. Bryan, Secretary. All the officers and a good attendance of members present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

Forty-two Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Secretary submitted a financial report, which was approved by the Council.

The annual election of Officers was held and the present Officers were re-elected.

The committee appointed at last session to procure a jewel for Past High Priest John Watson asked for further time, which was granted.

Companion F. W. Fitzpatrick made a motion that, after all claims and expenses were paid, to appropriate the balance of the funds of the Order of High Priesthood to the Home for Aged Masons, which was adopted.

Nothing further requiring the action of the Grand Council, it was closed in due form until the next Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

E. Comp. John L. Terrell, of Terrell, submits the present paper—his Fourteenth Annual, an excellent report of seventy-two pages, in which he reviews fifty-six Grand Jurisdictions. His notice of California is of its Fifty-fifth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Moebus. Of the address, he says:

"The last few pages of the address is a rather lengthy sermon or moral lecture, the most of which is satisfactory to this scribe if read at some fitting time and place. His Christmas greetings mailed to all Chapters must have been consoling to those of the Craft confessing Christianity, but rather galling to his Hebrew Companions. To further emphasize his prohibition proclivities, he says.

"In regard to the eligibility of those in any way engaged in the liquor business, it is my firm conviction that the good name of our institution requires that we hold no communication with them, that we and they have nothing in common, and that our aims and purposes are diametrically opposed."

He thinks this writer a vigorous old Companion, but says he doesn't know how to spell John L. Terrell of Terrell. We are not aware, either, of having misspelled it, but we beg pardon all the same—to misspell a name is an unforgiveable sin.

VERMONT.

Thirty Chapters.

4,065 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Vermont held its Ninety-second Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Burlington, June 11th, 1909,—the M.·. E.·. Comp. Olin W. Daley, Grand High Priest; the R.·. E.·. Comp. Henry H. Ross, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with twenty-three permanent members, three District Deputy Grand High Priests and eighteen Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions. Twenty-six of the thirty Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Daley appears on the opening page.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address. He commenced by reciting to the Grand Chapter the history of its organization. He said:

"Nearly one hundred and five years ago, on December 24, 1804, the officers of Green Mountain Royal Arch Chapter of Rutland, agreeably to the Constitution of the General Royal Arch Chapter of the six northern States of America, assembled at Rutland and organized the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Vermont. Besides the Chapter at Rutland, there were three regular lodges of Mark Master Masons within the State: at Bennington, at Poultney, and at Middlebury. A Lodge had been formed, without charter or dispensation, at Pawlet in 1797, but after existing two years, having doubts about their legality, they abandoned the work in 1799 until regularly organized by the Grand Chapter of Vermont, June 12, 1805."

This reference to the work of "ye olden times" was an excellent text to discourse upon the growth, progress and prosperity of the Grand Chapter of Vermont, and then, as though this reference to the life of Grand Chapters reminded him of Companions gone, he added: "Death, ever busy, has taken from among us many Companions whose memory we revere and loss we deplore." Among the eighty-one names inscribed upon the Capitular death roll of Vermont he named as earnest workers in the vineyard who during the year have passed to rest: Companions Warren Giles Reynolds, Chas. A. Browne and Martin H. Rice, and his tribute to their memory was affectionately fraternal. Of the dead Companions of other Jurisdictions he said:

"Our Sister Jurisdictions have experienced many losses of distinguished Companions whose memory will be duly honored by the Committee on Necrology. During the year just past, eighty-one Chapter Masons in Vermont have ended their earthly tasks and passed to the great beyond. I recommend that appropriate memorial pages be set apart for their commemoration."

The Treasurer and Grand Recorder reported. As usual, nothing particularly new or strange was developed in the reports of these officers. We excerpt from the report of Grand Secretary Ross his summary of the work of the year:

The committee to whom was referred all matters concerning the organization of the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming made the following report, which was concurred in by the Grand Chapter:

"Your committee to whom was referred certain papers relative to the organization of the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming would courteously report that they find that both Grand Bodies were regularly organized under lawful and competent authority, the former at Pocatello, Idaho, on June 16, 1908; the latter at Rawlins, Wyoming, on April 6, 1909. Your committee would therefore recommend that this Grand Chapter extend congratulations to the newly formed Grand Royal Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming, heartily welcome them to the great sisterhood of Grand Chapters, and cordially invite an exchange of Representatives in promotion of a closer union."

The Standing Committees reported, but nothing new was developed in the routine of business. Distinguished visitors from New York were welcomed. The Grand Lecturer made an interesting report.

The five District Deputy Grand High Priests reported the visitations and the working and financial conditions of the Chapters.

The Committee on Necrology, Comp. Chas. F. Partridge, Chairman, presented a feelingly eloquent report, devoted to the Capitular dead of the nation. We excerpt the following lines as peculiarly appropriate:

"The legend runs: 'That as the monks of old met and passed each other in the several avenues of the cloister, each in a reverential manner gave the salutation, "Memento mori,"—"Remember death."

"So as we meet in this annual convocation we are bidden to remember, though our present official ranks are unbroken and but one Past Grand Officer has in the twelve month since last we met been summoned within the vails, yet our brethren mourn the absence of many familiar faces in our own subordinate chapters, while many columns in our sister Grand Jurisdictions have been broken.

"Knowing this, can we do less than drop the acacia sprig upon their graves and with bowed heads join in the prayer of one of them, only a few weeks before his death, in his official relation as Grand Chaplain of the Grand Chapter of California:

"'Great Architect of the Universe: Creator, Ruler and Preserver of all that is—Thou from whom all proceed, to whom all must return. We would reverently raise our thoughts and aspirations toward Thee, at this time, when we have again met to renew the ties of brotherhood and companionship. We thank Thee for all Thy mercies in the past. Thou hast been with us through all the vicissitudes and experiences of our Royal Craft since its organization, and our labors for the good of our fellow men have been blest.'"

We note in the roll submitted by the Committee the name of our beloved Past Grand High Priest M.°. E.°. Comp. Jacob Hart Neff.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were appointed and the following Companions were chosen: Edward H. Martin, Grand High Priest; Carroll W. Black, Deputy Grand High Priest; Henry S. Root, Grand King; Samuel T. Braley, Grand Scribe; Charles W. Whitcomb, Grand Treasurer; Henry H. Ross, Grand Secretary. The Grand Council having made the appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest Marsh O. Perkins. Proclamation being made by E.°. Comp. Daniel L. Danforth, Master of the Ceremonies.

The standing Committees were appointed and the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Convention of the Order of High Priesthood of Vermont convened in the Masonic Temple, June 10, 1909,—the M.°. E.°. Comp. Collins Blakely, President; E.°. Comp. Geo. F. Root being Recorder and Treasurer. All the Officers and thirty Excellent Companions present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Ten Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Secretary and Treasurer reported, and the reports were approved.

The annual election was held and the present Officers were re-elected.

The Convention closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Senior Past Grand High Priest Marsh O. Perkins wields the pen that notes the progress and general health of Capitular Masonry. His present report is a paper of eighty-two pages, wherein he notes the doings of forty-six Grand Capitular bodies, their progress and present condition. California is noticed in its Fifty-fourth Annual, under the administration of Grand High Priest Willett. The address and rulings of our Grand High Priest being freely quoted with approval.

VIRGINIA.

Sixty-one Chapters.

5,564 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia held its One Hundred and First Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Richmond, October 27, 1908,—the M. E. Comp. John Henry Fisher, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. James B. Blanks, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with nine Past Grand High Priests, seven Deputies, fifty Past High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-three other Grand Jurisdictions. Forty of the sixty-one Chapters were represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest Fisher appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form after prayer by the Grand Chaplain, and the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address.

With a brief greeting and welcome to the Companions present, he at once passed to consider the "absent ones," M. E. Companions of long and tried acquaintance, and he would pay to their names the tribute of love and affection for the comfort of friends and Companions. In looking through the long roll of names submitted we note two of the Past Grand High Priests of California, M. E. Companions Tuttle and Myrick, we are pleased to listen to the added tribute to our M. E. Companions whom we knew and loved and in spirit, we again drop our sprig of acacia on the last resting places of departed Companions.

In closing the roll of the dead of Sister Jurisdictions, he said:

"Of this number two were between fifty and sixty years of age, five had passed three score years, seventeen had lived for more than seventy years, and six were over eighty years.

"Their memorials attest that all were true and faithful in their relations to their fellowmen and to their brethren of Masonic faith. Their usefulness in the designs and plans of the Supreme Architect was apparent, for most of them wore the coronet which He alone bestows—Long Life. We may not murmur when rest comes to such as these."

The address was largely devoted to the interests of the Grand Chapter of Virginia.

We note in the report of Grand Secretary Blanks that three Chapters heretofore chartered were constituted during the year and dispensations issued for the forming and opening of two still newer ones. We excerpt his summary of the work of the year:

Number of R. A. Masons reported for the year 1907	5,168

Which is the second largest net gain in the history of the Grand Chapter.

One has but to pursue the report of Grand Lecturer Wm. Jas. Hubbard to understand that he has the "laboring oar" of the Grand Chapter. He is the busy man and the one whose labor counts in the constantly increasing membership.

The Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions present were introduced by the Grand Royal Arch Captain as the duly accredited Representatives of Sister Grand Chapters.

The M. E. Grand High Priest most cordially welcomed the Grand Representatives to this, our One Hundred and First Convocation, and invited them to participate in the labors, joys and festivities of the occasion, and requested them to extend to their several Grand Jurisdictions the fraternal regard and best wishes of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia.

On motion, the Finance Committee were directed to procure a suitable sword and belt for the use of the Grand Tiler of the Grand Chapter.

The time having arrived for the election of Officers for the ensuing year, Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen: Wm. Baylor McChesney, Grand High Priest; Elias Lyons Guy, Grand King; William See Mathews, Grand Scribe; George Wilson Poe, Grand Treasurer; James Braxton Blanks, Grand Secretary.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all were installed, re-invested and inducted into their respective offices.

Most Worshipful Joseph William Eggleston, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, being present, was escorted to the East and introduced to the Grand Chapter by M. E. William James Hubbard, Past Grand High Priest and Grand Lecturer. The M. E. Grand High Priest extended to our honored Companion a most cordial and fraternal welcome, which was gracefully acknowledged by the Grand Master.

The Grand High Priest appointed the District Deputies, and after prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests of Virginia convened in Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Richmond, October 28, 1908,—M. E. Comp. W. J. Hubbard, President; the E. Comp. James B. Blanks, Grand Recorder. All the Officers, with twenty Excellent Companions, present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The President addressed the Council. He read from the roll the names of departed Companions who had passed to rest since the last Annual Convocation, and recommended that the usual memorial pages in the journal be set apart to their memories. The rest of the address referred to the local business of the Order.

Twenty-two Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters having been accepted were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The reports of the Treasurer and Recorder were read and approved by the Council.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on and the present Officers were re-elected.

Several Companions favored the Council with short addresses, alluding to the very impressive manner in which the Order had been conferred at this session, one of the most enjoyable ever held, and most cordially welcomed our Companions, who for the first time, participated with us in the beautiful ceremonies of our Holy Order.

The Council was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is prepared and submitted by E.°. Companion Charles A. Nesbitt, who looks through the Capitular world and gives his conclusions in a paper of sixty-three pages. His notice of California is of the Fifty-third Annual, the administration of Grand High Priest John F. Hughes. It's getting a little ancient, now, and we wont disturb it by comment.

WASHINGTON.

Thirty Chapters.

3915 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Washington held its Twenty-fifth Annual Convocation in Masonic Temple, Seattle, June 21, 1908,—the M.°. E.°. Comp. Robt. L. McCroskey, Grand High Priest; the R.°. E.°. Comp. Yancey C. Blalock, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with nine Past Grand High Priests. Every Chapter in the Jurisdiction was represented.

A portrait of Grand High Priest McCroskey appears on the opening page.

The M.°. E.°. Grand High Priest, assisted by the proper officers, opened the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in Ample Form, solemn prayer being offered by Rev. Companion J. C. Kirkman, Acting Grand Chaplain.

An address of welcome was delivered by Companion Frederick W. Colegrove on behalf of the Companions of Seattle, which was responded to by Companion H. W. Canfield of Colfax.

M.°. W.°. Companion William R. Baker, Grand Master of Masons of Washington, was presented and received with the grand honors of Royal Arch Masonry and escorted to a seat in the east in Grand Council.

The Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address. He gave all an earnest welcome to the Twenty-fifth Annual and congratulated Grand Chapter upon the existing harmony in the jurisdiction. Referring to conditions, he said:

"It gives me great pleasure to be able to say to you that Royal Arch Masonry has made rapid forward strides during the past year. The annual returns show a membership of 2,915, a net gain of 262 members.

"Four new Chapters have been constituted during the year, our roster now comprising 30 subordinate Chapters.

"The subordinate Chapters visited during my incumbency have exhibited work above the average and show great zeal and enthusiasm. I am indeed proud of the distinguished honor of having for the last year been the head of this Grand Jurisdiction; proud of the Royal Arch Masons with whom I have come in contact and proud of the subordinate chapters which have so valiantly maintained and promulgated the profound philosophy to which our lives are consecrated."

He submitted the death roll of the Jurisdiction and paid feeling and impressive tribute to the forty Companions whose names were inserted thereon. He also reported the losses of Sister Jurisdictions, among whom we note the name of our Past Grand High Priest Jacob Hart Neff, and closed his mournful task with the following prayer:

"May they, in Divine Providence, be permitted to wear white robes and bear white banners, emblems of that purity of life and rectitude of conduct by which they here sought admission into the 'Holy of Holies' above."

Of his decisions, he said: "Many questions have been submitted to me and much correspondence necessitated thereby, but a great majority of them were disposed of by reference to our Statutes and Approved Decisions, and I will only call attention to those seeming to have new questions involved."

He reported the Constitution of three new Chapters. He reported his visitations of the Chapters with comments on their condition, both working and financial.

Grand Secretary Blalock made, as usual, an excellent report, in which he says: "The annual returns have been made and the annual dues been paid. A synopsis of the returns show 180 to have been exalted; 87 admitted; 35 reinstated; 37 dimitted; 63 dropped for N. P. D.; 40 died; giving a membership at this date of 2,915, and a net gain for the year of 262."

We note also that E. J. Comp. Blalock offered the following resolution, which was adopted: "Resolved, That the Grand Chapter hereby resumes the Grand Representative system which was abolished by this Grand Chapter in 1896."

The Grand Chapter also adopted the following: "On motion and vote the recommendation of the R. E. Grand Secretary that the Grand Chapters of Idaho and Wyoming be recognized and welcomed into the sisterhood of Grand Chapters and that fraternal relations be established with and Grand Representatives be exchanged with them."

The hour having arrived, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen: Abraham L. Miller, Grand High Priest; Fred J. Elsensohn, Deputy Grand High Priest; Wesley C. Stone, Grand King; William G. Rowland, Grand Scribe; Horace W. Tyler, Grand Treasurer; Yancey C. Blalock, Grand Secretary.

On motion and vote the following was adopted:

"Whereas, It is believed that the best interests of our beloved Order will be materially subserved, and the character of the work in the Subordinate Chapters greatly improved if the Representatives of the several Chapters throughout the Jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter can have the advantage of seeing the work of Royal Arch Masonry properly and correctly exemplified at least once in each year, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That some one of the degrees be exemplified at the next Annual and all future Annual Convocations of this Grand Chapter."

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, the Standing Committees reported and the routine business of Grand Chapter concluded, all were installed by the Grand High Priest. The M. E. Companion D. Lew Paramore acting as Master of the Ceremonies.

The M. E. Grand High Priest, assisted by the proper officers, then closed the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Washington in Ample Form, solemn prayer being offered by the acting Grand Chaplain, Rev. John C. Kirkman. The M. E. Grand High Priest declared the Grand Chapter duly closed at the hour of 11:20 o'clock a. m.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood assembled in Masonic Temple, Seattle, June 21st, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. Horace W. Tyler, President; E. Comp. Edward R. Hare, Recorder. All the Officers and a number of Excellent Companions from other Jurisdictions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Sixteen Companions, High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Treasurer and Recorder reported, and the reports were approved.

E.·. Comp. Francis B. West, Past High Priest of Sumner Chapter, No. 37, and member of the Order in Kansas, was elected a member by affiliation.

The annual election of Officers was held and the present Officers were re-elected.

The Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

This report is made by the Grand Secretary, Yancey C. Blalock, who is the Committee on Correspondence. It is an excellent paper of 137 pages, in which he reviews the Capitular Masonry of forty-eight Grand Jurisdictions. He notices California in its Fifty-fourth Annual under Grand High Priest Charles J. Willett. He comments favorably upon the address and the business of the session. We excerpt Companion Blalock's conclusion, because it is short and good:

"Again we have been around 'the circle.' Would that our Companions could have had the pleasure of being with us on our journey, as it could not fail to do one good to read and study Capitular Masonry as found in the different Jurisdictions. The customs may differ slightly, but the principles and teachings are the same, although some may find them dull and trying at times. Still, if rightly studied, there is always new light to be found. We hope to meet our Companions of the Guild personally at some time in the future, for we feel that we know them now by their reports and official Correspondence.

M.·. E.·. Comp. Abraham L. Miller, Grand High Priest; R.·. E.·. Comp. Yancey C. Blalock, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Thirty-four Chapters—Two U. D. 4,474 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of West Virginia held its Thirty-eighth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Temple, Fairmont, November 10, 1908,—the M.·. E.·. Comp. Tom G. Strickler, Grand High Priest; the R.·. E.·. Comp. D. K. Reed, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with eleven Past Grand High Priests and the Representatives of twenty-five other Grand Jurisdictions.

M.·. E.·. Comp. Edward Coleman is the representative of the Grand Chapter of West Virginia, and he is always on hand. All of the chartered Chapters and the two under dispensation were represented.

Portraits of Grand High Priest Tom G. Strickler, Grand High Priest John W. de Veber and Wm. G. Bennett, Grand High Priest in 1886-87, with that of E. V. Comp. Henry Byron Baguley, Royal Arch Captain, "In Memoriam," appear in this number of the journal.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form and Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address.

After a fraternal greeting and cordial welcome to the Companions assembled, he modestly said:

"I fully realize my inability to cope with the questions that would come up for my consideration during my term of office, yet I endeavored to 'brave every danger and overcome every obstacle to aid in this great and glorious cause.'

"I now come before you to render an account of my work and actions as performed by me as your Grand High Priest during the past year. While business has made a greater call on me for time than ever before, yet I have not faltered in the work, but endeavored to conduct all the business without fear, favor or partiality.

"Since our last Annual Convocation the Grand High Priest of Heaven has seen fit to call from labor to refreshment one of our Grand Officers. It becomes my sad duty to announce to you the death of our Excellent Companion, H. B. Baguley, E. V. Grand Royal Arch Captain, who passed away at his home in Wheeling, May 1, 1908.

"Companion Baguley was an active worker in all branches of Masonry. It is useless for me to say more, for those of you who knew him know better than I can tell."

He submitted the death roll of the year with the twenty-one names of their own Companions and friends inserted thereon with the lengthy roll of the honored dead of Sister Jurisdictions, among whom we note the name of a Past Grand High Priest of our Grand Chapter, M. V. E. V. Comp. Milton Hills Myrick. To the dead Companions he paid the tribute of fraternal affection and directed the roll published in the journal in pages devoted to the memory of the Companions "at rest."

He reported one charter granted, a dispensation continued and the replacement of two charters destroyed by fire.

He reported his visitation of Chapters and his cordial reception by all of them.

Grand Secretary Reed made a full and exhaustive report of the transactions of his office. We note the following reference to California:

"About September 1, 1908, I received from Companion William A. Davies, Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of California, a check for the sum of $157.96, which is explained as follows: The amount of money received for the benefit of the earthquake sufferers from Masonic sources exceeded their needs, and they decided to return the excess amount to the donors, pro rata, according to the amounts given. This is our share. This, of course, will appear in the financial reports, but the reason I make more extended mention of it here is, the question was raised as to whether it should be kept in the Grand Chapter funds or again disbursed, pro rata, to the various Chapters who gave it. I thus present it and suggest that it be referred to the Finance Committee for further report."

The Representatives of Sister Grand Jurisdictions present were received with the Grand Honors and fraternally welcomed by the E.°. Grand Chaplain J. Howard Gibbons, acting for Grand High Priest Tom G. Strickler.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named and the following Companions chosen: John W. DeVeber, Grand High Priest; James Luke, Grand King; Wyndham Stokes, Grand Scribe; Samuel N. Myers, Grand Treasurer; D. K. Reed, Grand Secretary.

R.°. E.°. Comp. D. K. Reed, Grand Secretary, submitted the following eloquent memorial devoted to the memory of the lamented Companion Royal Arch Captain, Henry Byron Baguley. In part, he said:

"Few men have been able to hold such an enviable position in the hearts of all who knew him as our departed Companion, and it is as the Brother, Companion and Friend that we shall miss him. It has been well and truly said that a distinguishing characteristic of Royal Arch Masonry in general, and of the Grand Chapter in particular, is its cordiality. But the cordiality of an organization is the cordiality of the individual members who compose it, and to that spirit of cordiality, that warm, genial atmosphere of fraternal regard, which helps to make our Annual Convocations so pleasurable, profitable and inspiring, Companion Baguley contributed in no slight degree. A strong personality, distinguished by signal uprightness of character, great efficiency in office, unaffected and unvarying courtesy and cordiality in his relations with his Companions, he has left vacant a place in our councils and in our hearts which will not soon or easily be filled.

"I recommend that we dedicate to his memory, a suitable Memorial Page in our printed proceedings for this year.

"By the returns received from our Subordinate Chapters, I am informed that thirty-five of our beloved Companions throughout this Grand Jurisdiction have passed within the Great White Veil during the past year.

"They have ceased, one by one, from their labors,
So we clothed them in garments of rest.
And they've entered the Chambers of Silence;
God will do for them now, what is best."

I recommend that the usual Memorial Pages be set apart for their names also.

The Grand High Priest having made his appointments, all were installed by Past Grand High Priest H. R. Howard, E.°. Comp. J. M. McConihay acting as Master of Ceremonies.

A Past Grand High Priest's Jewel was presented to the retiring Grand High Priest M.°. E.°. Comp. Tom G. Strickler.

The Grand Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

A Convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held in the Masonic Temple, Fairmont, November 10, 1908,—the M.°. E.°. Comp. Hiram R. Howard, President; E.°. Comp. D. K. Reed being the Recorder. All the Officers and a number of E.°. Companions were present.

The Convention was opened in Solemn Form.

Sixteen Companions, High Priests and Past High Priests of their respective Chapters, having been elected, were introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood.

The Recorder and Treasurer reported the finances of the Convention, and their reports were approved.

The election of Officers for the ensuing year being called on, the present Companions were re-elected.

We note the presence of our Representative, Past Grand High Priest Kephart D. Walker.

The Convention was closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

E.°. Comp. J. D. Baines, Correspondent, submits an excellent paper of seventy-seven pages, in which the Capitular world is thoroughly discussed and its virtues commended, while its errors, mistakes and shortcomings are held up for the correction of unintentional ones and the wiping out of bad practice.

He is Grand Marshal of the Grand Chapter and as such Officer is vested with the necessary authority "to make crooked things straight." As California did not reach his working table we are without his opinion of our legislation.

M.°. E.°. Companion John W. DeVeber, Grand High Priest; M.°. E.°. Comp. D. K. Reed, Grand Secretary; E.°. Comp. J. D. Baines, Correspondent.

WISCONSIN.

Eighty-two Chapters.

9,069 Royal Arch Masons.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Wisconsin held its Fifty-ninth Annual Convocation in the Masonic Building, Milwaukee, February 16, 1909,—the M. E. Comp. David Harlowe, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. W. W. Perry, Grand Secretary. All the Grand Officers were present, with nineteen Past Grand High Priests and thirty-seven Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

A portrait of the Grand High Priest appears on the opening page.

The Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form, the Companions being led in their devotions by the Grand Chaplain.

After naming the committees, the Grand High Priest proceeded to deliver the annual address.

After a welcome greeting to all he took a retrospective view of Royal Arch Masonry. He said in part:

"While I notice many familiar faces who have long graced our sessions and whose names are household words even beyond the borders of Wisconsin, I regret to miss others who formerly aided us with their counsels, but who, having passed the earthly vails, are now seated in the Grand Council above. Though one drops by the wayside fatigued with the journey of life, another takes his place and the grand Masonic army continues its march along the pathway of the centuries, combating the legions of ignorance, falsehood and oppression."

He indulged in a severe criticism of the ritual and ceremonies of the Royal Arch degree, the good taste of which we question.

He reported his visitations, the issuance of a dispensation for the formation of a new one, and the Constitution of three new Chapters numbered respectively 80, 81, 82.

He reported the death roll of the Jurisdiction, with its 115 names of Companions inserted thereon, and paid affectionate fraternal tribute to their memories.

After reading the names of eminent Companions of Sister Jurisdictions, he said:

"Let us bow our heads in silence as a mark of respect to the memory of all of our departed Companions and as a token of homage to Him who called them hence, not questioning His divine wisdom or doubting His loving kindness in depriving us of their presence.

"Human ties when linked by the soul's affection cannot be severed without pain, and naught but time can heal the wounds of the afflicted heart or dissolve the pearly tears of sorrowful affection. At such times let us not forget to extend the friendly hand or speak the sympathetic word, for these messages of the soul are indelibly engraved upon the tablet of memory and cherished as loving mementoes of the kinship of men.

"There is no death! An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread,
He bears our best loved things away,
And then we call them—Dead.

* * * * *

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is Life—there are no dead."

"Good Night! beloved Companions, until we say 'Good Morning' in that better world."

We excerpt the following summary from the report of Grand Secretary Perry:

Total amount of dues for 1908.....	$4,289.50
Membership January 1st, 1909.....	9,048
Net gain for the year 1908.....	515
Exalted	734

Chapters reporting this Convocation.....	80

The Committee on Obituaries made a finished able report of ten pages, which we are unable, on account of space, to find room for, but little new business was developed during the session. The Standing Committees having reported on the routine business of the session, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on, Tellers were named and the following Companions were chosen: H. C. Dittmar, Grand High Priest; Walter A. West, Deputy Grand High Priest; E. L. Urquhart, Grand King; Robert B. Lang, Grand Scribe; David H. Wright, Grand Treasurer; Wm. W. Perry, Grand Secretary; A. B. Medberry, Trustee.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, M. E., Grand High Priest David Harlowe has administered the duties of his office with the approval of this Grand Chapter,

"Now therefore be it Resolved, In recognition of the same, that the Grand Secretary be authorized and ordered to procure a regulation Grand High Priest's Jewel, and that the same be presented to our worthy Companion at our next annual Convocation."

The Grand High Priest-elect having made his appointments, Companion Thos. Jefferson Pereles, Past Grand High Priest, assisted by Companion Frank C. Jackson, Past Grand High Priest, as Grand Marshal, installed the officers elected and appointed for the ensuing year.

All business having been disposed of, the Fifty-ninth Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons was closed in Ample Form at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, on February 17, 1909, after being led in our devotions by the Grand Chaplain.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

The Council of Anointed High Priests of Wisconsin held a Convocation in the Red Room of the Masonic Building, Milwaukee, February 15, 1909,—M.°. E.°. Comp. Samuel Wright, President. All the Officers and a number of E.°. Companions were present.

The Council was opened in Solemn Form.

The draft of a Constitution prepared was submitted, read and adopted.

Recorder E.°. Comp. Perry presented his financial report, which was approved.

The Council closed in Solemn Form.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Past Grand High Priest and Correspondent, Samuel Wright, presented the report on Correspondence, a paper of thirty-five pages, in which is reviewed the several Grand Bodies of the Capitular world. California is reviewed in fifteen lines in its rather interesting Convocation, its Fifty-fourth in 1908. Most truly we have here "much in little."

WYOMING.

Organization of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

The Representatives of the several Chapters of Royal Arch Masons of the State of Wyoming convened at Masonic Hall, Rawlins, Wyo., Tuesday, April 6, at 12 m., and were called to order by Comp. Birney H. Sage, High Priest of Wyoming Chapter No. 1, who read the following circular letter from Comp. Joseph E. Dyas, General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America.

Office of General Grand High Priest,
Paris, Illinois, February 25, 1909.

To All to Whom these Presents may Come, especially the High Priest, King and Scribe of each of the Royal Arch Chapters in the State of Wyoming, subordinate to the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America—Fraternal Greeting:

WHEREAS: It having come to my knowledge, from trustworthy sources, that the Royal Arch Masohs of the State of Wyomnig are desirous of forming a Grand Royal Arch Chapter in and for that State, and believing from ascertained conditions prevailling therein, that the interests of the Royal Craft, and of the individual Chapters in the State of Wyoming will be best observed and promoted by the establishment of such a Grand Chapter, I do by these presents, and pursuant to Section 23 of the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter, grant my approbation to the forming of such Grand Chapter, and I do hereby authorize the lawful Representatives of the several Chapters in that State, or their duly appointed proxies, to assemble in Convention at Rawlins, Wyoming, on April 6, 1909, at 12 m., for the purpose of forming and establishing a Grand Royal Arch Chapter in and for the State of Wyoming, with power to adjourn from time to time until the purpose of said Convention shall be effectuated.

Fraternally yours,

JOSEPH E. DYAS,
General Grand High Priest.

Companion Birney H. Sage was chosen President of the Convention and Companion Adrian J. Parshall, Secretary.

The following Chapters were represented: Capitol Chapter No. 8 of Casper, and Evanston Chapter No. 27 not being represented.

The following preamble and resolutions were presented by Companion A. J. Parshall, and upon motion, duly seconded, were adopted by a unanimous vote:

"WHEREAS, There are at this time located within the State of Wyoming ten Chapters of Royal Arch Masons, eight of which are chartered and two under dispensation, all working under and owing allegiance to the General Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the United States, and

"WHEREAS, These several Chapters after due consideration and a full expression of the wishes of the membership thereof, have with one exception declared their desire for the formation of a Grand Royal Arch Chapter for the State, and have so instructed their representatives, and

"WHEREAS, In the opinion of the Representatives of the Royal Arch Chapters of the State of Wyoming, in Convention duly assembled, the interests of said Chapters respectively, and those of the Royal Craft collectively, require and demand the formation of a Grand Royal Arch Chapter in and for the said State, and

WHEREAS, Companion Joseph E. Dyas, the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, has, pursuant to law, given his approval to the formation of such Grand Chapter; therefore be it

"Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to draft and present to this Convention, for its consideration, a form of Constitution for the government of a Royal Arch Chapter in and for the State of Wyoming, and that when such Constitution shall be adopted, Grand Officers elected and installed, pursuant to its provisions, the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State of Wyoming shall be duly formed and established, subject to the jurisdiction of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America."

On motion, Companions Adrian J. Parshall, Otto Gramm and Jacob F. Hoop were appointed to draft and present to this Convention, for its consideration, a form of Constitution and By-Laws for the government of a Grand Royal Arch Chapter in and for the State of Wyoming, with instructions to report at its earliest possible convenience. After due consideration the committee submitted a report which, when amended to the satisfaction of the Convention, was adopted.

The committee adjourned to 7:30 o'clock p. m..

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment and elected the following Officers: Adrian J. Parshall, Grand High Priest; Jesse Converse, Deputy Grand High Priest; Nathan R. Greenfield, Grand King; Robert H. Lawrence, Grand Scribe; Jacob F. Hoop, Grand Treasurer; Birney H. Sage, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Council made the appointments and all were installed by authority of the following telegram:

MR. SAMUEL CORSON,

P. H. P., Wyoming Chapter, No. 1.

Dear Sir and Companion:

I hereby appoint you as my proxy to constitute the Grand Chapter of Wyoming, and install its Officers.

Yours fraternally,

(Signed) JOSEPH E. DYAS,
General Grand High Priest.

Companion Birney H. Sage, M. E. High Priest of Wyoming Chapter, No. 1, announced that his Chapter had authorized him to say to the Grand Chapter, when formed, that inasmuch as the Grand Body would probably be without funds until annual dues were payable, that it, Wyoming Chapter No. 1, would take pleasure in advancing such sums as might be needed in the payment of necessary running expenses for the current year.

On motion of Companion W. W. Daley, the tender was accepted with thanks by the Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest named the Standing Committees and the Grand Royal Arch Chapter was closed in Ample Form.

FIRST ANNUAL CONVOCATION.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Wyoming held its First Annual Convocation in Masonic Hall, Cheyenne, July 9th, 1909. The M. E. Comp. Adrian J. Parshall, Grand High Priest; the R. E. Comp. Birney H. Sage, Grand Secretary.

The Grand Chapter was called to order by the Grand High Priest, a Committee on Credentials appointed, who reported a constitutional number of Chapters represented. The Grand High Priest addressed the Convocation on matters of interest without the formality of an annual address.

On motion of Companion Converse, it was ordered that "as the attendance of the Convocation was necessarily small, and the various suggestions of the Grand High Priest could probably be best handled by the Grand Chapter while acting as a 'Committee of the Whole,' that the report of the Grand High Priest be approved and a recess be taken for the consideration of the subject matter presented."

After a full discussion of questions by the members, the Grand Chapter was called to order and the following resolutions were presented and on motion adopted:

Charters were granted Natural Bridge Chapter No. 9 and Darius Chapter No. 10.

After the transaction of the routine business, the election of Officers for the ensuing year was called on, when the following Companions were chosen: Birney H. Sage, Grand High Priest; Jesse Converse, Deputy Grand High Priest; Nathan R. Greenfield, Grand King; Robert H. Lawrence, Grand Scribe; Jacob F. Hoop, Grand Treasurer; Adrian J. Parshall, Grand Secretary.

Appointments were made by the Grand Council, all were installed by Grand High Priest Adrian J. Parshall.

The Grand Chapter then closed in Ample Form, to meet again at Green River, April 10, 1910.

M. E. Comp. Birney H. Sage, Grand High Priest; R. E. Comp. Adrian J. Parshall, Grand Secretary and Correspondent.

CONCLUSION.

We intended to write a conclusion to this report, but the length of this paper has caused us to change our plan in that particular part of the work, and with good wishes to our co-Compatriots and readers we submit the paper with all its imperfections.

WILLIAM A. DAVIES,
Chairman,
